

Chew Toy: Rubber Pup Transformation

You stared down eagerly at the rubber pup hood in your hands; its slick seamless features beckoned you to put it on. You couldn't describe it but when holding it in your hands it radiated an energy, enticing you with every passing moment. You had never been so excited to dawn an article of clothing in your entire life.

Without hesitation you tore your clothes off and picked up the mask. Your swift movements of disrobing are cut through by your gentle examination of the mask once more. You flip the mask around and gently open the back inching it towards your face. You calmly slip your head inside and press it against your face. The warm slippery texture gilded seamlessly onto your head, you shudder as you feel your cock begin to swell. You take a few deep inhaled breaths when you can feel the energy inside yourself shift. You begin to feel the mask's enticing influence making you hornier than ever before.

You can't help but reach down and begin stroking yourself. As you do you feel the mask tighten against your head. Your breaths quicken as you feel the mask grow tighter and tighter, squeezing and shaping itself to your face. In a slight panic you reach for the back zipper of the mask and try to pull it off. Your fingers fumble to find the object of your release. You blindly stroke your fingers along the zipper track desperately trying to find the zipper. Your stomach drops as you feel the latex grow over the zipper and become a smooth surface.

Without even a moment to think you feel the collar fit snugly around your neck tighten, a thick ooze begins to emanate from its base, thick and warm it drips down your body. You grip and tug at the dog mask but it's no use, it continues to tighten and form itself to you. In your panicked pull movements the thick viscous goo drips and spreads all over your body, its warm embrace coating your body in a shiny black rubber.

The dog mask, once loose and spacious is now gripping your face tightly, you try to struggle and call for help but it's no use, you hear the echo of your voice bounce back against the hood. As you do you begin to feel a mass form at the tip of your lips, it gently caresses your mouth. A thick throbbing member slightly presses against your lips once more, you can feel the throbbing heat of it begging to go inside. "Dear god!" you think to yourself "What have I done?" You fall to your knees as the large member plunges down your throat, you sputter and gag clawing at the mask. You feel the slight tickle of nose tubes enter inside you, invading your lungs. You take deep breaths in through the newly formed tubes, feeling the deep pulsating throb of the warm cock as it slides deeper inside your throat.

The mask plans on taking control of you inside and out. As the warm thick goo continues to spread over your body you feel it swarm your hard cock. It tightens around your balls and slips up and forms tendrils that glide gently over your dick. You wince as you feel the sharp tingling sensation of the tendrils slipping deep inside like a jolt of lightning. You feel your balls swell as your fully enveloped cock begins to become stroked by the suit. You felt like you were fucking a warm tight hole. You could feel the suit bend and reform your cock into a large formless mound, a null bulge meant to torment and tease you. You continue to feel the stroking sensation even though you are helpless to do anything about it. Your cock being stimulated under the large mound of shiny black rubber. No pleasure, no release, just constant torment and stimulation. You moan and whimper, your cries muffled by the cock lodged deep in your throat. You pick yourself up off the ground, with no sight and little hearing, use the wall to support yourself. You can feel the rubber tendrils forming around your whole body. You feel another jolt as another large cock slides inside your tight hole. The throbbing pressure slides deeper and deeper inside, pressing against your stomach. You whimper as you feel it squirm and writhe inside you. The intensifying pressure that builds inside your gut is too much for you to take, you beg the suit to let you cum.

You feel the cocks inside your throat and ass begin to plunge back and forth inside you. The constant motion paired with the sensation inside your cock began to drive you mad. You used your newly formed rubber paws to squeeze and rub your null bulge. Desperate to find any sort of release you rubbed it against the wall. You begin to feel the speed of the plugs deep inside your person increase. The suit's sensations intensified; you had never experienced anything like this! You fell to your knees as the climax of the suit enveloped you inside and out. With one final muffled moan you feel the suit unlock your cock from its rubber prison. It was only for a moment to let you release. You had never experienced a climax like this before. Your body shuddered as you feel the warm thick rubber globs as they bombard their way out of the tip of your cock. You pause for a moment sitting in the warm euphoria of the suit. Your breaths begin to shorten and you wince once more as the suit replugs your cock into its null form. Your new life as a rubber pup begins, your pleasure is decided by the rubber mask you were once so eager to put on. Your body is slick and seamless, you have become a permanent object of desire, forever bound by the thick rubber encasing your new body.
