

Work Drama

Contain breast growth, giantess, and shrinking

“How ya doin’ over there, little Ms. Chemistry?” Diana snickered from the other side of the lab.

Kiley rolled her eyes, not taking her attention away from the delicate concoction in front of her. “Just fine, considering I’m going to be enjoying that grant money pretty soon!”

A snort came in reply amid the sound of soldering and tightening screws. “Sure, sure! Keep telling yourself that. I’m positive your serum will wow the world.”

It was late at night on the university campus, but even as the outside air was still, the atmosphere inside the shared lab was tense with competition. Two brilliant women poured over their projects in what would be the determining factors of who should receive the university’s coveted research grant and tenure.

PLOOP!

POOF!!!

Kiley added several drops of fluid to a viscous pink substance within a beaker. The reaction released a plume of pink vapor reeking of bubblegum and grape. It was almost ready: a serum capable of forcing tissue growth and development. The possibilities alone made the blonde’s skin break out in goosebumps.

“I don’t know why you’re even trying,” Kiley laughed. “Do you really think your little toy can compete with my serum??”

Diana wouldn’t be swayed. The chaotic maze of electrical components assembled into a crude ray gun had been her life since graduate school almost two decades earlier. No longer possible only in the realms of science fiction, she believed her shrink ray to be the next major breakthrough in physics and engineering.

“Toy?? This toy is going to revolutionize the world in ways you can’t possibly imagine! Meanwhile you’ll be making extra-large potatoes? Maybe some giant corn? Don’t get me wrong, solving world hunger is cool and all, but a shrink ray holds so many more possibilities.”

Kiley was barely listening as she filled a small dropper with her serum. Her hands trembled as she held it over the opened front of her blouse. “I just don’t think you’re thinking big enough...” she chuckled.

PLOP PLOP!

“Mmmngh!” Kiley shivered when the drops splashed against her B-cup breasts.

“Did you say something?” Diana asked.

“N...No... Nothing at all...” Moaning, Kiley hugged her chest and used the table for support. The serum’s effects were much faster than she anticipated, and highly sensitizing as well.

SSTTRRRRTCH

Rising mounds pushed against her arm. Only two drops had been enough to swell her breasts into full E-cups begging for attention. Filled with more flesh than it had been expected to hold, Kiley's blouse pulled taut and pushed her breasts flat to her torso in an obscene display of pillowy flesh. "Mmng!! O-Oohhhh that's...that's better...than I thought!!"

Diana growled and stepped away from her work. "Alright, what the hell are you going on about--what the hell?!"

SSTTRRRRTCHH!!

"Nnngh!! H-Ha! You should see the look on your face," Kiley laughed upon her rival approaching her table. Bloated mammaries threatened to explode out of her top.

"What happened to your tits?! Kiley, we need to get you to the--" She stopped, seeing the grin on Kiley's face. "You didn't."

"Oh I did. Did you really think my serum was just for plants??" Grabbing her chest, she squeezed with delight. "I'm about to put every plastic surgeon out of business!! Giant corn can suck it! Tits-to-order is much better! And lucky for me...the grant board is mostly men."

Diana was speechless. Suddenly she was very aware of her own chest. At a head-rivaling size, it was one of the few things she'd been able to lord over Kiley, though she would never dare to even consider enhancing its already tiring mass. They were already bigger than she cared for on some occasions.

"Wanna try it for yourself??" Kiley piped with excited volume, pointing the dropper in Diana's direction.

"N-No!! Get that stuff away from--"

PLOP PLOP PLOP!!!

"--M-M-Me."

Diana froze when several drops spread over her chest. It didn't take long for the serum to soak through her tight shirt.

SSTTRRRRTCH!!

"Ah!! K-Kiley!!! What did you do?!"

"Ha, woops."

SSTTRRRRRRTCH!!!

Mass engorged under Diana's arms when she quickly embraced her torso. "KILEY!!! MY BREASTS!!!" Only in her nightmares had she experienced her bust growing so rapidly as they engorged and developed against her wishes.

STTRRRRTT--POP!!

POP POP POP!!!!

"Shit!!!" Diana cried out when her blouse burst apart in a shower of buttons. Still-swelling knockers fell into view at three times their natural size, pushing a sturdy bra to its limit. The cups appeared large enough to only cover her areolas as flesh bulged over their ridges.

"T-They're not stopping!! Why aren't they stopping?!"

"Well you were pretty big!" Kiley mused. "They must just like growing!"

SSTTRRRRTCH!!!

“Nnngh!!! N-Nngh!! Kiley!!! M-Make... Please make them stop!! My bra!! My bra feels like it’s going to explo--”

SNAP!!!!

Kiley fell silent when the undergarment dramatically blew open around Diana’s back. Finally coming to rest with their damage complete, her breasts swelled to cover her hips as full, swollen teardrops.

“I...” Diana gasped at the scene, not daring to touch them out of fear of the throbbing, fist-sized nipples jutting from their fronts. “W-W-What did you do to them?!”

“Relax!” Kiley couldn’t contain her laughter as Diana stumbled her way back to her workspace.

“Nnngh... They’re so...heavy!”

WHAM!

The table caught her swaying weight and anger.

Poking lovingly at her own new breasts, Kiley assured, “Oh come on, I wouldn’t do anything permanent to you! Just use that fancy shrink ray you’re always going on about!”

Diana’s chest rumbled with anger as she gripped her device. “Oh I’ll use it...”

CLICK

Kiley glanced up from her chest in time to see Diana aiming the shrink ray in her direction. “H-H-Hey now, let’s not do anything too hasty, alri--”

SHOOOM!!

“Ahhh!!!” Kiley shrieked at a rush of chills as a blue light enveloped her body.

SHRRNNCH

“What’s...What’s happening to me...??”

The room spun around her. Everything moved despite her standing still. Fabric and seams loosened around her hips and thighs as her sleeves extended beyond her hands.

“Let’s see how you like someone messing with your body,” Diana huffed.

“A-Am I...shrinking?? You mean that thing actually works?!” Kiley spun her head around her frame to see her clothes loosening like shedding skin. The edge of the table came to eye level when she reached three feet in height.

SLIP!

“EEP!!”

The lab’s chill engulfed Kiley upon her clothes slipping from her body into a mess around her ankles. Naked and half her height, the busty woman stood greatly diminished and humiliated.

“M-My clothes!! My BODY!!”

“Now you know how it feels!?” Diana chuckled. “Don’t worry though, I’m sure you can use your serum to grow again, right? Or does that not justify it??”

CLICK

She pointed the shrink ray at her chest. “Now let’s put you girls back to normal so I can actually fit behind the steering wheel tonight.”

“HEY!! Tits McGee!”

“Hm?”

Diana glanced over to see a well-endowed naked elf of a woman approaching her in anger. A container of pink growth serum sloshed in her clumsy hands.

“Kiley! Kiley, don’t!! Don’t you DARE THROW THAT AT--”

SPLASH!!!!

It covered Diana head to toe. Dripping and tingling over every inch of her body, she stood aghast at her fate. “You...little...MONSTER!!” She swept her arms across her body trying to escape the serum’s wrath but it was too late.

SSTTRRRRRRTCH!!!!

“Oh this should be good!!” Kiley pointed when Diana’s transformation began.

PLOP PLOP PLOP!

Several drops flew from her hands to find refuge upon Kiley’s chest.

SSTTRRRRRRTCH!!!

“Mmmngh!! H-Hey...! I-I was already...too small for them!!” she complained when her chest jumped forth. Feeling as though she were cupping two watermelons, Kiley watched her small body struggle to control her swelling breasts as they reached for the floor.

SSTTRRRRRRTCH!!!

“NNNNGH!!!”

Only a loud groan came in response. Dizziness swirled around Diana’s head. Everything was pulling away from her. The most disorienting was the floor as the room appeared to shrink. Her head was in an elevator, but her feet remained on the ground.

SHRRIIP!!

“No please no!!” she begged to her clothes. In an instant, her blouse transformed into a belly shirt and her pants into capris. Sleeves raced up to her elbows before snugging tight around her biceps.

“U-Uh oh...” Kiley whimpered, seeing Diana surge over ten feet in height. Her transformation would be nothing compared to the mammoth beach balls doubling her own tiny weight. The rage in Diana’s groans was unmistakable. “Ok, so, I might have gone a little overboard with it, but if we stay calm, I’m sure we can--”

An angry, arousal-filled face glared down.

“FUCK THAT!!”

CLICK

“P-Please no,” Kiley squeaked when the growing woman struggled to point the shrink ray before her fingers grew too large.

SHOOOM!!!

“Aahhhh!!!”

SHHRRNNNCH!!!

SSTTRRRRTCH!!!!

The sounds of their transforming bodies filled the lab.

SSHRRIIIIIP!!!

From above, a storm of tattered fabric fell upon Kiley's shrinking body. Even if she weren't approaching a foot tall, Diana would have loomed over her like a goddess.

"Oooohhhhh look what you...m-mmng!!...did to me!!!" Diana moaned.

SLAM!!!

Disorientation caused her to fall down with building-shaking weight. For a split moment between her spread thighs, Kiley saw Diana's cotton panties pull tight as a cable across her pussy.

SNAP!!!

A monstrous crotch burst into view like an erotic sci-fi beast, causing Kiley's eyes to widen.

"MMNNGH!!! GOD I'M HUGE!!!"

SSHRRRRNCH!!

"I-I'm...I'm kind of unbalanced over here!!!" Kiley yelled. Although her breasts shrunk with her, they had already grown far too large for her frame.

BWOOOMPH!!

Her tits were anchors, controlling the shrinking weight of her figure. They rolled forward to carry Kiley onto their tops like a giant mounded bed. As small as a doll, she laid across their beach ball girths in helplessness.

"D-Diana!! Diana help!! I-I can't...move!!!"

CRRRAAAAACK!!!

"Speak for yourself!!!"

Bits of dust fell from above. With an arm against the ceiling and semi-sized knockers filling her lap, Diana struggled to stay contained within the confines of the lab.

CRRRAAAAACK!!!

The ceiling bowed upward. Pipes burst and tiles snapped.

"Diana..." Kiley whimpered as her own cleavage swallowed her. "Diana, don't do it!!!"

"I...I can't stop it!!!"

CCRRRAAAAACK!!!

"Diana!! Don't!!!"

"I'm too big for this room!!!"

SSTTRRRRTCH!!!

Cleavage bulged over her face to push against the roof. There was no room left for her enormous body.

CRRRRAAA--BOOM!!!

Night air flooded the lab when the ceiling burst outward. Like a blooming flower, Diana unfolded herself into the dark sky as if a giantess were rousing from a nap. With arms long enough to reach the parking lot and hands big enough to grasp her car, she stared down at the destruction around her crossed legs. Pool-sized breasts hung from her body to fill her lap as bloated orbs. A single nipple had enough flesh to fill a doorway's four corners. Much of the lab was crushed beneath her ass or thighs as she struggled to keep her cross-legged position.

Diana tried to move. "W-W-What did we do?! Where's my shrink ray?? I-I need to get back to normal before--"

CRRNCH!!

Color drained from her face upon feeling something delicate smash under a searching palm.

"W-What was that?"

A fairy-like voice screamed from the shadow of her gargantuan chest. Looking like a pair of flesh-colored cherries, Kiley's breasts sat on the ground with a Barbie doll trapped atop.

"I don't think you want to know..." Kiley whimpered, spying the remains of Diana's device.

The women were silent and contemplated their choices. In several hours students would flood the building to find their professors in drastically transformed states. They needed each other to escape this fate.

"M-Mmng... Diana...?" Kiley groaned, her nipples throbbing against the cold tiles.

Diana swallowed, never feeling more exposed to the world. "Yea...?"

"Truce...?"

"Truce."
