

Harry and Ginny Potter apparated onto a coarse field of green grass. Instantly Ginny moved over to her hulk of a husband and pressed her busty body against his frame to fight the chill that came upon her. She forgot how cold it could be so close to sea. The young wizard couple had arrived near enough to their target but they still had a little bit of walk to go.

Harry grinned seeing the black colored house once again. It brought up memories of the first time that he had journeyed to the house. She did a great job putting it back together Harry thought as Ginny held close to him and continued walking with her husband up to the place.

"I'm glad you guys escaped when the Death Eaters came. That place looks like it is a death trap." Ginny said as they got closer to the entrance. Harry grinned at his wife as they made their way up to the entrance. Following the zigzagged path brought them up to blocky stone stairs that were much greener than the dark foreboding stones making up the rest of the house.

"We got lucky. Luna's dad probably never figured on them destroying his home. Luna has done a great rebuilding everything with her father away."

"I just hope she has a nice bed. She is going to need all the cushioning she can get if she decides to accept." Ginny said with her sweet innocent voice before she knocked on the door.

"Ginny!" Luna called out after opening up the door even before Ginny's hand could knock on the door a second time.

The young couple was ushered in by the lovely odd little blonde with dreaminess in her eyes, same as always. Harry's green eyes looked over Luna's sweet soft curves that accentuated her hips and her breasts. Luna's skin was covered by a fluffy lavender sweater and white and black striped pants that hugged her legs that and made them looked ideally suited for hugging someone's form.

Luna served Ginny and Harry some nice tea and mostly caught up with each other about recent events and adventures. Harry and Ginny gave Luna a relatively clean version of the events of their honeymoon and Luna talked to them about her work helping to expand the Quibbler during the aftermath of Voldermort's war on the Wizarding World. As Harry and Luna were enjoying their cups Ginny slid up close to Luna and smiled at her friend. Luna smiled back easily with the innocent look that characterized the former Ravenclaw student, an airy dreamy look that contained traces of sadness.

"What is it Ginny? You look like you have something on your mind." Luna Lovegood said as she turned to have her body closer to that of her friend's.

"Now that things are kind of back to normal I've been making sure to enjoy as much of life as possible. I figured that its up to me to make sure other people get to enjoy similar things. So... Luna. I was wondering if you ever imagined having Harry fuck you stupid?" Ginny's last sentence was declared with a soft simple efficiency, like it was said in the same tone as if she had just asked Luna for some crumpets or biscuits to go with the tea.

Harry waited and Luna simply blinked her big blue eyes looked at Ginny. Her expression; framed by thick curly blonde locks, never changed in those first few moments as no one seemed to breath. It was the first time that she had ever been truly struck speechless. But Ginny didn't take her silence as an invitation to back down, that wouldn't have been in the spirit of her House at Hogwarts.

So, while Luna's blue eyes simply went back and forth looking at Ginny and Harry, Ginny let out a small sigh and grabbed a hold of Luna's hands. Then she took her friend's hand and brought it down in between her husband's legs so that Luna could feel the tightness naturally occurring in his slacks.

"Ohhh... well... Harry that is certainly... large.. and strong..." Luna whispered out softly. Her attention now appeared wholly focused on Harry's cock inside of his pants. "It's... it's magical. I ... I think its thicker than a crumpled-horned snorkack's horn!" Luna said softly as she looked at Ginny with an expression of wonderment and surprise. Standing up Luna moved over to Harry and then slowly fell to her knees in front of his spot on the couch.

Harry smiled and winked over to his wife who had already started removing her top. Luna didn't notice Ginny getting undressed as she was simply too focused on the enormous beast that was nestled just beneath the material of Harry's slacks. "I never knew they could get this large. No wonder you had many girls trying to sneak into the boy's dormitory back in school Harry."

By this point Ginny had popped off her top to reveal her nice lean bust before she started to kiss Harry while showing off her lovely breasts to Luna. Luna's eyes only momentarily moved away from observing Harry's huge covered up cock. The lovely girl's soft blue eyes focused in on Ginny's pink nipples but quickly after, looked back down and turned her focus back to Harry's erection.

Ginny chuckled and kissed her husband even more while stroking his neck and throat before she giggled and looked down at Luna. "Luna you can check it out. Neither of us will bite." Ginny said before she helped to undo a couple of buttons on Harry's pants. With that done, some invisible border broke inside Luna. She seemed to get more excited and more adventurous. The lovely curvy blonde started to open up more buttons and then tugged down Harry's pants and undershorts. With his pants removed Luna smiled as she saw his still slightly sleepy cock resting against the inside of his left leg.

Luna licked her lips hungrily and was about to lean forward to start touching Harry's cock with her fingers and mouth when Ginny rest a hand on Luna's breasts. When Luna pulled back Ginny clucked her tongue in her mouth and then smiled at her friend. Movingly slowly Ginny leaned in and kissed Luna right on her pretty pink lips. Luna's heart raced as the magical sensation coursed through her veins. It was amazing feel her friend from school plastering her lips against Luna even as her body hovered just over Harry's long slowly hardening cock. Luna had never experienced anything like it but she knew she wanted it very... very badly.

Ginny finally pulled back her lips from Luna's. Blue eyes looked directly into steadfast hazel ones before Ginny finally spoke up. "Harry and I are partly naked Luna. You shouldn't be so rude... I want to see more of you while you enjoy trying out my husband's big long cock." Ginny declared before she started to help Luna take off her fluffy sweater to release the puppies hidden beneath.

The young blonde woman offered up no resistance to her friend's advances. Harry slowly rubbed his hand along his length and watched as his lovely redhead wife helped the shy blonde pull Luna's sweater up over her head. Once the sweater was clear Ginny immediately started to lick and nibble on Luan's breasts even though they were still slightly covered up by a soft blue top.

"Nwaaaahh... Yesss... Mrmaa..." Luna cried out before Harry gently grabbed Luna's hand and took it over to his fully awoken cock. She instantly felt a sensation of hard warmth in her hands and she started to stroke and play with Harry's big hard cock while Ginny licked and bit down over the soft pillowy flesh of her big soft tits.

"Ginny your tongue feels amazing on my breasts. It is like a Quogibliz is whistling over my skin." Luna said before hearing the small 'click' coming from her bra. Ginny smiled at her friend and pulled back from her breasts with an animal growl. The busty redhead's hands pulled back and tugged off Luan's blue bra so that now both young women were completely topless in front of Harry Potter.

Both girls had about the same sized breasts. The main difference was that Ginny's breasts looked tight and lean Luna's definitely had a softer more curvaceous appeal in Harry's mind. It mattered little to him as Luna continued stroking his cock while he leaned forward and licked and nibbled all over both girls' breasts and nipples.

"Mrrrah... You take such good care of me Harry..." Ginny moaned out as she leaned over and nibbled and licked on Luna's ears.

Luna herself was trembling and feeling new waves of shivers throughout her body. As Harry nibbled and tugged on her pink nipples with his teeth she never stopped tugging and playing with his long hard cock. With her fingers rubbing all over his warm solid mean she felt his cock starting to throb. The feeling of his cock throbbing in her fingers made her similarly aroused. Luna could feel her own sex started to erupt with flush wetness that seeped into the material of her blue panties underneath her tight soft pants. Ginny must have sensed Luna's horniness because quickly Ginny smiled at Harry but nudged him back slightly from where he was sucking on Luna's pliant full breasts.

After that Ginny helped Luna onto the couch and quickly removed Luna's shoes and socks before starting to work on removing her pants. The whole-time Ginny leaned her ass out. Her breasts were on display to Luna while her back was bare to her husband. Harry moved up from the couch and started pulling down Ginny's green dress and white panties so that her own sex was exposed even as she was working on pulling down Ginny's pants and panties.

When Ginny had Luna completely naked Ginny smiled at her work and placed her fingers at Luna's sex. The blonde's pretty pink lips were already swollen and slightly wet from her own juices. Ginny smiled seeing the wild tuft of blonde curls that Luna had above her pussy even as the redhead placed her fingers right against Luan's clitoris.

"Ginnyawaahh..." Luna cried out as Ginny started to toy with her most sensitive point. The redhead moved her body even closer to Luna's so that their nipples brushed against each other as Ginny's rack swayed over and against Luna's tits. Meanwhile Ginny's last remaining clothes were anchored in a pile around her feet and Harry had pulled off his shirt and was now rubbing his hard lean cock in and out against the bottom curve of his wife's own wet horny lips. Harry wasn't about to push inside of her just yet since Ginny had wanted him to remain quite focused on Luna's needs, but it was getting harder and harder for him to resist pushing his big hard cock directly into his wife's luscious cunny.

Ginny, perhaps feeling her husband's diminishing ability to resist plugging up her pussy with his long thick cock, decided to give way so that her muscle bound Adonis of a husband could fuck the crap out of Luna. Moving aside, Ginny rose up on her tippy toes and kissed her husband while stroking his bit throbbing cock. She was pleased to feel her own juices already coating Harry's rod before she played her fingers over and around his crown and then directed him over to Luna. The blonde with nice large breasts and fluffy pink nipples was currently waiting on the couch with her legs spread wide to receive Harry's cock.

Luna's horny eagerness was written out in her eyes and the way that her juices still leaked out of her pink young pussy as Harry moved his body over hers. The soft featured blonde didn't ask for any mercy or gentleness and simply locked her legs behind Harry's own legs as he started to rub his massive cockhead all over her trembling pink lips.

"You're going to love this Luna." Ginny said as she stroked her husband's back and kissed his shoulder as he watched the first few inches of Harry's cock trying to push inside of Luna's tight cunt lips.

After a bit more shifting Luna's entire body slackened as Harry's cock pushed inside of her silken lips. "Mraawaaahh... Awaahhh... it's is so thick!!!" Luna cried out feeling Harry's cock inside of her for the first time. While Luna was no virgin she definitely was tight like one. Harry figured she had not had a lot of partners at all. Harry grinned thinking of how he was going to put them all to shame while he forced more of his thick long cock deep inside of the soft big breasted blonde.

Soon enough his rigid muscles were pressing in against the soft cushiony flesh of Luna's body and breasts. Even then Harry's enormous prick was only half inside of Luna's pussy. Ginny moved in close as she was able and spat on her husband's cock and played with his balls to help him give out even more precum inside of Ginny. The addition of internal and external lubrication helped more of his powerful baby maker slide deep within Luna's tight unyielding sex.

Suddenly Luna's arms and legs shivered and locked up all over Harry's body as his bone sunk as far as it could go inside of Luna's cunt. "Ohwaah.. fuck... you're right up against my.. wall..." Luna screamed out before Harry started to really thrust and hammer his cock inside of her. Her breasts started bouncing heavily with each stroke as Harry slammed his body up against Luna's form.

After giving Luna enough time to get used to his cock Harry decided he wanted to attack her pussy from a new position. Harry pulled out his big cock from Luan's already well-fucked pussy and then grabbed a hold of the nice pretty blonde girl. After that he laid down on the couch and had Luna's body moved in front of his own. Luna simply nodded and cooed as Harry spread open her legs and then started to wedge his cock back inside of Luna's soft wet pussy lips. Luna cried out and her entire body shivered once again as Harry's entire length speared deep inside of her pussy once again. As Luna felt the head of Harry's cock driving once more against her cervical wall she turned to see Ginny standing at the arm of the couch with expectant looking eyes at Luna. The blonde gave her an innocent and dreamy smile before she started to kiss and lick at Ginny's pussy while the redhead rubbed and played with her bountiful breasts. While Luna feasted on Ginny's pussy and Ginny played with her breasts, Harry started to fuck Luna once again with his behemoth of a cock.

Luna was unable to cope with the extremes of pleasure coursing through her body as she was fucked from behind. She loved tasting and licking away at her longtime friend's pussy even as Ginny's husband squeezed her breasts and continued sending his cock as deep inside of her sex as possible.

"Nwaaah.... Fuwaaahh.... Mrrraahh... harrder... deeper.. I want to feel my body changing around your cock Harry... please... fuck me... fuck me harder... I feel so good inside!!! Nwaaahhh..." Luna screamed out and her breasts and legs bounced rapidly as Harry continued slamming all of his length deep inside of the amazing blonde.

With only a few more strokes of his massive cock Harry started sending Luna over her limit. She screamed and moaned out even as her mouth remained pressed up against Ginny's pussy. Ginny smiled and moaned wantonly as she watched her friend starting to cum hard on Harry's cock. It made Ginny reminisce on the first time that Harry had made her cum when she slipped in beneath his covers with her brother close at hand. The thought made her pussy weep even as she continued enjoying the sight of Luna's mind detonating with the massive explosion of pleasure as Harry's cock jammed its way deep inside of her friend's pussy.

As Luna lost all control of her mental capacity Ginny moved away from her friend's head and leaned down to kiss her husband's lips as he started cumming deep inside of the withering and spasming blonde.

Luna was already screaming and moaning when she felt a sudden warm splash of cum being burst out from Harry's cock deep inside of her body. Her fingers tightened and pinched on her nipples as her entire body shivered against Harry's warm hard flesh. Every other beat she let out another sigh of euphoric pleasure as his load of thick virile cum was reinforced again and again by additional blasts. Luna could swear it felt like an eternity filled with nothing but blast after blast of warm white seed coupled with her own inherent pleasure, before she was finally able to move her fingers of her own accord.

Moving slowly, she extricated herself from Harry's cock and turned around. The sweat covered blonde completely ignored the river of cum that started dripping out of her abused pussy and simply turned around to start licking up the excess cum and juices still on Harry's cock. Ginny giggled and smiled as she saw her friend feasting on her husband's cock. Satisfied it was time to move the plan forward Ginny gathered up her clothes and then kissed both her husband and Luna once more before heading out of the house. "Don't worry you two. I'll be back." Ginny said before she headed outside.

Ginny was walking out along the path to leave the Lovegood residence when she heard a new chorus of moans. She had heard enough sexual cries from Luna to know she was screaming with joy again and as she looked up at the top of open roof she noticed that Harry was bow pushing Luna's body half off the roof. Luna's moans were a bit harder and rougher in nature than before and Ginny had to smile figuring that Luna had offered up her other hole for Harry to play with while her pussy recovered from his earlier reaming.

Satisfied that her husband's in good hands with the cock stupefied Luna Ginny decided to start the next stage of her plans. As Harry sunk inch after inch of his big long cock inside of Luna's tight white asshole, Ginny apparated away from the Lovegood home back to her own home.

Ginny arrived back at the Burrow in an instant of magical teleportation. When she come in she smiled hearing the voices of the people she had hoped would still be around. Instead of taking time to talk to the people in the kitchen, Ginny moved up to her bedroom and located the folder that she had placed there yesterday just for this occasion. After acquiring the folder, she smiled and almost giggled aloud as she went downstairs to greet the people inside of her house.

Inside of the kitchen of the Burrow Ginny Potter found Hermione, Fleur and Angelina having tea and talking. Ginny greeted them casually enough before sitting down amongst the beautiful women and opening up her folder to show them what she shad to share.
