

Triss awoke with a yawn as she gently stretched out her naked body in bed. Slowly wiping the sleep from her eyes, she looked in confusion at the unfamiliar face sleepy on her chest.

There, resting her face on Triss's left tit, was a young blonde woman that couldn't have been more than 19, lightly snoring as she drooled onto Triss's nipple.

Triss stared at the girl's face for a few more seconds before her brief spell of sleepy confusion finally lifted, everything she was up to the previous night now rushing back into her mind.

'Ah, this is one of the little sluts I picked up for my orgy last night.' Triss thought with a slight smile as she went over her previous escapades last night. She had decided to treat herself to a little more fun than usual last night and went out to one of the nearby clubs. At first as she pursued the club, she had been simply looking for a few curvy sluts to take home, but instead she had been pleasantly surprised to find a group of 7 freshman college students.

When she had found them, two of the college girls were trying to convince the rest to go out and try to find some partners for the night on the dance floor. Seeing a lovely chance to bully a few cute little girls, Triss quickly inserted herself into conversation and soon after, had all seven of the college girls back to her apartment and baring themselves for her in the bed.

'Most of these girls weren't anything to write home about though.' Triss thought as she remembered the hours of fucking and debauchery of the night, as she had put the girls through a tornado of pleasure with her massive cock. 'I'm pretty sure one or two of them were even virgins.... Well, at least they've got the curves to make up for it.'

What these girls lacked in sexual prowess, they definitely made up for it with their bodies. Each and every one of these girls had incredibly large tits and asses, enough to easily make other women blush in jealousy. Of course, none of them were nearly as curvy or well endowed Triss, but they were definitely far above average.

'Speaking of above average. This girl definitely showed some talent. Maybe I'll train her up a little and see if she's worth making a permanent fuck buddy.'

While all the other girls had barely been able to handle even half of Claire's massive dick before losing themselves to the pleasure and falling unconscious, this girl had managed to take her entire length down to the base and even lasted for a few minutes of Triss's pounding before joining her friends in orgasmic unconsciousness. She had impressed Triss so much that the sorceress had decided to use her as a cock sleeve while she slept, leaving her incredible length inside the girl while she dreamed, which explained the current situation of why the girl was presently sleeping on top of her.

Grabbing the girl by the shoulders, Triss pushed her off and to the right gently, causing her cock to be released out of the warm confines of the girl's pussy, finally allowing a large portion of the cum Triss had shot into her the previous night to flow out, causing the girl to moan and begin to stir slightly in bed.

With that, Triss pushed herself off the bed and stood up, walking over to her coffee table as well as almost tripping as she stood in her heels.

'Huh, forgot to take these off last night.'

Turning to the bed, Claire took account of the situation. On her king sized bed was all seven of the girls from last night sprawled out randomly across the sheets and each other. Each and every one of the girls was still unconscious, with a well fucked stomach full of cum and that same cum slowly pouring out of them.

Smiling at her handiwork, Triss turned to head towards the other end of the studio apartment, but found herself stopped by a soft voice.

"T-t-thank y-you for last night, ma'am."

Turning her head back around quickly, Triss saw that, to her mild surprise, the girl that had just previously been sleeping on top of her was now awake and had even moved into a slight bowing position aimed towards Triss.

This was a surprise. It usually took longer for any of the women Triss fucked to wake up, especially when that woman was barely experienced enough to call herself an adult.

"I-I've.... never felt that good before.... In my life." The girl continued, bowing even deeper to Triss.

"Oh, now this is a surprise.... Come over here girl and let me take a look at you." Triss said with a smile, maybe this girl really did have talent?

Seemingly surprised at the request, the girl just looked wide eyed at Triss in response before she was brought out of her stupor by Triss cocking an eyebrow at her.

Blushing, the girl hurriedly shuffled over to Triss on wobbly legs and stood in front of her, hands to her side and back ramrod straight.

Smiling once again, Triss slowly walked around the girl with a rhythmic click of her heels as she took in the girl's body.

'I really am gonna have to thank Ciri for taking me here.... maybe I'll give her a nice, deep cream pie later as repayment?' Triss thought as she drank in the girl's curves.

She had only been in this world for a few months now, but Triss had already grown to love it, or more specifically, she had grown to love it's women. She had been offered the chance to stay in this world when Ciri had discovered it during one of her expeditions and Triss had gladly taken up the offer. At first, this world didn't seem like much, as they had no real knowledge of magic, instead evolving more into advanced technology, and no dominant intelligent races other than humans. However, Triss soon discovered that they more than made up for these restriction with this worlds one special feature.

Almost 95% of the planet's population in this world were woman, and more often than not, curvaceous women.

It has been a gold mine for Triss, who had gone too long in her original world fruitlessly trying to find some sluts that even had the beginnings of a "big ass". Now, she was fucking at least 10 women a day from sunrise until sunset, and was happy to continue.

Still, all of her previous women had simply been one off flings. Perhaps now it would be time to start making some dedicated fuck buddies?

Looking at the girl, Triss felt that she definitely had the right features for a position as one of the sorceresses cock sleeves. While the girl was short, easily the shortest of the group of 7, she had by far the largest tits and ass among them. Combining that with her incredibly tight pussy and stamina, and the girl seemed like the perfect fit.

But one question remained, what about her technique?

As Triss made one final circle around the naked girl, she stopped directly in front of her.

"What's your name, girl?"

The girl stiffened at the question before answering in a shaky voice.

"C-Catherine, Ma'am. Catherine Ward."

"Alright, Catherine, my name is Triss."

"It's g-.... It is very nice to meet you, Miss Triss." Catherine said, fumbling slightly with her vocabulary, which led to her blush to deepen even further.

"Madam Triss."

"Madam? Oh yes! Yes! Understood, Madam Triss!"

"Alright, Catherine. I have one simple question for you.... How would you like to become my cocksleeve?" Triss said, resting a hand on top of her still erect penis.

"W-wha?" Catherine could only stare in shock as Triss asked the question as if it was most common question on earth.

"It's simple, really. You would move into this apartment with me and follow my orders. I would provide all your living essentials and you would share a bed with me every night. Your main purpose would be to service my sexual needs whenever and wherever I desire, and your payment would be the privilege of being fucked by my massive cock every night and day. I may order you to do some other things like cooking and cleaning, but-"

"Yes."

"....what?"

For the first time, Triss was now the one with a puzzled look on her face.

"I will become your cocksleeve, Madam Tr- no.... Mistress Triss." Catherine responded, I'll traces of nervousness absent from her voice.

".....not that I'm opposed to you agreeing so quickly, but do you not even want to think about this longer?"

"Mistress.... When you fucked me last night, I've never felt that good in my entire life. I.... I don't think there is anything I wouldn't do in this world to be able to feel like that once again." Catherine said, as her pussy juices began flowing down her leg. "I will gladly give myself to you if it means I can receive your cock everyday."

Looking into the young girl's eyes Triss saw something she hadn't seen in a long time. Pure hunger and lust for more sexual pleasure.

"Oh my.... I had my reservations about you before this, but it seems like you're perfect." Triss said with a lewd smile. "Alright then...."

Her smile only growing larger, Triss walked over to a nearby table her cock swaying left and right as she went, and grabbed a condom from within the desk. When she had first arrived in this world, she had thought the idea of a condom was completely ridiculous. Why fuck a woman if you couldn't feel the raw pussy juices against your cock or savor the feeling of creampieing their pussy?

But after a little experimentation, Triss discovered a very good use for these after all. However, her cock was still much too large for Triss to actually use them, so she had been required to get some specially made just for her monstrous cock.

Condom in hand, Triss walked back to her new toy and handed the girl the condom.

"Put it on." She said with a lick of her lips.

"Yes, Mistress."

Without missing a beat, Catherine opened the oversized condom and popped it into her mouth before kneeling directly in front of Triss's massive, erect penis.

Opening her mouth as wide as she could, Catherine just barely got her mouth around the Triss's cockhead before she began slowly working the condom down the shaft. It was a slow process as the girl gagged and choked, unfamiliar with having such a large object in her throat. Nevertheless, she pushed on, making small but steady progress.

"Hmmm..... that's nice. You need some work, but you definitely have talent." Triss said with a coo.

Eventually once Catherine was a fourth of the way down Triss's length, she could no longer fit anymore as her throat contracted too much when she tried to pour more of the insanely large member down her throat. Unwilling to fail her first order, however, Catherine began bobbing her head back and fourth on the portion of Triss's length that she could take and began moving the remainder of the condom down the redhead's cock with her hands.

Finally, after a few more minutes of choking and stroking, Catherine had fully unrolled the condom onto Triss's cock. Removing her mouth from the dick, she looked up at her new mistress expectantly.

"That was.... sloppy. You may have talent, but experience is always more important. We'll have to begin your training soon." Triss said, unable to hold back a slight chuckle at the panic in Catherine's eyes at being called "sloppy". "But don't worry, we'll begin your training soon. I'll reshape that pussy and mouth of yours so that their perfect for my personal use in no time."

"Y-Yes, Mistress! I'm looking forward to it!"

"Yes, Yes, I'm sure you are. Now.... here's something else I'm sure you're looking forward to."

With that, Triss closed her eyes. A few seconds passed as Catherine looked up at her mistress with a curious expression, before finally she saw it.

Triss's balls were growing.

At first the growth was small, but as the seconds went by they simply grew larger and larger at an ever increasing pace. Triss's hands were neither on her cock nor on any part of her body that could cause her pleasure, but nevertheless her balls were filling with cum at a rapid pace.

Finally, after allowing nearly 2 minutes for her balls to grow to a truly massive size, Triss opened her eyes and looked at Catherine with a smile. Lifting her right leg and placing it on the coffee table next to them, Triss began massaging her huge breasts.

Then with a soft moan, she began her orgasm.

Catherine could only watch and drool as load after load of thick white semen began filling the condom. The delicious spunk seeming to never end as it continued to fill the rubber, with it getting to the point that the weight of the seed was beginning to pull Triss's dick downwards.

But after three minutes, Triss's cock finally began to slow down, and just a minute later it stopped in its entirety.

'Holy.... Fuck.... there has to be more than 4 liters in there....' Catherine could only stare at the condom in shock as Triss reached onto her cock and grabbed the unfilled portion of the condom and deftly pulled the rubber off. Holding it up like a trophy in front of Catherine, who instinctively held out her hand to grab it, Triss said only one thing.

"Here's your first meal, my cute little slut."

With that Triss left the meal of cum with Catherine and walked off in the opposite direction, her heels clicking against the wood floor rhythmically as she went.

"Eat all that up and get some rest, your training starts tonight, and I'll be letting out a lot more cum than that when we start.... And make sure to wake up those friends of yours and get them out of my apartment, your pussy's is gonna be my primary focus for the next few days, so I won't need them."

Just as Triss finished speaking and she seemed to be approaching a wall, the red haired woman snapped her fingers and a bright orange portal formed instantly, which Triss walked through without a pause, it soon closing just behind her.

"Oh, and by the way," As Catherine stared in shock at the wall Triss had disappeared into, she heard these words flow into her mind. "I'm a sorceress from a different dimension."

With that, silence reigned in the air as Catherine processed what she had just witnessed.

"....What have I gotten myself into?" Catherine thought aloud, however, she soon remembered the weight of the cum in her hands and looked at the dick milk with hungry eyes. "....Well, no matter what it is, as long as I can get that monster cock in me, it's worth it."
