

Ellies Enslavement

This story is set a few months before the events of The Last of Us 2. Ellie is grown up and trusted to go out by herself on patrols. But on one of those patrols she runs into a girl who's the opposite of her in so many ways. Girly and feminine and dressed all in pink. This girl has been looking for a new pet for a long time, and Ellie is the perfect stray to be taken and trained. Ellie is quickly kidnapped by the girl and taken to her new life of sensual enslavement. Ellie's survived a lot of things but this girl might be the one to finally break her.

The newest green lantern Jessica Cruz has been trusted to watch over earth while a large portion of it's heroes are away fighting an intergalactic war. At the same time Sinestro's daughter is finally embracing the legacy of her father. She's creating her own corps, one that will rule over all others and dominate every living being in the universe. Jessica soon finds herself the centerpiece of this grand plan, and once she submits and gives in to the power of fear, the rest of the universe will follow.

Hermoine Granger - Twist in Time

Hermoine Granger was a once in a generation student. But since defeating Voldemort a new generation has risen, and with it a student who's perhaps even more brilliant than Hermoine. This girl has all the drive and determination Hermoine had at that age, only she's completely evil and committed to bringing the dark lord back. An adult Hermoine is ambushed and overwhelmed by this girl, then she's shown just how inferior she is, both in this time and in the past.

Korra - The Legend Ends

This story picks up near the end of The Legend of Korra. Right after the president of republic city surrenders to Kuvira. From there the story diverges, Kuvira sweeps through the city, taking over and installing herself as the ruler of her new Earth Kingdom. Korra is outsmarted and overwhelmed by Kuvira, her advanced military mind quickly crushing the avatar. Ms Marvel - Fanfiction Humiliation

Kamala Khan has left her fan-fiction days behind her and is finally a member of the avengers. One day she decides to check out the old website she used to post on, and she finds its become overrun with heroine peril stories! Every story she clicks on has her favourite superheroines being bound, gagged and enslaved. There are even dozens of stories featuring her. Enraged she tracks down the writer of all of these humiliating tales. But her anger blinds her to the danger she's walking into. She's soon knocked out and forced into an experimental VR machine. All of those stories she found so demeaning are now brought to life, and she gets to see first hand what it's like to be a heroine in peril

Ness's Reign of Terror

This story is a sequel to Wonder Woman vs The School Bully which you can read on my deviantart page. In that story Wonder Woman is captured and sold by a mean girl called Ness at a local high school she was investigating. Her disappearance doesn't go unnoticed, and soon three of the most famous superheroines are investigating the school as well. Surely Wonder Girl, Batgirl and Supergirl will be enough to take down Ness? Or maybe they'll all just end up being bullied and sold off just like Diana.

Scarlet Witch - Hard Reality

Set just after the end of Wandavision, this story picks up with the former director of S.W.O.R.D., Tyler Hayward. His plan to rebuild and use Vision as a weapon failed, he was arrested and dishonourably discharged from the agency, only barely managing to avoid any prison time. He now spends his days drinking and cursing the name Wanda Maximoff. However a new ally finds him, someone who cant tolerate the reality bending nature of Wanda's powers, and someone who can give Hayward all the tools he needs to get his revenge on Wanda.

Squashing the Spiderverse

Spider-Gwen always thought she was unique amongst the Gwen Stacy's throughout the multiverse. That she was the only one who had been given the powers that in so many other worlds went to Peter Parker. Unfortunately for her she's wrong, there are dozens of Spider-Gwens, a whole spiderverse of them, and they're all being hunted. A superior Doctor Octopus has gotten a taste for capturing these Spider-Gwens, and each one he captures makes his hunger grow.

Totally Spies – Tormented

This story is a combination of two things I've been wanting to write for a while now. A Totally Spies story, and a story featuring a character called the Sleeping Bag Tormentor. If you don't know who that is he has a bunch of stories on deviantart you can check out here:

www.deviantart.com/gagfan/gallery

He's owned by a great bondage fiction writer over there who has given his permission for me to use the character. The spies will all be captured and tormented by his unique style of over the top and intense bondage. They might be the most capable girls he's ever faced, but even they won't be able to save themselves from becoming just another of his victims.

M/F, Intense bondage, kidnapping, dark ending

X-Mansion Mayhem

Every poll will always have a mayhem story and this one features the ladies of the x-men! Isabella has captured models and black widows but she's never captured women with superpowers before. The sultry spy loves a challenge, and the more powerful her targets are, the sweeter it is when they surrender to sleep in her arms. She plans a night-time raid of the x-mansion, slipping through the halls and capturing every girl on her list. They might be the next step in human evolution, but to Isabella they're just more sleepy playthings.
