Pact of the Chain: Revised

At 3rd level, a warlock can take the pact of the chain which allows them to learn the Find Familiar spell and cast it as a ritual. The spell doesn't count against your number of spells known.

When you cast the spell, you can choose one of the normal forms for your familiar or one the following special forms: Blink Dog, Crawling Hand, Flumph, Gray Ooze, Imp, Mephit, Pseudodragon, Quasit, Shadow, Sprite, Vine Blight, Zombie. Your familiar has a number of hit points equal to your warlock level plus your Charisma modifier regardless of its form.

In addition, you can use a bonus action to quickly change the form of your familiar to another. You can do this a number of times equal to your proficiency bonus, and all expended uses are restored after you finish a long rest. when you take the Attack action, you can forgo one of your attacks to allow your familiar to use its reaction to make one attack of its own.
