A woman with long purple hair, wearing a purple, form-fitting, long-sleeved outfit with a high-cut bottom and purple high-heeled sandals, is standing on a narrow wooden ledge. She has her arms outstretched for balance. A speech bubble next to her contains the text: "FUCK! I CAN'T KEEP MY BALANCE I'M GONNA FALL!!". The background is a simple room with a white wall and a dark brown wall. A white pillar is visible to the right of the ledge.

A woman with long, wavy purple hair and purple lips is shown in a close-up shot. She has a distressed expression, with her mouth open as if crying or shouting. She is wearing a purple, ribbed, long-sleeved top. The background features a staircase with dark wood steps and a white wall with vertical blinds. A thought bubble is positioned to the left of her head, containing text in purple capital letters.
