

1012 CURSED

~SHADOW REALM SHRINES~

"It isn't the shadows I fear. It's what lives within them."

1. THE CURSE

- 1;1 {Instinctual Hatred} All domesticated animals can smell the evil shadows clinging to your body which causes them to become hyper aggressive toward you
- 1;2 {Sun Drained} Magic only works on you while you are standing in shadow {magics that touch you in sunlight are burned away}
- 1;3 {Free At Last} Your shadow will escape the next time you fall unconscious and try to kill you before moving on to the next closest living creature
- 1;4 {Hyper Sensitive} You are blinded while in direct sunlight {wearing a wide-brimmed hat or other face covering prevents you from being blinded but leaves you with a -1 penalty on all rolls}
- 1;5 {Night Terror} Anyone who sleeps near you is tormented with terrible nightmares, and you have terrible nightmares whenever you sleep alone {these nightmares turn long rests to short rests}
- 1;6 {Do Not Enter} Any doorway you pass through after sunset will take you into the Shadow Realm {the door quickly slams shut behind you and doesn't unlock until sunrise}
- 1;7 {Emotional Leech} You get a terrible night's rest {long rest is instead a short rest} if you are lulled by the sound of someone else crying themselves to sleep
- 1;8 {Shadow Persona} Your CHA modifier becomes a -5 anytime you are in shadow {reverts back to normal only while in direct sunlight or bright light}
- 1;9 {Sacrifice} Your soul will be devoured by a dark lord of shadows if the curse is not broken before the next solar eclipse which is only 2d4 weeks away {breaking the curse requires traveling to the Shadow Realm}
- 1;10 {Lost to Shadow} You are invisible to your companions and other loved ones while in shadow {they can only see you and target you with spells or other abilities that require sight while you're in bright light}
- 1;11 {Enriched Blood} Your shadow-touched scent becomes particularly enticing to blood-sucking monsters like giant mosquitos, dire leeches, and vampires
- 1;12 {Black Sheep} All of your living family members begin to secretly conspire against you and plot your downfall
