

Hey everyone

So on Friday i had a small family get together and Michelle was there! So i expected the worst! In reality it wasn't all that bad though. The holiday meet up was at one of my cousins new place. They have a 6 year old kid and just got a house and wanted to have a housewarming party for the family. I live pretty far away so I got there a bit late, when i walked in everyone was already eating. I picked out Michelle immediately! She had on a slightly baggy maroon sweater that showed her shoulders and a tight pair of black yoga pants. She waved to me as soon as we locked eyes and I waved back.

There was a ton of awesome food set up buffet style and everyone was standing around eating off paper plates. A few cousins of mine were there that I hadn't seen in forever because they had been away out of country for school etc, so we talked and caught up while eating and trading stories. Michelle stood beside me most of the time eating off my plate and laughing every time I tried to pull it away from her. But to be fair she was doing that to everyone, she kind of likes to be a pain.

About 10 minutes into all of us talking and joking around, our 6 year old cousin came running up to the group of four of us and yelled out loud!

“COME SEE MY HASHBOWL!”

Me and one of my other younger male cousins both started laughing our asses off, i actually spit up some food on my plate. She's a tiny little kid with blonde hair and was dressed up for the holidays so it was all sorts of hilarious!

“Your what?!” Michelle asked with a smile!

“MY HASHBOWL!”

Her mom came running over as we all laughed and quickly corrected her!

“Hatch-able!” she said slowly to her daughter as we all continued to laugh.

“HASHBOWL! TOOTHLESS!” she screamed again and then started pulling both Michelle and my other cousin out of the room.

Michelle waved at me to come with and i put my plate down on the side table and followed them. She lead us upstairs and we all sort of stalled a bit because of how slow she walked, going up each step with both feet. I knew right away what Michelle had been thinking, i was right behind her on the stairs and her was almost at eye level. She began stepping up one stair at a time, arching her ass out and looking back to me with a smile over her shoulder as I smiled back. Her cheeks looked so fat and round in the cheap thin leggings! They stuck to her ass like they were painted on and i wanted to push my nose in her ass crack so badly. I looked to my left and could still slightly see some family members as the stairs curved up and around. As soon as we got out of view, she bent forward a bit extra pushing out her ass, it was so large and bubbly.

HIIIISSSSShsssssssssss

The smell seeped out slow and assaulted my face, it was almost silent. I immediately felt the warmth and heat of the gas, and a split second later was hit by the odor. It was thick and rancid like spoiled eggs and incredibly heavy. I choked and coughed a bit as she shook her ass back and forth and then ran up the stairs two at a time. I watched as she jogged up the stairs and her ass bounced and jiggled with each step. I fanned the air and followed them into my little cousins room to see her "hashbowl" she wanted to show off, i was actually a robotic baby dragon from a popular kids movie. It came out of an egg and respond to voice commands and all sorts of shit, it was actually kids of cool! She held it up and showed it to each of us making us pet him.

The rest of the night was pretty relaxed and fun. I spent most of the time hanging out with cousins and we ended up drinking a fair bit too. Around 11pm all of the non 40 to 50 year olds went outside and we smoked a few joints sitting at this big picnic table.. As we were passing them around Michelle exclaimed how smoking always made her really gassy! And everyone laughed and forced her to go sit at the far end of the table. Every few minutes she would hush everyone and scrunch up her face in a really animated fashion like she was forcing out the largest fart but they were all completely silent and thankfully because of the outside wind and fresh air no one caught whiff of them. The entire time though i was rock hard and Michelle knew it, I was just happy that she never shared the secret with anyone.

About 5 minutes before we all went inside, Michelle shushed everyone again as she prepared for another fart.

BFRRRTTTTT

It was short but holy fuck! It was so loud, it braped against her cheeks and then the picnic bench and i swear, every one sitting felt the vibrations in the wood from it! All of us began to laugh extremely hard, choking on laughter as Michelle got up and started walking around fanning her nose. The smell hit the rest of the table so fast and everyone sort of backed up and got up walking back a few steps.

We all went back inside because of the cold and there was no more weed. We ate a bit more and everyone had coffee and desert and around midnight most of us ended up in the living room watching Christmas movies. They only had two couches, one had my aunt and uncle on it, and the other one some of my younger nephews! Me and one of my male cousins kicked them off and sort of wrestled them to the floor, but more or so just pushed them off because of their size. Less than five minutes later Michelle walked in and tried forcing herself between us on the couch! we both laughed and my cousin tried pushing her back off with his foot, but she instantly started to aggressively wrestle me while hitting him with her legs and kicking him in the head with her socked feet!

Our nieces and nephews just laughed as our aunt and uncle watched like it was nothing! One of our nephews jumped onto the couch and started strangling my other cousin from behind. Michelle forced me down onto the couch and then sat on top of my head as I tried to throw her off but due to her weight couldn't. If i flailed my body up i would kick my cousin in the head and didn't want to send anyone to the hospital. Her ass was so squishy and warm, like a round pillow of fat crashing down on my head! My aunt and uncle laughed a bit as Michele bounced up and down, crushing my face into the couch pillow as my other cousin wrestled my nephew.

"You comfy?" Michelle asked as she bounced a few more times

I didn't answer and tried to lift and push her off again, but she forced herself down hard with her feet on the tip of the couch, perched like a bird!

BFRRRTTTTT

Her asshole vibrated against the side of my face and I felt the heat of her gas right on my right eye, it burned a bit and i tried throwing her off again as my cousins laughed and made choking noises, even though the smell hadn't reached them yet. It was a deep eggy fart, and extremely hot. I choked a bit and tired throwing her off again as Michelle and everyone else laughed.

BFRRTTTTTT BFRRTT

She let another fart loose with a small pause in between and it was right on top of my eye, I literally felt her anus flex against my skull and the gas washed over my face like a heavy blanket, trapped between my nose and her yoga pants. It was incredibly eggy, it smelled like spoiled milk and it quickly filled the room.

“Get off of him Michelle, your gonna kill him!” My uncle said while laughing and she finally got up.

I know my face was red not only from embarrassment but also from the pressure of her sitting on me for so long. I quickly fixed my hair and then got up while recovering. My vision was all blurry from the pressure on my eyes. Michelle walked around the room fanning her ass and laughing before taking my place on the couch and relaxing. I rushed off to the sink and washed my face so it didn't seem like I was enjoying it.

Nothing else fart related happened for the end of the evening. I took me a while to get this story out because the next morning I woke up and my eye was super itchy and sore and by the night time I couldn't see out of it. I had to go to the pharmacy and grab some eye drops because I knew exactly what was wrong lol she gave me pink eye. I started using the drops last night so I am all better today. My eyes are still puffy and red but I can see out of it now! I told Michelle and she thought it was hilarious. Next time she comes over she wants to sit on my eyes with her bare ass and fart into them lol! That can't be good for me!
