

SECTOR 7

I already said I would switch to Sector 7..

But now that I'm here, Why am I nervous?!

I told my supervisor that I wanted to switch and her response was..

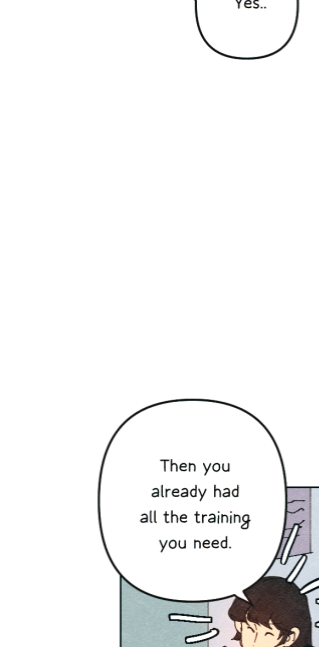

Ah..? Are you sure? Are the other Sectors not suitable?

Sector 7 is understaffed for a reason.. Your hours are more than the others..!

It's almost all paper work and interviews.. Which can be frustrating..

Sector 7 agents are also tasked with Beta Testing new products and gadgets, which can go South quickly.

Should I be worried? She usually so chipper.

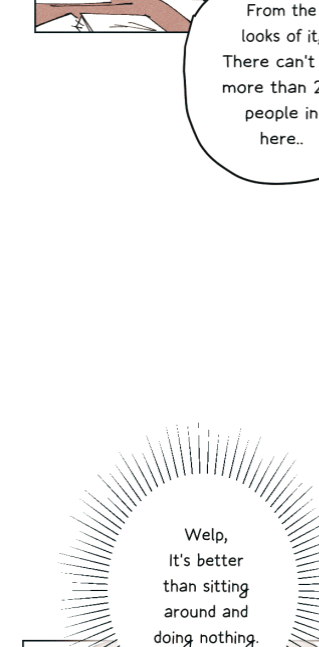

Ugh, whatever!

I'm already here anyways!

KNOCK

KNOCK

KNOCK

For the 10th time, The vending machine is upstairs!

If you want Miss Mae, She's not here for another 2 weeks!

Oh, you're the newbie..!!

Cherie, Right?!

OH, IT'S THIS GUY..

Wow

You have the transfer letter?

Yes, it's right here.

Huh.. Okay! You can start today.

Today? Is it okay? I haven't had any training..

Did you use to work in customer service?

Yes.

Did you have an office job before?

Yes..

Then you already had all the training you need.

We're not as picky as the other Sectors.

I see..

Here's all the reports from every mission from the last week.

I need you to archive them and verify the public records.

We're pretty backed up so there's still a lot more.

Try to get through all of them today, yeah?

All-All of them..?

Yeah! Tomorrow you'll be on phone calls!

So chop chop~

Jesus, No wonder why nobody wants to be in Sector 7..

From the looks of it, There can't be more than 20 people in here..

Well, It's better than sitting around and doing nothing.

Determined

Maybe with this..

I can finally make a difference

Even though this is still a lot of work.

It's not just me doing it alone..

Everyone is pulling their weight.
