CHAPTER 17: Old Ass Cam Girl

Back in Amber's room, the rainbow-haired girl was in the middle of her cam show. She was sitting topless in front of her computer screen tweaking the metal bar pierced through her bubble-gum pink nipple with a lackadaisical look.

The first portion of her show had been derailed a bit by trolls crowding her chat by asking about her 'grandma' and making jokes about the old woman crapping herself on the cam.

Another person posted a gif of the 'I pooped my panties' meme. Amber's eyes widened at the fact that in her current state of toplessness in this exact position in her chair with her room decorations in the background it was very easy to see that the senile old woman in the meme appeared to be a much older version of herself.

She quickly deleted the post and banned the troll. But was now having to deal with the chorus of "BRING OUT CAM GRANNY" forming in the meme's place.

"YOU LOOK PRETTY FRAIL AS AN OLD LADY - YOU SHOULD EAT MORE AND PUT SOME MEAT ON THOSE BONES!" One user posted.

"I HOPE I LOOK HALF THAT GOOD WHEN I'M 100!" Another replied.

Amber gave an exasperated breath and shook her head into the camera.

"For the eight millionth time people - that's not me!... Someone hacked my account and put in some weird photoshopped age manipulation on my cam..." She said, sounding far too defensive.

“DO HER FADED TATTOOS ON HER WRINKLY SKIN KINDA MAKE YOU REGRET YOUR OWN TATTOOS?” Another user asked.

Amber smirked at the comment in the chat for a few moments.

“Okay so some dude’s asking me if I’m gonna regret my tats when I get old and wrinkly like that beeyatch in the meme. Sooo...” Amber began to explain into the camera as she sat topless.

She interlocked her fingers and stretched her palms forward, cracking her knuckles and then mimed opening a soda can.

“Let me just open this can of whoop-ass here and school you beautiful idiots for a tic.” She said with a grin as she mimed putting the can down on the desk.

She stretched out her arms one after the other showing off the intricate full sleeve tattoo of her left arm and the half sleeve of her right. She stood up and showed the dream catcher above her cleavage and the music notes down her waist and then lifted her toned legs off to show her colorful thigh tattoos.

“I’m all in baby. Hashtag no regrets. So point numero uno: Fuck off. Don’t judge other people's lifestyles or the choices they make for their bodies.” She said sitting back down and holding her hand up to count out her points on her fingers.

“Point two! When I'm old, I'm not going to give a single shit about whether or not people think I look hot or not... The only reason that I care now is because you monsters pay me money to create content for your spank banks. But it’s not like I'm going to be camming when I'm a little old lady!” She insisted.

Amber held up her third finger.

“Point number three - and this is one I don’t think a lot of people talk about when answering the bullshit argument of ‘Ooo tattoos are permanent, aren’t you going to regret them when you’re old’. She said, using a mocking voice when saying the last part.

Amber held the calendar app on her phone up to the camera and began swiping forward year after year.

“It’s not like i’m going to be an old lady – tomorrow! By the time I’m a wrinkly geezer, so will everyone else my age! Our whole generation is going to be hobbling around with a shit ton of piercings dangling off of our saggy bits and tattoos covering out shriveled skin! So nobody is going to judge or think twice if Grandma Amber’s got tattoos! It’ll just be like a normal occurrence. Hell! I’m looking forward to when girls from the late 90s/early 2000s hit 80 years of age and we can start calling lower back tats ‘granny stamps!’” She said, laughing.

Amber made the heavy metal symbol with both hands and stuck out her pierced tongue for the camera.

“In the future old people are going to listen to dubstep and death metal and hardcore rap – we’re gonna have brightly dyed hair and fucking take shittons of selfies to the annoyance of our grandkids... that’s just how the world works. The shit old people do today – that was youth culture back in the 50s.” She said, nodding proudly at her diatribe.

“Now how about we stop fucking talking about old people and get back to some sex work, yeah? Who wants to see me anally penetrate myself!?” She declared blasting her heavy punk music as loud as it would go.

Tips began to pour in from the fans who hadn’t been there to troll her about the meme. Amber propped a foot up on her computer chair and played air guitar to the music as she grinned and stuck her tongue out in approval to all of her enthusiastic tippers.

Soon she was rubbing the crotch of her jean shorts to the camera and closing her eyes as she gyrated erotically for the fans watching. Amber popped the front of her shorts and slid them down her tattooed legs and kicked them across the room and then did the same with her panties.

She swiveled her hips seductively as she turned around for her fans showing off her toned young heart-shaped ass. There was a brilliant tattoo of Quatzecoatl – the feathered serpent from Aztec lore, snaking its way around her right cheek and up around with it's head positioned on the small of her back to dive down her ass crack.

“Haha - speaking of tattoos. I'm the mother of dragons, bitches!” She giggled as she shook her booty and made it bounce for the camera.

She reached over and grabbed the vibrating purple dildo from her desk and began to rub it down the smooth curvature of her ass cheeks.

“Now it's time for some fun...” The punk girl purred as she wiggled the sex toy in her hand.

She used her free hand to spread her ass cheeks apart to reveal her pink butt hole to the camera.

“I'm gonna have to go slow because despite my personality - i'm literally a tight ass!” She joked with a giggle.

The tattooed coed brought the head of the dildo up to the entry point of her rear and began to carefully insert the toy into her ass. She stuck her tongue out and cringed as she contorted to slip it in properly but the moment it stretched her hole to enter her, Amber's mouth opened into a gasping moan.

“Here we go! Now we're cookin'...” She cooed in a breathy voice as she continued to push the dildo deeper.

With each inch inserted, her mouth opened in intense pleasure and she gave a sharp gasp of breath.

Upstairs Andrew was coming back into the attic from his secret entrance carrying some cat food and a scratching post. He glanced at the computer to see Amber naked on screen inserting a purple dildo up her ass.

He immediately dropped everything on the floor and rushed to his console, bringing Ambers stats up in front of him.

Amber Brass

D.O.B.: 2/19/2001

Age: 20

Hair: Auburn (dyed Turquoise)

Eyes: Green

Height: 5'7"

Weight: 128lbs

Bra size: 32C

He selected her ass with his cursor and zeroed in on it. He then began to adjust the age of her bum one click at a time.

Back in the room Amber was gyrating her hips as she held the sex toy in her ass. But with every moment the smooth taut skin of her ass seemed to be a little worse for wear.

Cellulite appeared along the bottoms of her cheeks causing them to dimple and lump. Amber continued to play with her ass as it began to look 10-years-older than the rest of her body and began to swell and expand.

She hadn't noticed as she carefully moved the dildo between her cheeks which were now smooshing up against it and jiggling a lot more than her ass had moments ago.

Soon her middle-aged rump was engulfing the sex toy and eclipsing her slender frame. Her tattoo was getting stretched and distorted as her cheeks expanded to soccer mom proportions.

She reached back the hand that wasn't holding the dido to sensually rub her ass enticingly at the camera. Her young hand felt the drier older skin of her bum and noted that there just felt like so much more of her cheek than the tight round bubble that she was used to squeezing.

Her ass continued to age from her 40s into her 50s and was getting quite flabby, it began to droop down a bit over her still young toned thighs. Amber chose to ignore how weird her butt felt and as the older skin began to seep through her fingers she pulled her hand back quickly like a hand flinching from a flame.

Amber's dimpled saggy rump now began to slosh back and forth, puckering around the dildo and continuing to droop lower and lower down her thighs with each jiggle.

To anyone watching, if her lower back, legs and hands weren't in the frame then it would look like some college girl's mom was having a mid-life crisis and taking over the cam show to shake her fat dumpy rear while anally pleasuring herself. But with the rest of her body parts still looking young and slender it was a bizarre sight indeed.

Her ass continued to age through it's 60s, the skin now crinkling and starting to bunch around the cellulite beneath the older skin. Amber held her breath and focused on the sensations coming from the sexy toy in her ass hole rather than how weird her wide, wiggly butt felt.

However as she continued to carefully thrust it in and out of her hole, her rectums grip on the dildo didn't feel as tight, it was almost like her ass was getting... looser with every move she made.

As her bum continued through her 60s and into her 70s it was looking quite lumpy and now the cheeks hung several inches lower than they had when she first took off her panties. Amber was able to slide the dildo in and out with more ease as her hole continued to grow slack around the sex toy.

Her ass was starting to deflate a bit now as it started to look truly elderly. But the lack of fat was just causing the now 80-year-old bum to wrinkle into hanging folds of flesh that made her cheeks look like half-empty bags, sagging around the purple dildo.

She was having trouble keeping the sex toy in now as her old lady butt was so loose and stretched out at the dildo kept falling out and getting engulfed but the loose shriveled flesh of her elderly ass-cheeks. The dragon tattoo was fade, obscured and crinkled up along the older skin except for the head, on the small of her back looking ready to dive into the drooping baggy ass.

Amber reached back one more time to feel what was going on and grabbed the withered, puckering skin of a great-grandmother, dangling where her plump booty should be.

She turned around panicked, afraid of what her fans witnessed and quickly shut her cam off, slamming her computer shut. She then slowly, fearfully backed up toward her mirror and yelped in horror at the sight of a 90-year-old woman's ass sagging in the back of her otherwise 20-year-old body.

Upstairs Andrew cackled wickedly and turned his attention toward Hannah, downstairs.
