Spooky Education

Penelope,
you're one of u-us now, so...
*adjusts glasses... * you gotta spend the night in the old school wing...

S-So, this is what those jocks at the frat house
call a "dare," huh?
snort

On H-Halloween,
of all nights! I mean, c'mon... what's the big deal? sniff There's not even any Wi-Fi here!
wheeze

Welcome, child!

All this dust... ugh, my allergies are gonna have a field day. achoo

Spooky Education

Uh, h-hello? Is... is anyone here? nervous gulp

The house portal opened all by itself... shudder s-scary stuff...

Ah, so it is Penelope who embarks upon this trial of courage, is it?

Well then, I sense great potential in your mind, child...

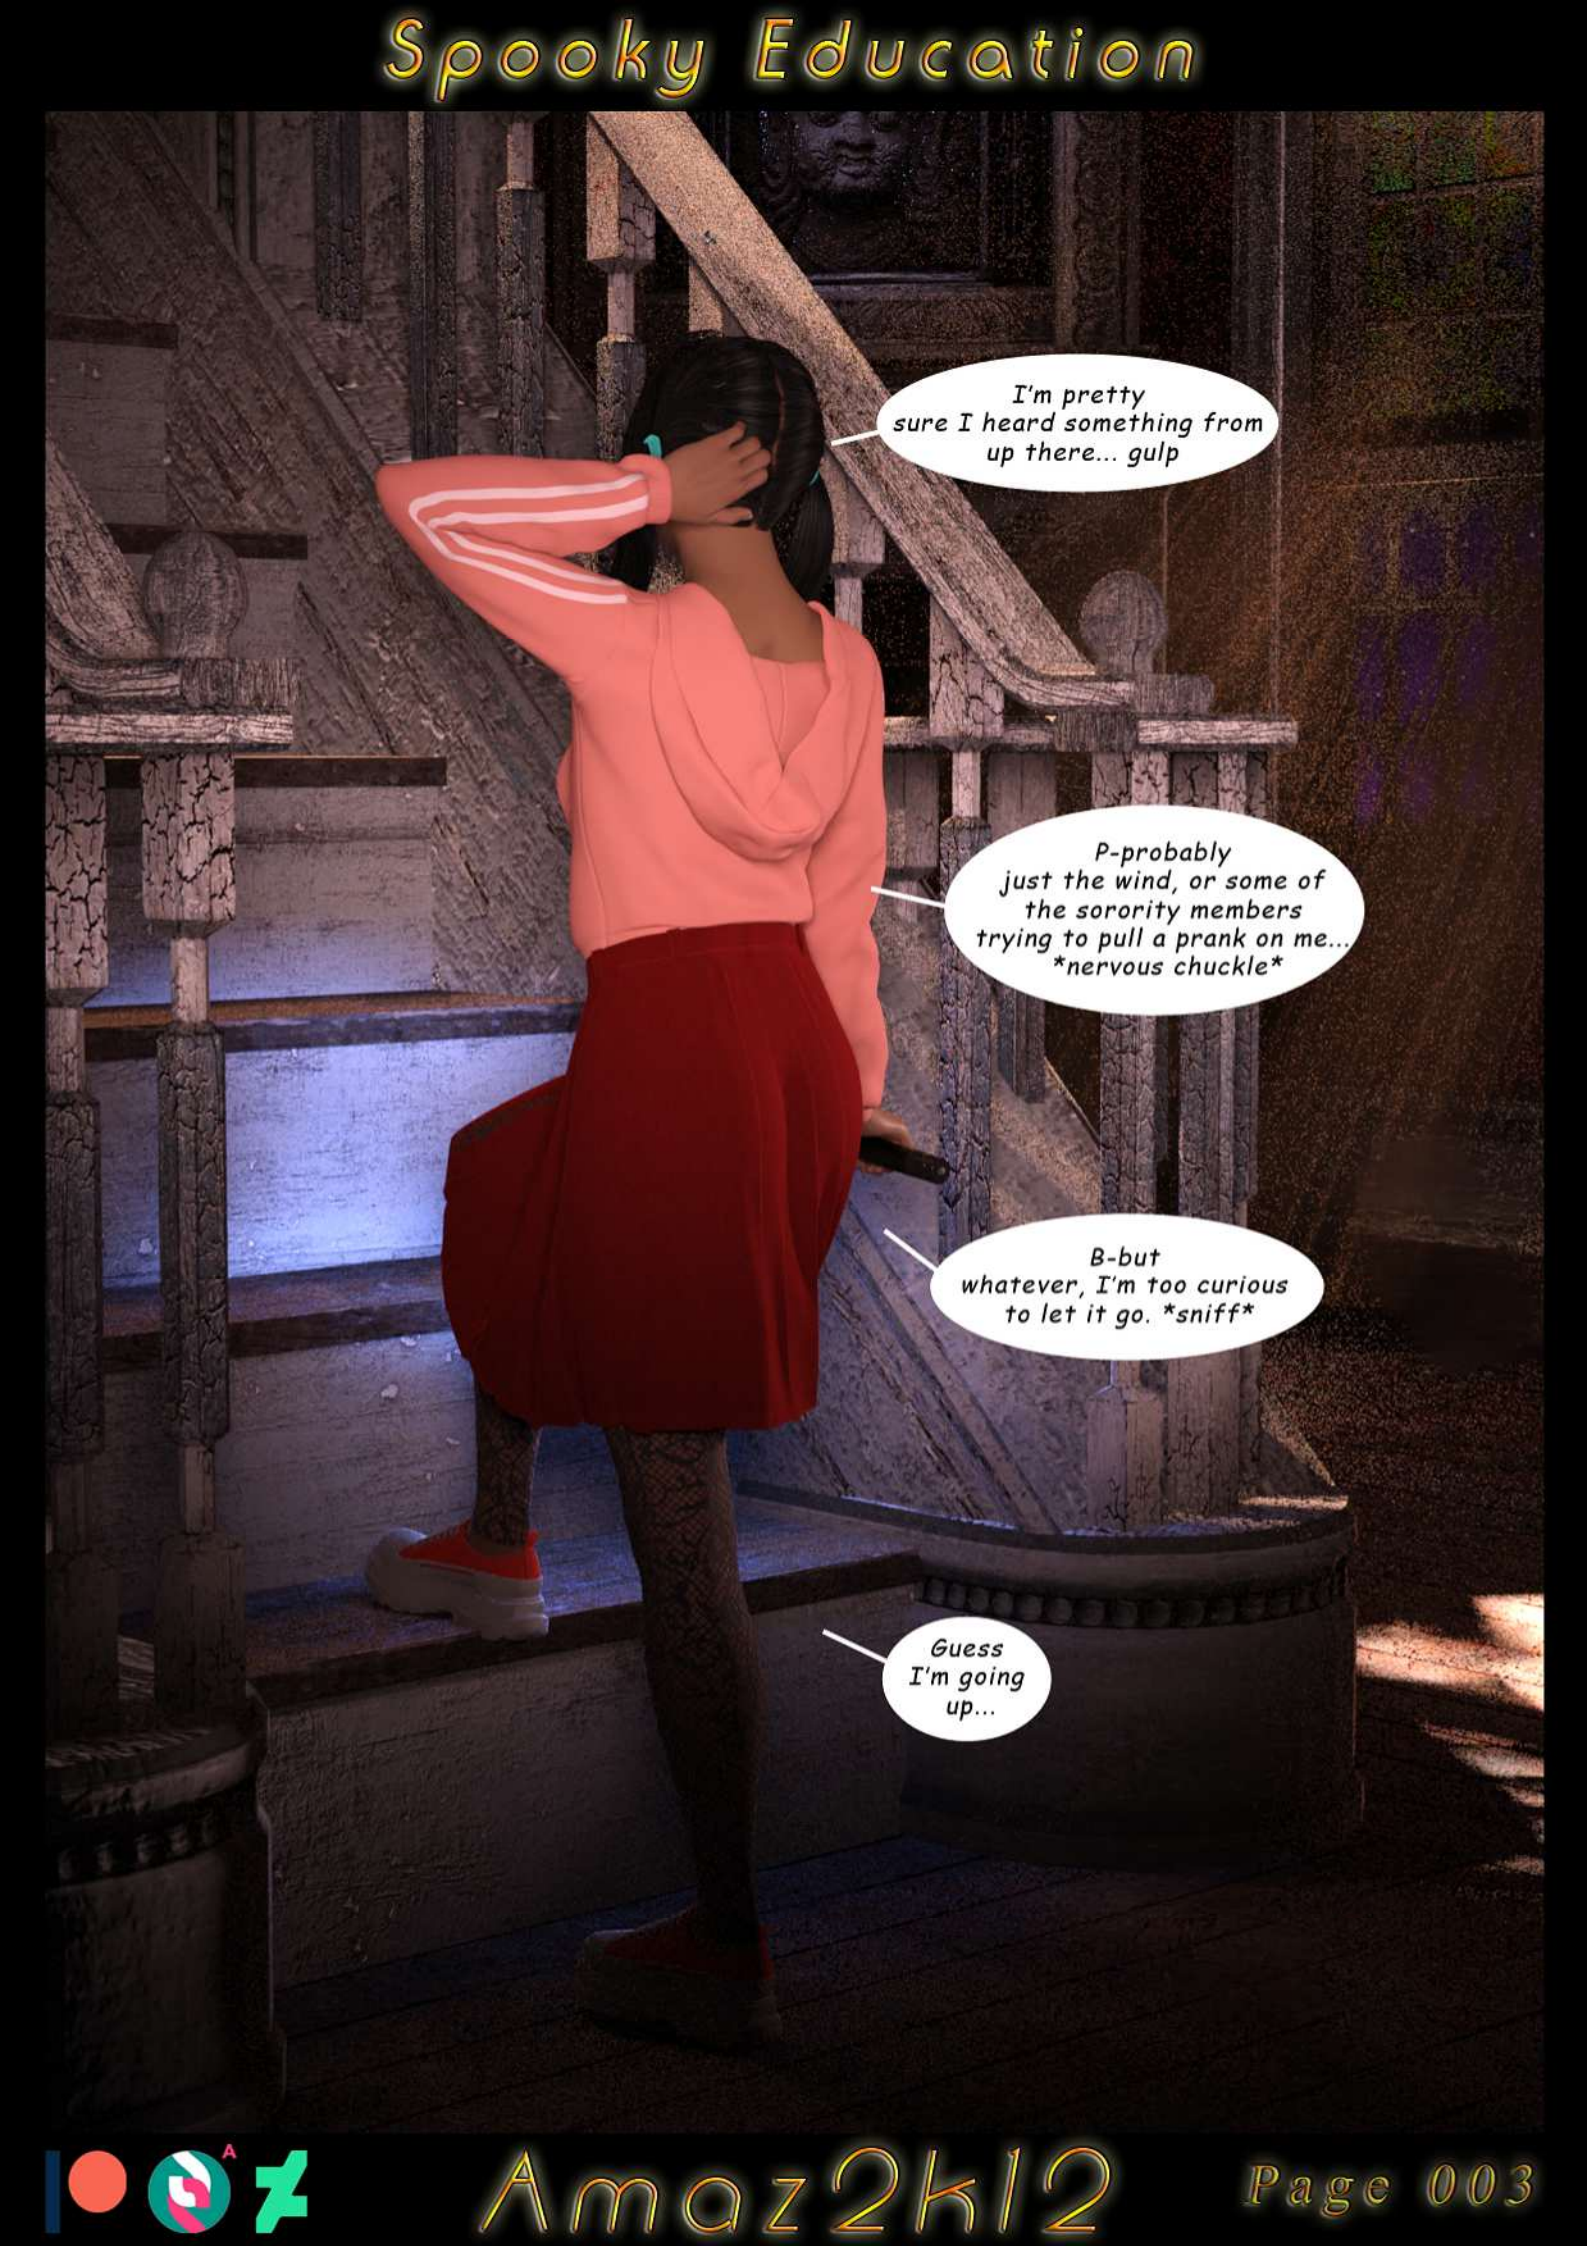

Yet much untamed desire stirs within your wet loins.

Other than a few Araneae and Blattodea, and, well, lots of dust, there's nothing here. sniff

But first, I shall observe how you respond to the influences of this hallowed institution. That shall determine the challenges I shall set for your lessons!

Well, looks like it's gonna be a boring night. Good thing I brought my super flashlight with extra lumens! hehe

Spooky Education

I'm pretty sure I heard something from up there... gulp

P-probably just the wind, or some of the sorority members trying to pull a prank on me...
nervous chuckle

B-but whatever, I'm too curious to let it go. sniff

Guess I'm going up...

Spooky Education

Legends from the sorority house say the spirit of Miss Green still haunts this place...

She was the first headmistress of the girls' school back in the day...

Uh... around 1860, I think...

... and rumor has it, she also ran the town's brothel... if you believe ahem the whispers...

More often than not, such whispers bear a kernel of truth... ah, how I long for the days when I knew such feelings well.

Spooky Education

Whoa, it feels super weird on this floor... like, am I in a horror game or something?

Wait, who's there? Did I just trigger an event?

No one? I could've sworn I heard a mysterious rustling sound!

Such remarkable potential she possesses. It is time to reveal myself... though I wonder, will she withstand the trials that await her?

Spooky Education

Whoa,
by all the quarks and neutrons, what the...

Oh, an orb... or ghost light? Nah, nonsense. Just a passing insect, its chitin reflecting my flashlight.

A really big insect though, reflecting light in... pink and purple?

Huh?
Wait... who the hell is that over there?

Spooky Education

Welcome, child!

Fear not, Penelope...

The legends... they're true... the headmistress's ghost...

I-I should probably... leave...

I can aid you in achieving your life's grandest aspirations.

Goals in life...?

But first, face my trials, and do not let the opportunity for true education slip away!

Education? Well, I can't say no to that, ma'am!

This could be... my greatest adventure yet!

Spooky Education

This was my office - I was the headmistress of this school, Miss Green.

*...and yes,
I am a ghost. But do not fear me.*

And now, the choice is yours.

Spooky Education

Like the many students before you, child, you may choose between five to ten tests to endure.

Each completion shall affect you - how, depends upon your outcome.

Should you succeed, your deepest desires shall be made real...

But should you fail, know well that even failure bears its consequences.

Now choose, Penelope, will you face my tests? The choice is yours...

Spooky Education

A wise choice, child. Let thy trials now commence...

Miss Green, go ahead and start preparing the graduation ceremony for me!

With my high IQ, vast knowledge, and above all, my discipline...

Your challenges will be completed in no time by someone like me...

And I will become the most famous scientist of the century...

No, scratch that - of the millennium!

Soon it shall be done... very soon indeed.

Spooky Education

Thou art
the final piece to fulfill my covenant, foolish wench...

And once
thou dost fail...

...the pact
shall be complete!

Light to heavy, heavy to light,
Turn her trials, so Penelope gives up the fight.
From wise to witless, from chaste to lewd,
She's the last—her downfall pursued.
Oh, sweet life, soon I shall reclaim,
And Penny, but a lustful dame!

Spooky Education

Test 1

Your very well-built boyfriend wants to come over so you can practice together. He is extremely well-endowed in his pants, and his jeans can barely conceal it.

What will you wear to receive him, Penelope?

Wait, what I should wear? Is this really part of the test?

Of course, dear

I mean... alright, but this is a bit silly, huh?

Something casual should be good. Maybe this outfit will work.

After all, comfort and studying go hand-in-hand, right?

Thank you, Test completed.

Spooky Education

Spooky Education

When thou art prepared for the next trial, child, step through the portal...

Miss Green, as much as I would appreciate engaging in some sort of paranormal knowledge duel...

... I do expect more serious tasks in the next test.

This test was but a warm-up, Penelope - worry not about the outcome...

Deciding what to wear in a given situation - I'll leave that to the 'bling-bling' airheads who only think about their looks and the next party.

I shall take thy request for a more rigorous examination into careful consideration.

Besides, such choices should reflect individuality; personally, I would never reveal too much skin...

Indeed, thou art wise to observe that a lady must always choose her attire with proper care.

Spooky Education

Hm, that was quite an interesting development...

She seems entirely unaware that her attire now consists of but the barest essentials...

Curiously, she appeared remarkably aroused by the first question - yet I detect no anger within her... rather, envy and desire?

Very well, I shall now extract the next challenge directly from her mind - let us see how the first changes she has undergone will affect this particular memory...

Spooky Education

Indeed, child, as the first examination seemed beyond your current grasp,
I have prepared a task more suited to the high standard of your intellect.

$$f(x,y,z,t,p) = \sin(xy) + e^{zt} - p^2$$

Hey, I recognize this room... it's the science lab from my old debate club, where I was the president...

This equation, now inscribed upon the board, is well-matched to your abilities, Penelope.

It represents a hypothetical problem:
 $f(x, y, z, t, p) = \sin(xy) + e^{zt} - p^2$.
You shall apply yourself with all diligence.

Take the necessary time to reflect. Once you declare completion, I shall evaluate the result.

Are you prepared for such a challenge?

... Thank you,
this theory is quite familiar to me. I shall be delighted to present it here!

This test is as good as done, Miss Green...

I'm ready.

Very well then, may providence guide your hand, child.

Spooky Education

Although the task seems familiar to Penelope, she remains unaware that Miss Green stands behind her, slowly reaching out her hands toward Penelope's temples...

Hah, Miss Green...

Penelope, dear... just let go... Feel the thrill... It's so much more than logic... Let yourself be swept away by the excitement, by the pleasure of the unknown...

The energy that flows from Miss Green's fingertips into Penelope's mind begins to take immediate effect...

... I've encountered this exact theory in advanced calculus, and frankly, it's not even complex.

Yes, Penelope...
Focus on how you feel, not on numbers or equations...
Feel your body, your heart racing... forget the rest. What does it matter if the numbers don't add up?
When you're this... aroused?

The sine function here integrates smoothly with the exponential, I should... ugh... my head... I feel...

Penelope's IQ

Penelope's high intellect experiences a sharp decline, while her pleasure centers are directly stimulated, clouding her thoughts...

This equation...
I have it under control... too easy! Just focus...

And as Penelope's body responds to the influence, it becomes clear—the ghost doesn't play fair.

Spooky Education

As Penelope struggles to keep her thoughts focused, her facial features begin to change. Her eyes seem to grow larger, and her lips swell slightly...

Come on, you know the answer - it's right on the tip of my tongue!

Maybe, but who cares about boring numbers when there are hot guys all over campus?

Imagine the fun you could have with them instead!

Ugh, why do I feel so... weird?

...her girlish waist becomes narrower, giving her slim hips a more pronounced curve..

...even her small AA-cup breasts can't resist the excitement building inside her...

Or how lonely you used to feel while cramming all that dry theory...

Why is it so hard to focus...

...with an imaginary "POP," her nipples and areola push forward, marking the next stage of transformation...

And as Penelope's body responds to the influence, it becomes clear—the ghost doesn't play fair.

Spooky Education

Penelope struggles to stay focused, but something inside her begins to slip away...

Imagine the fun you'd have with them...

... feeling this guys hands slowly exploring you, touching places you've never felt before...

As her breasts slowly swell, her mind drifts further, her thoughts blurring with new sensations...

His lips, his hands... what if he touched me... down there?!

Would it feel this good? His touch... making me...
shiver?

Her body responds to the change, awakening desires she's never felt before, pulling her deeper into a growing fantasy...

Spooky Education

Their strong hands... kneading my breasts... mmm...

Ah, Penelope, it seems you've become quite... preoccupied. But don't forget, you still have a rather important equation to finish, dear.

Huh? What?

Oh my god! The task... the contest... I completely forgot!

The question was this hypothetical problem:
 $f(x, y, z, t, p) = \sin(xy) + e^{\lambda(zt)} - p^2$.
Can you solve it?

... I know the answer... umm... somewhere...

... nope. I can't remember... I'm done.

Um... what was the question again? Give me a moment ...

Thank you...
Test 2 - completed.

Spooky Education

I know...
I've failed this too. Today just isn't my...

I was just working on this theory with friends a few days ago...

...and now I don't even understand what it says!

It's like...
I'm getting dumber.

Huh?
What the...

My BREASTS... they're growing?!

Oh my God!

Spooky Education

Oh my God!
Look at these melons...
and this dress!

This can't be happening. All those years of meticulous studying...

I can literally feel the knowledge being... sucked out of me...

And my body... it's still changing!

Miss Green!
How are you doing this? Why are you doing this to me?

You are mistaken, Penelope. It is not I who is changing you... it is you, yourself!

My tests merely serve as a conduit.

What?
What are you talking about?

My dear child, do you not recall?

Spooky Education

Ah, a visitor
What brings you here, Penelope?

Miss Green,
everyone in my new sorority is so much more popular than I am...

...Could you use your mental power to help me fit in better?

It may indeed be possible, but it must come from within you... How about a contest of knowledge,
my dear?

If I win,
the girls in the sorority will like me...

Should you succeed, they will be like you...

But if I lose, I'll be like them...

But should you fail, you will become like them.

Either way, I win. I accept your challenge.

This could be... my greatest adventure yet!

Indeed,
you are correct.
Best of luck.

Excuse me, but...

...I'm not entirely sure...

...my memory tells me something entirely different.

Spooky Education

Hmm, I don't believe you, Lady...

I think you're messing with me, making sure I lose these challenges.

Oh? So you have seen through me, child.

No matter...

But you know what?

You were not the first to fall into my snare...

But you shall be the last I need...

You're going to slip up, and when you do, I'll reverse the effect...

Bring on the next challenge!

Very well - let us both wager all we have!

Spooky Education

While Penelope faces another challenge, let's take a moment to glance at what's happening outside the old building.

There, an ancient graveyard stretches out... with a grand mausoleum resting at its center, naturally shrouded in mist (because every cliché deserves its moment).

We find a ghostly sphere drifting slowly toward that very mausoleum.

Spooky Education

Inside the mausoleum

Ordinarily,
this resting place of my mortal remains would be forbidden to me...

... but this final child is the key to my return.

It is not merely this ridiculous contest, which was never truly one to begin with...

From the moment that young woman entered my halls -

Since then,
her values - her intelligence, morality, prudishness, rigidity, discipline - have been slowly drained from her...

And transferred here, to my decaying remains, left to rot since the year 1860.

Her bimbofication is the key that will restore me to life!

And the pact shall be fulfilled.

Spooky Education

Ah, the process has begun...

...soon I shall be flesh and blood once more.

And I will relish the physical pleasures with delight.

With Penny
and all the other women by my side...

And the college shall reveal its true purpose.

But first, Penelope must... yield.

It is time to turn up the dials a little!

Spooky Education

Meanwhile, Penelope has arrived in the room for the next task.

To be or not to be

Wow, this looks like a TV studio...

To be or not to be? Maybe a game show?

Yes, I extracted that memory from the mind of a previous guest...

... I believe you've already made her acquaintance at your sorority house.

Charming woman, that Tiffany.

A game show on TV... that's what you call it nowadays, I believe.

Scientist

The rules should be familiar to you, Penelope. Sixteen cards, eight pairs.

You have precisely ten seconds per pair.

Are you prepared?

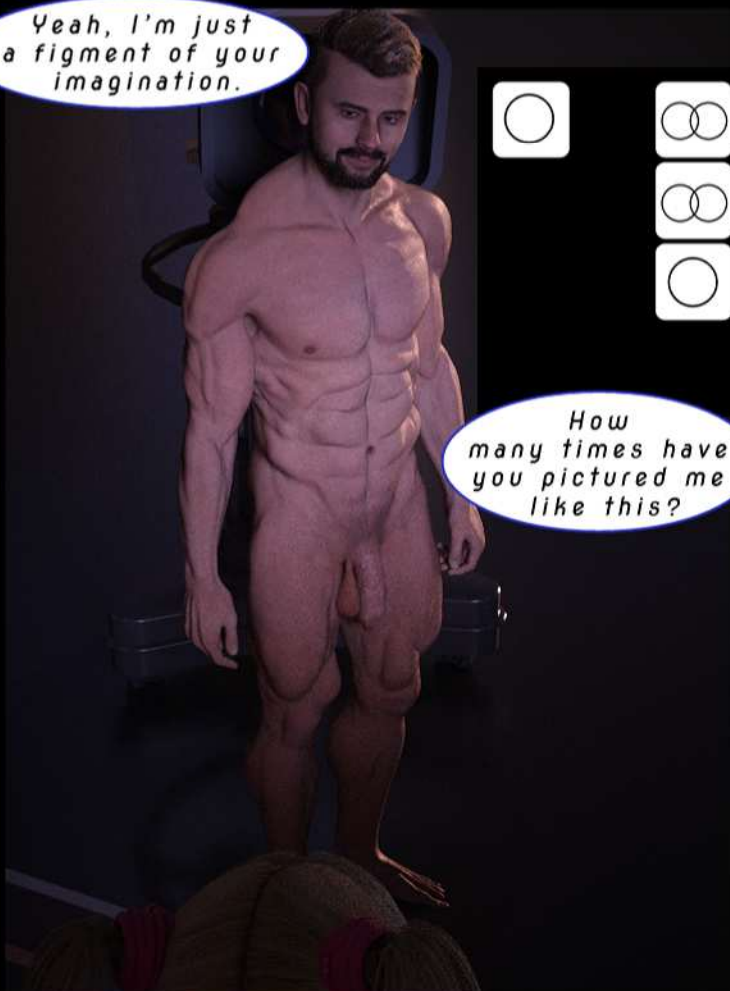

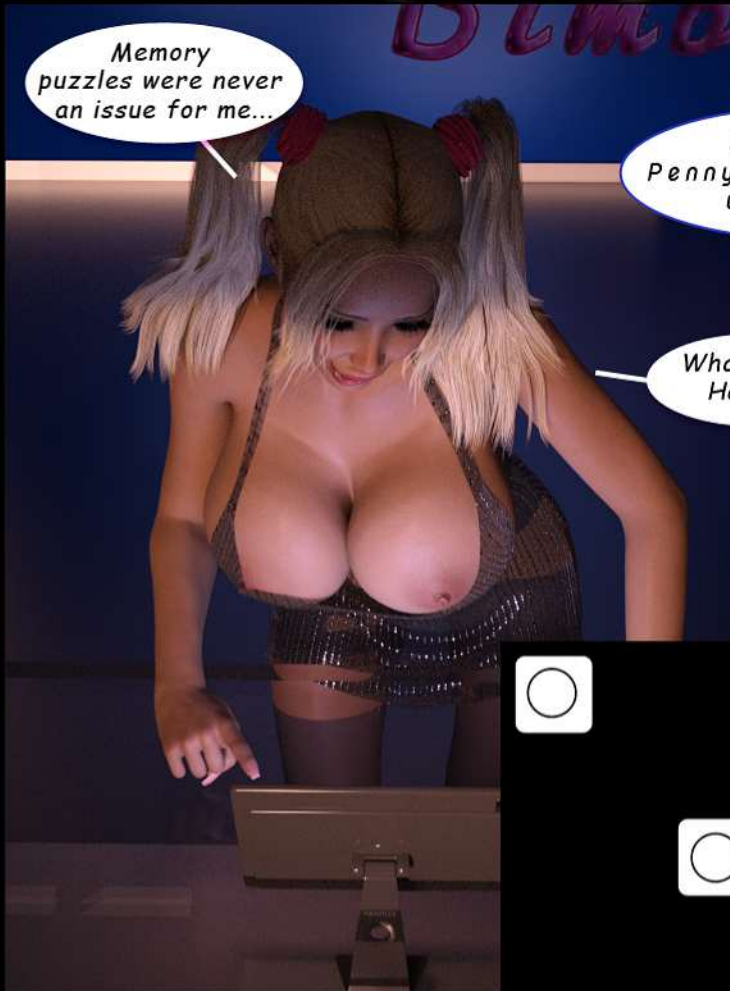

I love memory puzzles!

Let's get started!

Then, enjoy yourself... Penny!

Spooky Education

Spooky Education

Listen, you're just in my head, I don't have time for...

beep time is up next round

Oh, you don't have time? Really?

Oh my God... it's really that big?!

I... um... I need to focus!

Spooky Education

Spooky Education

Oh... you tiger... keep going...

That feels,
like, sooo freaking good...

Oh my God! Did I ignore this all these years?

Penelope's IQ

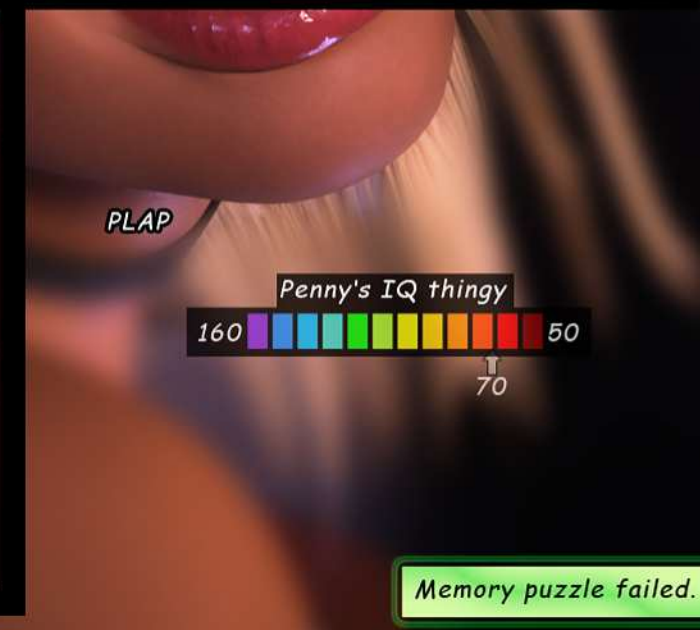

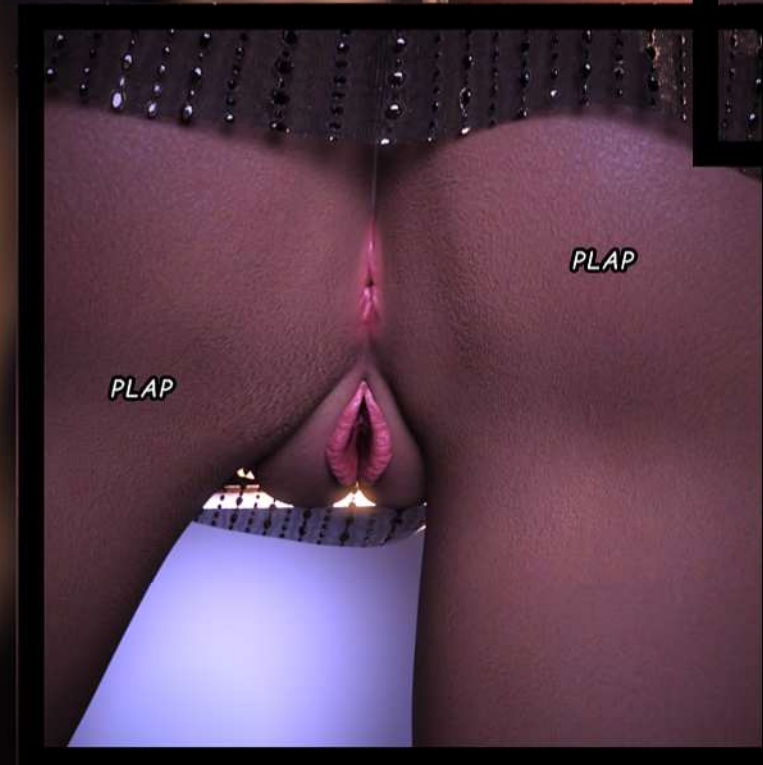

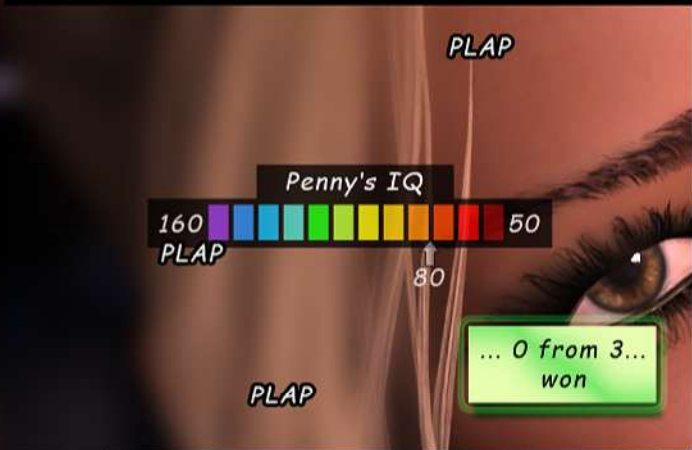

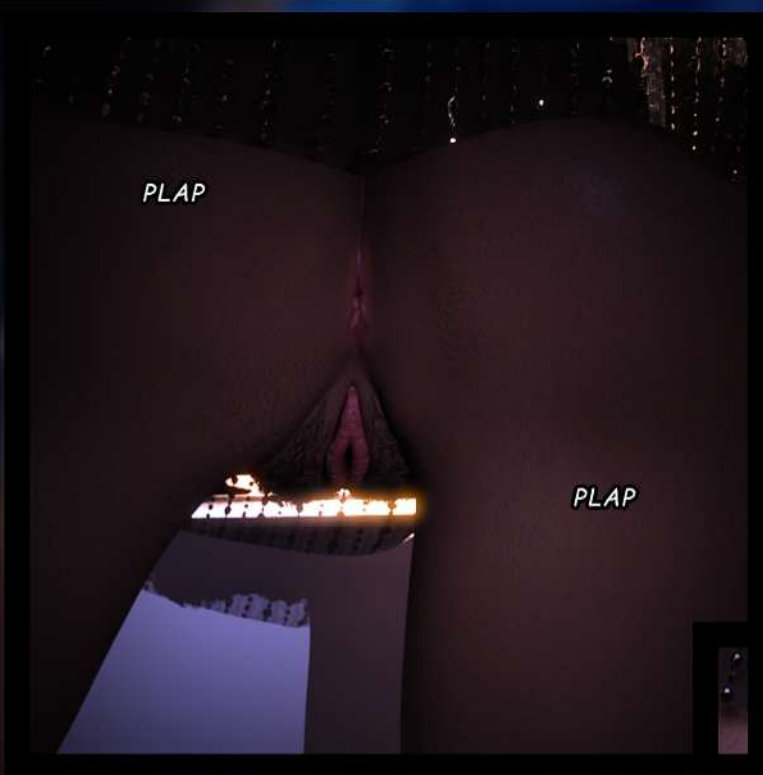

160 [color bar] 50

1090

So not cool. Dusty, boring books instead of...

... THIS?

Spooky Education

Spooky Education

Ah, as I observe...

...you are partaking in pleasure. I must admit...

But further tasks in our contest are now quite unnecessary...

Penny's IQ thingy

absolute Bimbo

oooooooooh!
YESSSSSSSS!

It is time for you to return... Penny!

Spooky Education

Oh my...
GOSH! I'm, like, totally back!

Was that all just a dreamy?

Jeez... wait, there's, like,
someone over there...
Hey! I'm totally over here!

Huh?
Wait... that's...

ME!

No way... why am I just standing here? I look, like, sooo boring and nerdy!

Spooky Education

Hey, I'm like, totally see-through and all shiny...

...like, a real ghost? Uhhh, that's soooo spooky!

Ooh, a pink glowingheart? Wait, I've, like, totally seen this before!

Yeah! Now it's, like, coming back to me - so smart, right? Miss Green had this and, like, a crystal brain thingy when she suggested that contest...

Spooky Education

Apparently, the recent events took place only in Penelope's mind. When she lost and "bimbofied," Penny, her alter ego, was born. Now, in reality, Penelope, the nerd, faces her Bimbo side, Penny, who has shattered her world.

You... ridiculous bimbo! You've totally altered my future trajectory!

But Penny, don't underestimate me! I'm going to apply the cognitive overload paradox to you!

If you're all "ultimate woman," I'm gonna push it even further 'til you just... pop! Yeah!

Wait! That was, like, so not cool! We totally got tricked... ohhh!

Make us, like, the most ultimate-est woman ever! We'll have more curves than brain...

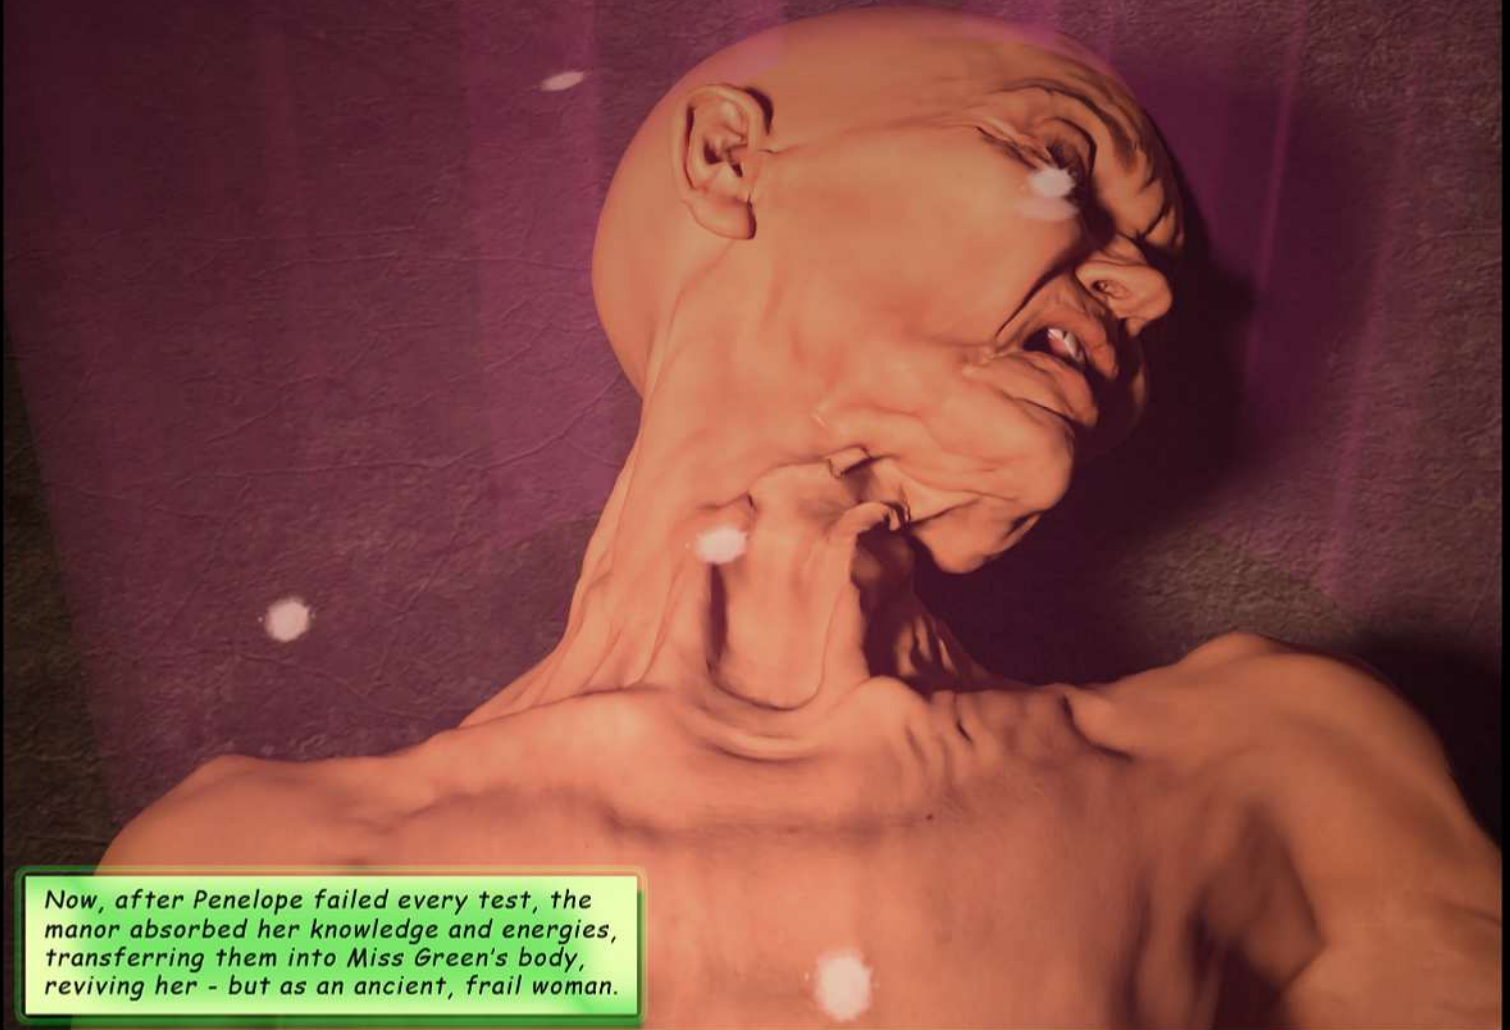

Because of you, our reality's shifting, and I'm becoming you! A mindless, pleasure-obsessed... representation of "ultimate femininity"!

Being a realist, Penelope understands that this duality is becoming increasingly problematic. She decides on an extreme solution: a paradoxical intervention.

By massively exaggerating her new Bimbo side and pushing it to its ultimate extreme, Penelope expects that this will fail, allowing reality to self-correct in the process. But she overlooks the true source of change. This force, Miss Green, meanwhile, is...

Spooky Education

Previously, we saw Miss Green's spirit hovering above her mortal remains, which had already begun to revive.

Now, after Penelope failed every test, the manor absorbed her knowledge and energies, transferring them into Miss Green's body, reviving her - but as an ancient, frail woman.

Yet, the transfer causes the years to melt away. Miss Green's wrinkles vanish, her hair regains its full color and volume, until finally...

Spooky Education

Miss Green, former headmistress of the city's girls' boarding school in 1860, has risen from the dead...

I live... at last! Now my work can begin anew!

She has restored her life and youth, though with significant limitations...

Oh, though I do miss my curves - but that can be remedied...

That college, where all these silly young things come from, is so very close by.

...and now she's overcome by an insatiable hunger that must be satisfied.

Time to leave this place of decay once and for all - after 164 long years!

Meanwhile, back with Penelope/Penny...

Spooky Education

*In the library, she spent all her days,
With her books and her nerdy old ways.
But with a flip of her hair,
And a spark in the air,
She dazzled in glamour-filled rays.*

This display of pure power is simply fascinating!

I knew a paradoxical intervention would be the exact solution!

*With her glasses now tossed to the side,
In heels, she would strut with such pride.
Her lips painted red,
With confidence spread,
As a Bimbo Queen, she'd now glide.*

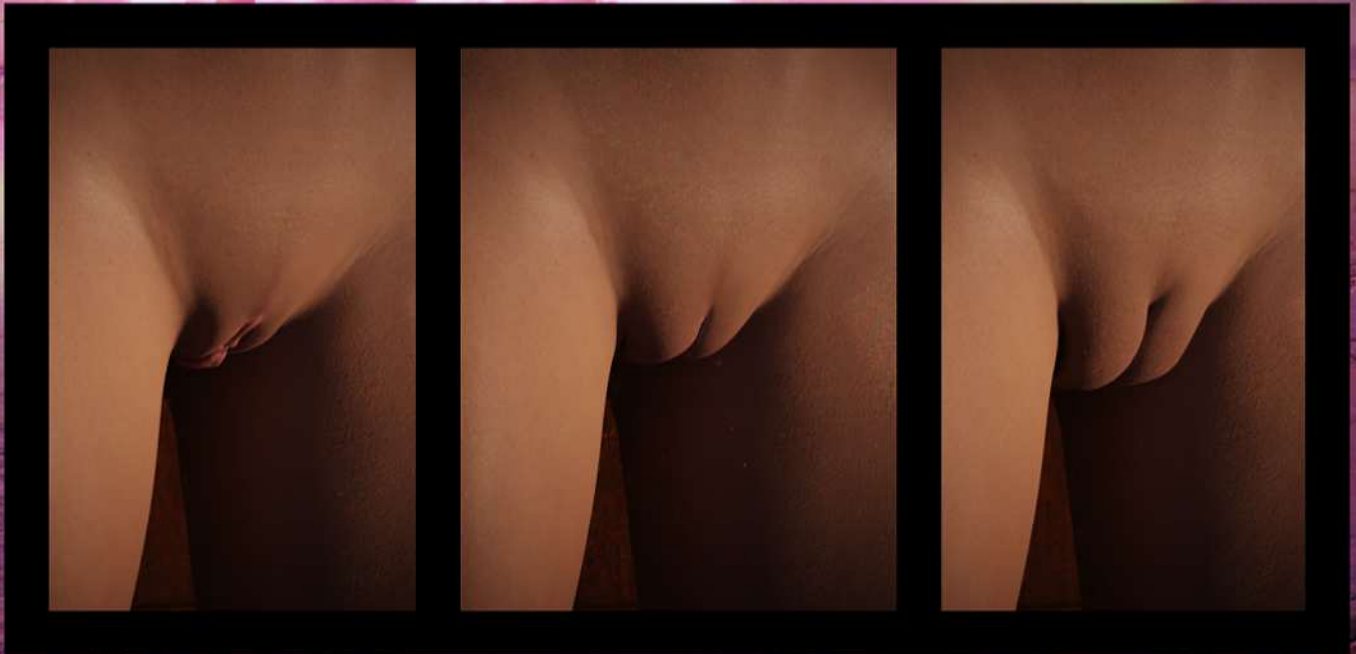

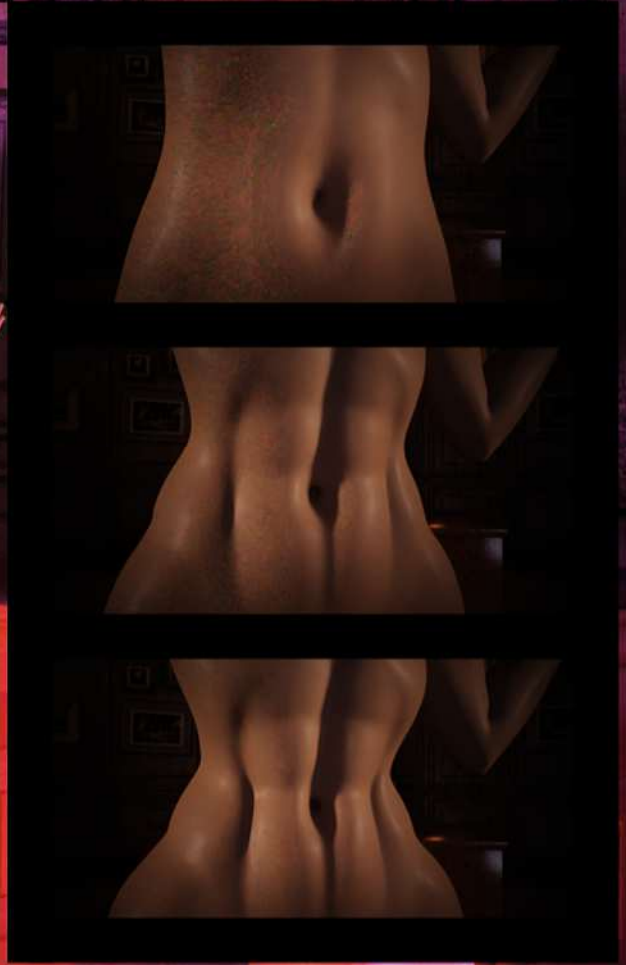

*From math books to parties, she totally soared,
In a world where her glam and her sparkle adored.
With a flirty wink and a sassy little grin,
She rocked it in style, letting confidence win.
Her fab self emerged, and she slayed like a queen,
Living life loud, like a real Bimbo dream!*

Spooky Education

I can't feel any trace of that bimbo version of myself anymore...

... I defeated that other self so quickly!

Spooky Education

Overall, this has been an incredibly interesting night. But now it's time to ...

Huh? What is that? Are those ... my hair?

Oh, damn it! My cute little breasts ...

... this pressure ...

They're growing... they're inflating! I...

THIS CAN'T BE HAPPENING!

Spooky Education

My theory was flawless...

*... and yet,
my body is changing drastically right now!*

I can feel my mind starting to wrap itself in a pink cloud...

Almost like earlier when I participated in those ridiculous tests.

*There has to be a solution;
I can't...*

... return as just another airhead!

Spooky Education

Ah, the fresh air of the breaking dawn...

...so invigorating. MissElisa Antonia Green is ready for more naughty adventures...

Something must have happened...

Something, like, super crazy that my theory about the, like, paradoxical interv... thingy...

Oh my gosh... my complex sentences... are turning, like, so totally simple again...

My bimbofication... it's speeding up, like, for sure!

And I can feel that, in the college behind my old building, there are many souls waiting to be... bimbofied by me.

Spooky Education

This time,
I won't be lynched by some foolish mob like back in 1860.

Had I not made that pact, none of this would be possible.

How impertinent.
As headmistress of the girls' school, I think I'm well within my rights to run a brothel, too... both now crumbling here in this building...

Instead, the townsfolk built the new college building right next door - which turned out to be an advantage for me, as it brought in plenty of naive young people for me to corrupt for my pact. Penelope was the last one - no. 50!

Ah, what the hell. I'll fix up this ruin later.

But first, I must regenerate my curves - and with them, my power. Every college has its bully, ah...
I can feel his presence so clearly...

Mmm...
this will be... delicious.
Well, for me...

Spooky Education

Spooky Education

This is like, getting sooo much... uhhh... stronger!

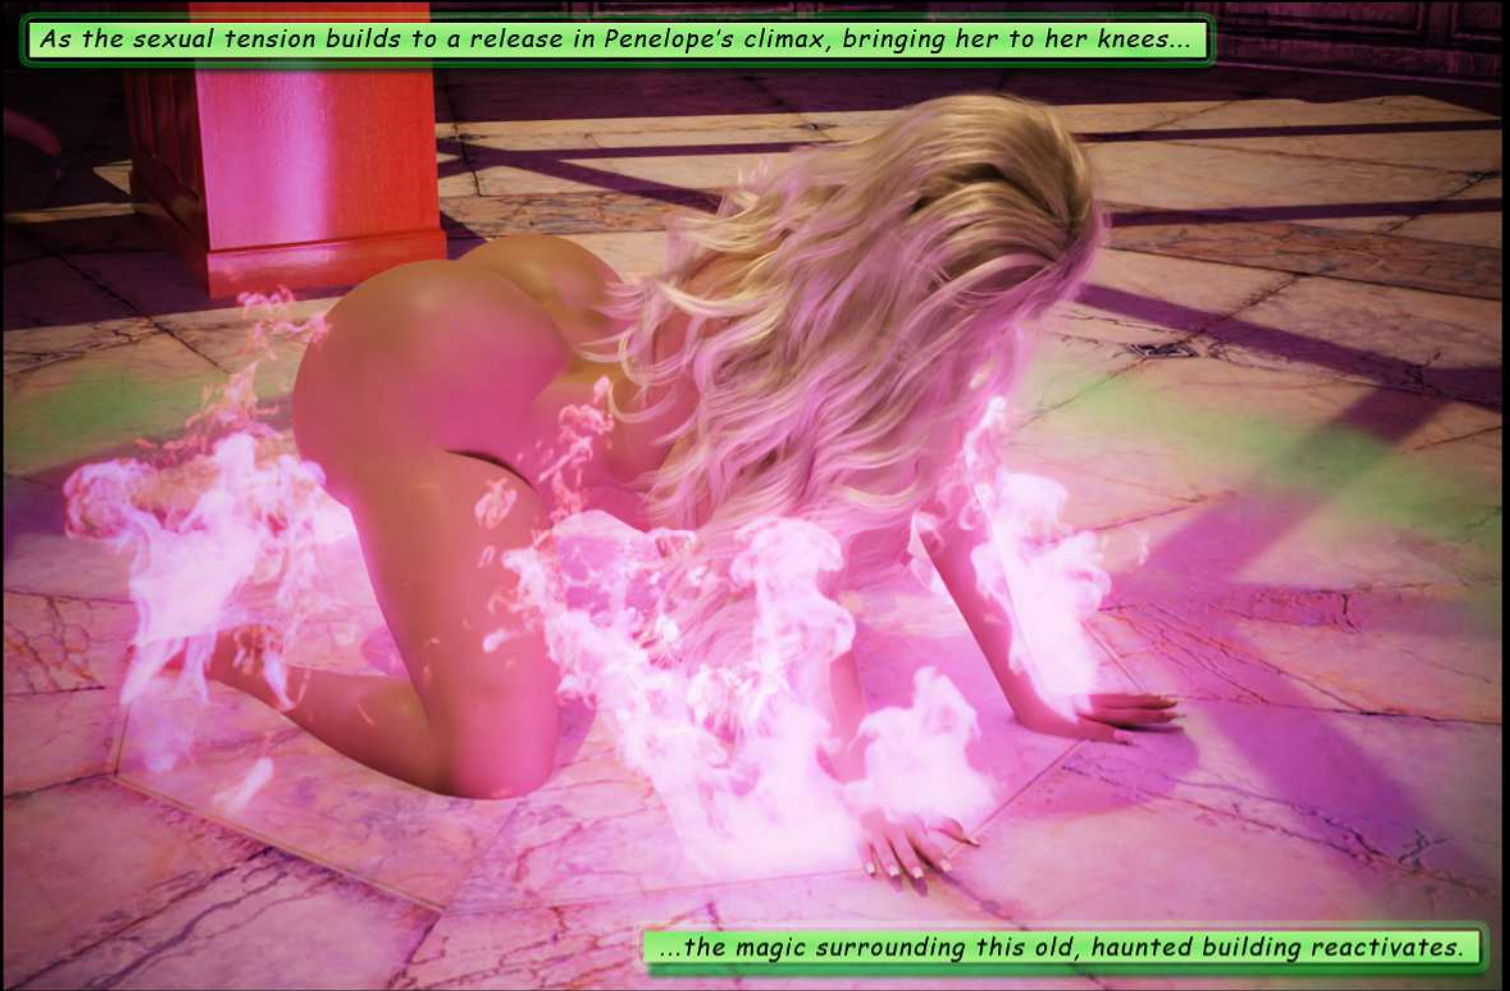

oooooooooh!

Uhhh... that's like, totally, crazy good!

Spooky Education

As the sexual tension builds to a release in Penelope's climax, bringing her to her knees...

...the magic surrounding this old, haunted building reactivates.

PENELOPE

PENNY

PENPEN

Massive, Eye-Catching Bust
Thick, Round Booty
Tiny Hourglass Waist
Plump Lips
Sensual gestures and touches
Playful behavior and playful demeanor
Innocent voice and expressions
Dramatic conversation topics
Stylish Hair Glamorous Make-up Constantly on Phone & Social Media
Stylish Accessories

By invoking the paradoxical intervention, Penelope could never have guessed that she was setting the stage for her own ultimate transformation into a bimbo...

Spooky Education

Meanwhile, Miss Green... or Elisa, has arrived at the fraternity house, where the biggest bully of the college has his room. Lustfully, she enters, full of anticipation for what is to come.

Ah... here's the young, strong gentleman I've been looking for...

Yes... you're just the right one... young, vital, bursting with strength...

... Cocky, aggressive, and so much more - a real tyrant here...

Whoa, girl! Who are you?

Hmm, I bet you enjoy that, huh, Taylor?

Getting straight to the point, huh? Me too!

- Taylor, 19 -

Don't talk too much, just hop on!

You like your bitches rough, don't you?

Without a doubt, the young man who just celebrated his 19th birthday is still a bit tipsy, but he is delighted that such a beautiful young woman is visiting him in the middle of the night.

Spooky Education

Straight to the point? Why not... yes...

One should be cautious when a mysterious stranger with glowing violet eyes enters the room in the middle of the night.

I'm normally a lover of Melons...but.. HEY!

... You fool!

What the...

Taylor is about to learn this firsthand...

As his energy and vitality flow out of him...

... are you doing to...

- Taylor, 25 -

... me? I feel...

Miss Green undergoes a transformation. Her breasts noticeably swell.

- Taylor, 33 -

... strange!

Spooky Education

But Miss Green is without restraint...

I'm not just fucking the life out of you, but also your knowledge...

You know, I died in 1860, and so much has changed since then...

- Taylor, 89 -

Wow... people are even flying into space? Just like Jules Verne...

...bewbs...

Taylor is increasingly deteriorating; his old age has already set in...

Ah... that was delicious...

Enjoy your retirement, Grandpa. I'll send you some diapers.

...finally leaving him, aged 109, lying in his bed.

What a woman...

Ohhh... I need to get up... footballgame starts... so...

zzzzzz

- Taylor, 109 -

Spooky Education

While Miss Green is busy, the transformation of Penelope into PenPen is progressing happily. Unbeknownst to the others, Penelope is changing further.

Her thoughts are becoming simpler, and her language is getting more playful. The complexity of her mind is fading, as her Bimbo personality takes over.

With each passing moment, she grows livelier, her smiles wider and more playful. The world around her becomes brighter, and her worries vanish.

Spooky Education

PenPen's simple thoughts spiral as she twirls...

...her body transforms further, now her already large breasts...

...which seem to fill up more and more with silicone, until two gigantic, plump breasts hit the ground with a satisfying plop...

...and a few more cup sizes grow before they settle beyond any bra scale.

Spooky Education

As PenPen's body reaches the peak of her bimbofication, a switch flips in her mind.

All that once was is now just a gray, murky haze, hidden deep behind a lustful, fire craving for fun, sex, and attention.

Penelope has fully merged into PenPen, and the night in the abandoned schoolhouse draws to a close.

Spooky Education

As a figure approaches PenPen, she rises—her massive funbags wobbling nonstop—and stands up on her long legs...

Ah, Penelope,
you walking bimbo dream!
Glad to see you're back on your feet...

Huh?
You talkin' to me, lady?

Come on,
let's finish what you set in motion last night...

I'm, like, PenPen... and you look totally hot...

giggle

... This was once my domain and my girls' school - together, we can bend reality right back to where it belongs.

Wanna, like, go to a party?

Spooky Education

Ahh, I get it now, PenPen. This is actually perfect. You're just right for the job like this.

Ohhh, you're the ghost lady! You showed PenPen how spooky borin' school can be...

Looks like bimbos are all the rage these days, huh?

Teehee, for sure! So many girls wanna be total bimbos these days - it's, like, sooo in!

Back in my time, that was a no-go - but times are changing!

Everything female or wanting to be, on Miss Green's College, becomes Bimbo, you see! Learning and logic no longer remain, just pleasure and fun as our joyful domain. PenPen leads the way for Bimbos galore, and men stay as guests, and nothing more.

Let's make this college into the ultimate bimbo academy!

Ooh, that sounds like, like, soooo much fun and tons of adventures, yay!

Spooky Education

The power that transformed Penelope into PenPen and resurrected Miss Green is now stronger than ever - nothing can hold them back!

Everything female or wanting to be, on Miss Green's College, becomes Bimbo, you see! Learning and logic no longer remain, just pleasure and fun as our joyful domain. PenPen leads the way for Bimbos galore, and men stay as guests, and nothing more.

With Miss Green's supernatural power and PenPen as the magical medium that amplifies the effects, all women and men who wish to be women experience a delightful transformation...
