

The warm rays of sunlight felt good on her skin. Currently, Ginny Potter wore sunglasses that covered her bright brown eyes, but most of the rest of her body was completely exposed. The wife of Harry Potter had a trim, athletic body and she liked to show it off, especially while on vacation with her amazing husband Harry Potter. Right now, she was just lounging around on the balcony of their hotel room, enjoying a blissful honeymoon with her new husband and longtime lover Harry Potter. Set on the tenth floor of the amazing hotel that was nestled right next to an amazing beach Ginny Potter was wearing a simple white and blue striped bathing suit. Feeling the need to show off more of her body the two pieces of the bathing suit were quite revealing. They offered anyone lucky enough to see Ginny quite the exciting amount of lightly tanned flesh. Ginny didn't mind the looks and she also knew that if anyone ever got too close or lingered too long her husband was one of the best wizards of the world.

After a few more minutes of nearly nude sunbathing, her magical alarm sounded off nearby. It was loud enough to rouse her if she was asleep, but it wasn't loud enough to alert her neighbors. Slowly, almost lazily the young attractive woman rose up from the lounging chair and put her towel over her shoulders. Looking out she saw plenty of people down below. The main hotel structure was a curved tower with a large frontal courtyard and a massive pool area in the rear. Many of the tourists active right at the moment began moving off to the beach, but still many hung around the pool. Even after living with her father for years and hearing much about muggles and their ways seeing this was strange. Ginny smiled realizing it seemed like muggles could still continue to surprise her what they decided to build.

When she had asked her husband why they had the massive pool when there was a beautiful ocean to visit nearby Harry said he wasn't sure why the hotel was set up the way it was. After a moment of thinking things over, he had admitted that his uncle Vernon and cousin Dudley would definitely have been the type to avoid the beach and just enjoy the pool; where everything was nice and orderly, and they could just sit around all day. Ginny couldn't wait to go down to the beach again. Not only did she get to run around and play with Harry in skimpy clothes, but she also loved the feeling of the waves just crashing over her body as she swam in the ocean. While she looked down, she noticed two figures down by the pool. It was hard to tell for sure, but Ginny had a feeling that the pair below were the two girls that she had noticed giving Harry a bit of attention since they had arrived at the hotel. There was something about them, something in the way they looked and how she sensed them with magic made her believe there was more to one of them that met the eye. And their eyes had settled on Harry more than one time during their trip, not that Ginny minded it much. The girls had smiled in her direction as well and she couldn't help but recall the small fluttering feeling in her pussy when she had pointed out the two girls to Harry and his casual reaction to her actions. At the thought of her husband, Ginny turned and opened the sliding door to return back into the honeymoon suite Harry and she were occupying.

The beautiful hot redhead noticed that Harry was still set up exactly where she had left him, working hard on some ministry work. It was funny to Ginny that Harry seemed to work so much harder outside of school than he had during their time at Hogwarts. Not that he hadn't ended up working awfully hard against Voldemort, but Hermione had told Ginny how Harry and her Ginny's brother Ron had constantly shirked their duties as far as their studies were concerned. Now it appeared that Harry Potter wanted to ensure that he did a particularly good job with his post-school employment. The Post-Voldemort world was still a dangerous world and it needed people like Harry to keep it secure. Ginny smiled thinking about how to reward her husband.

So without saying a word to him Ginny popped off her top dropped it to the ground and moved in. Ginny kept her bottoms on for the moment as then she knelt in front of Harry underneath the desk. She didn't like to see him working so hard and she figured he should be given a good reward for such diligent services. Ginny casually settled her body beneath the table with her head leaned forward to get access to her husband's swim trunks.

It wasn't hard to start rubbing his cock with her hands while nuzzling her head against his crotch too. Beneath the material, she felt her husband's monster cock begin to stir. In no time at all, she started to hear Harry groan above her as his cock started to get nice and hard. The young redhead beauty smiled when she saw the tenting form in the material of his swim trunks. Ginny enjoyed the thought before she moved back for a moment before she worked at shifting Harry's blue and orange swim trunks off of his legs. Once his swim trunks were removed his cock was now completely exposed to Ginny's hungry bright brown eyes.

Her tight little ass wiggled while she balanced Harry's big full balls on her perky breasts. Ginny loved the sensations that spread throughout her body and all the way down to her pussy as the texture of his balls rubbed against the soft smoothness of her nice shapely breasts. 'Oh, I'm already getting so wet.' Ginny thought as she felt her juices leaking out against the material of her swimsuit thong. She reached one hand down to play against her pussy while her other hand continued rubbing and tugging on Harry's cock before she opened up her mouth to accept her husband's lovely huge cock.

Her mouth made such pleasant wet 'wrulp wrulp' noises as she started to take her husband's cock nice and deep inside of her mouth. Ginny had loved taking Harry's thick length inside of her mouth and elsewhere ever since the first time the two had sex. Now it felt surreal having her mouth widened out and her cheeks puffed out to take in her husband's massive fuckstick. He tasted so good driving his length deeper and deeper into her throat before her fingers finally slipped down inside of her thong to start playing with the tiny sensitive nub of flesh. Her lips got hotter and hotter, and she felt her cream leaking out of her inner and outer lips as she continued slurping away. It was easy to make Harry rigid as steel as her tight warm mouth gave proper attention to every inch of his cock and balls. After a few minutes, Ginny let out a bit of a pouting whimper as Harry pulled back and then helped to pull her up from beneath the table.

"Ginny if you keep doing that, I'm going to cum down your throat," Harry said with a cocky grin as he laid her body against the table for a moment. Ginny was burning with pleasure nearly felt like was about to explode even by just the rough handling that Harry had used to pull her up. With her back on the table, she spread her legs wide, offering up her pussy and any other part of her body that Harry might want to fuck.

Fortunately for Ginny, she didn't have to wait long to feel her husband's cock in another one of her holes. Harry leaned his body over Ginny's and stroked her cheek warmly as he started to rub and drive his cock inside of her wet pink pussy. Given how hot and horny Ginny had gotten from giving Harry a blowjob it was easy for the slutty redhead's pussy to take in her husband's generous length. Well at least at first. As Harry's powerful cock drove deep inside of her body Ginny let out a bit of a strained moan of pleasure. Harry's member was rock hard as it pressed into her tight wet lengths. It felt amazing but even though they usually fucked nearly once a day sometimes it still took her a bit to get used to his length pounding deep into her pussy.

As Harry started to truly get into the swing of fucking her naughty sex Ginny's hands raised up and scratched gently over Harry's lean muscular chest. His body felt as hard as his cock driving inside of her. Her entire body shook with bliss and pleasant torment. Harry's hands ran over the smooth skin of her legs. His wife's juices spread out down her inner thigh as his cock wedged deeper and deeper inside of her body. Ginny's red hair swayed and began to outright shake given the incredible force behind each of Harry's thrusts into her body.

"Harry... Nrhnn... it feels so good... but... uahh... let's change positions.... Or I may cum tooahhh... too quickly..." Ginny cried out in the midst of moans as Harry leaned his body down over hers. Her eyes glowed up at him as he continued hammering away deep inside of her dark pink canal. The young naked woman's toned tight ass slid back and forth against the table under the force of her husband's constant fucking until Harry began to slow his speed.

With his strong muscular body, Harry lifted up Ginny's body as easily as if he were casting a levitation spell. Ginny moaned and squeaked out as she was hoisted up from the table. Harry's cock was still deep inside of her body, and he smiled before making sure his wife was secure in his arms. After that Ginny let out a surprised gasp when he started swinging her up and then thrusting his cock up inside of her tight horny pussy.

"Oaah...Uahh... Harry... yes... that's it.... Right there. Unngnn... Harry.... My pussy... ahha..." Ginny started to moan and scream out before Harry settled down into his chair once more. He squared his feet firmly on the ground and left one hand holding Ginny's back while his other hand raced over her two breasts. Ginny's sensitive pussy was screaming with pleasure. The heat transcended any other sensation she knew but she did know that if Harry continued thrusting into her body and bouncing her cute tight ass on his cock she would cum soon. She had hoped to catch Harry with less energy given how much he was working but it appeared he was still as indomitable as ever. His hips launched her up and down like a like his cock was actually a broomstick intent to send her flying to the sky before he pulled her back down with his right arm.

Ginny was at the end of her rope. I can do this... I can resist.... Rmmmm.... Okay maybe not... Almost as she was thinking it the young attractive redhead began screaming out with pure pleasure. She came with the force of a hundred fire spells. Her entire body shivered and shook, and she pressed her boobs right up against Harry's lean hard chest. Her arms reached quickly around her husband to keep her body close to him as her entire body spasmed. The inferno that had blossomed in her tight sensitive pussy made her toes curl and her lungs emit an incredibly strained moan of pleasure.

She could vaguely hear the hot slapping of Harry's skin bounce and smashing against her own. Ginny was so lost in pleasure that it took her more than a minute to calm down. Harry had slowed his thrusts like the gentleman he was but that just helped to remind Ginny that she needed to see to her husband's need given that he had seen to her needs, and then some. Moving slowly Ginny held her hands on Harry's lean toned thighs and then managed to lift her body up enough to slowly rise above Harry's length.

When she was finally able to dismount Harry's cock she turned back to her husband and kissed him all over his neck and collarbone. After that Ginny rapidly moved to her knees and began to suck and rub Harry's cock with her hands and mouth once more. She loved the taste of their combined juices on her husband's long thick cock, but she still wished that it were easier for him to cum before she came. Sometimes her orgasms were too much that would nearly faint from the pleasure and simply become a useless naked form. This day at least she was committed to making sure to repay Harry for the pleasure that she had given him.

Once again her wet lips were slurping all over Harry's cock while her skilled fingers rubbed and gently squeezed on his balls in an attempt to milk a big load of her husband's cum right out of his cock. Given the amount of thrusting Harry had done into her tight wet pussy with his big, long cock he was at least close to cumming. When Ginny really started to make the seal of her lips around his cock as tight as possible it wasn't long before she started to taste and feel the first jetting spurt of Harry's cum inside of her.

Ginny's brown eyes never wavered from looking up to Harry's brilliant green eyes as his hot deluge continued to flood her mouth and flood its way down into her throat. She would have smiled as she felt Harry's hot cock throbbing again and again as his cum splashed throughout the entirety of Ginny's hungry mouth. The hot slutty redhead made sure to keep the seal of her lips tight around Harry's cock even as the taste of his cum made her want to moan out. Patience wasn't one of Ginny's best strengths but she was able to keep her body in control as she swallowed every bit of her husband's cum that his cock deposited into her mouth.

When Ginny was finally done sucking down all of Harry's hot salty seed she finally managed to look at him and give him a bit smile before opening her mouth to show her husband that she had taken care of every little bit of cum that he had given her when he came. Harry smiled down to her and kissed her head gently before stroking his fingers through her long red hair. Both of the young lovers were covered in a nice layer of sweat and Harry gently stroked and rubbed his fingers over Ginny's smooth cheeks and neck before he kissed her cheek as well.

"That was ... very good Ginny. You're a very distracting redhead you know that." Harry said as she played both of his hands on Ginny's nice full breasts before he rose up and looked down at his wife. "I'm glad my glasses never came off during that. With my luck, they'd break like they always do, and I still have plenty of work to do." Harry said as she smiled towards Ginny and moved to return back to his work. Ginny frowned and shook her head before grabbing her husband's arm lightly.

"Come on Harry, your work can wait a little longer. I think we should go down to the pool for a while. You can have a drink and I can go see if there are any other magical people around. I feel like I sensed a couple of them when were at the beach." Ginny said thinking of the two girls she had looked down on when she was outside on the balcony.

Harry turned slowly and then nodded to his wife. "You're right Ginny. I don't know why it's hard for me to relax sometimes. You know we always thought we knew best at school, turns out Ministry work can be hard grueling stuff. But I can still enjoy myself now and again." Harry said before both he and Ginny cleaned off in the shower. Ginny was still pretty weak in the knees that she had to rely on Harry to support her body in the shower but by the time they made it back to the ground floor and out into the pool area she was right as rain.

Actually, in Ginny's mind, she was better than okay. Harry's wife had decided that she was going to be his dutiful wife and give him a very special gift while they were on their honeymoon. Ginny was going to do her best to set up a threesome for her husband to ensure that before they left the hotel he would be incredibly sexually satisfied, and she would feel his cum pouring deep into her pussy.

As Harry went off towards the bar Ginny's eyes were scanning. The young redhead had a mission, and she was eager to deliver on the task that she had appointed for herself. The best thing was that they were on vacation at a resort with tons of people who might not be married and just be hanging with friends

As Ginny looked, she let out a coy smile as she saw the white-haired and brown-haired girls coming closer. Getting a look at the pair of attractive girls this close Ginny ventured a guess that they were sisters or at least related. Their eyes were nearly matching bright blue. The woman with white hair had a bit more iciness to her pupil coloration than the girl beside her. The girl with white hair was wearing a black two-piece swimsuit with icy blue lines running on the side of the garment. The brown-haired girl beside her had a much more flamboyant top that had an orange and white swirl design to it. Ginny left her husband's side and strode towards the two girls with an easy warm smile on her lips as her plan started taking shape.
