

Bigger Cat

Happy tells Lily how Leo is like a big cat. So Lily wants to see who is the bigger cat after all.

Leo had come out while Lucy was at the guild. The blonde haired man was flirting with guys surprisingly. When asked Leo or formerly Loke, claimed celestial spirits live long lives, so things like sexuality became meaningless. Leo's master was Lucy so in his eyes she was the only woman for him, but that didn't mean he couldn't flirt with the guys. 'What a strange man.' Lily was very curious about him.

Lily and Happy were sitting at a table in their small forms. "So he was a member of Fairy Tail, but he was really a celestial spirit?" Lily asked. This was a new concept for him as nothing like this existed in Edolas.

"Well he'll always be a member of the guild, but yes he was a celestial spirit. He went by the name of Loke, but he's actually the celestial spirit Leo. He's like a super big cat!!" Happy said with a cheer. Leo was fine being called a big cat so Happy stuck with it.

“A big cat?” Lily looked at Leo. “How big?” his eyes roamed the fancy dressed male’s form. It was hard to gauge with him in a suit.

“He’s the biggest cat I’ve ever met.” Happy said, and Lily tensed. ‘What about me?’ he couldn’t help but think. He felt his pride bubble to the surface, he trained hard to develop the physical adonis like body he had in Edolas. While he couldn’t stay in that form 24/7 he was proud of his body.

‘Biggest cat huh?’ Lily thought, he morphed into his beefy anthro form. He stood tall, muscles rippling under his fur.

“Come with me.” He grabbed Happy and walked over to Leo and Natsu. He was so focused he didn’t notice the atmosphere he was walking into. “Hey I need to borrow Leo for something.” Without getting an answer he dragged the celestial spirit away into one of the back rooms of Fairy Tail. “Leo?” Natsu blinked in surprise.

“What’s up Pantherlily?” Leo asked brushing off his fancy suit. “I was in the middle of something.”

“Happy says you’re the biggest cat he’s ever met, so I’d like to see who’s bigger.” Lily said and flexed his thick muscles.

“Consider it a friendly competition between men.” he says with a smirk.

'Friendly competition huh?' Leo raises a brow. "I see well, I'm no slouch in the muscle department." He undid his tie, and pulled off his dark jacket, he un-tucked his shirt from his pants, he started to unbutton his shirt from the bottom, slowly showing off a rock hard six pack abs and soon firm pecs, one thing though being a celestial spirit he didn't have a navel. He could feel Lily's eyes on him, sizing him up.

Once the buttons were undone, it took one fluid graceful motion and his shirt came off showing that Leo had his own kind of muscle, packed tight and solid. Leo flexed his perfectly sculpted body, he was like an Adonis, not a scar or imperfection. His magical aura flared and he looked dead on into Pantherlily's eyes. "What do you think?" Lily gulped and quickly grit his teeth. "Happy who's bigger!?" the two flexed and posed.

"I still think it's Leo." Happy said, it seems he was being put in the judges role he was okay with that. "What?!" Leo smirked and ceased his flexing, his magical aura dying down.

"Looks like I win." Leo says and went to grab his jacket and shirt. This was a big blow to Lily's pride, he was always considered the biggest of the Exceeds, he was the biggest cat.

“Not yet!!” Lily says and the male grabbed the waist band of his pants and with one smooth motion he dropped his pants, his soft 9 inch long cock hung between his muscled legs, a set of furry balls hanging below. ‘Whoa!’ Happy and Leo both blush at the sudden nudity. His cock was quite thick, his cock was black with a dark purplish tip.

Lily steps out of his pants and smirks. He grabbed his cock and gave it a few strokes. “I’m gonna prove who is the bigger cat!” Leo was surprised by Lily’s actions, but he enjoyed a challenge. “A cock measuring contest huh?” he felt his blood rush south. ‘Interesting!’ Lily’s cock dipped down before rising up reaching 11 inches and was at least 3 finger’s thick, with a thick nest of white pubes crowning his crotch.

He put his hands behind his head, exposing his pits, and rocked his hips making his heavy cock swirl round and round. “Can you beat this?”

Leo chuckled and removed his shades his eyes glowing. “You underestimate me Exceed. I am considered the strongest Celestial Spirit of the Golden Keys when it comes to battle, but I believe my talents truly come to...” Leo undid his pants and pulled the zipper down. “L...” He dropped his pants revealing blue boxers, his cock tenting his boxers. “O...” His cock began to push at the fabric of his boxers, he tugged the garment down, tugging his cock down. Down and down it went and Lily's eyes were trained on the spirit's crotch. "V..." With one final pull his boxers came down and his massive celestial spirit cock sprang up into the air, crowned with a thick nest of pubes. "E!!"

Happy's and Lily's jaws dropped. 'So big!' Leo's cock reached 13 ½ inches and had a smooth girth. "We celestial spirits are given the power to not only protect our masters, but please them as well." he did a few pelvic thrusts making his cock bounce.

'No way he's huge!' Lily thinks. His cock twitches, it was more than just the size. The musk of Leo's dick hit him like a tidal wave. 'Even his balls are bigger!' It was true Leo's balls were quite large, no doubt pent up with seed.

He said celestial spirits were designed to not only protect their masters but please them as well, Lucy however had no sexual attraction to Leo or her spirits, so gave them permission to find lovers of their own.

Leo stepped up to Lily, his cock bouncing as he walked, he got so close their cocks were touching. "Let's see what you got big guy." Leo grabbed Lily's firm ass, "Ahhh!" Lily gasped.

“Looks like I’m bigger!” he says with a grin and began to thrust his hips grinding their cocks together. ‘He’s got a nice ass though.’ Leo thinks as he fondles Lily’s butt, it was bigger and more toned than Loke’s. ‘Good thing we didn’t have a bigger ass competition, he’d win hands down.’ he gropes him and makes him buck against Leo’s bigger dick. Lily roared in pleasure, and glared at the smirking spirit.

“We aren’t finished!” Pantherlily grabbed Leo’s firm ass, and squeezed the firm cheeks as he met Leo’s thrusts with his own. “Ohhh,” Leo gasped, feeling the furry balls smack against his larger smooth ones. The fur tickled his skin and gave Leo a new kind of pleasure. “I’m game!” The two males frothed hungrily, Leo letting out moans of pleasure and Lily letting out pleased growls.

The friction between their big dicks filled the room with a manly musk. Happy blushed. ‘Oh wow!’ pre began to leak from their hard members, their frothing made the pre flow and cover their manhoods. Slicked up they were able to move faster.

Leo was blushing, as was Lily. The two were getting sweaty, their manly musk fueling their arousal even more. ‘I’m not gonna lose!’ Lily thinks.

“I can feel you pulsing against me you’re gonna cum soon.” Leo said his smirk growing and Lily blushed harder.

“Your cock is twitching more than mine I bet you’re gonna blow first!” Lily growled out. ‘First to cum loses.’ Lily thinks.

“Alright biggest cum shot wins, Aye!” Happy says, and the two gasped and felt their cocks pulse at the same time.

“What?!” Happy smirked. Leo saw the determination on Lily’s face, the hungry desperation, and couldn’t help but smile.

Lily acted first, his tail came round and began to fondle Leo’s balls. The blonde gasped at the sudden touch.

“Ohhh fuck cumming!” Leo came first, back arching, toes curling, balls lurching. His cum shot up and splashing onto Lily’s face, firm pecs and abs, 10 spurts of white cum splashing onto the man. Lily came just a second later, with a loud growl and his thick cum shot up and like a hose he drenched Leo in thick cum. Face, neck, shoulders, pecs, abs and crotch.

“I...I...I did it!! I am the biggest cat!!” Lily cheered, Happy and Leo shared a look. The anthro was so excited he ran off without putting his pants back on, shocking everyone in the guild hall at his cum covered and naked self. “Lily!”

Happy walked over to Leo. “Why did you forfeit the match? I’ve seen you cum lots more than that when Natsu fucked you a week ago.” Leo blushed and scratched the back of his head.

“It’s true I can control my release a bit, but without anal stimulus I can’t be truly satisfied or cum as much.” Sure enough Leo’s cock was still rock hard. Happy noticed Lily had gotten soft after his release. “But don’t tell him okay?”

“Okay, you’re so the bigger cat.” Happy said with smile. The two fist bump. “You know it.”

Leo vanished and returned to the spirit world to get cleaned up. Lily got scolded for running around naked, but he didn’t care. ‘I’m the bigger cat!’ Leo was okay with making the big guy happy, although he did have to explain to Natsu why his cum was all over another man...

“Care to explain yourself?” Natsu glares. Leo is hauled over Natsu’s naked lap. “Ahhh, Natsu it’s not what you think we were just trying to see who was bigger.” Natsu had his fingers in Leo’s ass churning up his insides. “I see, well you do like showing off don’t you?” he played with the blonde’s sweet spot. “Ah ahhhhn! Natsu!” he moans, bucking back onto the fingers and rubbing his big dick against Natsu’s legs. “Then we can have our fun!” he says smiling and Leo breathes a sigh of relief.

Lily happened upon them as Leo rode Natsu’s massive dick. ‘Oh my gawd!’ Leo’s stomach swelled from the massive length, and he rode it like he was born for it. He felt his manhole twitch as he imagined taking that monster inside him.

He hung around and watched, and the cat was out of the bag as Leo came from Natsu’s massive manhood pounding into his hole. He came longer, harder, and so much more. ‘He really is the bigger cat.’ He thinks. ‘In more ways than one.’

The next day Lily came to Leo bowing on his hands and knees. “Please great Leo, teach me to take big cocks like you!” he shouts, in front of the whole guild. Leo and Natsu’s faces were beat red. Gajeel was pissed, and oddly turned on. Lily of course didn’t care, his world was shattered and remade. In his world he was the big cat, the top cat, not only had Leo surpassed him but Natsu was even bigger than him. He wished to explore this new territory. After all a cat’s size really couldn’t compete with a dragon’s.
