

Daily Life at Kobeya's Bakery and Restaurant

Prologue

There is a very well-established chain of bakery restaurants located in Japan.

Four months ago, they opened a spectacular flagship store in the Greater Tokyo area and customers have been constantly rushing in ever since.

The fragrant smell of baking bread, the sweet scent like the pheromone of sweet bread, and the atmosphere that whets the appetite of all passerby...

In order to please all their customers, the staff will serve the most freshly baked bread to their guests.

Needless to say, both the baker and the chef are extremely talented and well-trained as could be expected from a flagship restaurant.

And speaking of restaurants ...

"I'm sorry to have kept you waiting. Here is the Cashew Nut Danish and Sesame Bread! ❤️ It will be 432 yen in total."

One cannot forget the presence of a snappy and energetic waitress, of course.

Most customers will steal glances of the waitress' breasts while receiving change at the counter.

It can't be helped ... through their clean white blouse and the neat white bra their swaying chests can easily be seen. Nonetheless the waitresses proceed with their job normally.

That's the case not only for the waitresses at the register but also the waitresses who take orders and the waitresses who manage the rest of the staff.

Those large shaking breasts reminiscent of fruits that have grown as if they had stored condensed juice for quite a long time easily cause discomfort in the pants of many male patrons.

Of course, since it is a restaurant, sexual harassment is not allowed.

A restaurant of such high standard is not aiming to attract customers using sex appeal, and definitely not going to allow sexual harassment of their waitresses who take their uniform and duties seriously.

I don't know why but even against my will; I've become fascinated with their breasts and buttocks... I know it's something that troubles them.

Yet, the fault lies in the huge sexual development of their bodies.

Thinking about how their body sensitivity has greatly increased while masturbating or having sex with their boyfriends compared to when they work, truly makes me horny.

Even so, instead of quitting from the place where their hourly wages continually increase, the staff of Kobeya remain diligent and hardworking.

They will enthusiastically serve their sexually aroused customers unless they are explicitly affected.

It's worth it since the waitresses and cooks have really high wages. It is no exaggeration to say that getting a waitress job at Kobeya has the same difficulty and prestige as admittance into a highly in-demand university.

To summarize, from 5 am to 2 pm, the waitress staff will happily attend to the customer's orders, and sometimes serve as a side dish for the eyes some men and women.

TIPS

Kobeya's bakery restaurant:

A subsidiary of Kobeya, a major Japanese food service company that mainly handles bread in their restaurants.

Manufactured directly from the dough at the store and baked bread.

We mainly focus on sweet bread, but we also have more than just bread.

Waitress uniform:

The blue gingham check is eye-catching and easy-to-move. For some reason, the uniform's bust, hips, and waist are specially tailored so that bodies of all sizes can fit well.

In addition, clothes are specially tailored so that the uniform does not expose the chest ... However, from the customer's point of view, many of them are attracted to waitress' in uniform because of the design itself emphasizes the chest.

Waitress:

As a normal worker, a waitress will only eat bread-related products produced by the company.

For some reason, the size of the breast and buttocks tend to grow as work at the restaurant.

At the flagship store, there are many waitresses whose average bust size is about H to K cup. The largest waitresses have grown to sizes between L cup and O cup.

Daily Life at Kobeya's Bakery and Restaurant

Chapter 1

This is the first appearance of Megumi as the main character... She was a normal girl back then, until...

Beginning

With the arrival of Spring in March, girls who passed the rigorous hiring process, were assigned to the Kobeya flagship store and are starting their training as waitresses.

This story focuses on one of those girls.

Now, it is April and this girl, after the arduous pre-opening training, will finally begin work at the Kobeya restaurant. Her name is Megumi. On the night before her first day, she was staring fascinated at her longed-for Kobeya uniform.

“Starting tomorrow I... I will work at Kobeya! ❤️ The training was difficult but for me to be selected from among so many... I'll do my best!!!!”

After staring at the clean white blouse and the lovely blue gingham check apron she decided to go to bed and sleep for tomorrow.

The next day, after the opening ceremony, Megumi immediately starts her job at Kobeya. While greeting her passing co-workers with enthusiasm, she enters the changing room and takes off her clothes to get into her new uniform.

Megumi feels her body being put into a strict examination by the girls around her. To say the least, Megumi is actually a beautiful girl. Because of the restaurant's dress code, her long hair that was tied up is cut off to semi-long hair, and tied up uselessly with a hair clip.

The uniform makes her perfectly shaped body even more appealing to the eye.

Her breasts moderately bulge from her chest and her abdomen, though she is a little plump, she looks much more attractive and healthier than a girl on a poor diet. The buttocks are still growing but are very well-shaped.

"Wow ... it perfectly fits my chest ... and it looks so cute!!!"

Megumi found it very easy to move around and attend to customers given the comfort of the maid uniforms.

The manager and training staff hold a first day meeting for Megumi and the other new waitresses who now work at the flagship store.

"Everyone, it's finally time to open."

Megumi and the rest of the new waitresses listen to her words with a serious expression.

"But I'm not worried because I can rely on the work accomplished up to this to this day ..."

Megumi listens carefully to the words from the manager...

"Then, let's do our best from now on."

The girl bows in front of Megumi... inspiring an energetic vibe among them all.

"Yes!" After saying those words cheerfully, she bowed deeply and then proceed to adopt her assigned place at work.

As expected, some veteran waitresses from other stores also came to help on the first day.

"Yes, thank you, the change is ... 10,000 yen!"

"Hello!! We are at your service!!"

"Hello!! A reservation, right? I'm sorry!! We have no open seats at that date and time!! I'm sorry !!"

Thanks to the rigorous training given to Megumi and the rest of the newly employed waitresses, everyone was able to work efficiently.

Of course, if they make a mistake, they can rely on a veteran waitress from another store ...

"She's so impressive, right? Even though she is a newcomer."

"We can't lose!"

For their juniors it is truly helpful, and it encourages them to work even harder.

Megumi was in a hurry taking different orders... then suddenly the person in charge kindly called her out and invited her to the back of the store ...

"Megumi-san ... I'm very pleased with your work, but right now ... it's almost time for your class, right? Please take a rest."

She knew that Megumi had passed the working hours but at the time Megumi was full of orders... so she kindly instructed Megumi to go rest and clock out, while she took over her tables.

Megumi also thanked her for her consideration.

"Sorry, Chief Azuki. It may be a little laborious but it's enjoyable work!! Thank you for your support today!!!"

She bows with respect to a woman named Azuki, after that Megumi changes clothes in the changing room and goes home.

Even though she got home and soaked in the bathtub, Megumi can't stop thinking about how kind and understanding Chief Azuki was.

"I also want to be like Azuki! I want to become a so-called real adult who is neither sweet nor strict...And... Aside from that... Her chest is amazing ..."

However, Megumi and the rest of the new employees do not only admire Chief Azuki as a boss and veteran store manager...

It is not only Azuki's personality that attracts everyone's envy, but also her intelligence, beautiful hair, and captivating looks.

And above all ... Chief Azuki's chest is the extremely large. Larger than anyone else Megumi had never seen before. She never found another woman attractive before, but Megumi could not help but want to touch Azuki's giant chest that sways as she walks. Thinking about all the naughty things Megumi would do with such enormous breasts made her heart beat as if it were about to explode.

"Hmm ... mmm"

Chief Azuki's boobs ... they smell sweet like bread ... She wonders if they were as soft as fresh bread.

Using that analogy, if you rub the hard bread that is still in the process of fermentation ... It unravels the body with sweet pleasures that pierce the core.

As she rubbed her breasts ... her cute pink nipples started to feel sharper and sharper.

“Aah... ♥ Ugh... ♥ Chief Azuki ♥ I wonder if Azuki also teases her nipples like this ♥ Nha~ ♥”

Megumi couldn't stand it any longer and played with one of her erected nipples with her fingers... while pleasuring her crotch with her other hand.

“Ugh... ♥ Chief ♥♥ Chief's boobs... ♥ I wish I could have chief-like boobs ♥ Huh~!! ♥ Ah~!!”

The more Megumi fantasized about Azuki, the more love juice overflowed from Megumi's crotch, with her virgin vagina suddenly starting to open. In fact, she became absorbed with just the hot wetly sounds from her own masturbation.

“For some reason, this feels so much better than usual ... ah~ I'm sorry chief ♥”

Megumi couldn't help but get drunk by the masturbation that felt so good.

Symptoms

Even though at the beginning this routine between work and school was very difficult, Megumi eventually got used to it ... When she noticed she was eating her favorite Kobeya bread, it was already mid-July.

As usual, she changes her clothes to take a bath to rest her tired body, but this time she notices changes.

“Ah?... It seems my bra is getting tighter...”

She can't take off the hook of the brassiere that usually could be easily removed. She wonders if she might be getting a little fat after eating so much bread ...

She weighed herself, but she has not gained or lost any weight, and her body looks very healthy.

It seems she is getting plumper than before, but not getting fat... When she touches her breasts again ... it becomes obvious that her chest is heavier than when she took that physical measurement at school in April.

When she removed her bra, her white breasts overflowed quickly as if they had trying about to burst from the restraints.

“Could the size of my boobs be... getting bigger...?”

Megumi looked a little anguished while staring at the towering breasts that had grown in size.

Next she changed her attention to her abdomen.

“My belly seems to be okay, but ... I wonder if my pants have become tighter...”

The belly was healthy and just a little fat, which made her look sexier than one of those very thin women.

Even her buttocks were getting fatter... her whole body seemed to be gradually changing.

...Megumi's body will pass through a series of changes in the future... To become more voluptuous and attractive...
