A NEW KIND

Adam whistled his favorite song as he opened the gate to the swim park. He was in a good mood.

After a long and pretty cold spring, the summer had finally come to Tinora and so Adam was excited for the new summer season.

He spent the whole morning with filling up the pools with fresh water, cleaning the park, and shooting away a bunch of Skirrans that had nested inside the giant water slide and refused to give up their new realm.

Finally, Adam was able to take a break and sat down exhausted. The surface of the pool was glistening in the warm sunlight of the noonday sun.

„Hm, let's try if the water has the right temperature“. He threw his backpack to the ground and took off his clothes to take a bath in his new swim-shorts.

Suddenly, a hissing sound caught his attention, as Adam saw something darting out from under the lockers. „Ohw!“ Adam tumbled backwards: A snake that had hidden beneath the locker boxes had bit him in his arm.

„Nonono, DAMN!“ Angrily, the snake curled around his arm, as Adam looked at the two tiny holes it had bit into his flesh.

Suddenly his arm went numb – Adam had never known that Tinora had poisonous snakes! In shock, he pulled the angry animal away and threw it to the ground. With an angry hiss, it slithered away, as the numbness in Adam's arm seemed to spread!

„Gahw, I hope it's not poisonous!“ Desperate, he looked around for a first-aid station, as an unknown pressure started to grow in his chest. „Hho noo... I... I can barely breathe!!“

In horror, Adam saw his chest swell up in a weird way, the same kind of pressure was starting in his face now, as long strands of drool dripped from his chin. „ple- asssse!! ... Ssstupid ssssnake!“

Scared by the hissing sounds that escaped his mouth, Adam became aware that the skin on his chest had ripped open! Carefully and filled with disbelief, he moved his hands over the weird holes that had formed on his skin. „whatssss happening?!“

His skin felt weird and disconnected. Two massive bulges pushed through his chest, as Adam finally saw what was going on. With shaking hands, he grabbed the large, loosely hanging parts of his former skin and pulled them to the side. Covered in a slimy film, two massive, scaly female breasts wiggled in front of him „titsss?! I got...sssnake tittsss?! Oh hnaa, whatssss happening!!?“

Right in that moment, Adam noticed a sucking feeling in his crotch. It wasn't a sucking like he had ever experienced it before, and as he looked down, he saw why: His shorts had ripped away as his pelvis had grown wider. Between his legs, his balls dangled, covered in weird scales. His cock tho had totally changed: Meaty lips had formed around its base, greedily sucking his member back into his body.

„Hnooo...!“ Adam stumbled backwards. „Im growing a ssssnake pusssssy!!“ Suddenly, his jaws felt weird, as he felt his lips stretch. A massive, scaled snout pushed out from his mouth. Sharp teeth and a forked tongue now made it impossible to Adam to speak without hissing.

Most of Adams skin had fallen down to the ground now. Still shocked about his new, scaly body, the former male watched his green skin in disbelief. His cock had fully dissapeared in a soft fold between his legs now, only leaving a lewd, dripping liloc pussy that looked soft and swollen.

„Thissss cant be true!“ Adam hissed in a mix of horror and lust. His belly was swelling up, as he felt a heavy weight pushing agains his pelvis. After a few minutes, Adam looked almos pregnant!

A thin splash of liquid squirted out of his new, lewd opening, as he felt the new muscles in his crotch trying to push out whatever had formed in his belly!

A thick scaly tail slashed behind his back, stabilizing his reptilic form. Unable to fight the feeling of lust anymore, Adam spreaded his legs and squatted. Something inside him wanted out...soon!

Adam moaned and hissed deeply, as the first soft shell slowly pushed out of his cunt. He had never expected eggs to be... that soft! With a splat, the first egg touched the ground between his reptile claws as the next one already pushed through Adams vagina.

As the last egg finally touched the ground, Adam was able to take a deep breath. „thatssss ssssoo weird...” Adam looked at his now feminine hands. He had a Lilloc girlfriend back then, and he was pretty sure that she never had infected him this fast!

Also, he had learned that a Lilloc transformation usually took days, giving the victim enough time to heal the infection. A movement between his new, clawed feet caught Adams attention. A few of the eggs he layed were already hatching!

„Thiss... Thiss cant be!!!” Adam screamed, as he saw snakes slowly pushing out from the soft eggs, hissing at him like he was their new mother now. „Sshhit... thiss is really bad....”
