

Everybody! Welcome Michelle...our current contest champion with over $20 thousand dollars in winnings. She is giving it another shot tonight...will she cum tonight?

Mike had been scamming the strip club for months...they had a promotion where if you could dance erotically in their sexdoll suit for a full hour without having an orgasm, then you got $500. If you did have an orgasm, it fused to your body and you were forced to work a month per orgasm.

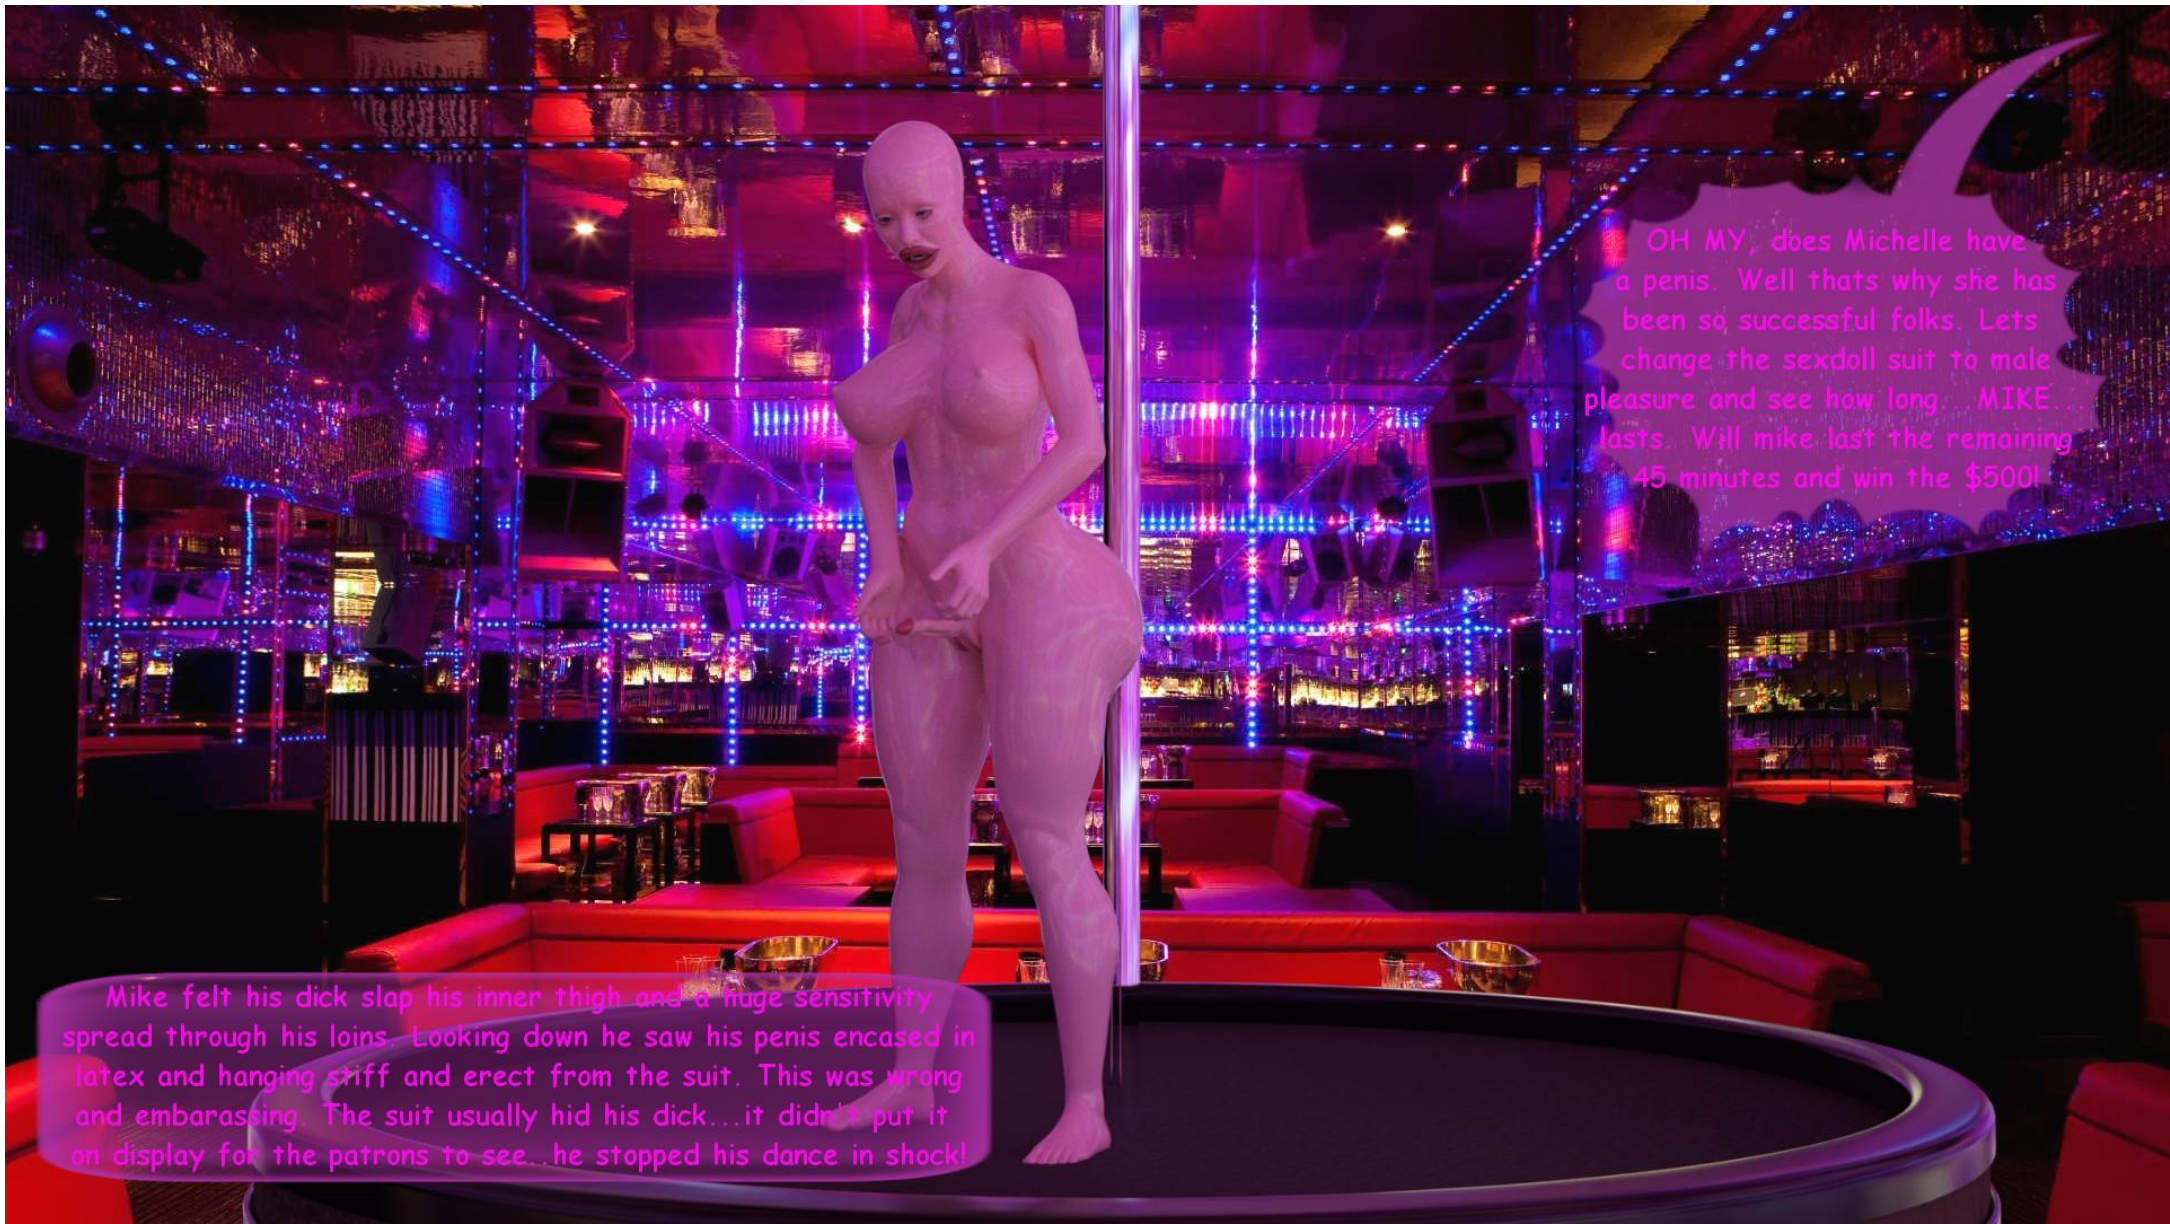

Michelle is starting out with a fantastic dance... the more she dances the closer to an orgasm she approaches... the suit is stimulating her clit as we speak... giving her inhuman amounts of pleasure! Will she win the $500!

Mike had figured out that the suit was gender-specific. So, if he wore the female suit... it couldn't give him an orgasm at all and he just danced around for an hour and collected the money. He had to crossdress to fool them but once he was in the suit no-one could tell... it was easy money. He started his gig!

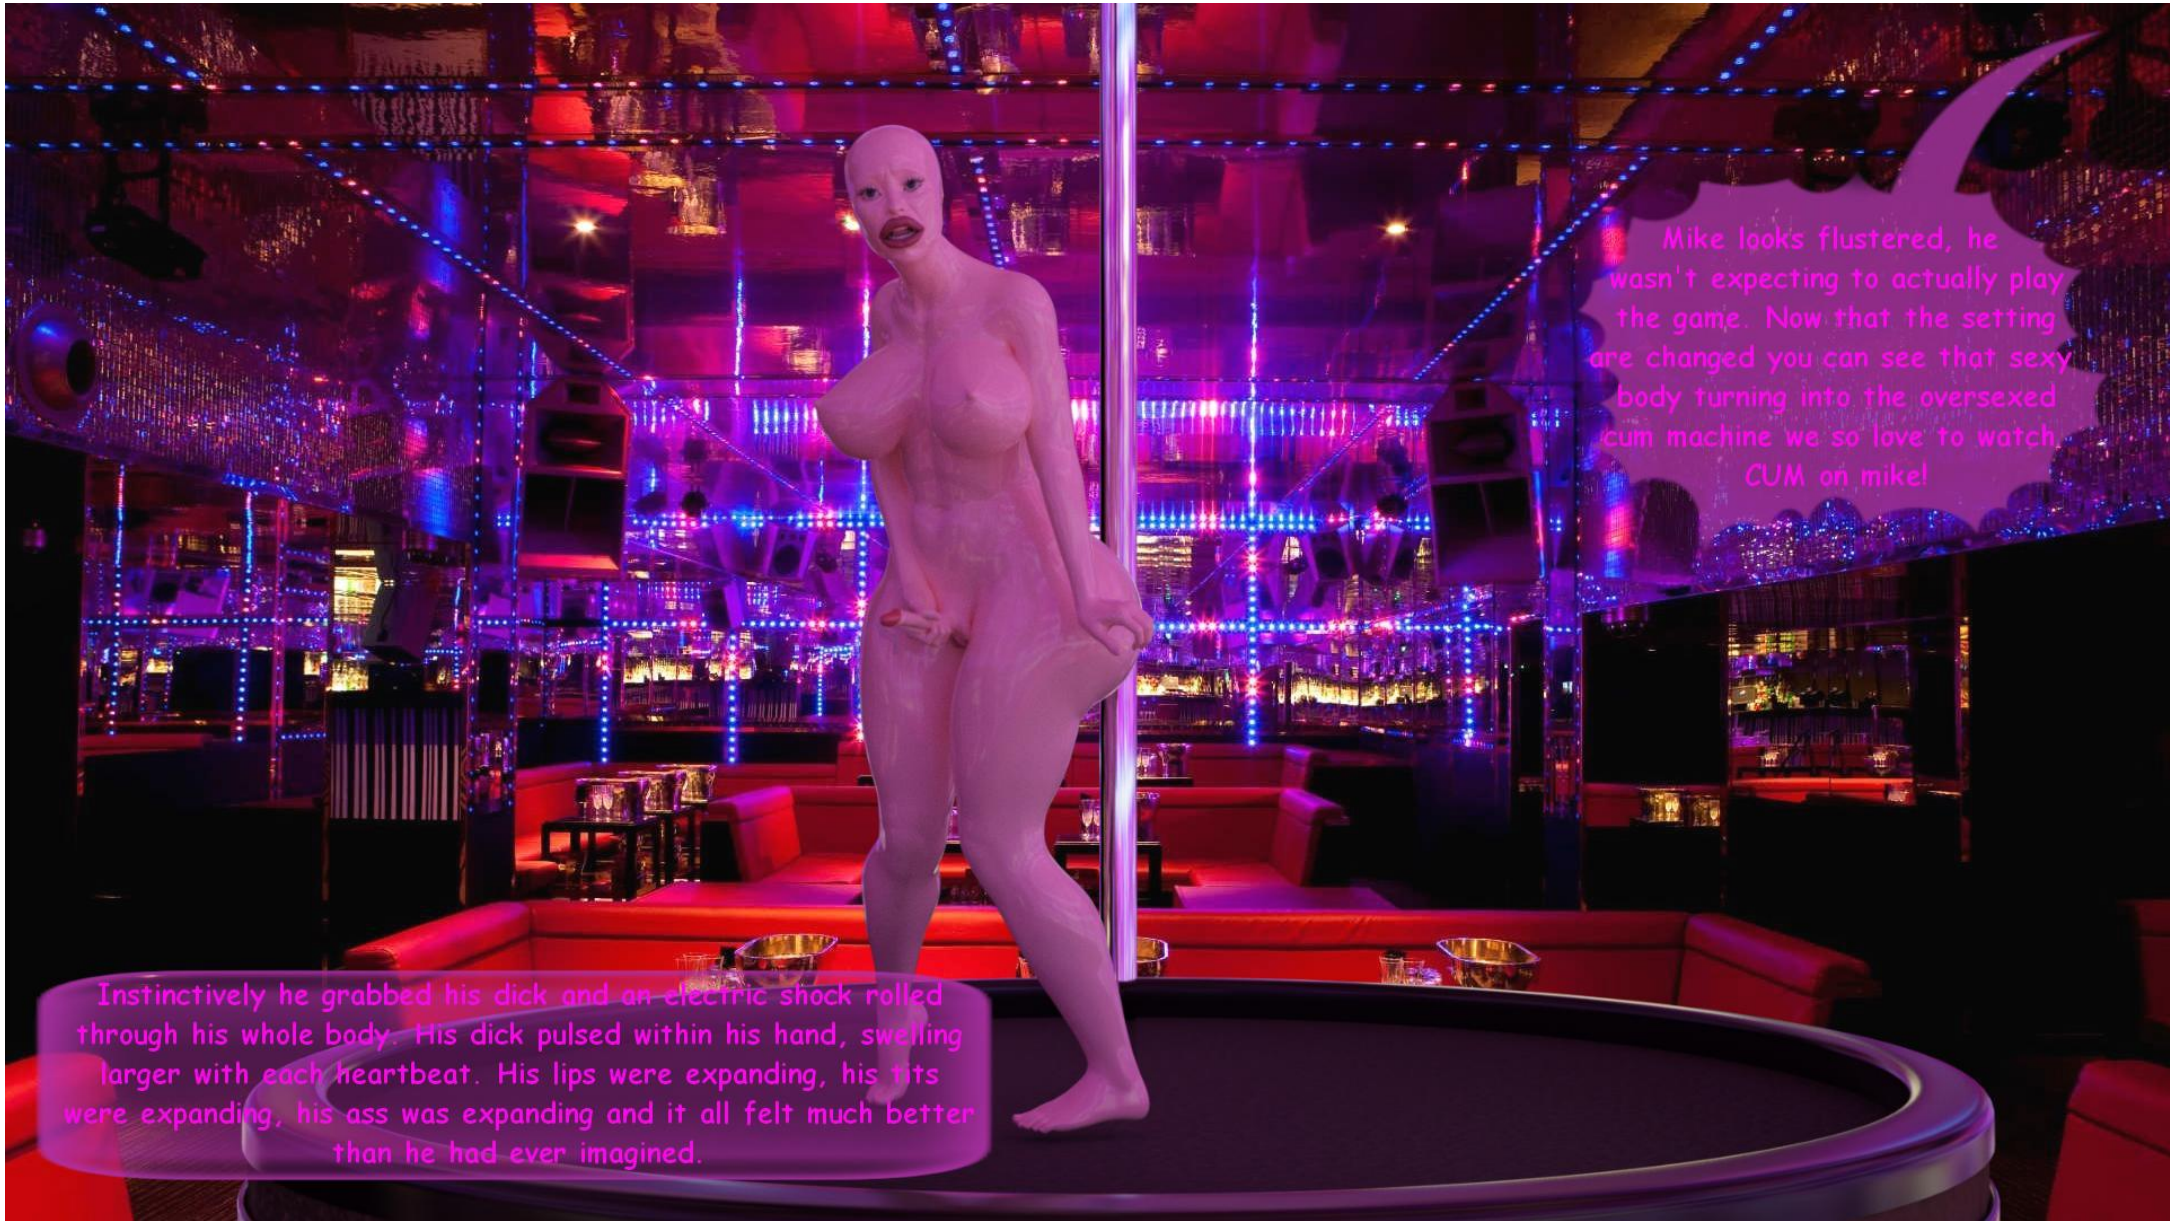

Look at her go... not even a sign that the doll suit is driving her to orgasm and almost ten minutes in. It would be a shame if she broke her streak now after all the money she has one off this contest!

Mike had been dancing for about ten minutes when the suit started to feel tighter than it usually did. He felt his dick getting hard and had to compose himself. At least it was a natural hard on and not manipulated by the sexdoll suit... these things were designed to be impossible to deny and fully customizable.

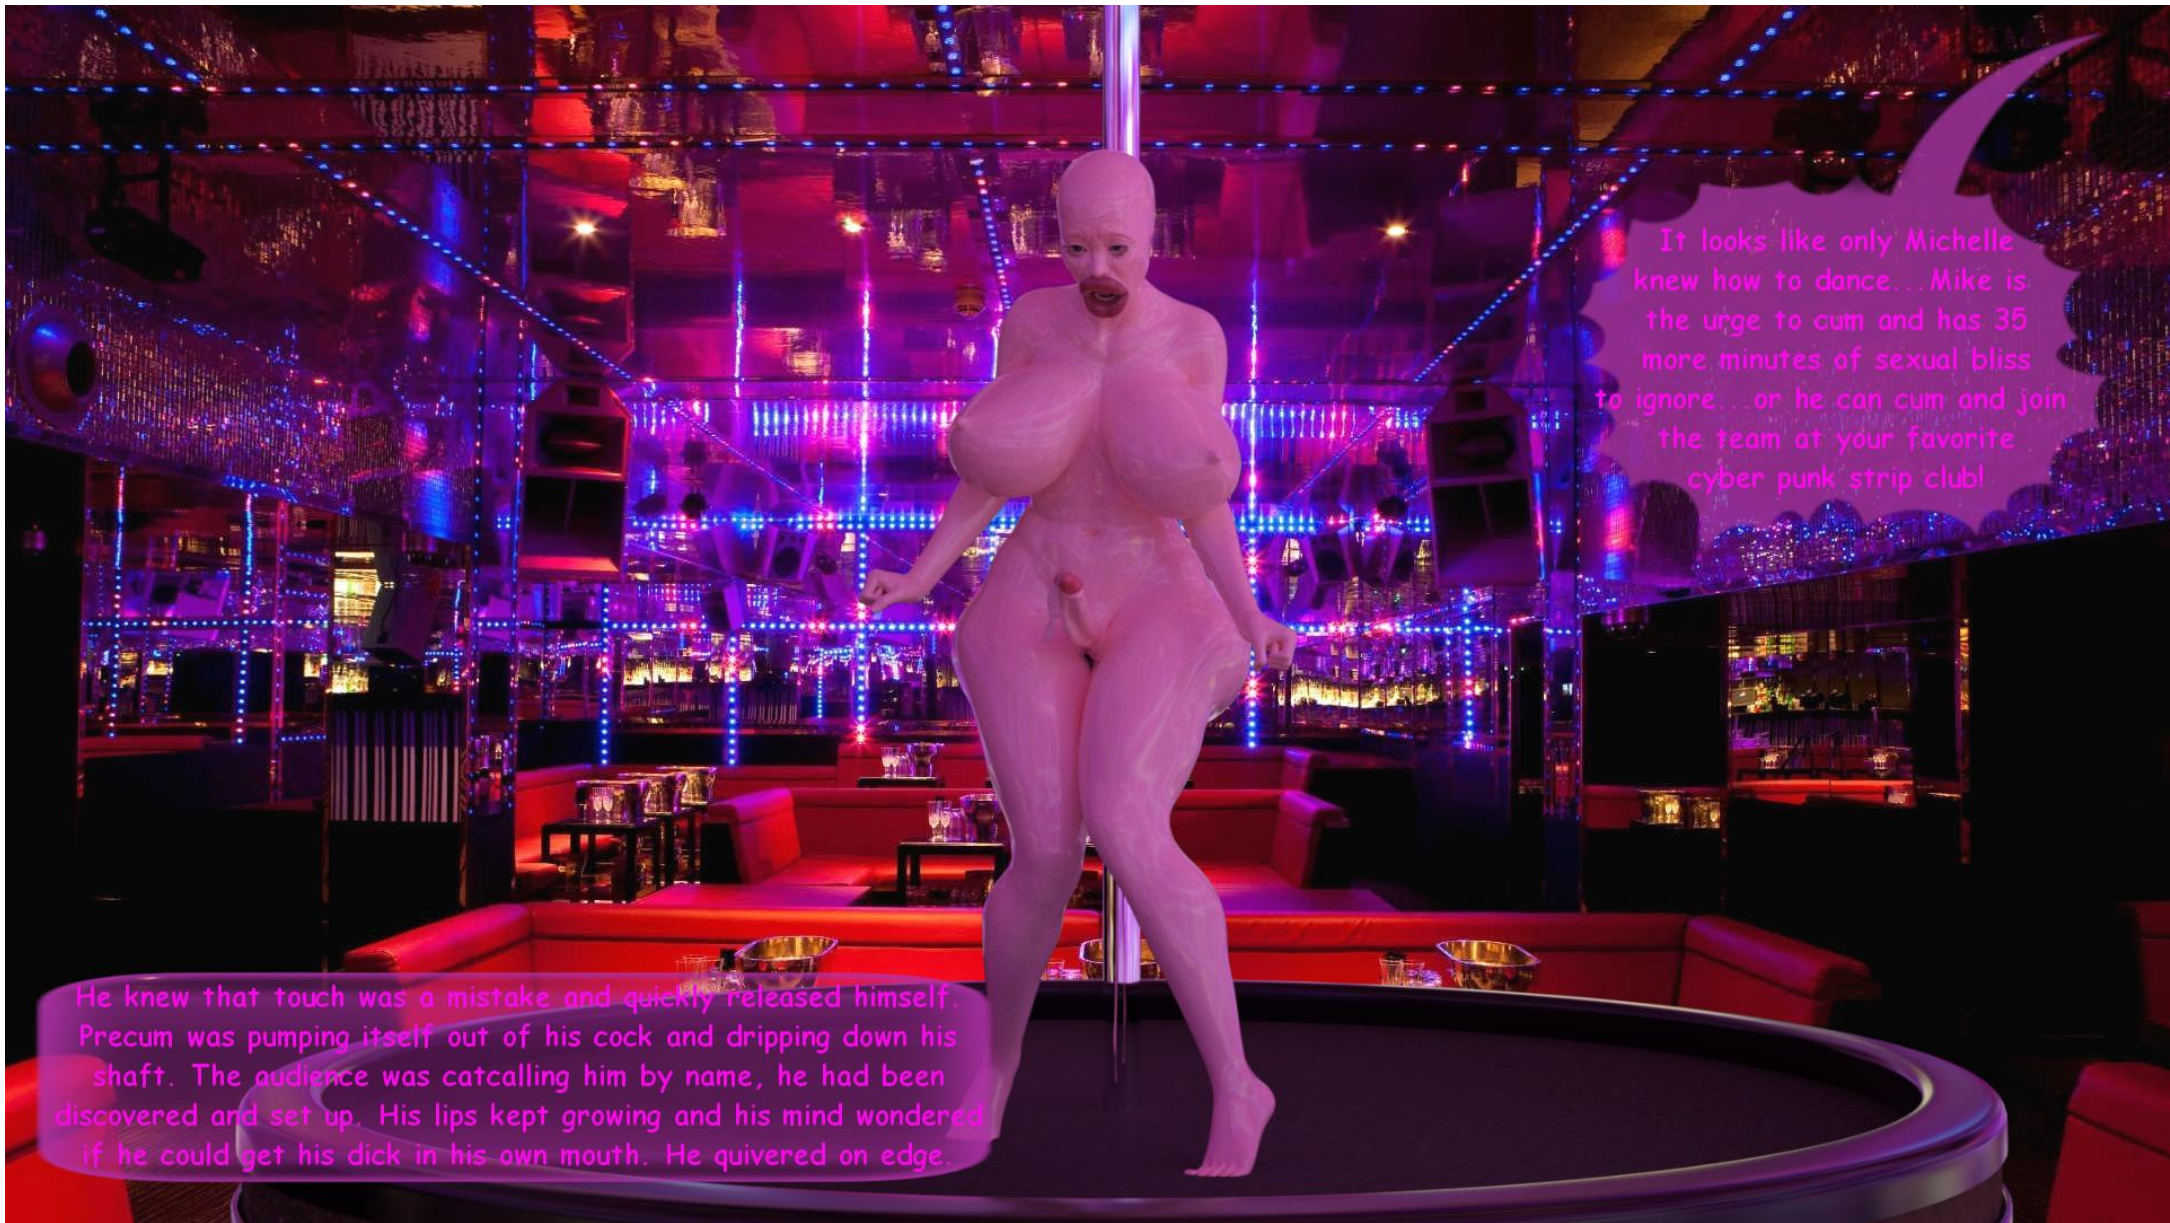

Mike felt his dick slap his inner thigh and a huge sensitivity spread through his loins. Looking down he saw his penis encased in latex and hanging stiff and erect from the suit. This was wrong and embarrassing. The suit usually hid his dick...it didn't put it on display for the patrons to see. he stopped his dance in shock!

OH MY, does Michelle have a penis. Well thats why she has been so successful folks. Lets change the sexdoll suit to male pleasure and see how long MIKE lasts. Will mike last the remaining 45 minutes and win the $500!

Instinctively he grabbed his dick and an electric shock rolled through his whole body. His dick pulsed within his hand, swelling larger with each heartbeat. His lips were expanding, his tits were expanding, his ass was expanding and it all felt much better than he had ever imagined.

Mike looks flustered, he wasn't expecting to actually play the game. Now that the setting are changed you can see that sexy body turning into the oversexed cum machine we so love to watch.
CUM on mikel

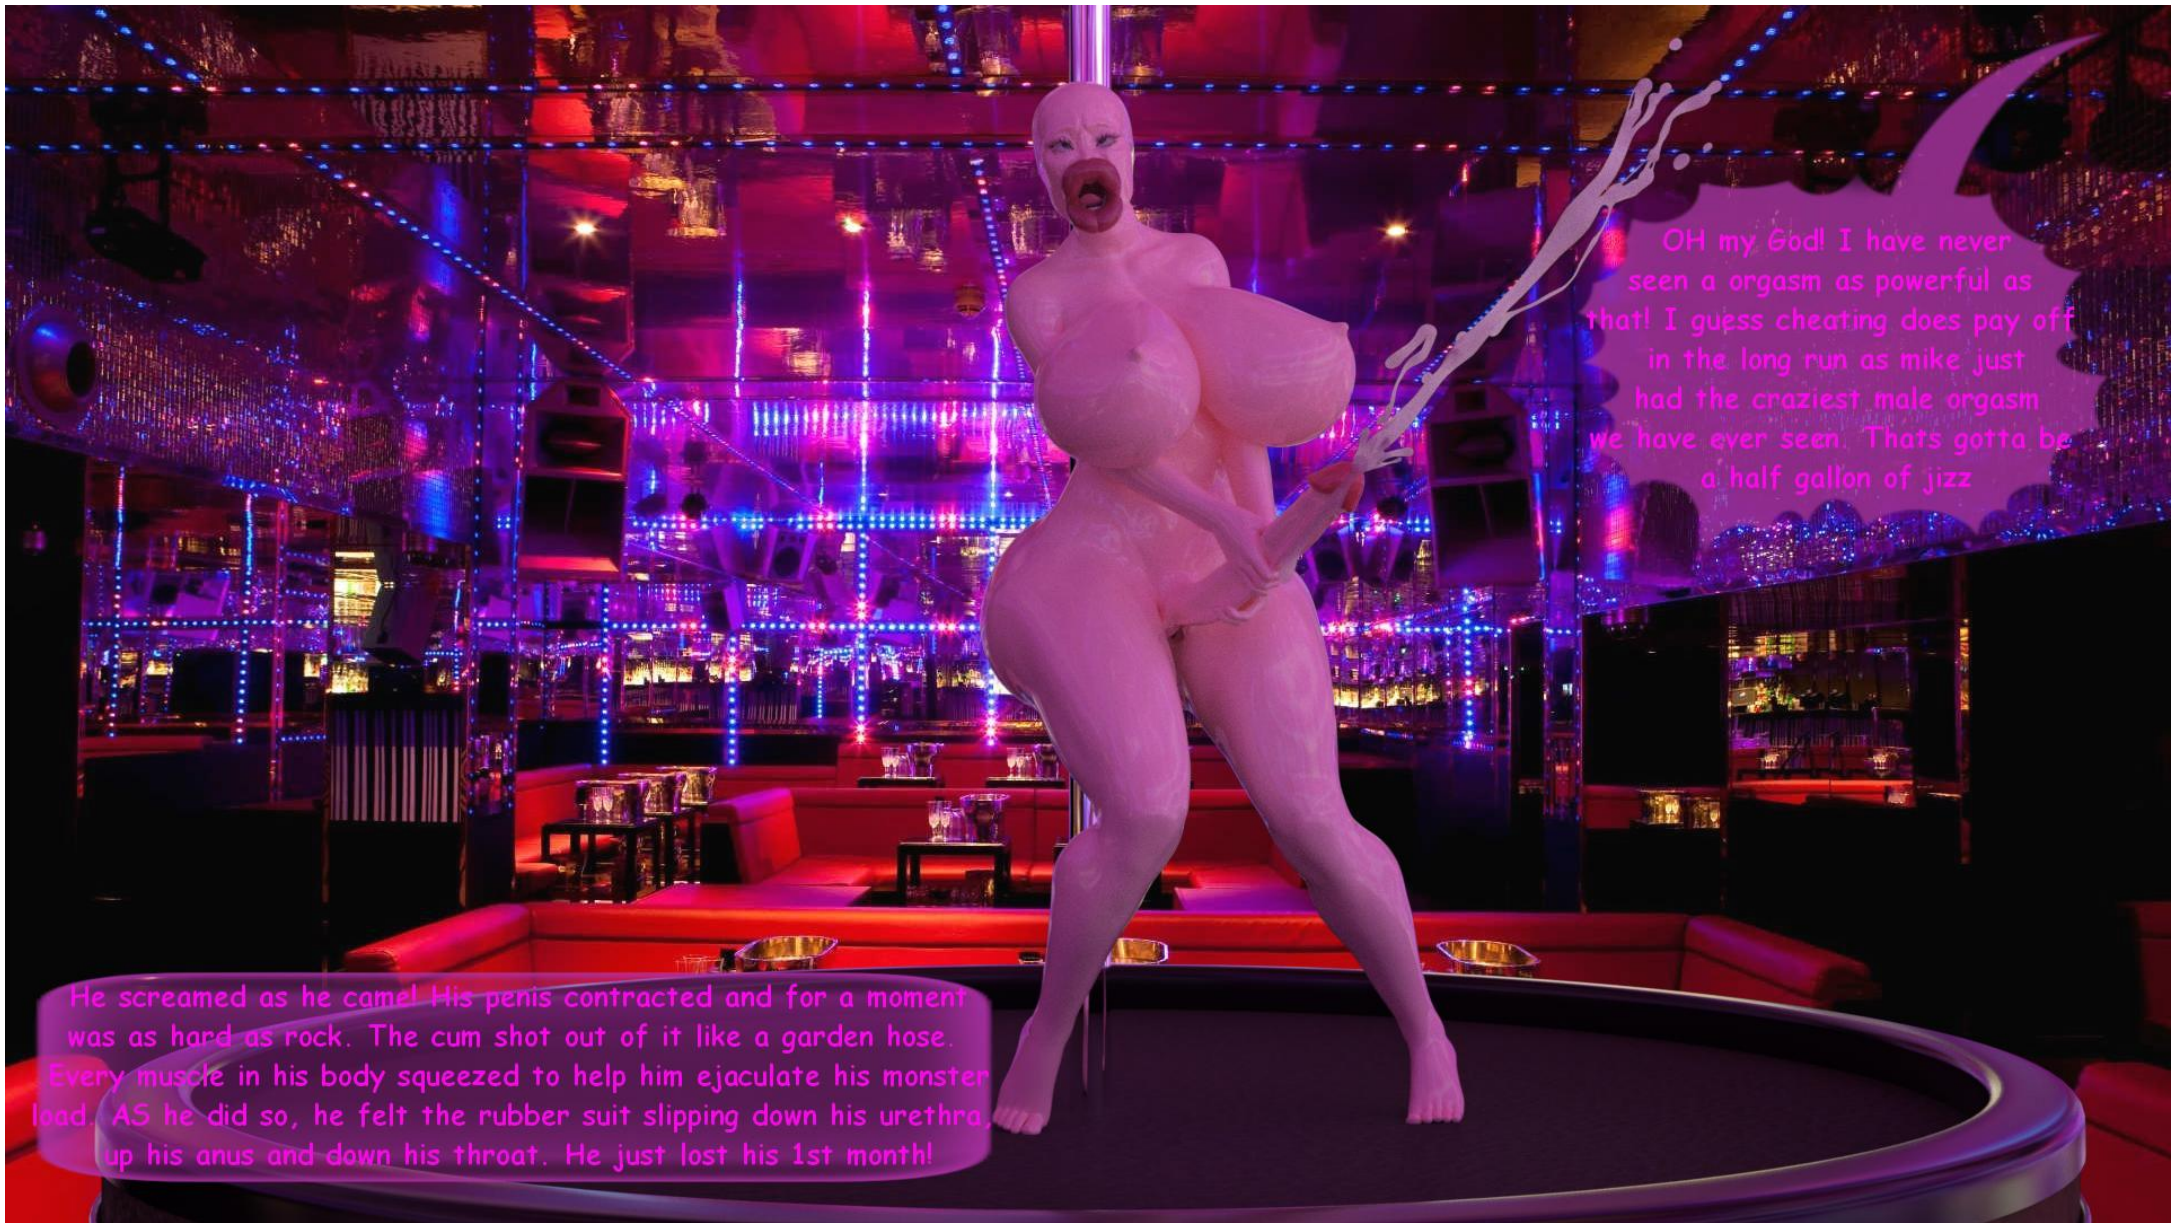

It looks like only Michelle knew how to dance... Mike is the urge to cum and has 35 more minutes of sexual bliss to ignore... or he can cum and join the team at your favorite cyber punk strip club!

He knew that touch was a mistake and quickly released himself. Precum was pumping itself out of his cock and dripping down his shaft. The audience was catcalling him by name, he had been discovered and set up. His lips kept growing and his mind wondered if he could get his dick in his own mouth. He quivered on edge.

Look at the size of that hard-on I can see it throbbing from the DJ booth. Oh my, and those moans... Mike might be a guy but when he is a sexdoll he moans like a whore! A month stuck as a doll per orgasm.

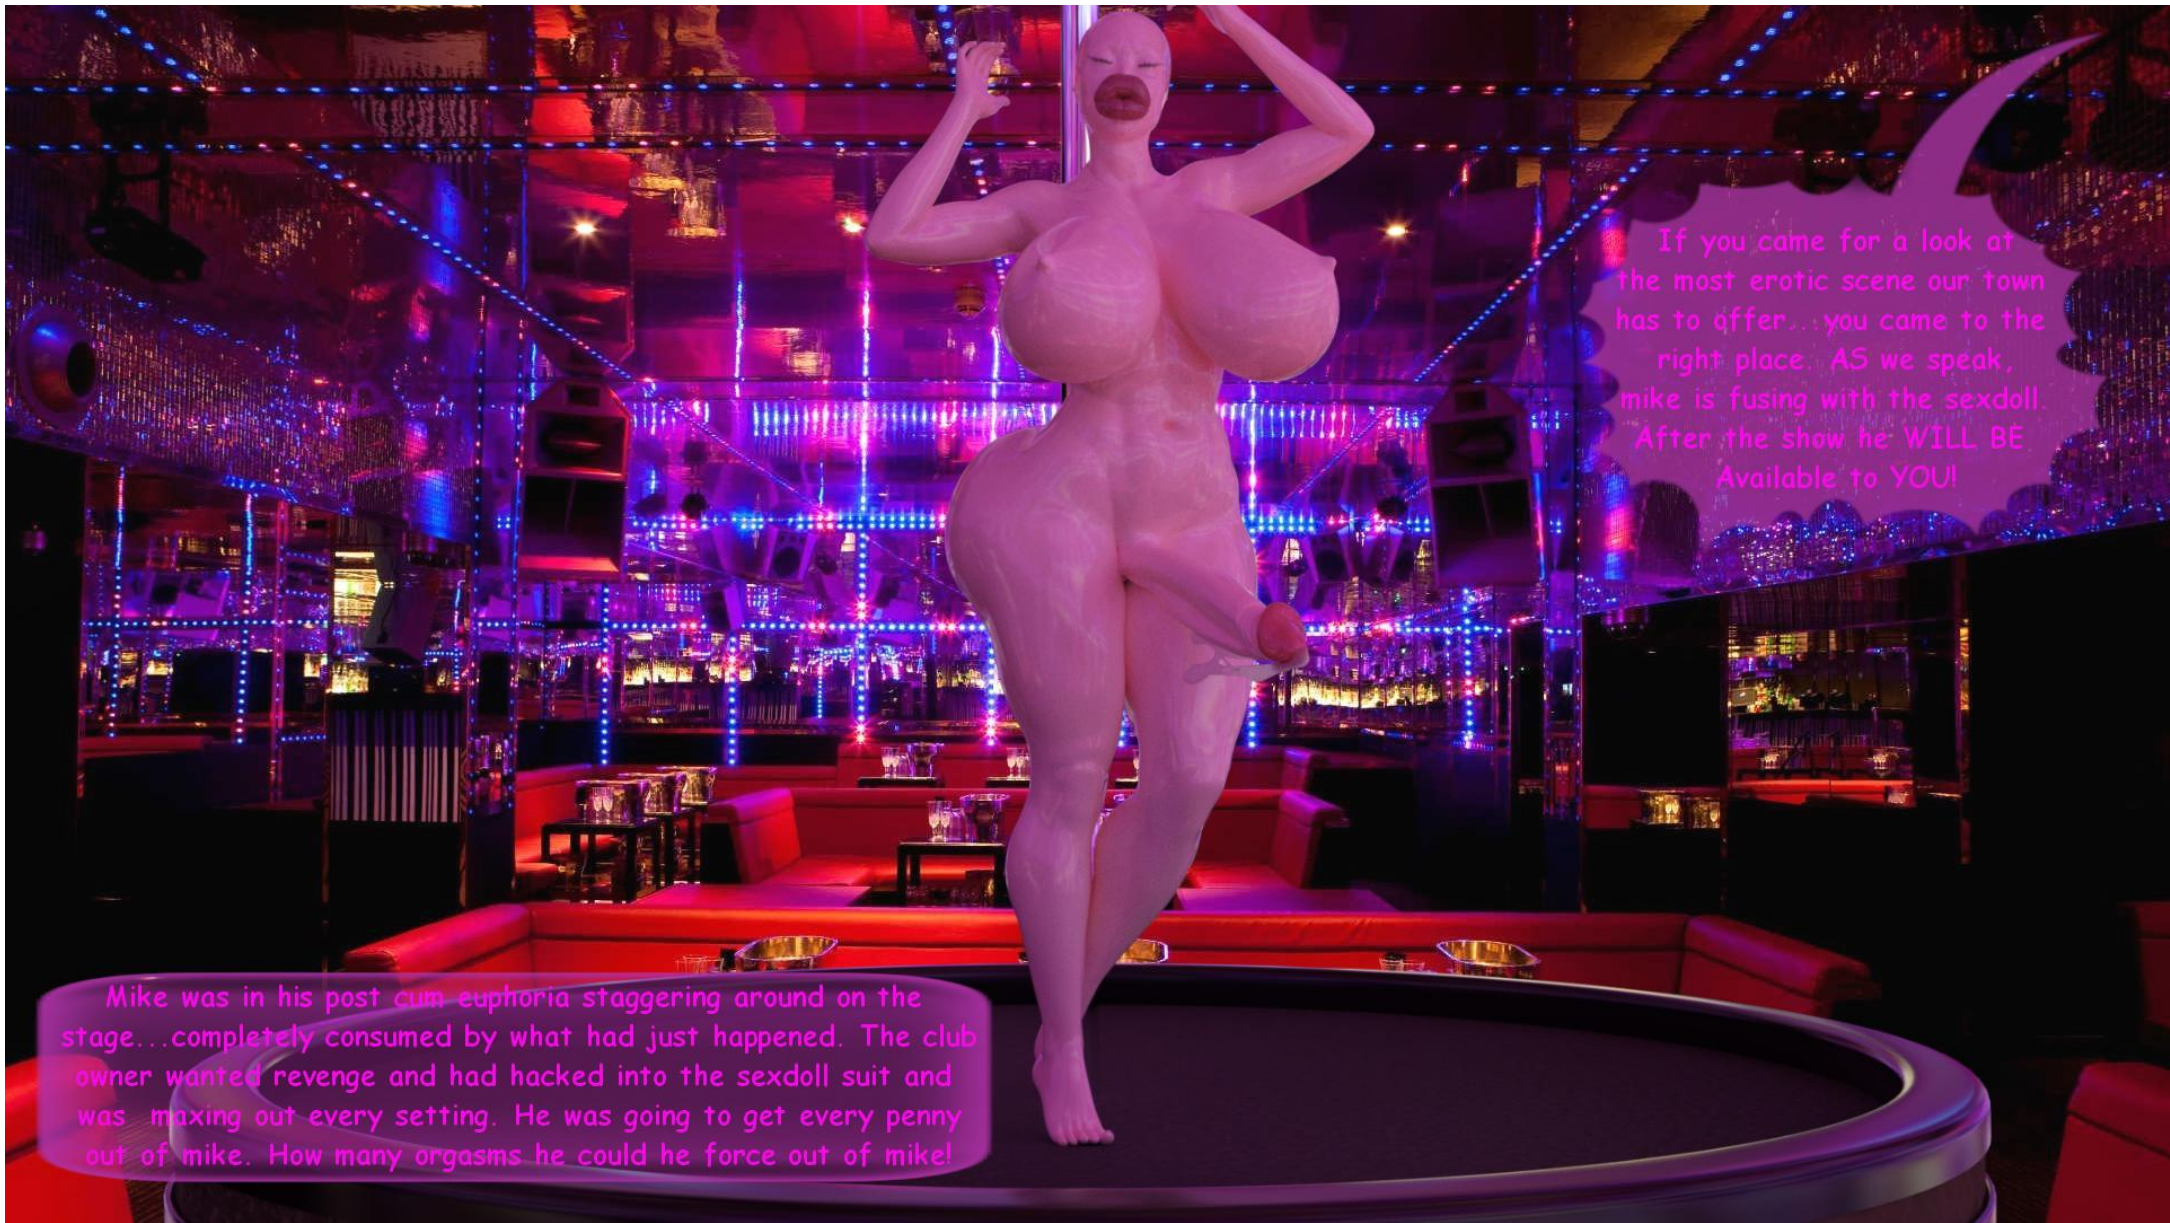

His own ass hole was vibrating and his prostate was going crazy. He was so horny he didn't know where he was and just held onto his shaft with a vise like grip. He couldn't avoid it. He was about to cum. Maybe he could strangle his dick where no cum came out at all. He squeezed with all his might!

OH my God! I have never seen a orgasm as powerful as that! I guess cheating does pay off in the long run as mike just had the craziest male orgasm we have ever seen. Thats gotta be a half gallon of jizz

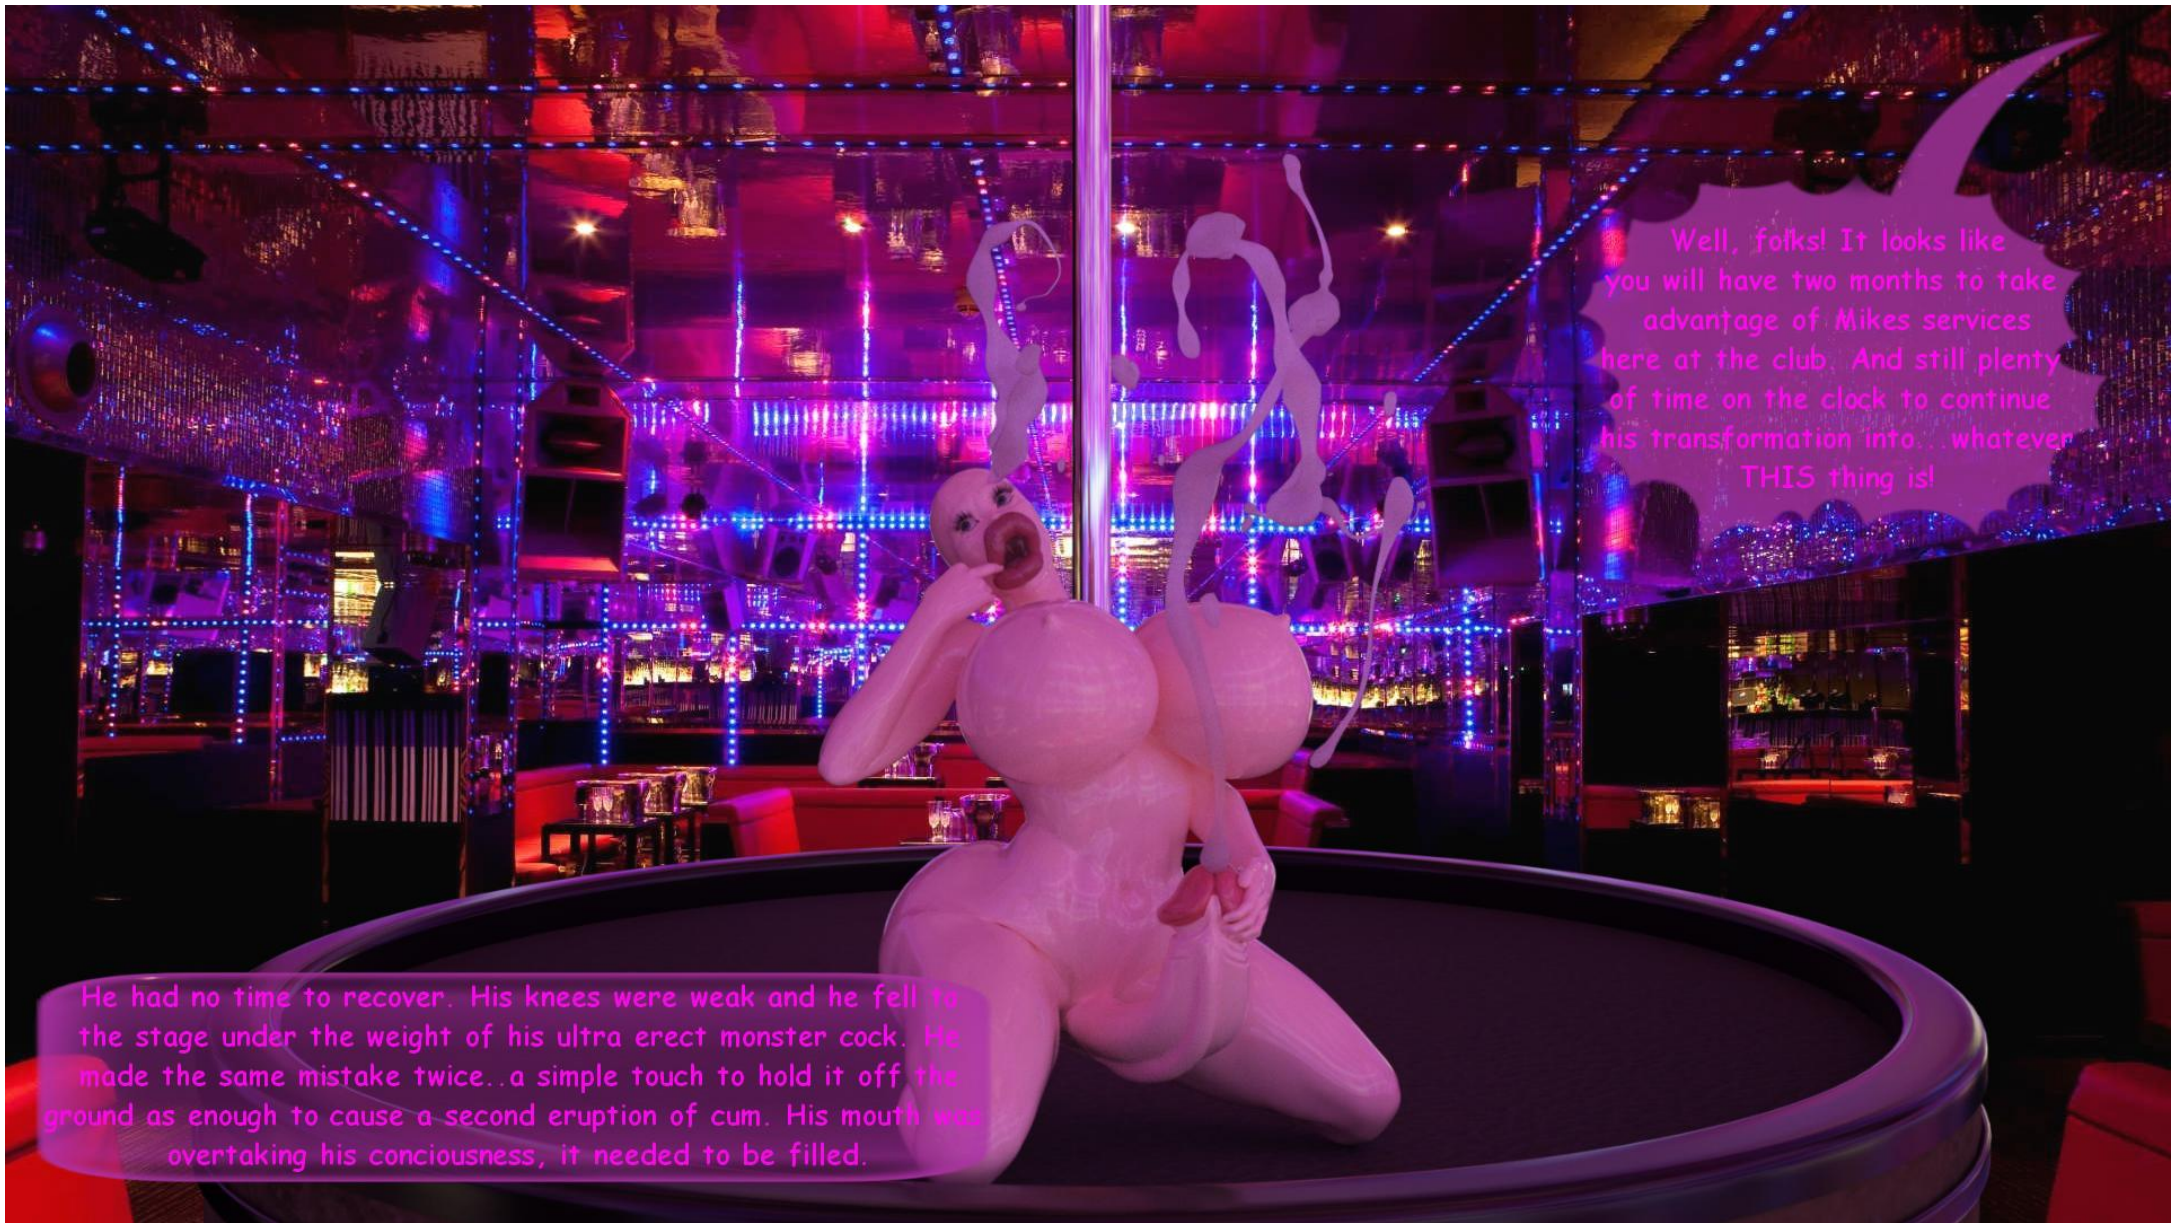

He screamed as he came! His penis contracted and for a moment was as hard as rock. The cum shot out of it like a garden hose. Every muscle in his body squeezed to help him ejaculate his monster load. AS he did so, he felt the rubber suit slipping down his urethra, up his anus and down his throat. He just lost his 1st month!

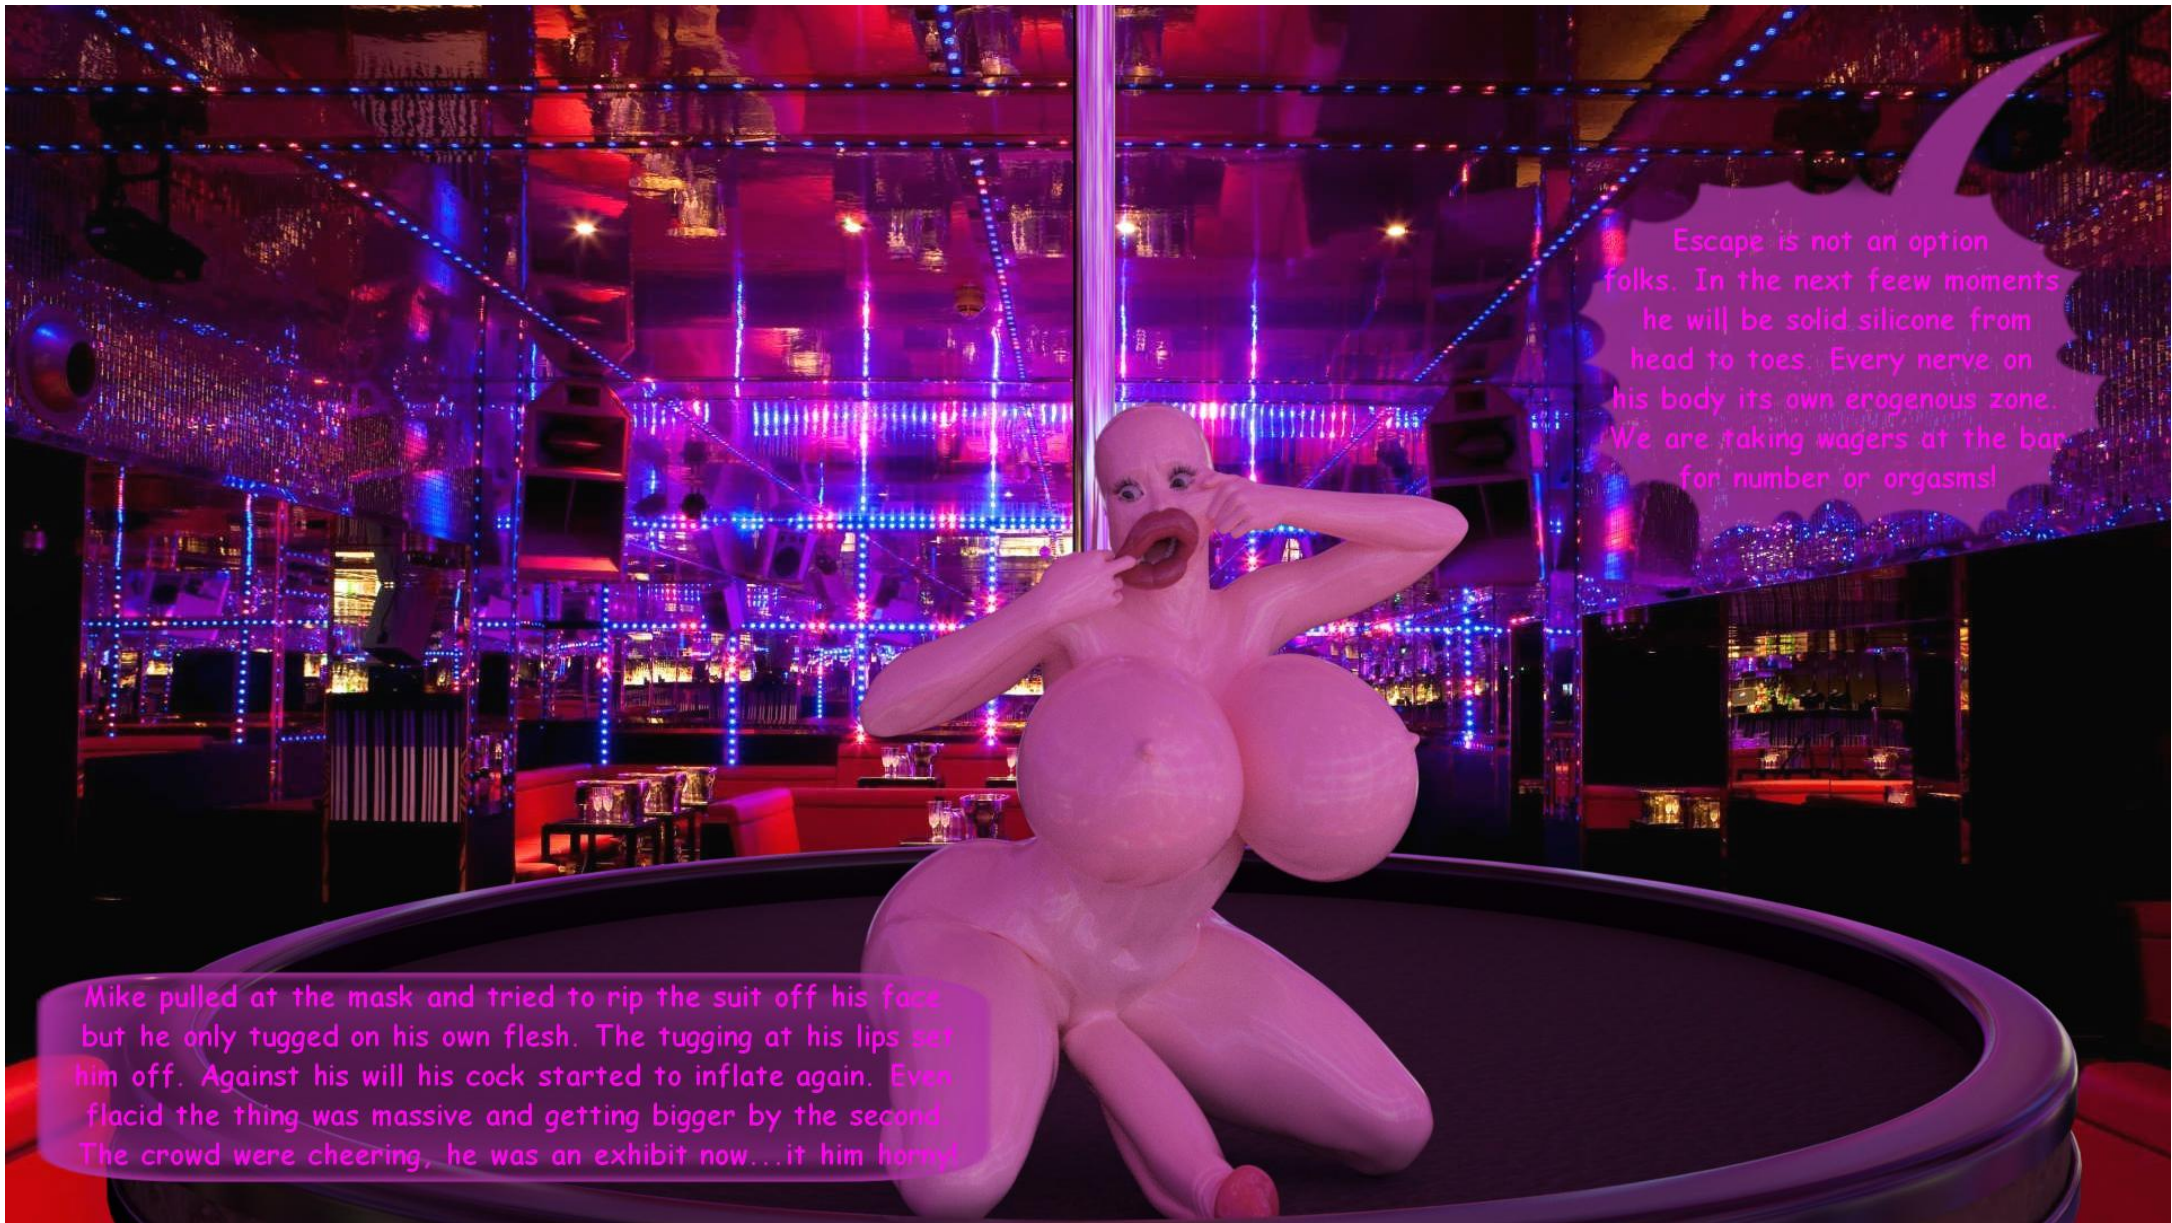

If you came for a look at the most erotic scene our town has to offer... you came to the right place. AS we speak, mike is fusing with the sexdoll. After the show he WILL BE Available to YOU!

Mike was in his post cum euphoria staggering around on the stage... completely consumed by what had just happened. The club owner wanted revenge and had hacked into the sexdoll suit and was maxing out every setting. He was going to get every penny out of mike. How many orgasms he could he force out of mike!

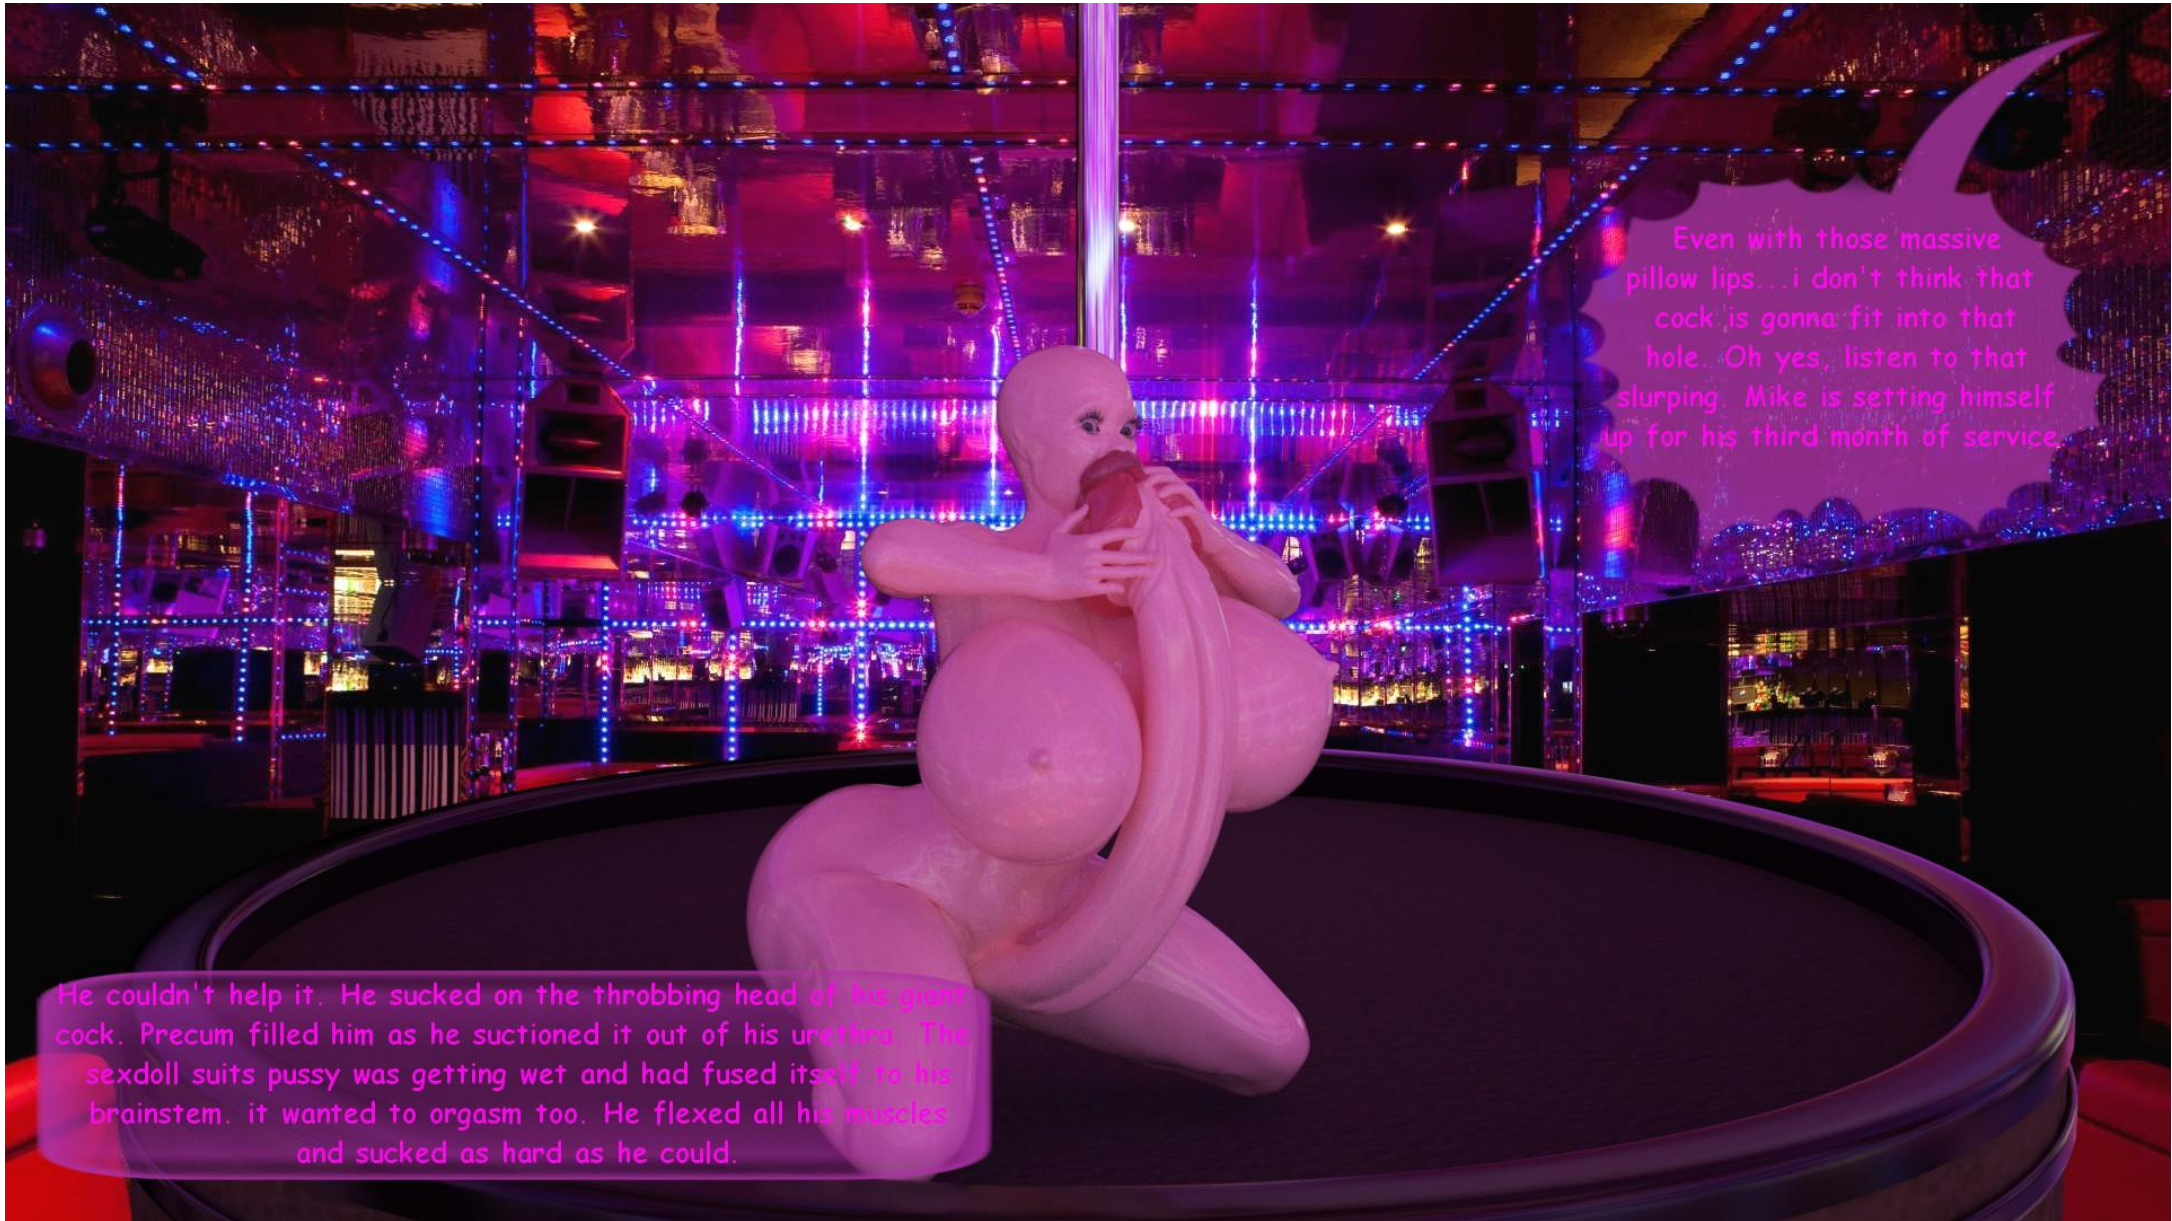

He had no time to recover. His knees were weak and he fell to the stage under the weight of his ultra erect monster cock. He made the same mistake twice...a simple touch to hold it off the ground as enough to cause a second eruption of cum. His mouth was overtaking his conciousness, it needed to be filled.

Well, folks! It looks like you will have two months to take advantage of Mikes services here at the club. And still plenty of time on the clock to continue his transformation into...whatever THIS thing is!

Escape is not an option folks. In the next few moments he will be solid silicone from head to toes. Every nerve on his body its own erogenous zone. We are taking wagers at the bar for number of orgasms!

Mike pulled at the mask and tried to rip the suit off his face but he only tugged on his own flesh. The tugging at his lips set him off. Against his will his cock started to inflate again. Even flacid the thing was massive and getting bigger by the second. The crowd were cheering, he was an exhibit now...it him horny!

He couldn't help it. He sucked on the throbbing head of his giant cock. Precum filled him as he suctioned it out of his urethra. The sexdoll suits pussy was getting wet and had fused itself to his brainstem. it wanted to orgasm too. He flexed all his muscles and sucked as hard as he could.

Even with those massive pillow lips...i don't think that cock is gonna fit into that hole. Oh yes, listen to that slurping. Mike is setting himself up for his third month of service.

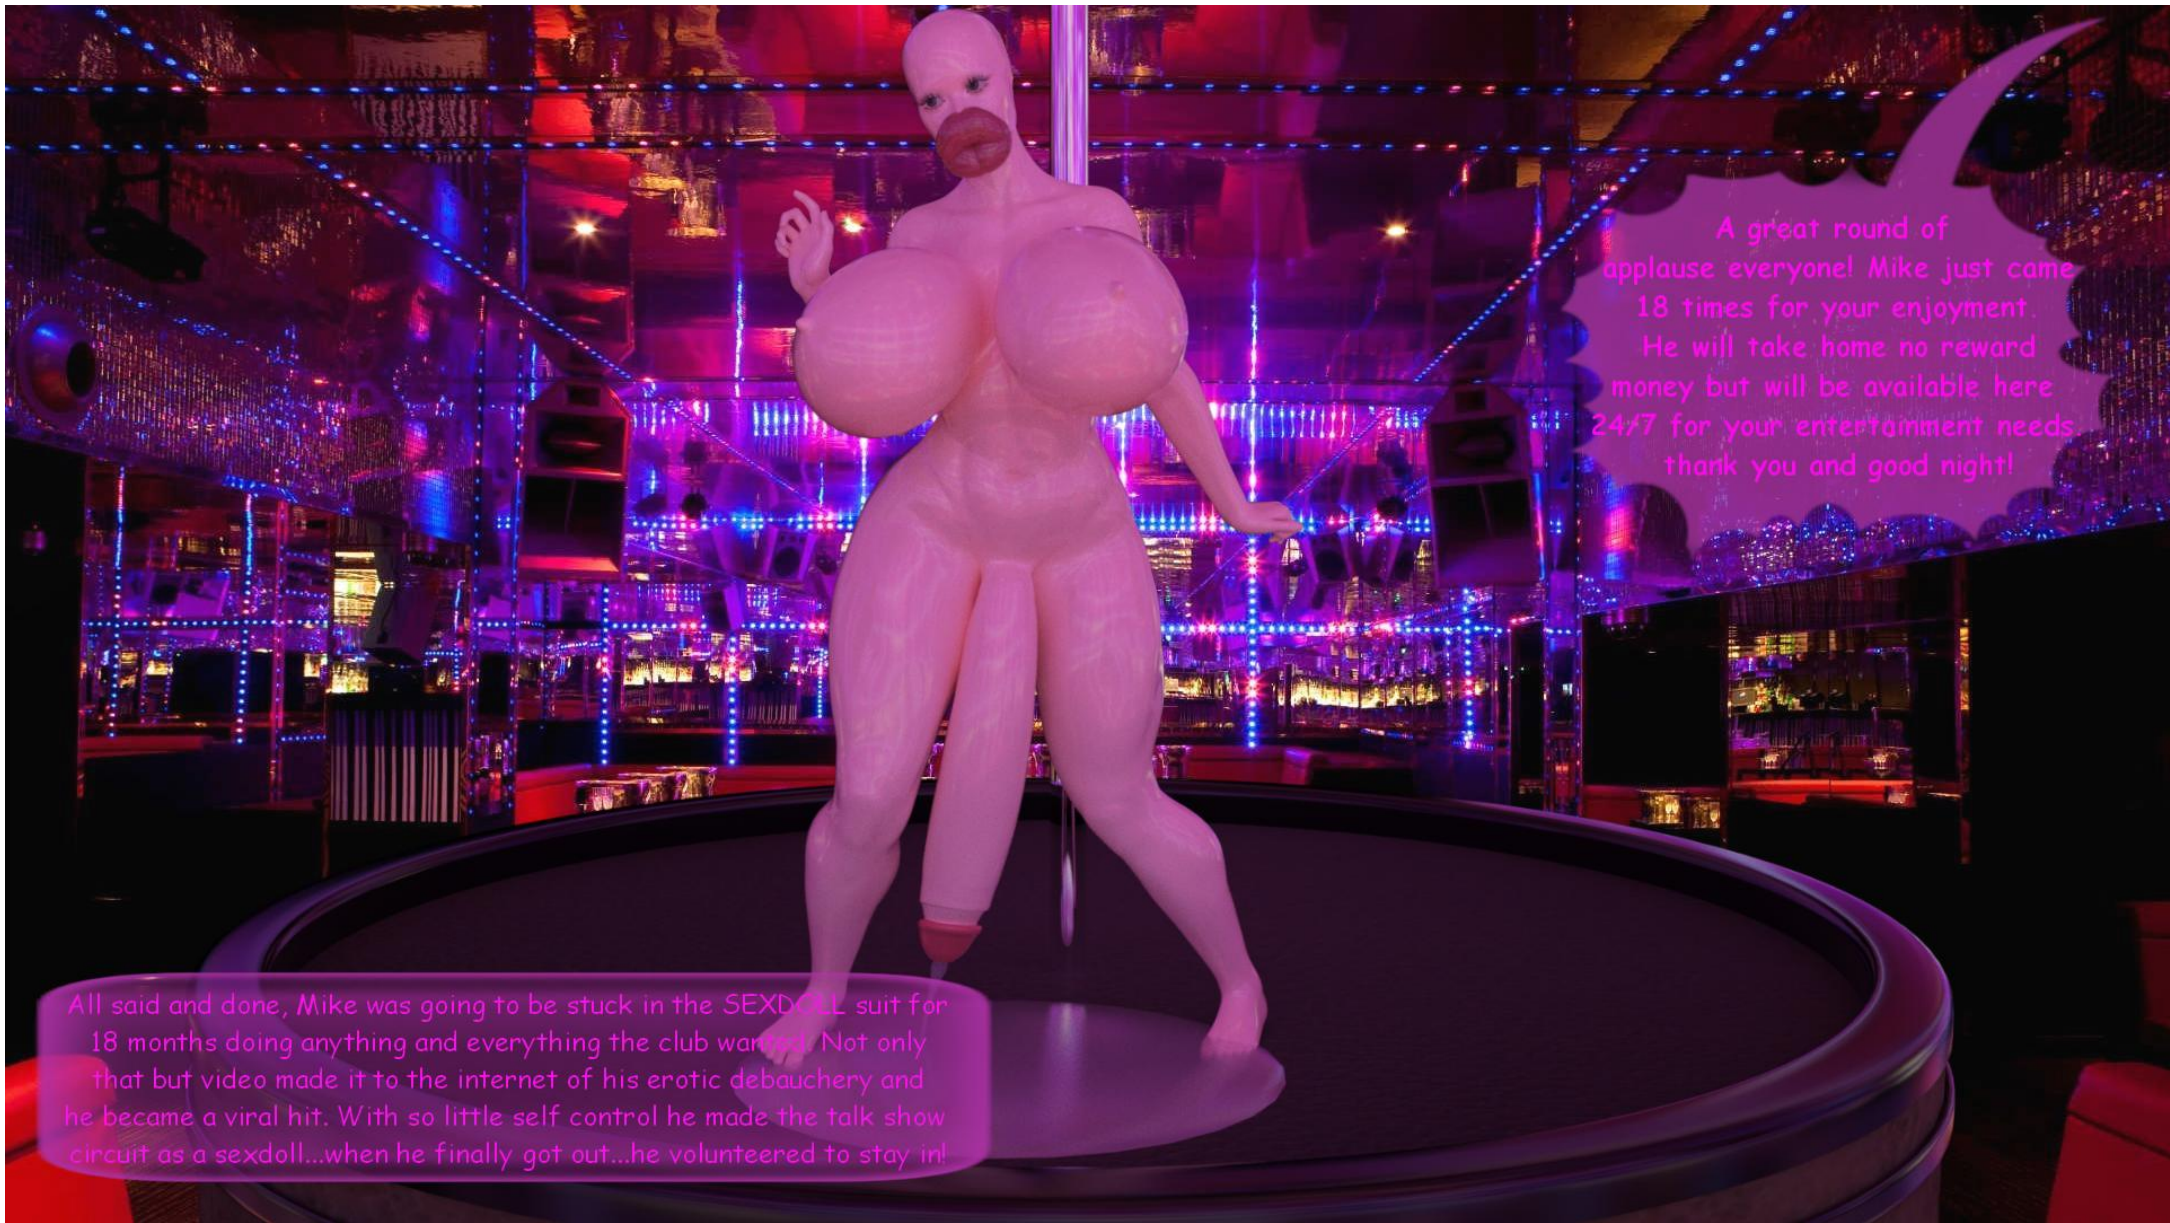

I do believe that is his fourth orgasm...and he is just recycling that one. Look how he handles that python. He is averaging an orgasm per minute, but wait. Is his pussy getting wet... it looks like double trouble!

Maybe if they couldn't see him cum then they couldn't count it. His cheeks strained to contain the massive amount of jizz he was siphoning down his throat. His vagina came online. Each time he guzzled down his ejaculate he came closer to squirting. His thighs shook in anticipation.

Everybody look to the stage.
Mike is cumming out of two holes simultaneously...does that count
as two more...just a reminder ...
you too can try this competition.
Beat the doll every Friday evening for $500

Who was in charge? Mike or the doll? Where did one begin and the other end. The sensations of raw pleasure drowned out the world as he came and came again. His embarrassment had turned to excitement & his terror for being stuck as a fuckdoll had turned into yearning...he no long held back but was now participating

A great round of applause everyone! Mike just came 18 times for your enjoyment.
He will take home no reward
money but will be available here 24/7 for your entertainment needs
thank you and good night!

All said and done, Mike was going to be stuck in the SEXDOLL suit for 18 months doing anything and everything the club wanted. Not only that but video made it to the internet of his erotic debauchery and he became a viral hit. With so little self control he made the talk show circuit as a sexdoll...when he finally got out...he volunteered to stay in!
