

Walkthrough – Chastity Quest Build 1

Basic Game Systems:

Cursed Chastity Belt: The belt! The core of the game! There are only two things to really know here.

First, it comes off! There are multiple methods in the game to get it removed...all of which will cost you. And almost every single sex interaction in the game has both belted and unbelted version. They are not always with the same people, but are triggered from the same option/choice. In example, you'll get two different women, who you do very different things with, if you choose the Female Client option at the job prostitution job, once belted and once unbelted! With major NPCs, the content of the encounters still changes, usually having an entirely different animation set depending on your belt status. Which you can view, incidentally, from the Character Menu.

Second, all belt removals will last for a set time only. The default is 12 hours (two time blocks). Some release methods may buy you more or less time than that, eventually...

Dominance: The dominance system, put simply, controls how dominant or submissive Kiralia is. She begins the game at a neutral 50 points on a 100-point slider. Submissive actions reduce those points, dominant ones increase it. Generally, belted scenes are more likely to be Submissive and unbelted more likely to be dominant. However, that does not always hold true, as some characters in the game are 100% dominant or submissive and will produce the same dominance changes regardless of belt status. Some scenes are unlockable only if Kiralia is sufficiently Dominant or Submissive, those scenes will be marked with (Dom Unlock) or (Sub Unlock) in this guide.

Hub Areas: Hub areas are what I am currently calling the anchor areas for each part of the main quest. Currently, there is only the first one, Hope's Rest. Build 2 will introduce the seaside town of New Landing. With its own places to visit and NPCs to get to know.

Lust: This stat is, basically, representative of how horny/aroused Kiralia is at the moment. It effects some scenes, such as the Blacksmith Work options. However, higher lust can be dangerous! Well, in so much as anything in the game 'dangerous'...

Lust Effect: Related to the lust score...there are consequences to high Lust. If Kiralia's Lust score reaches 75 points or higher, then ever time she moves around the current hub there is chance of something happening. Depending on if she's wearing the magic chastity belt, and on simple luck, nothing may happen...or she may have sex with the first person she can find that will say yes! Of course, in later hub areas of the game, that are less understanding than Hope's Rest, there will be more dire punishments for losing control in public...

Time: The game has a very simple time feature. As the game is intended to be explored in full, rather than pressure you to move on with the quest all the time, there are no day or month trackers. Instead, the only time increments are four blocks of the day: Morning, Afternoon, Evening, and Night. Night is, effectively, only there as a period where your character must sleep, and will be forced to do so if you enter the time block from anywhere. There are two main things to know about the time system:

First, time DOES NOT pass when you move around town. Time only passes when you actually do an action. If you talk to an NPC, time passes. If you work, time passes. If you have kinky sex, time passes. Etcetera.

Second, some actions are time-gated. That is to say, they can only happen at certain times of day. In example, you can only work at the Inn in Hope's Rest at night. Likewise, you can only Adventure (alone or with Seesha), during the Morning and Afternoon. Time-gated actions and scenes in this guide will be marked as such!

Hub Area 1 – The Frontier Village of Hope's Rest

This, obviously, is where you start the game. There are currently 38 Sex Scenes in Hope's Rest, with a few more to come before we're done with the area. This section will show you how to find every single one of the scenes. Which, obviously, means that it's spoiler heavy! Scenes are broken down by location, then by NPC/Job/Whatever.

Blacksmith - Unique Sex Scenes - 10

Chastity Break – These scenes happen when you ask Urlang the Blacksmith for help getting out of the chastity belt. He requires a fee of 300 gold, plus Kiralia's first fuck out of the belt. If you accept his terms, there are two variants of the result.

Default – This is the default version that will always play, if you haven't found out Urlang's Secret. It costs 300 gold, reduces Lust by 50, Reduces Dominance by 1, and Releases you from the belt for the default 12 hours.

(Dom Unlock) Version – This version is only unlockable if you have discovered Urlang's Secret...that he's a Switch that like's being dominated. You can discover that secret by Drinking with Seesha the Rogue at the Guildhall. When you drink with her, there is a 25% chance that she will tell you a story about the Blacksmith, one that will reveal his secret! If you unlock this, the new scene will appear as an option when you ask Urlang about help with the chastity belt. If you choose the new option, you'll get a dominant scene with him...that also doesn't cost anything! Increases Dominance by 1, Reduces Lust by 50 and Releases you from the belt for the default 12 hours.

Blacksmith Work – These scenes are triggered by asking Urlang for work. He will offer you a job selling his skimpy armor line. If you accept, there are three options of what sort of armor to sell. In each case, the result is determined by either chance OR current LUST score. In order to trigger any of the sex scenes, your current LUST score must be 35 or greater.

Low Tier Armor – There is only one sex result for this, unlike the mid and high tier armor. If Kiralia's lust is high enough, she'll offer to eat the client out for a sale. This gives you a scene that remains unchanged regardless of Belt Status and results in both an automatic sale and a tip for the extra effort. You'll gain LUST as well, as Kiralia was unable to get off...

Note, if your Lust is not high enough, you can still make a sale for this tier! There is a 50% chance that she will buy the armor anyway...

Mid Tier Armor – There are two variants of the sex scene for this armor, belted and unbelted. If Lust is high enough, Kiralia will offer sex for an automatic sale.

Belted Version – If unbelted, there will be a lesbian threesome, where both women use strap-ons to fuck Kiralia. As this is a fairly neutral scene, there is no Dominance change. It will Reduce Lust by 75 and result in a payment of 150 gold.

Unbelted Version - If belted, there will be a lesbian threesome, where oral and fingering is performed. The scene results in a Reduction in Dominance and an Increase in Lust, as well as a payment of 150 gold

Note, if your Lust is not high enough, you can still make a sale for this tier! There is a 50% chance that she will buy the armor anyway...

High Tier Armor - There are two variants of the sex scene for this armor, belted and unbelted. If Lust is high enough, Kiralia will offer sex for an automatic sale.

Belted Version – This results in a F/F/M Threesome, with Kiralia submitting to the dominant female in the couple. Predictably, this results in a loss of dominance. She also won't let her cum, so Lust will increase to MAX from her messing with Kiralia. However, you also get a large tip from Urlang for the show, earning 200 gold.

Unbelted Version – This results in a F/F/M Threesome, with Kiralia dominating the submissive male of the trio and the other woman going along with it. This results in an increase of Dominance, 150 gold from Urlang, and a 75 Point Reduction in Lust.

Note, if your Lust is not high enough, you CAN'T make a sale at this tier. They simply won't be interested without the extra incentive.

BlackSmith Armor Repair – In the event you Break your Armor during the Adventuring Job (By Losing - Go to the job with too high of Lust for a higher chance of losing), you'll need to come to Urlang to get it repaired.

Blowjob Discount – If you do not know Urlang's Secret, this will be the only option. You get a 50% discount from Urlang if Kiralia offers him a blowjob. This results in a loss of Dominance and Increase in Lust.

(Dom Unlock) Blowjob Discount– Urlang's Secret will unlock a second option, to dominate him, with a larger discount! You can discover that secret by Drinking with Seesha the Rogue at the Guildhall. When you drink with her, there is a 25% chance that she will tell you a story about the Blacksmith, which will reveal his secret! This scene variant will place Urlang in bondage while Kiralia blows him. You will gain both Dominance and Lust for this version.

Sex Discount – If Kiralia is currently unbelted when she asks for an armor repair, she can offer Sex in exchange for a free repair. This is the default version, where he's a bit forceful with Kiralia, and results in a Dominance Gain and Lust Reduction.

(Dom Unlock) Sex Discount - If Kiralia is currently unbelted and knows Urlang's Secret (See Dom Unlock – Blowjob Discount) when she asks for an armor repair, she can offer Sex in exchange for a free repair. This is the dom version and it plays the same scene as the Dominant Blacksmith Chastity Break. As such, it's not counted toward the Unique Scenes. It results in a Dominance Gain and Lust Reduction.

Magic Shop - Unique Sex Scenes - 12

Magic Orgasm Help – This scene triggers if you ask Jillian for help with cumming while trapped in the chastity belt. It repeats the scene from the Intro, with her triggering the plugs with her magic to get Kiralia off. While this means it's a duplicate scene, it IS counted here, as the intro scenes are not added to the overall total scene count. Cost 25 gold and Reduces Lust by 10

Magic Shop Peeping Belted/Unbelted – This scene only becomes available if you have already taken Jillian to see Seesha for help at least once. Which is the result of random chance during the Working for Jillian Sex Scenes. (See the Jillian Gagged (Seesha Helps) entry in the Working for Jillian section). If you've done this, then the Peeping option will be added to the Exterior of the Magic Shop. If you select it, you can creep up to Jillian's bedroom window and watch the Jillian and Seesha play together...

Working for Jillian: These scenes play if you ask Jillian for work and agree to her terms. There are completely different sets of scenes for Belted and Unbelted Kiralia, with a random result each time. Each scene should have roughly a 25% chance to occur, assuming the current Belt Status is the right one for it's chance. Note: Some options require a Dominance Check to succeed.

Jillian Gagged (Seesha Helps) – In this result, the magic targets Jillian...and it gags her! She can't use magic without speaking, so you have to go get help from Seesha the Rouge in order to get her out of bondage...this result can happen either belted or unbelted. Belt status changes some minor text, and influences whether you Gain or Reduce Lust. Belted, Kiralia Gains 25 lust. Unbelted she Reduces lust by 25. Either way, she is paid 250 gold for her help!

Unbelted - Jillian Needs to Cum (Oral) – In this result, the magic targets Jillian and she needs Kiralia to make her cum in order to get free. Presented with the choice, choosing Oral will result in Kiralia eating her out. Without the belt on, Kiralia can at least play with herself while she makes Jillian cum with her tongue. This has a completely different animation from the belted result! Results in 100 gold, +1 Dominance and +25 Lust.

Belted - Jillian Needs to Cum(Oral) - In this result, the magic targets Jillian and she needs Kiralia to make her cum in order to get free. Presented with the choice, choosing Oral will result in Kiralia eating her out. With the belt on, Kiralia can only sigh in frustration as she eats Jillian out. This has a completely different animation from the unbelted result! Results in 100 gold and +30 Lust.

Unbelted Jillian Needs to Cum (Sex) - In this result, the magic targets Jillian and she needs Kiralia to make her cum in order to get free. Presented with the choice, choosing 'Try for Sex' will prompt a Dominance Check. If your Dominance Level is equal to or greater than 50, you will pass the check and you get a Double Dildo scene with Kiralia and Jillian. Success results in 100 gold, +1 Dominance, and -50 Lust. Failure results in only reduced pay of 25 gold.

Belted Jillian Needs to Cum (Sex) - In this result, the magic targets Jillian and she needs Kiralia to make her cum in order to get free. Presented with the choice, choosing 'Try for Sex' will prompt a Dominance Check. If your Dominance Level is equal to or greater than 50, you will get a scene where you can fuck Jillian with a Strapon. Success results in 100 gold, +1 Dominance, and +50 Lust. Failure results in only reduced pay of 25 gold.

Unbelted Kiralia Needs to Cum – In this result, the magic targets Kiralia and she needs Jillian to help her cum in order to get free. If you accept her help, she will fist Kiralia to climax, resulting in payment of 100 gold, -1 Dominance, and -25 Lust.

Belted Kiralia Needs to Cum - In this result, the magic targets Kiralia and she needs Jillian to help her cum in order to get free. With the belt in the way, Jillian will simply offer to trigger the plug inside Kiralia to make her cum. If accepted, this results in payment of 100 gold and -20 Lust.

Unbelted Kiralia Struggle – In this result, the magic targets Kiralia and the resulting bondage gear is a type that must be struggled out of. If you try to struggle, you get a scene that shows either success or failure depending on your Power level. Success results in payment of 100 gold and +20 lust. Failure results in Jillian magicking the gear off you and reduced pay. The scenes are close enough to identical that they are only counted as a single scene for overall scene count.

Belted Kiralia Struggle (Blacksmith) – In this result, the magic targets Kiralia...and a set of extremely strict bondage gear that repels magic is put on her. As Jillian can't help you get them off, she pays you double (200 gold) and suggests you visit either the Blacksmith or a Rogue. If you choose the Blacksmith, you get this option, where you can either take the boring route a pay to get the devices removed...or accept his terms and get them off for free. Accepting his alternative payment terms leads to a blowjob scene, followed by an anal sex scene. This adds +75 Lust and – 1 Dominance.

Belted Kiralia Struggle (Rogue) - In this result, the magic targets Kiralia...and a set of extremely strict bondage gear that repels magic is put on her. As Jillian can't help you get them off, she pays you double (200 gold) and suggests you visit either the Blacksmith or a Rogue. If you go to the Rogue, you go to Seesha for help. She agrees to help you...but only if you let her put a dildo gag in Kiralia's mouth and fuck her to climax with it. This adds +40 Lust and – 1 Dominance.

Jillian Magics things off (No Sex) – The alternative way out of most bondage gear (exception being the belted struggle result). Does not count as a sex scene as there isn't any sex! Does not, of course, remove the Magic Chastity Belt.

Guildhall - Adventure - Unique Sex Scenes - 2

This one requires a tiny bit of upfront explanation. You can go adventuring from the Guildhall during Morning or Afternoon. However, doing so with the Chastity Belt on has some risk to it. The hornier Kiralia is (the higher the current Lust Score) the greater the risk. Failure you can result in one of two rape-type scenes. The only real non-consent options in the game, which are 100% avoidable if you either simply don't adventure with the chastity belt on, or take Seesha with you from her menu choices, or choose to take the Safe option at the warning point before the scene! If you do that the rape-enable option, the higher Kiralia's LUST score, the higher the failure percentage will be! Past a certain point of Lust, she'll even fail on purpose...

Unbelted Adventure – Adventuring without the chastity belt doesn't carry any risk of the rest of the scenes. However, there is a 50% chance it will trigger the Finding the Farm scene. This scene unlocks the MorningWood Farm and its own Vendora Morningwood. As a result, the information on the scene is in The Farm section of this guide!

Uneventful Adventure(No Sex) – For low and Medium risk levels, this is an option that can happen. Essentially...that nothing bad happens! Obviously, it's not counted as a sex scene! It results in gold and a slight lust increase.

Belted Adventure (Monster) – The first failure possibility, randomly chosen on failure. This result only occurs in medium risk for higher! In this case, a tentacle monster defeats Kiralia and has it's way with her. Lust is set to Max and her armor is broken.

Belted Adventure (Bandit) – The other failure possibility, randomly possible on all three levels of risk. An unscrupulous adventurer saves you from a monster...only to take advantage of you himself. This results in an anal sex scene. He also steals your profits. Lust is increased by 35.

Guildhall - Rogue - Unique Sex Scenes -7

Drinking with Seesha – You can choose to have a few drinks with Seesha the Rogue. If you do, there are four equally likely random results!

Solo Bondage Adventure – Kiralia gets roaring drunk and passes out. She wakes up in the wilderness, bound and plugged, she must make her way back to Seesha's room to be freed! This results in +15, -1 Dominance...and being freed of the chastity belt for 12 hours! As an apology from Seesha for going a bit too far...

Dual Bondage Adventure- Kiralia AND Seesha get completely hammered and wake up on the roof of the Guildhall, both in bondage gear and chastity belts (as well as a chastity bra for Seesha). They have to go around town to find the keys that their drunk selves hid the previous evening... Results in +15 Lust, -1 Dominance, and the satisfaction of seeing Seesha stuck in a chastity for a bit!

Drunken Yoke Sex- Kiralia and Seesha get mildly drunk and Kiralia agrees to go up to Seesha's room for some fun...fully knowing Seesha's preferences. This results in Kiralia being bound with a yoke and fucked silly. -75 Lust, -1 Dominance.

The BK Secret (No Sex) – Not counted as a sex scene, as there is no sex. This result reveals Urlang the Blacksmith's dirty little secret...and unlocks new options with him as a result.

Seesha Chastity Belt Unlock – This is the other main way (aside from the blacksmith) that Kiralia can get freed from her chastity belt (temporarily). She can ask Seesha to pick the locks, giving her 12 hours of freedom...but Seesha is uninterested in money. She'll demand to be serviced by Kiralia in exchange...as well as her choice of how to fuck her afterward. If you accept, it leads to oral and anal sex, -75 Lust, and -1 Dominance.

(Sub Unlock) Submit to Seesha Required – This scene can only be unlocked if Kiralia is submissive enough! (40 Dominance or Less). If the requirements are met, it is added to Seesha's menu options and Kiralia can willingly submit to Seesha for some bondage fun...contains a completely unique scene from any other Seesha bondage options! Lust is MAXed at the end of it...

Seesha Adventures – Knowing that it is unsafe to adventure with the chastity belt on, as it will distract Kiralia at random times, you can choose to ask Seesha to adventure with you (Morning and Afternoon only). Of course, she'll have her own fun with you if you choose to go with her...

Belted Adventure – If you go with Seesha while wearing the Chastity Belt there is a random chance that either nothing will happen, or you'll find a special room! Said room will contain a sex machine that Seesha will convince Kiralia to try...in exchange for getting out of her chastity belt for free! Results in: (+150 Gold) (-25 Lust) (-1 Dominance) (12 hours freedom from belt)

Unbelted Adventure - If you go with Seesha while free of the Chastity Belt, the two of you may run afoul of a trap that gasses you with an Aphrodisiac. This leads to oral, fingering, and a 69 mutual oral, resulting in (+200 Gold) (-75 Lust) (-1 Dominance)

Nothing Happens (No Sex) Works – Nothing major happens, but Seesha is still handsy, giving a minor Lust increase. Not counted as a sex scene, for obvious reasons!

Guildhall - Room - Unique Sex Scenes - 1

Masturbate (Unbelted Required) - If Kiralia is not currently belted, she can masturbate in her room! This reduces Lust by 25. And yes, it is a full scene, not just some random text saying she masturbated (stupid other adult games, I'm looking at many of you. You all know who you are... -_-).

The Inn - Unique Sex Scenes – 11

Have a Drink – Taking the 'Have a Drink' option will result in one of 4 random events, with one of those events having two unique scenes depending on belted/unbelted status.

Drunken Masturbation – Kiralia will end up naked in her room back at the Guildhall, somehow unbelted (if she was belted in the first place) and masturbating drunkenly...while still drinking more! (-25 Lust)

Orgy at the Inn – Somehow, the drinking at the Inn devolves into an Orgy...or does it? Kiralia wakes up back in her room, unsure if she dreamed it or not... (+75 Lust)

Pillory – Kiralia needs to pay off a large bar tab and finds an interesting way to do so... (+250 Gold) (-2 Dominance) (Lust - 100)

Table Show(Belted) – Thoroughly Tipsy, Kiralia puts on a show for the crowd by crawling up on the table and trying to get off via masturbating. The belted version uses an anal-dildo animation. (+15 Lust)

Table Show(UnBelted) - Thoroughly Tipsy, Kiralia puts on a show for the crowd by crawling up on the table and trying to get off via masturbating. The unbelted version uses an animation with Kiralia using a potion bottle. (+15 Lust)

Work(Prostitution) - At the Inn, you can ask Sam for a chance to work as a prostitute in the rooms there. He'll help set you up with clients suitable to Kiralia's current Belted Status and your gender preference. There are also Dom and Sub special unlocks!

(Belted) Female Client – Sam provides a moderately dominant Female Client demanding oral attention. Results in: (+200 Gold) (+ 35 Lust) (-1 Dominance)

(Unbelted) Female Client – Sam provides a nice, relatively innocent girl you get to break in with a double-ended dildo! (+200 Gold) (- 50 Lust) (+1 Dominance)

(Belted) Male Client – Sam provides a dominant male client who demands anal from you... (+250 Gold) (+ 15 Lust) (-1 Dominance)

(Unbelted) Male Client – You pick out your own client and manage to dominant him! (+250 Gold) (-50 Lust) (+1 Dominance)

Sub Unlock – If Kiralia is submissive enough (40 Dominance or less), an extra option will appear! She can ask Sam for something special. This option results in a gangbang (3 men and her). It also results in: (+150 Gold) (-100 Lust) (-1 Dominance)

Dom Unlock – If Kiralia is Dominant enough (60 Dominance or higher) an extra option will appear! She can pay Sam his bit in advance and simply look for her own target...and find one in Annabelle and an Orc she's taken a fancy too. This option results in a threesome with both of them. It also results in: (+150 Gold) (-100 Lust) (+1 Dominance)

The Farm- 7 Unique Scenes

Locating the farm involves one of the scenes. I'm listing it here, as I think it makes more sense to do so, however it is actually triggered by Finding Work as an Adventurer while Unbelted. Otherwise, all scenes listed are at the MorningWood Farm once it is unlocked. Though two of them are gated by information you need to find elsewhere.

Finding the Farm – As mentioned above, this scene is actually triggered via Adventuring alone, Unbelted. There is a 50% chance of it triggering under those conditions. If it does trigger, Kiralia will find a magic Lactation Potion, that she is compelled to drink. This triggers a chain of events that Unlocks the MorningWood Farm. Returning to do additional Unbelted adventures can trigger variant of the scenes, which can be quite profitable. (-100 Lust)(+200 Gold)(-1 Dominance)

(Job)Milking – Once you Unlock the MorningWood Farm (See Finding the Farm above), you can repeat the Milking scenes as a small job. The content is similar to the Finding the Farm content, but has enough minor variants (including belted/unbelted video/text) that I counted it as a Unique Scene. I waffled back and forth on that... Either way, it can be triggered by simply asking Vendora about it.

Pony Cart Pull (Power Training) – This scene is triggered by asking Vendora MorningWood about the ponygirl you can see behind her. She will explain that some of Kiralia's fellow female adventurers have taken a liking to pony play...and Vendora has taken advantage by setting up something for them to do. She can sign up for the training and be rigged up as a pony girl. By dragging a cart around the farm, Kiralia can train her POWER stat. Stat gains will cap at Power 5. Other effects will remain, however. (+1 Power)(+50 Lust)(-1 Dominance)

Warning! Vendora MorningWood is a Futanari Character! If you don't like that sort of thing, skip her content! You will be warned in game, as well.

(Belted) Sex with Vendora – If you Flirt with Vendora, you'll get the choice to have sex with her (after the Futa content warning). She's a gentle lover and will help Kiralia cum even if she's trapped in her chastity belt...via an anal sex scene, of course! (-30 Lust)

(UnBelted) Sex with Vendora– If you Flirt with Vendora, you'll get the choice to have sex with her (after the Futa content warning). She's a gentle lover and will make sure Kiralia has a good time...despite the difficulties causes by a massive cock... This triggers a vaginal sex scene with her. (-80 Lust)

Peeping on Jillian & Vendora – This scene has to be unlocked by learning about Jillian's interests. There are actually two ways to do so. One is by Talking to Jillian with High Lust and asking about her sexuality. The other is by listening to Sam's rumors at the bar. One of them provides the same hint in a different way. However you unlock it, there are two Major variants depending on Kiralia's Belted/Unbelted status. Both are triggered by a new option that will become available at the MonringWood Farm once you unlocked the needed bit of information...

(Belted) Peeping – In this option, Kiralia can't do anything but watch in frustration as Jillian and Vendora have sex. Results in her walking a unique scene through the window. (Lust MAX)

(Unbelted) Peeping – In this option, Kiralia, free of her belt, makes a bold decision. Instead of merely watching, she joins in, triggering a threesome with Jillian and Vendora... (-100 Lust)(+1 Dominance)

Lust Effect Scenes (Hope's Rest) – 5 Unique Scenes

These scenes are triggered by walking around a Hub Area (such as Hope's Rest), while Kiralia has over 75 Lust. Results differ if she is belted/unbelted and both belted statuses have multiple scenes that can occur randomly.

(Belted)Nothing Happens – Not quite what it says on the tin. No sex scene...but the Chastity Belt only brings Kiralia to a stop for a few minutes. There is a lust increase but nothing else happens. Obviously, this does not count towards the Unique sex scenes counts.

(Belted)Female Partner – Kiralia's Cursed Chastity Belt acts up in public, forcing her to seek relief. It will only let her cum if she services someone else...so she looks for a partner! This scene is one of two random results, in which she spots a young woman first and approaches her to satisfy the conditions. Results in an oral sex scene with said young woman. (-50 Lust)(-1 Dominance)(+???) Note: The ??? stat currently has no usage in the game. It's something that will be implemented much later

(Belted)Male Partner – Kiralia's Cursed Chastity Belt acts up in public, forcing her to seek relief. It will only let her cum if she services someone else...so she looks for a partner! This scene is one of two random results, in which she spots a man who's hit on her before and approaches him to satisfy the conditions. Results in an oral sex scene with man. (-50 Lust)(+50 Gold)(-1 Dominance)(+???) Note: The ??? stat currently has no usage in the game. It's something that will be implemented much later

(Unbelted)Public Masturbation – Kiralia's Lust drives her to seeking release. She strips off right in the middle of the street and sees to her own needs... (-25 Lust)

(Unbelted)Female Partner – Kiralia’s Lust drives her to seeking release with a partner, seducing a young woman into public sex with her! Results in dominant sex with said young woman. (-50 Lust)(+1 Dominance)

(Unbelted)Male Partner – Kiralia’s Lust drives her to seeking release with a partner, seducing a man who has hit on her repeatedly in the past. Results in (public) dominant sex with said man. (-50 Lust)(+1 Dominance)

Total Unique Sex Scenes in Hope’s Rest = 55

In Transit – Traveling on the Dawn’s Rose

There are three separate ‘routes’ that can be taken through the Dawn’s Rose content. Those routes are accessed/unlocked by the current level of Kiralia’s Dominance upon talking to the Scarlett Sisters in the Inn (talk to Sam and ask about passage in order to even find the sisters in the first place). If Kiralia’s Dominance score is 60 or above, it will unlock the Dominant Route. If her Dominance is 40 or below, it will unlock the Submissive Route. The Default Route is available at all times, regardless of Dominance level. Both the Submissive and Dominant routes have 3 MAJOR scenes, each being among the largest in the game. The Default route is somewhat different, being focused on a series of choices, but containing a roughly similar amount of content.

Dawn’s Rose - The Dominant Route

Fining all content for this route is extremely straightforward, as you will be given all there options outright as menu options. As such, I will simply outline here what the three options are.

Teasing Day: If you choose the ‘Tease Aleya all day’ option on the menu of what to do with her...Kiralia will subject poor Aleya to being teased all day without release ;-). This involves several things, including a foot massage, forced masturbation, and two different oral sex scenes.

Crew Service: If you choose the ‘Have Aleya service the crew’ option on the menu of what to do with her, Kiralia will have her spend the day ‘servicing’ the crew. This is added to/spiced up a bit with a remote control toy in Kiralia’s hands...

Chastity Day: If you choose the ‘Look for something fun in the storage room’ option in the menu for what to do with Aleya, this day triggers. Going to the storage room of toys, Kiralia will find a high-security chastity belt and bra, plus a yoke, blindfold, and vibrating dildo. The day content involves putting all of them on (or in) Aleya, then taking her around the ship. The day ends in a missionary sex-scene with Aleya.

Dawn’s Rose - The Submissive Route

Fining all content for this route is extremely straightforward, as you will be given all there options outright as menu options. As such, I will simply outline here what the three options are.

Service the Crew: Choosing the 'Service the Crew' option from Captain Shizara's menu of choices results in Kiralia spending the entire day serving the crew's sexual needs...and getting a reward at the end! Specifically, being tied to a bondage cross and fucked by Shizara. She even allows Kiralia to cum...once. How nice of her.

Serve Alongside Aleyna: Choosing the 'Serve with her Sister' option from Captain Shizara's menu of choices results in Kiralia spending the day entertaining the crew alongside Aleyna. This involves dancing for them on deck...and again, ends in a reward for a job well done. Specifically, in being allowed to have sex with Aleyna...under her sister's direction...

Spend the Day with Shizara: Choosing the 'Spend the day with Shizara' option from Captain Shizara's menu of choices results in Kiralia...spending the entire day with Shizara. This means being teased mercilessly all day, through various situations, until finally getting relief from painful levels of arousal at the end of the day...with a special guest in the form of Aleyna 'hanging around.' The reward for this day is sex with the Captain in her cabin...while Aleyna is forced to watch helplessly.

Dawn's Rose - The Default Route

Okay, this route is structure very differently than the others, and the only one that you REALLY need the guide for. Oh, you could probably find everything without it, but it would be a bit trial and error. As the various sexual encounters can be mix-and-matched on various days, I decided that the best way to give a guide to them would be to outline ONE way that you can see all-content (or almost all) in a single pass through this route. There are other viable combinations, this is just the one I used for testing.

Day 1:

Day 1 will start with a detailed shower scene, leading up to the choice of whether or not to give a blowjob in the shower. For this see-everything route, agree to give the blowjob.

After the short Blowjob Scene finishes, the crewman will give you directions to see Van the Shipwright, who can remove Kiralia's chastity belt! This first time, you'll automatically visit him, getting the full introduction and removal scene. This first time, it will also automatically move you on to the Crew Gangbang scene, then end the day.

Day 2:

Day 2 will start with a much shortened version of the shower scene, leading to a choice with the crewman again, where you can either repeat the blowjob scene or do a new Anal Scene, which is more in depth...and also new. So we'll do that this time. (Note: If you refused the blowjob on Day 1, you can only do that...or refuse it again).

After choosing the Anal Scene option and watching the results, you are presented with a new choice! You can either Go Visit Van or else Go Up On Deck. For this guide, we'll chose to Go Visit Van on Day 2. This will give you a shortened version of the chastity-break scene, followed by...

Another choice! Instead of automatically going to the gangbang scene, you now have the choice to either repeat that scene, or look for a new partner. Obviously, we're going to choose the new option. This triggers the Passenger Scene, which is the only lesbian scene for this route. Kiralia will find and seduce a fellow passenger. After that, the second day ends.

Day 3:

For day three, you'll see the same intro bits as Day 2. Only, this time, we're going to outright refused either Anal or Blowjob scenes. Technically, you can actually do one of them, than simply use the choice to either go/not go to Van to do what we want. Either works.

Refusing the Blowjob/Anal scenes and/or doing one of them but then choosing not to visit Van, will trigger the final sex scene for this route. Kiralia will go up on deck and try to wait peacefully...only for The Belt to interfere. Once she gets horny enough, she'll seize on the idea of appealing it....and this is where it's technically not possible to see every single bit of this route in one go.

If Kiralia accepts that she needs to do something Lewd, she'll find a crewmember and trigger the Boobjob Scene. She'll be rewarded by The Belt with an orgasm.

However! There is an option to resist. If you choose for her to resist, she will instead go and spend her time reading an erotic novel in the study...but there's no sex scene. On the other hand...it does change a variable in the background that will only be important much later in the game.

Day 4 on any route!

Currently, Day 4 on any of The Dawn's Rose routes is currently a placeholder. There is a link that will allow you to return to Hope's Rest, if you want to play through the other routes...other than that, it's current the end of content!
