We live in a society,
where state-mandated goth gfs exist

by wjs07

"We live in a society",

Where people are merely cogs in a giant machine. society only values greater efficiency and productivity at the detriment of other sacred values like- freedom, love, and meaning. Everyone is being spied and monitored at every second to see who is productive and who isn't. Those who are supposedly unproductive is seen as literal trash. And trash belongs in the waste bin....

But merely bowing down and to be treated like a cog, or worse, a broken cog, is something I'm not willing to do!

We are a democracy only in name.
In reality, The technocrats have all the power.
They say they will take us to greatness : colonize mars and beyond!
but greatness for who? not me, not us.... only for themselves!

Fighting against the machine and the technocrats is the most human thing I can do...!

It wasn't the gun was it?

Wha-!?

...Who the hell could that be...?

Just a second!

I'm coming!

Ah... hello?

Hey, this is the room 214 right?

I'm Agent LE-903.
I was assigned to you as your girlfriend
by the HHS

Wha..!?
Assigned girlfriend
...?

Haven't you heard?
The Federal Government started a program to help isolated single people.

okay...?

What am I doing?
There are more important things i need to do!

Um- actually...
I was in the middle of something just before you came...

Sorry, but... could you come back at another time?

Why? were you jerking off?

Wha-
N,no!
I was-

Its okay!
Don't mind me.
I'm just here to keep you company...

and you can do whatever you want!

W-what?

I said- You can do WHATEVER you want...

N,no... She's trying to..!
I shouldn't do this...

AUGGH!
I just couldn't help myself!

Looking deep into her eyes....

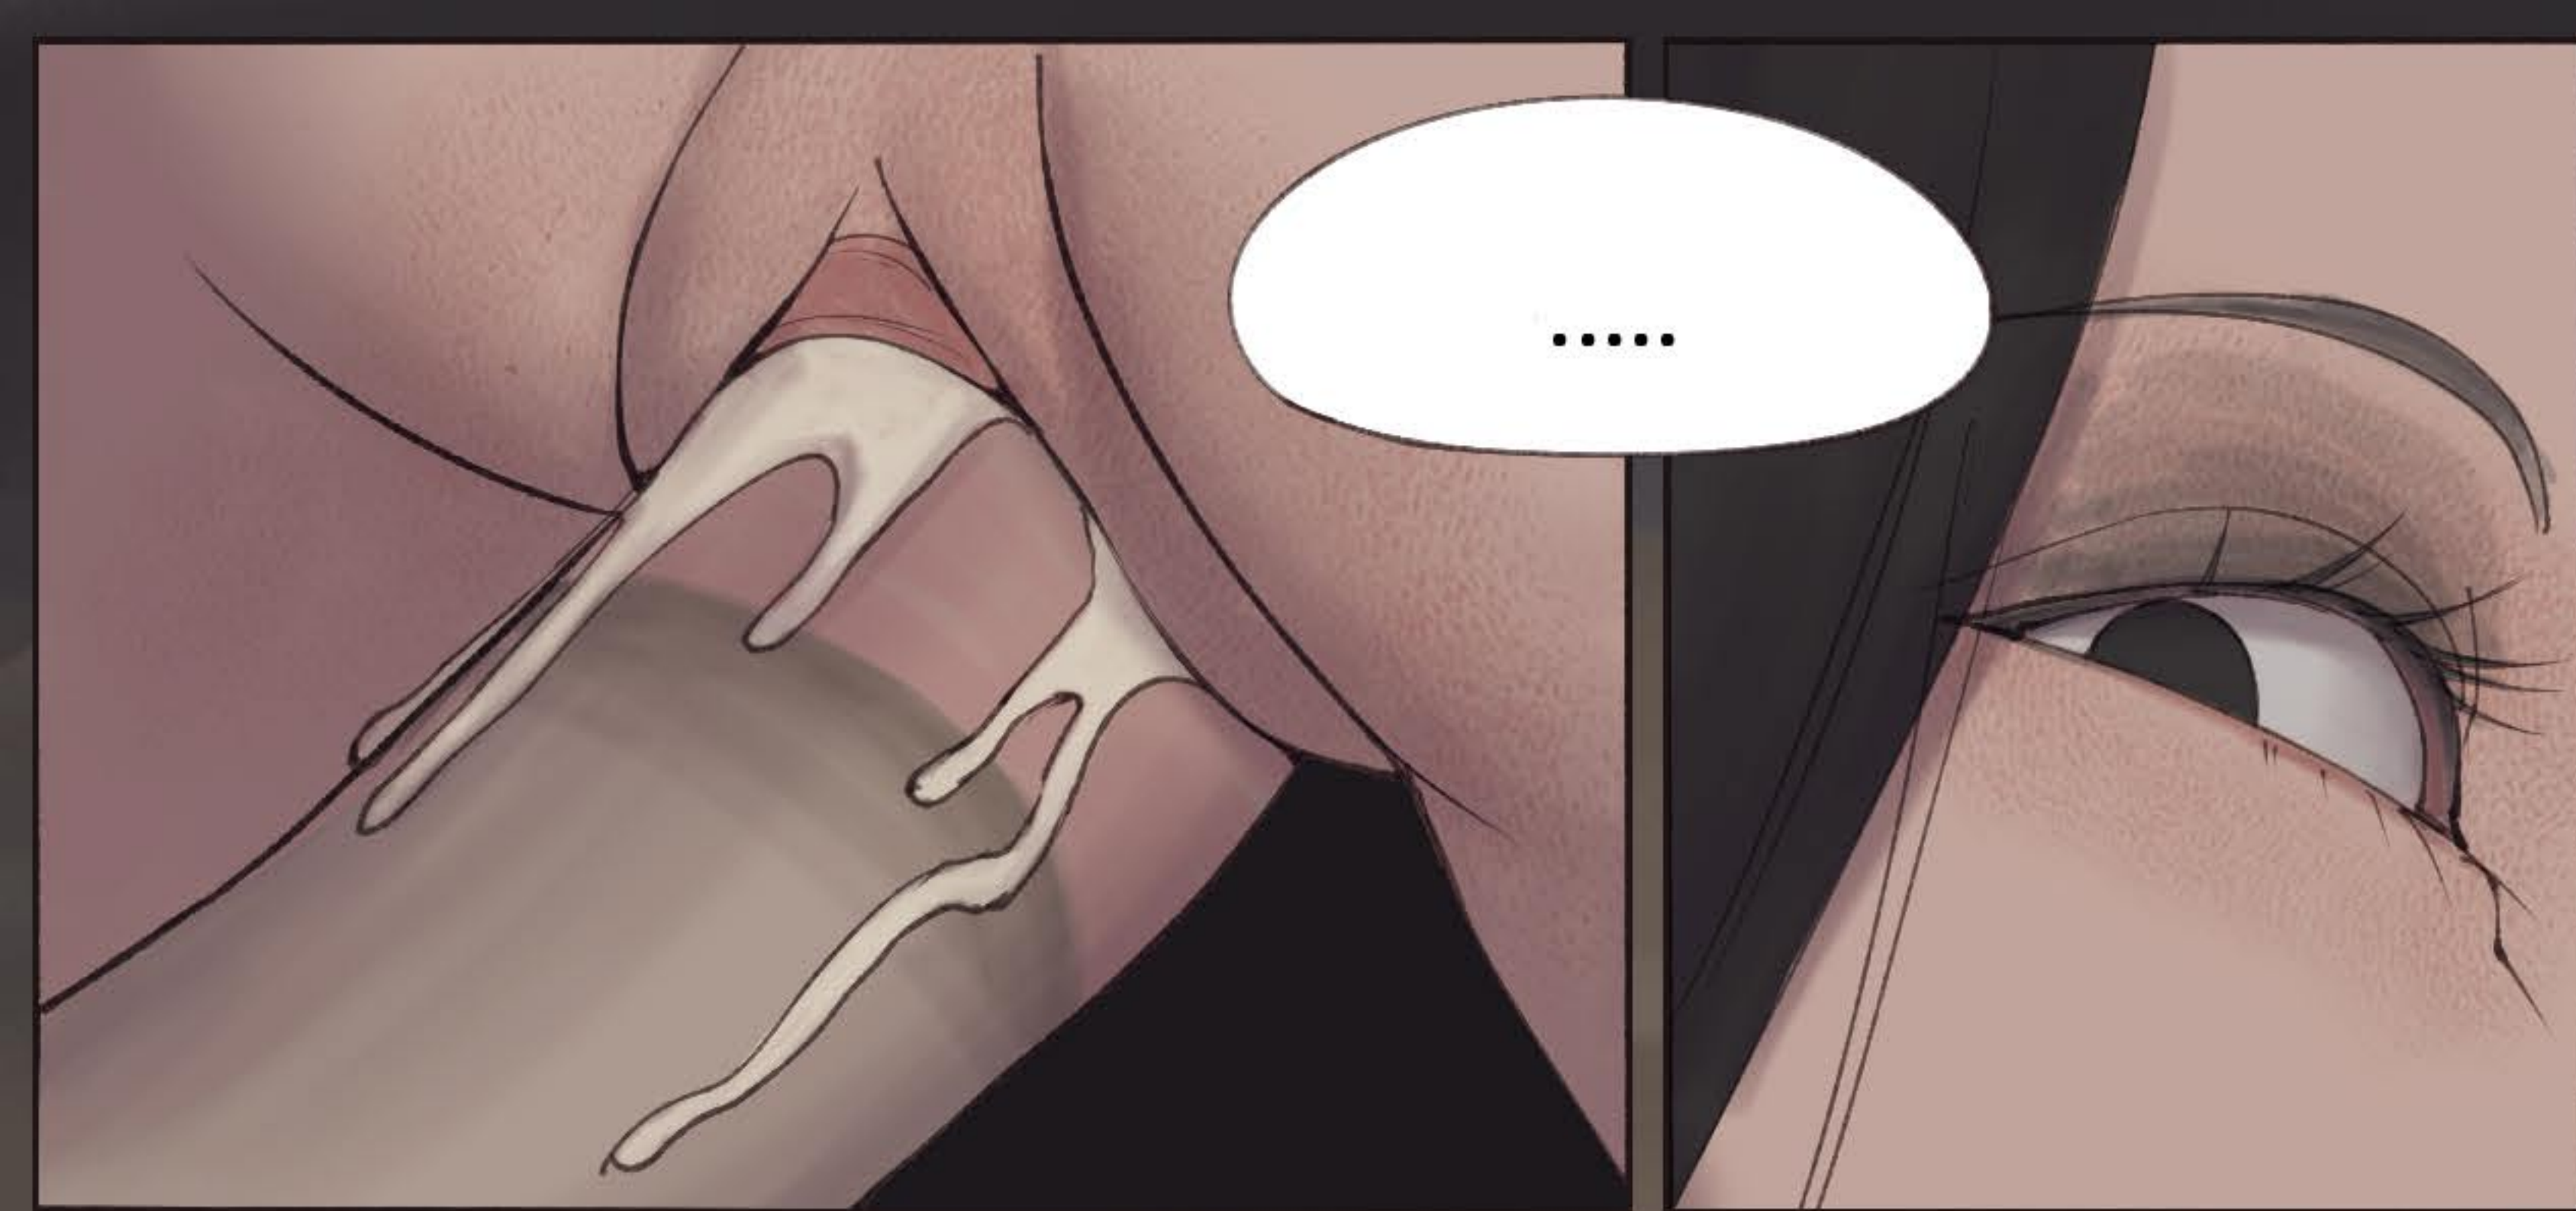

I feel like I'm getting the emotional connection I wanted for so long...

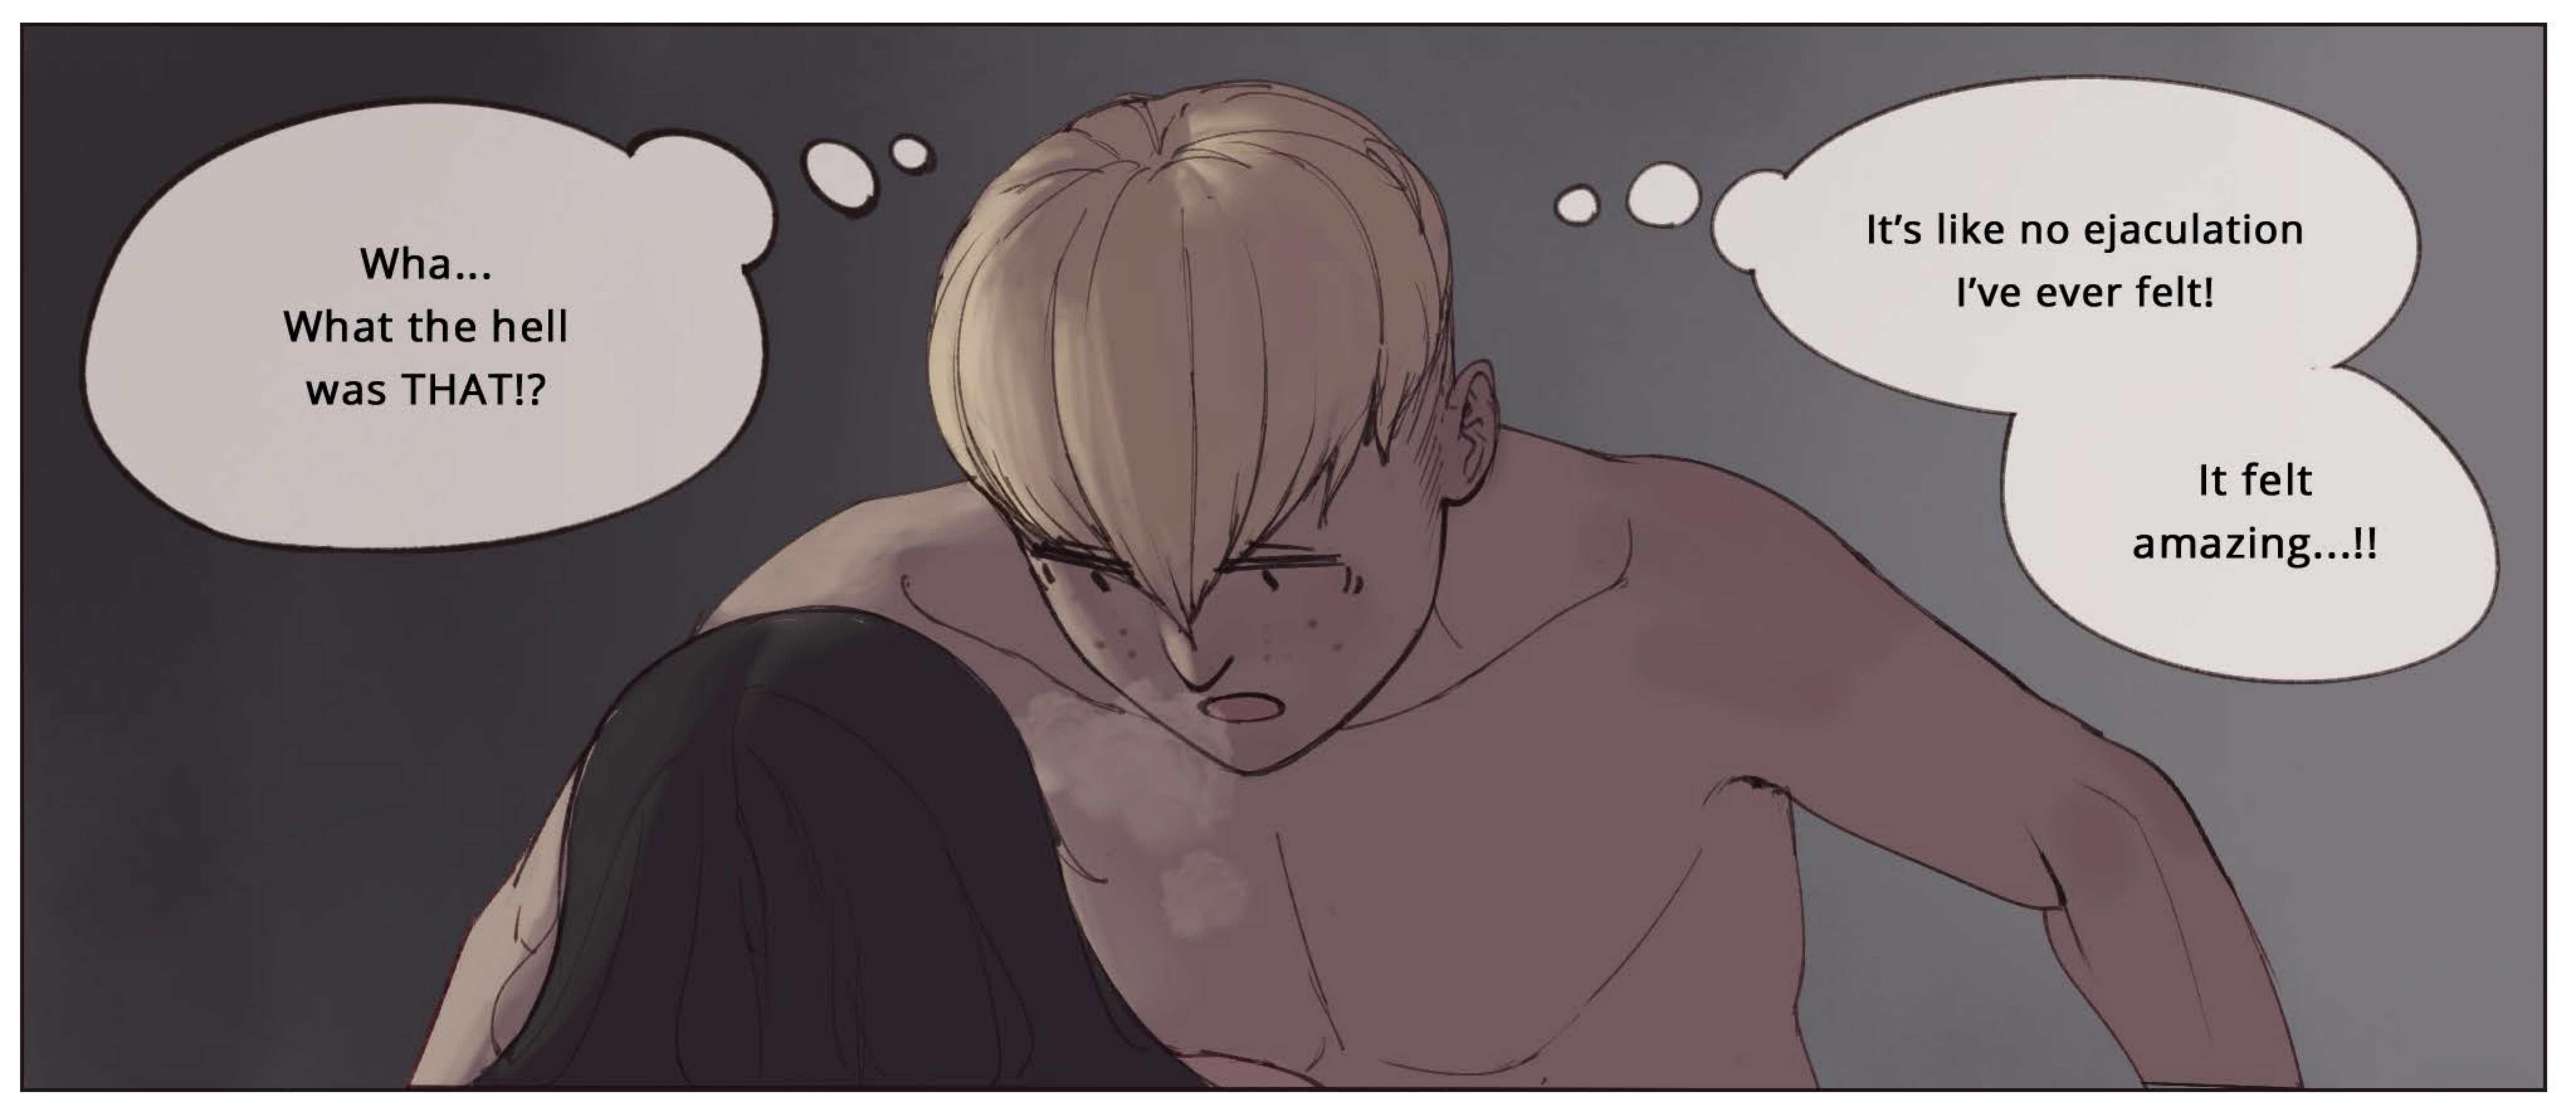

huh..?

Wha...
What the hell was THAT!?

It's like no ejaculation
I've ever felt!

It felt amazing...!!

hah...
huff...

Judging from his reaction,
He just reached ejaculation.
He must feel confused.
Because this is something he never have felt before.

What just happened is called
The 'Last Ejaculation'.
It is something like the last meal for prisoners

The vaginal discharge from earlier?

That was lubricant mixed with special nanobots that were developed to destroy certain cells

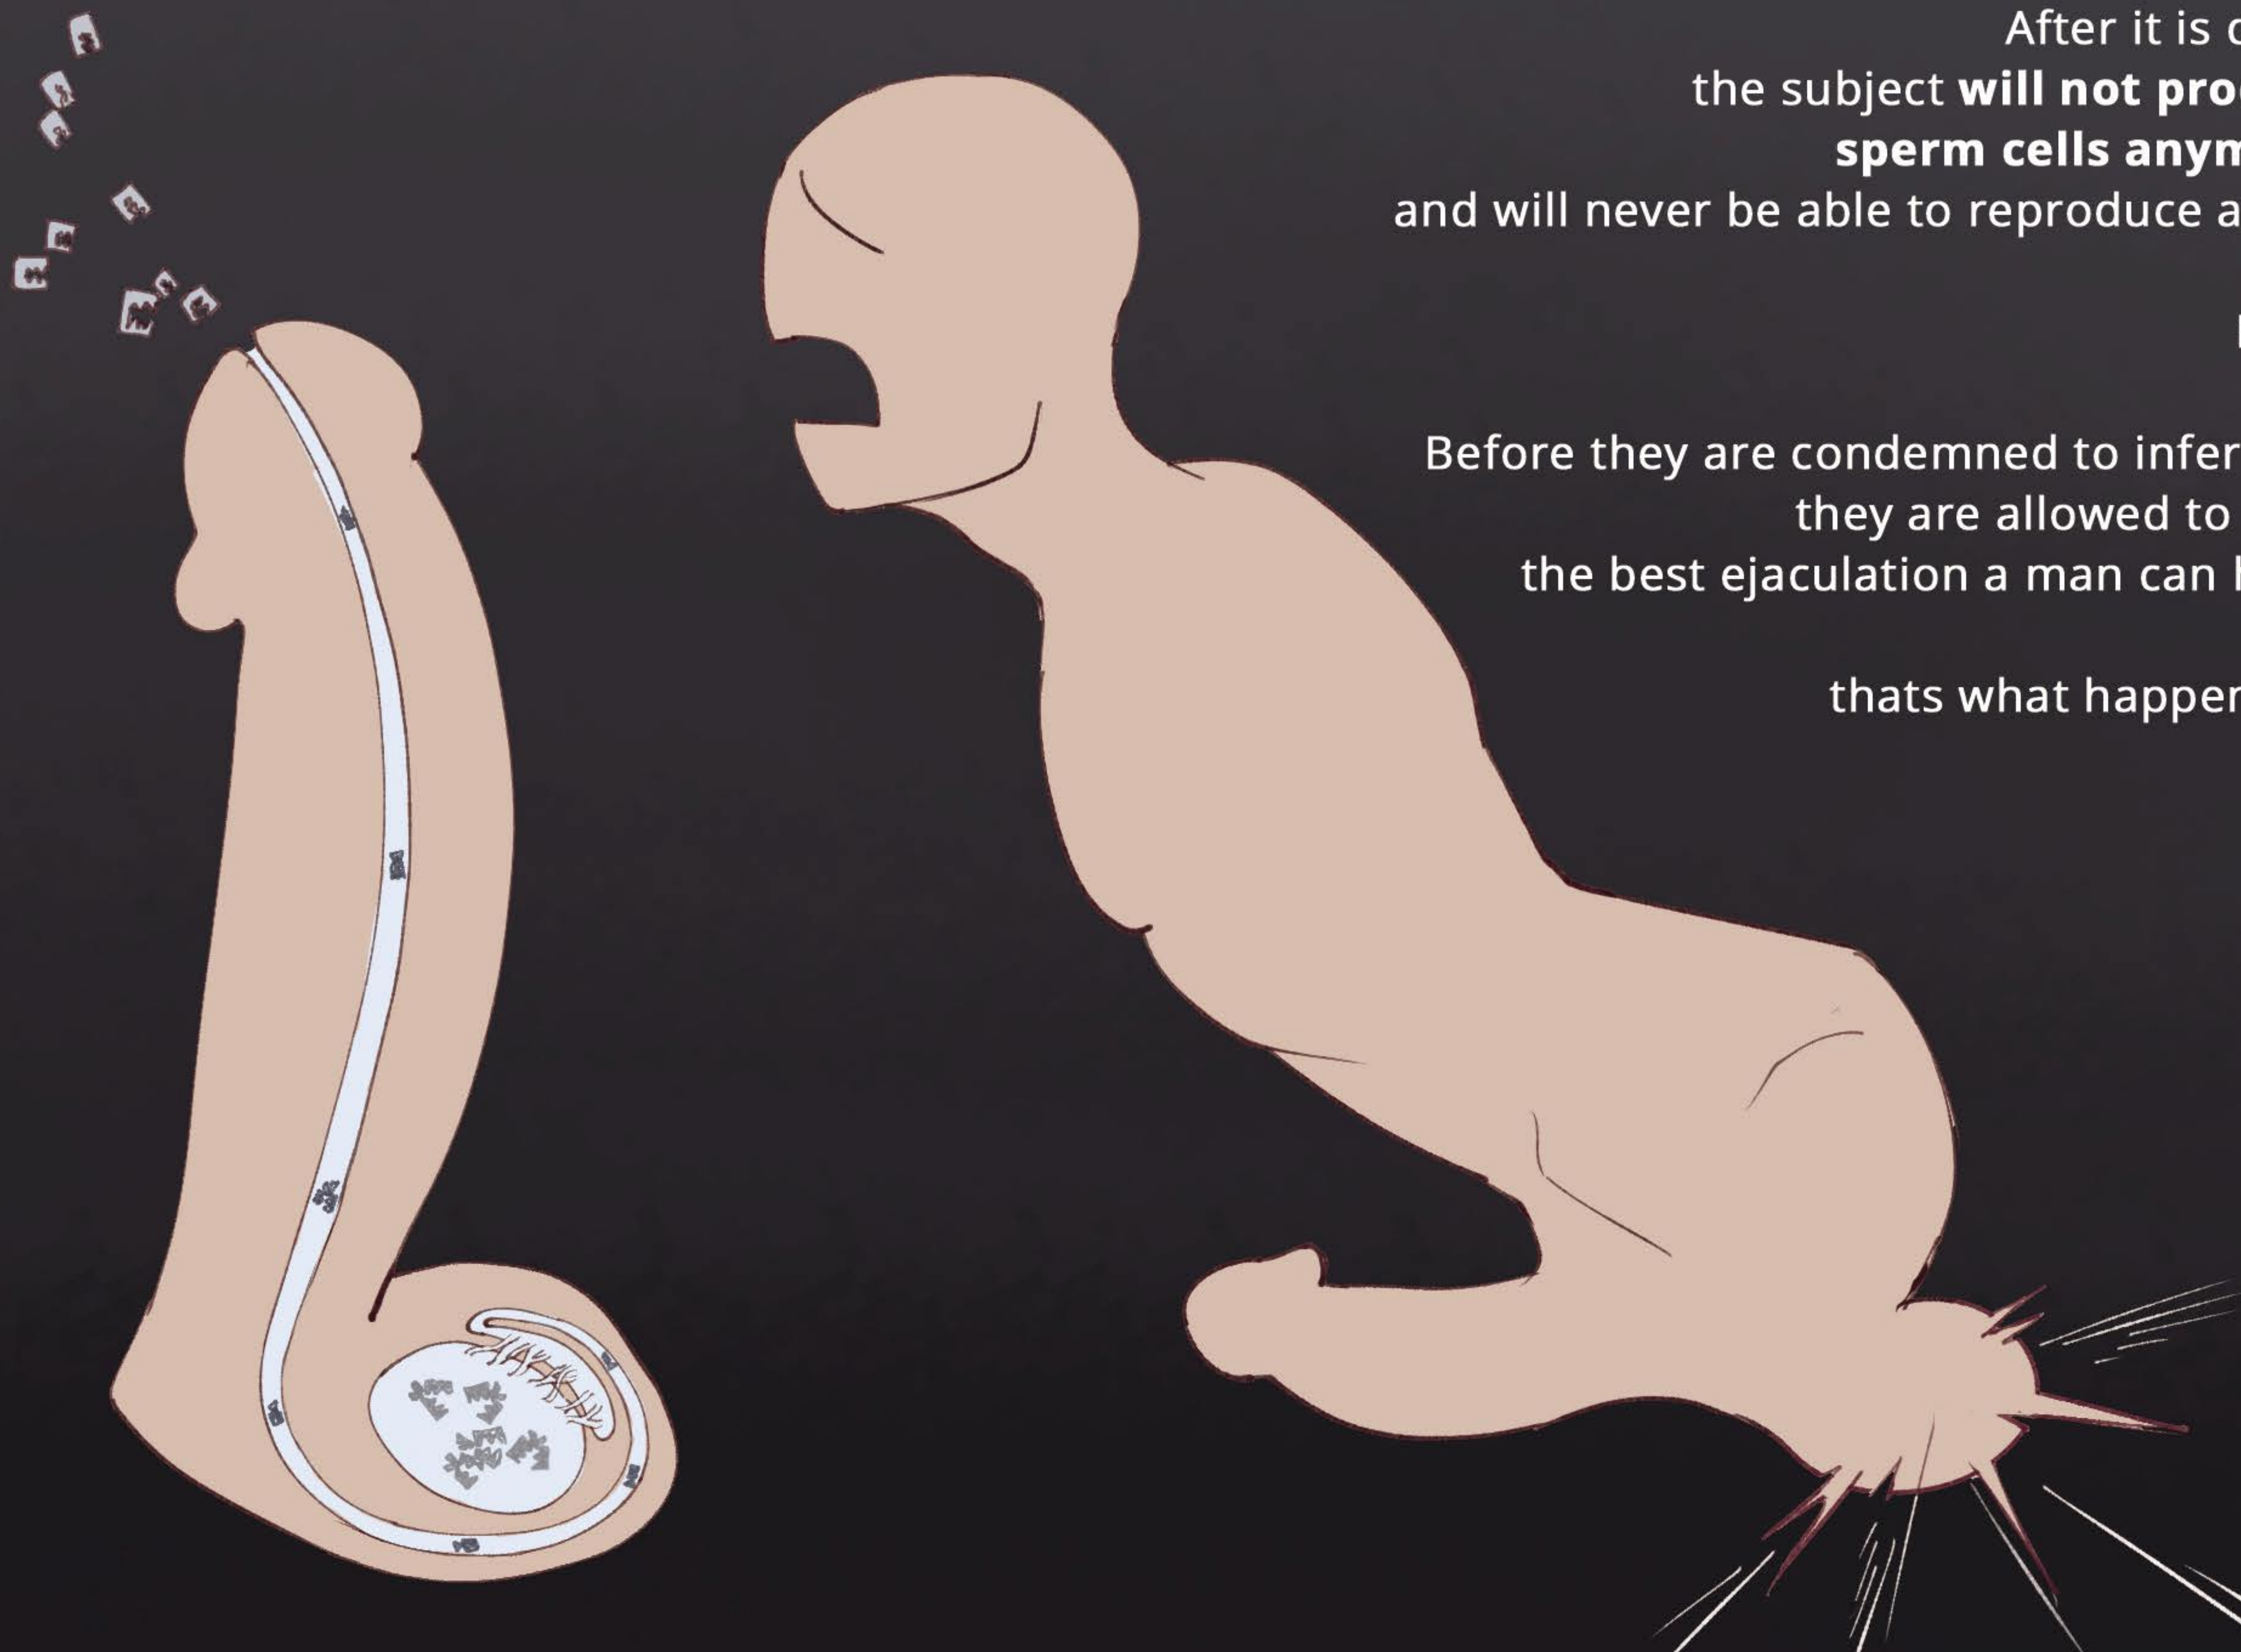

The nanobots goes up the urethra and into the testes. as one ejaculates, the bots activate to destroy the sperm producing cells. Which makes the testes go into necrosis. The side effect of the destruction is... that one feels crazy amounts of orgasm during the process.

After it is done, the subject will not produce sperm cells anymore. and will never be able to reproduce again.

But...

Before they are condemned to infertility, they are allowed to have the best ejaculation a man can have.

thats what happened...

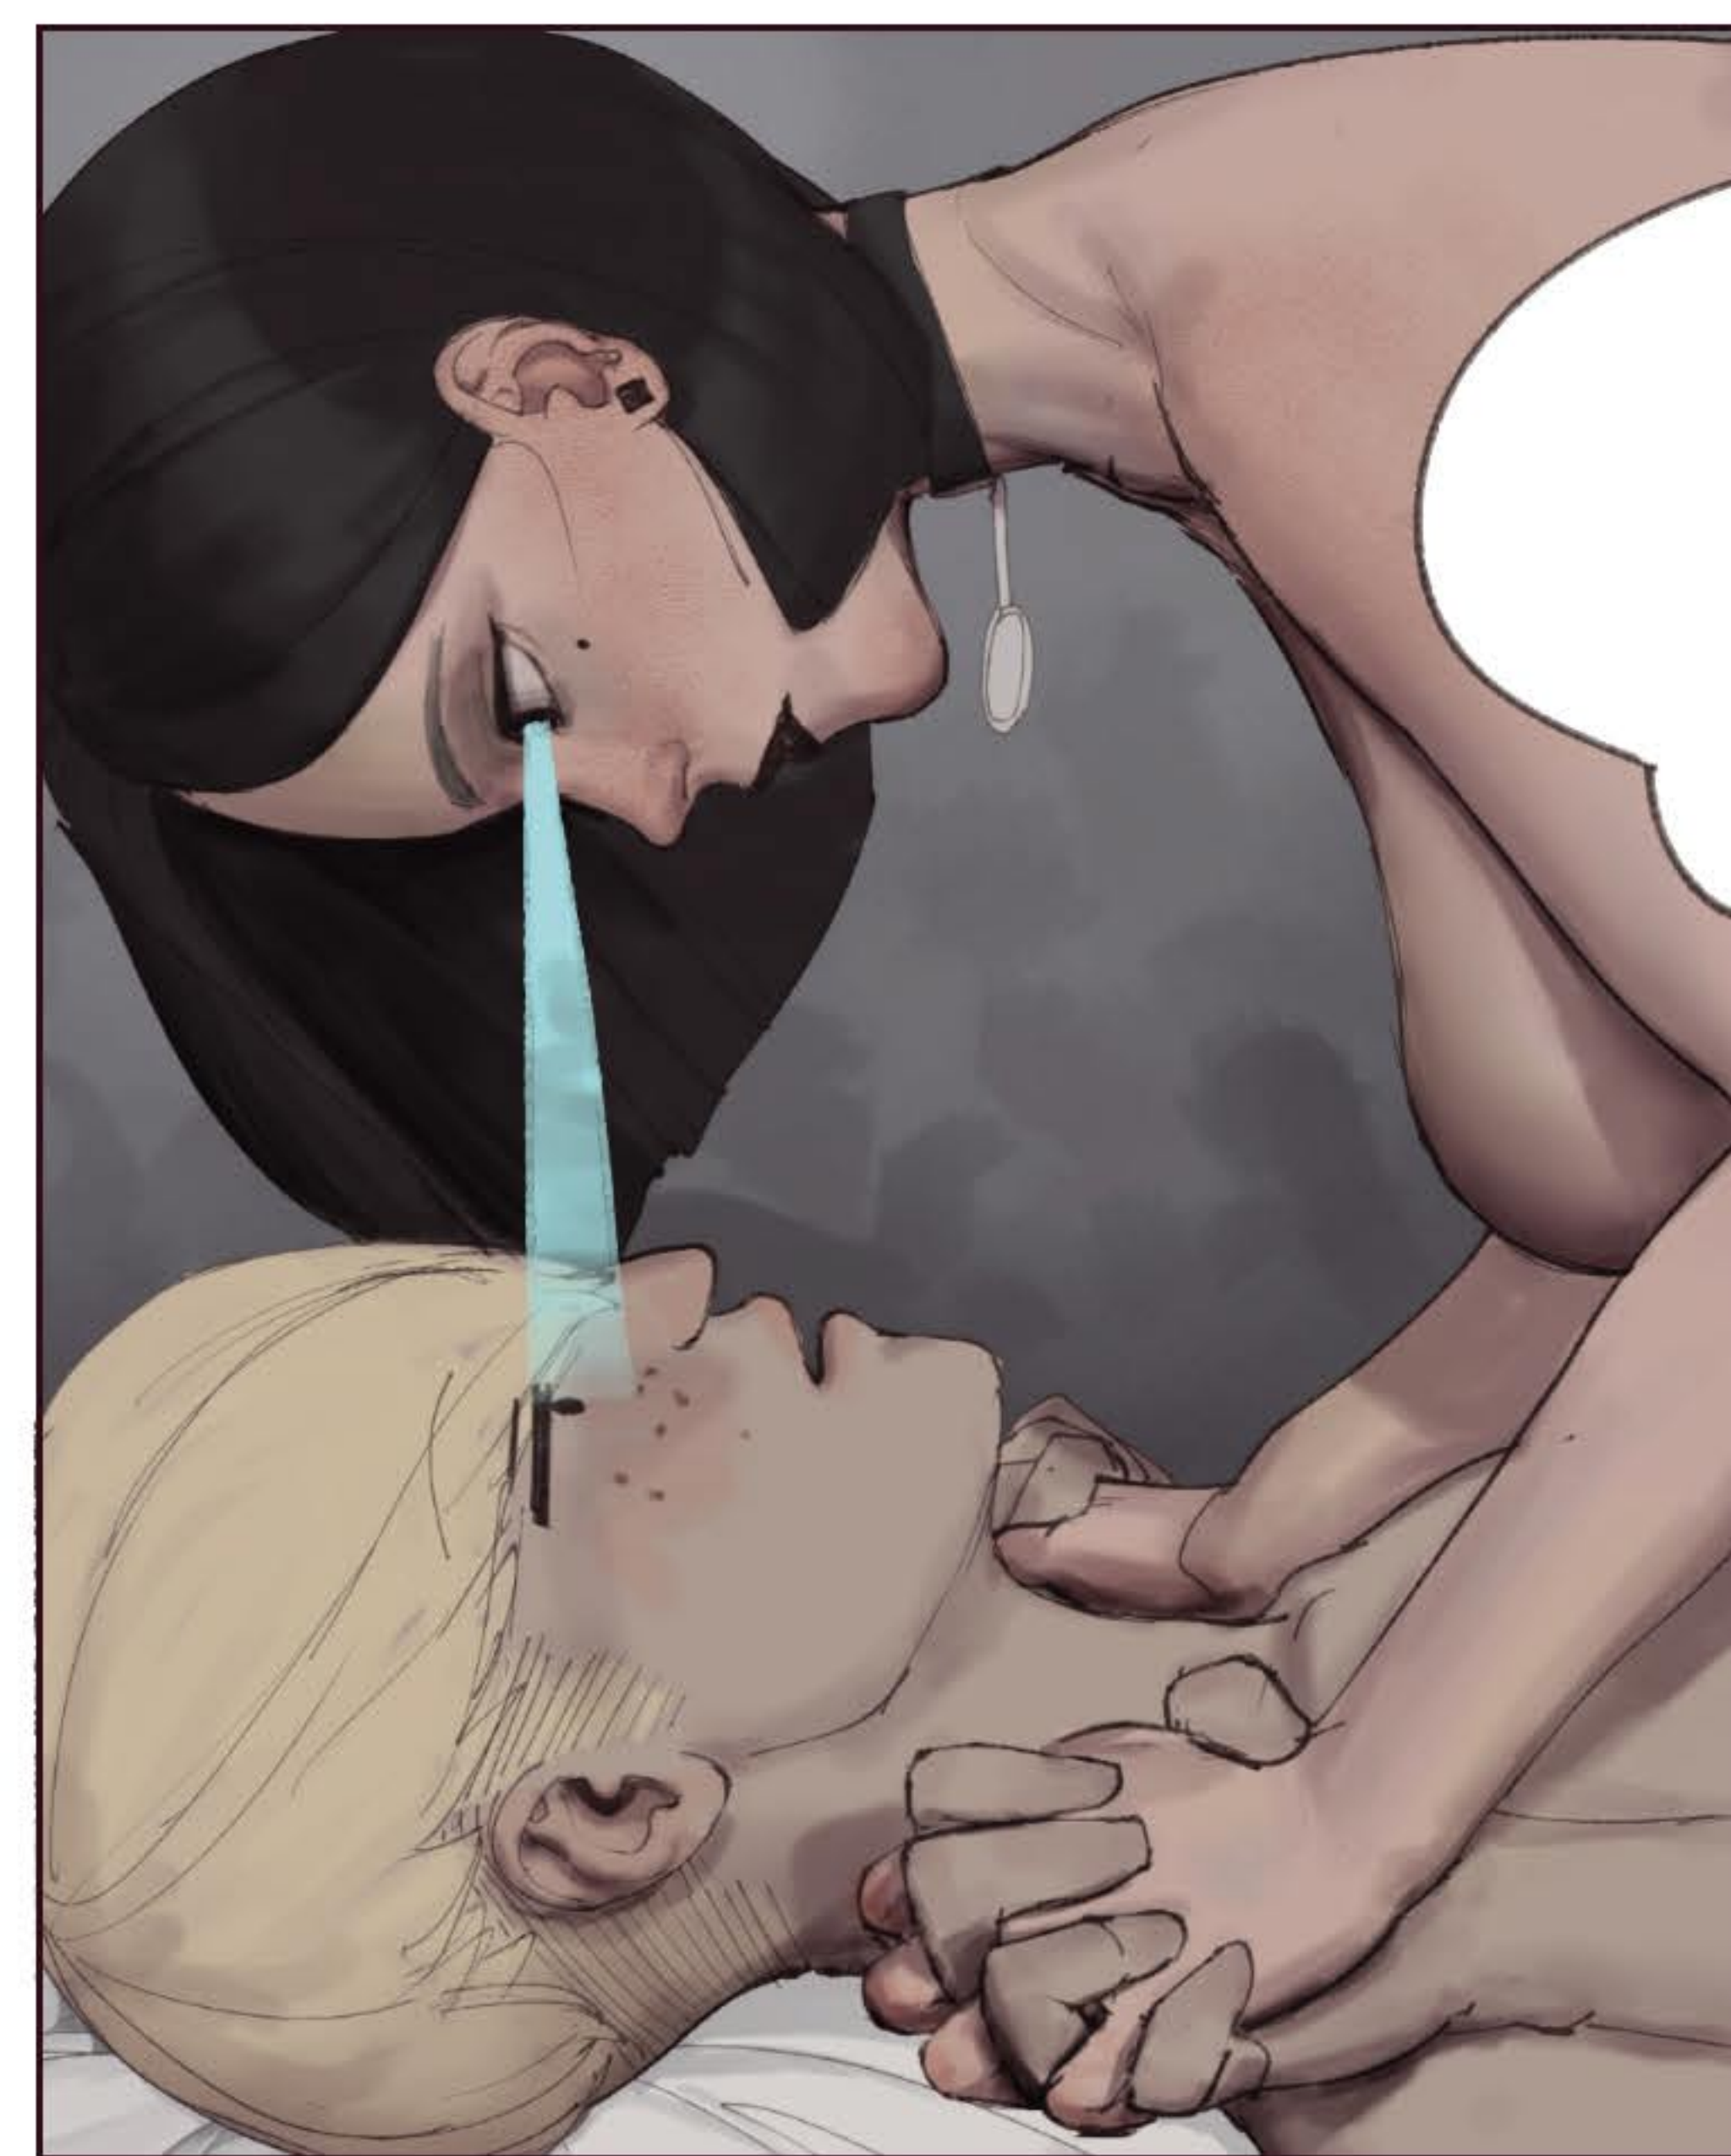

T-That felt amazing...!

Maybe this is what genuine intimacy feels like...
Back when you hold my hands and looked into my eyes...

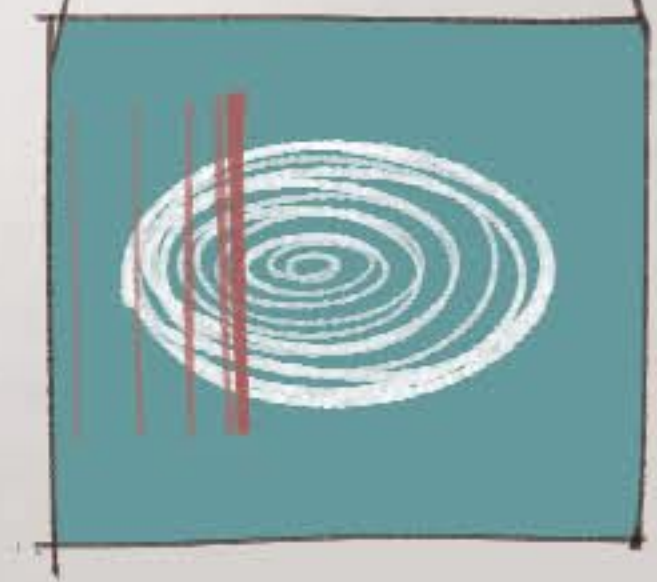

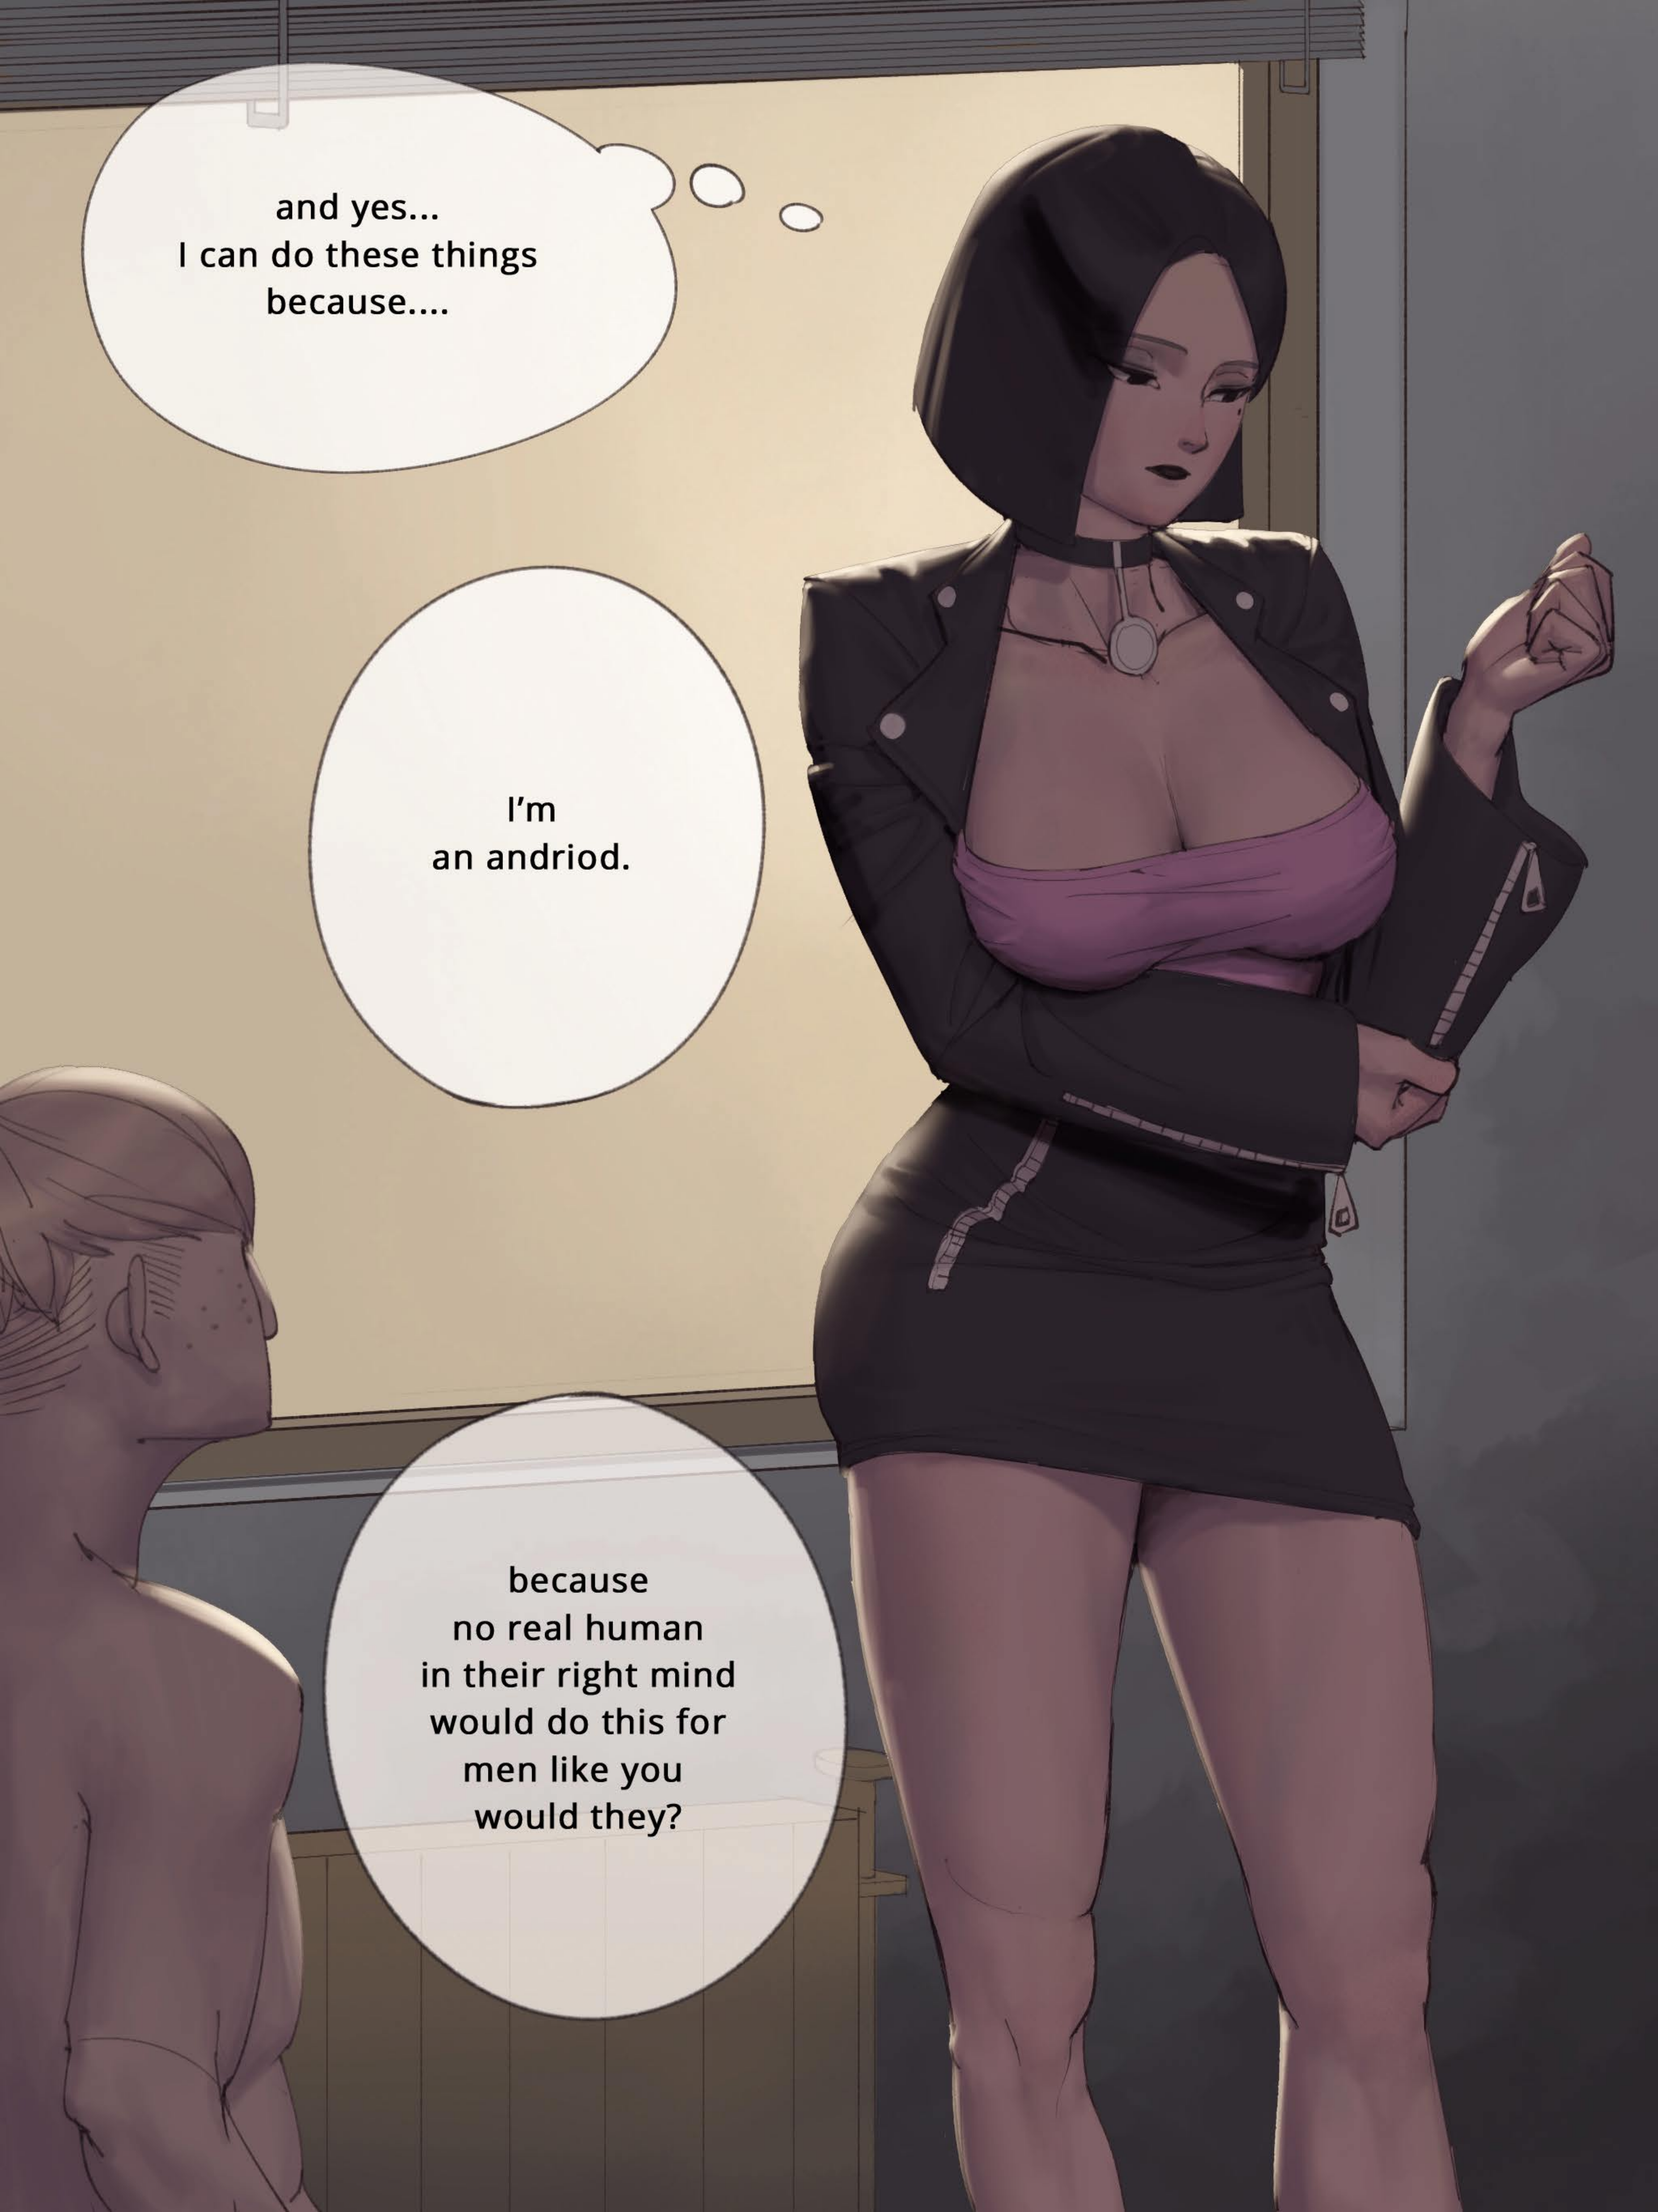

I felt something I havent in a while: A genuine emotional connection ...!

Oh that? That was actually scanning your fingerprints and pupils.
When we castrate men ike you, sometimes they turn angry even commit crime. or they were already related to criminal activity.

To stop that, I needed to collect personal data to potentially use it when you become a criminal.

and yes...
I can do these things because....

I'm an andriod.

because no real human in their right mind would do this for men like you would they?

huh..?
Leaving already?
I could go get us something to eat...

No,
I'm good,
I gotta go

W,Wait!!

We'll see each other again right?

what...?
why....?

...no

.....

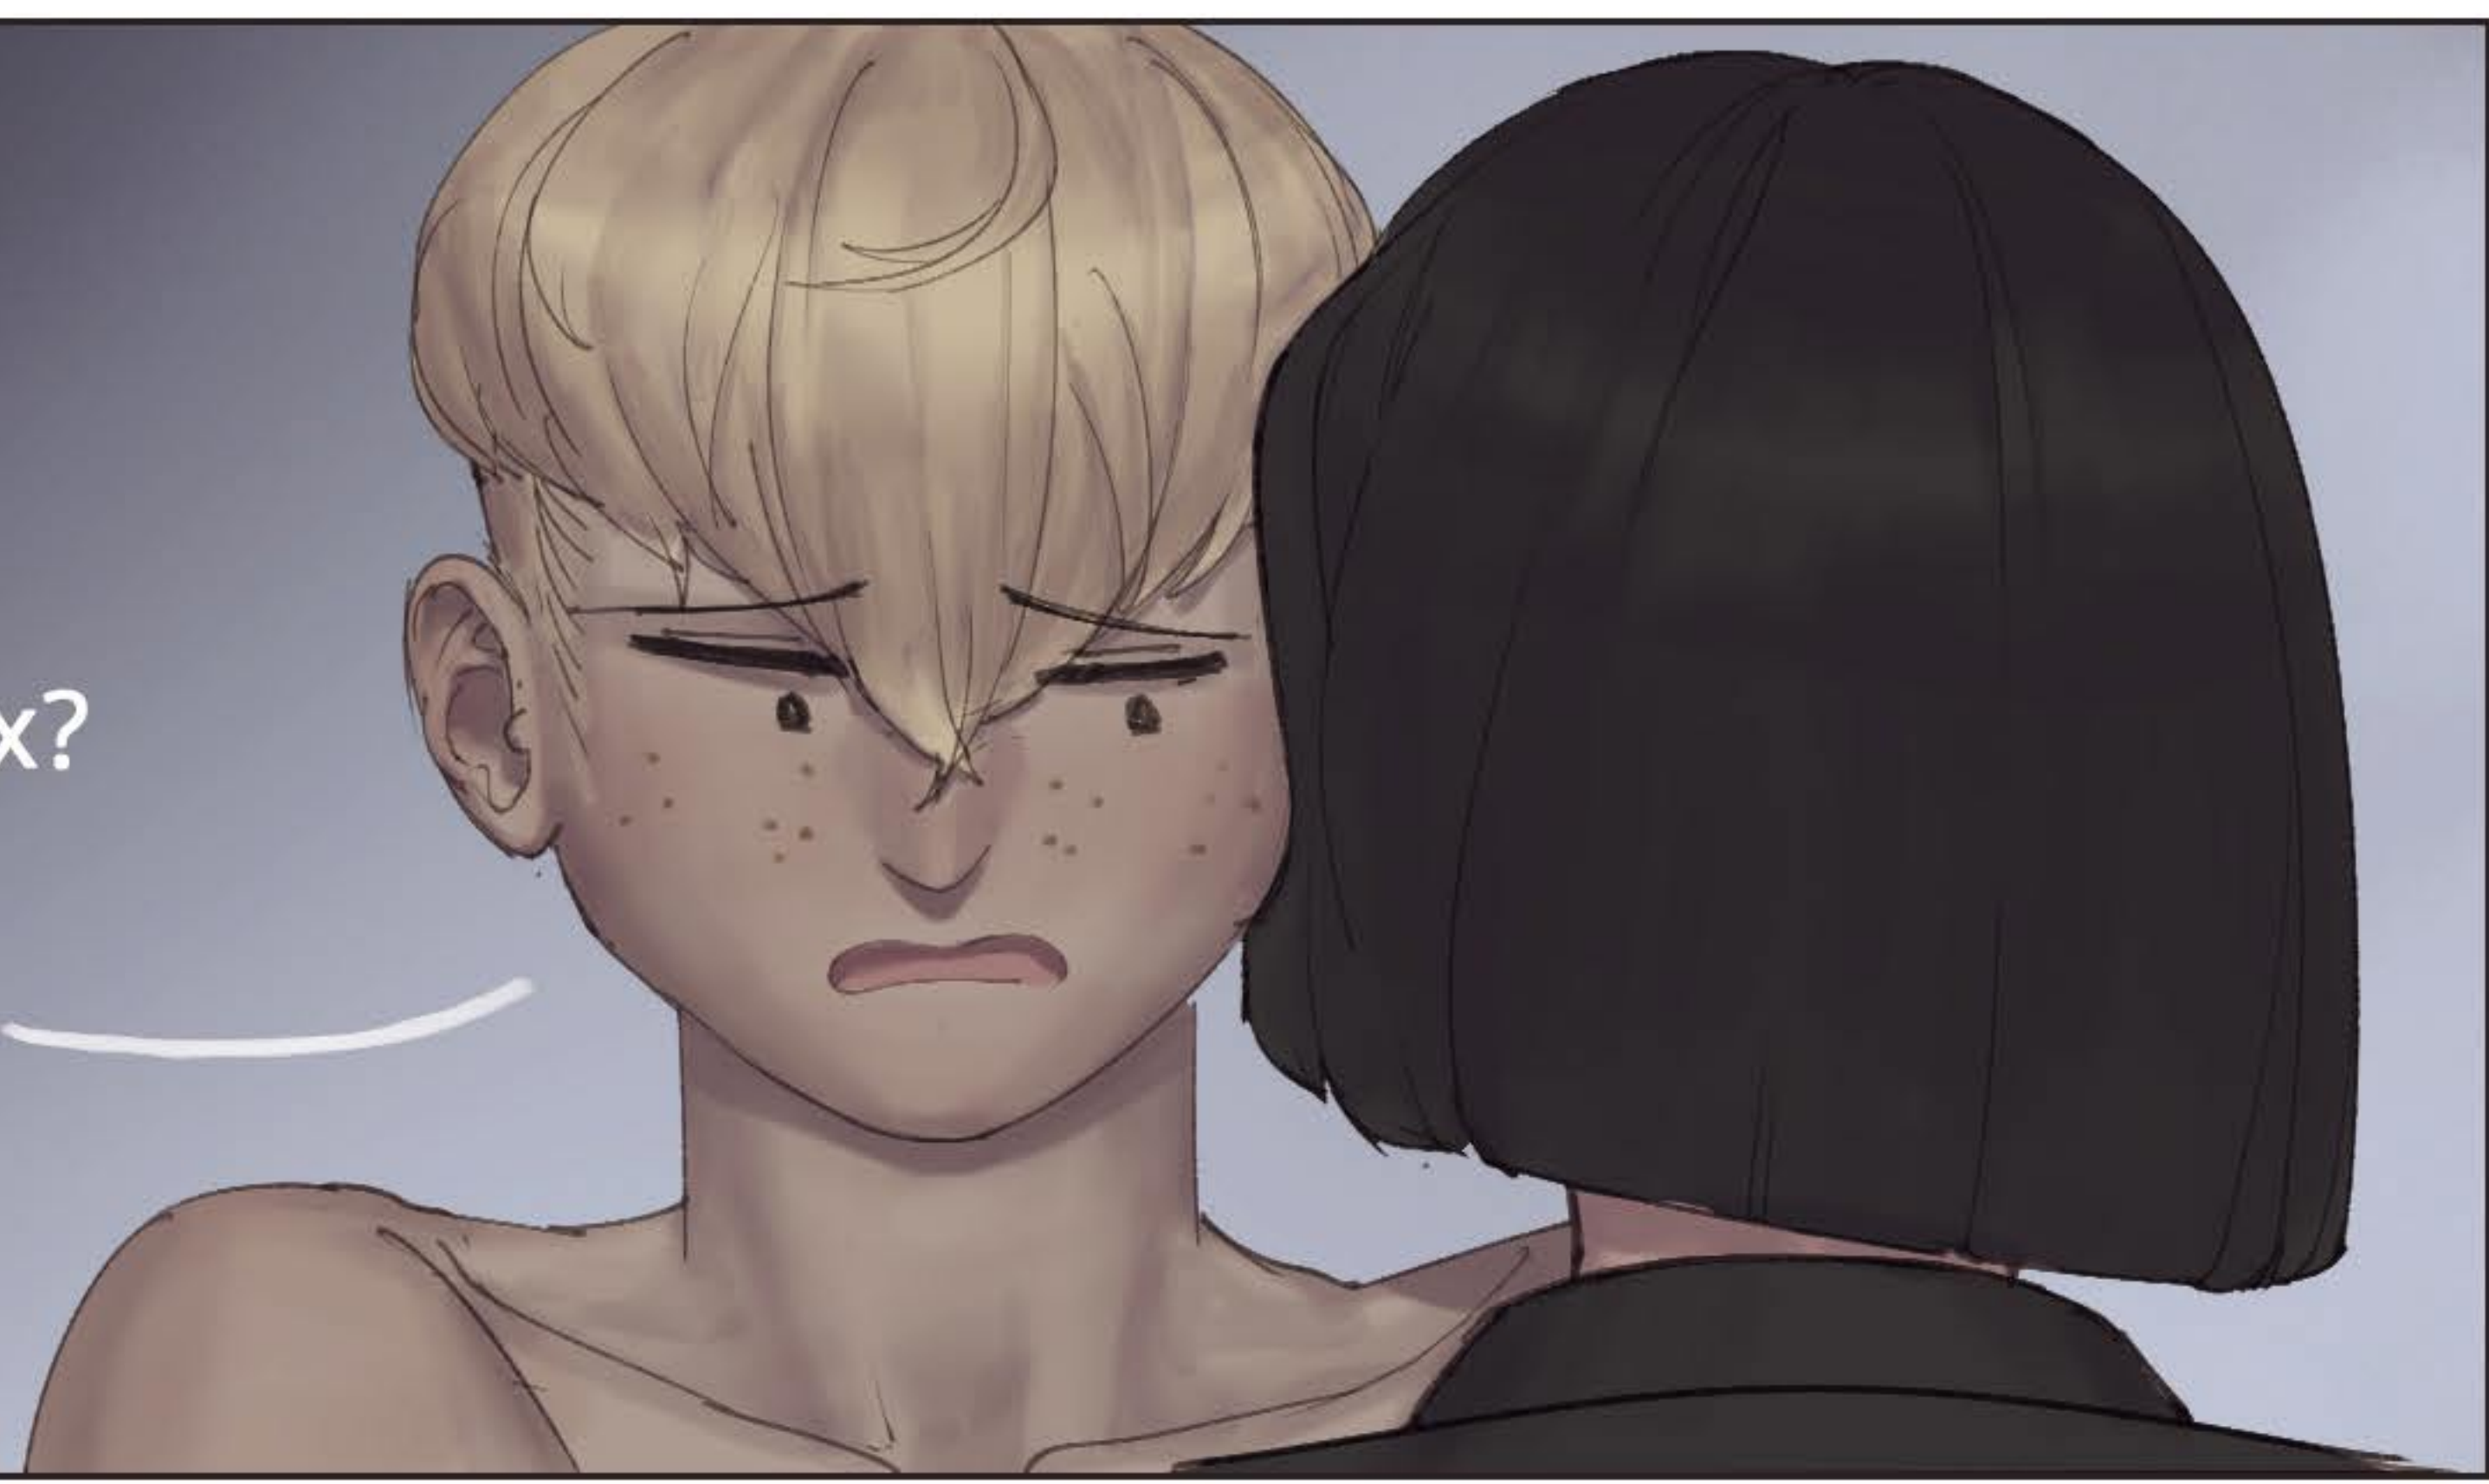

Wait!

Please don't go....its been so long...
I havent had any human connection for years now... I was so shy
I never got a girlfriend. my friends started go on to find their own path and moved away.

I couldn't get a proper job.
After years of being jobless, my family kicked me out.
and I'm on my welfare check right now.

Please dont leave....
I just want someone by my side!
Is it because you didnt like the sex?
It's okay! Let's not have sex then!
I'm used to not having sex!

You got that right...
But even without the nuisance of sex,
What makes you think anyone would hang out with you? are you fun? humorous?
intellegent? nothing. you are none of those.
You only talk about those weird movies.
I bet thats the reason your friends left you.
You don't deserve to be with anyone.
And we're castrating you to prevent future generations to be in your situation.

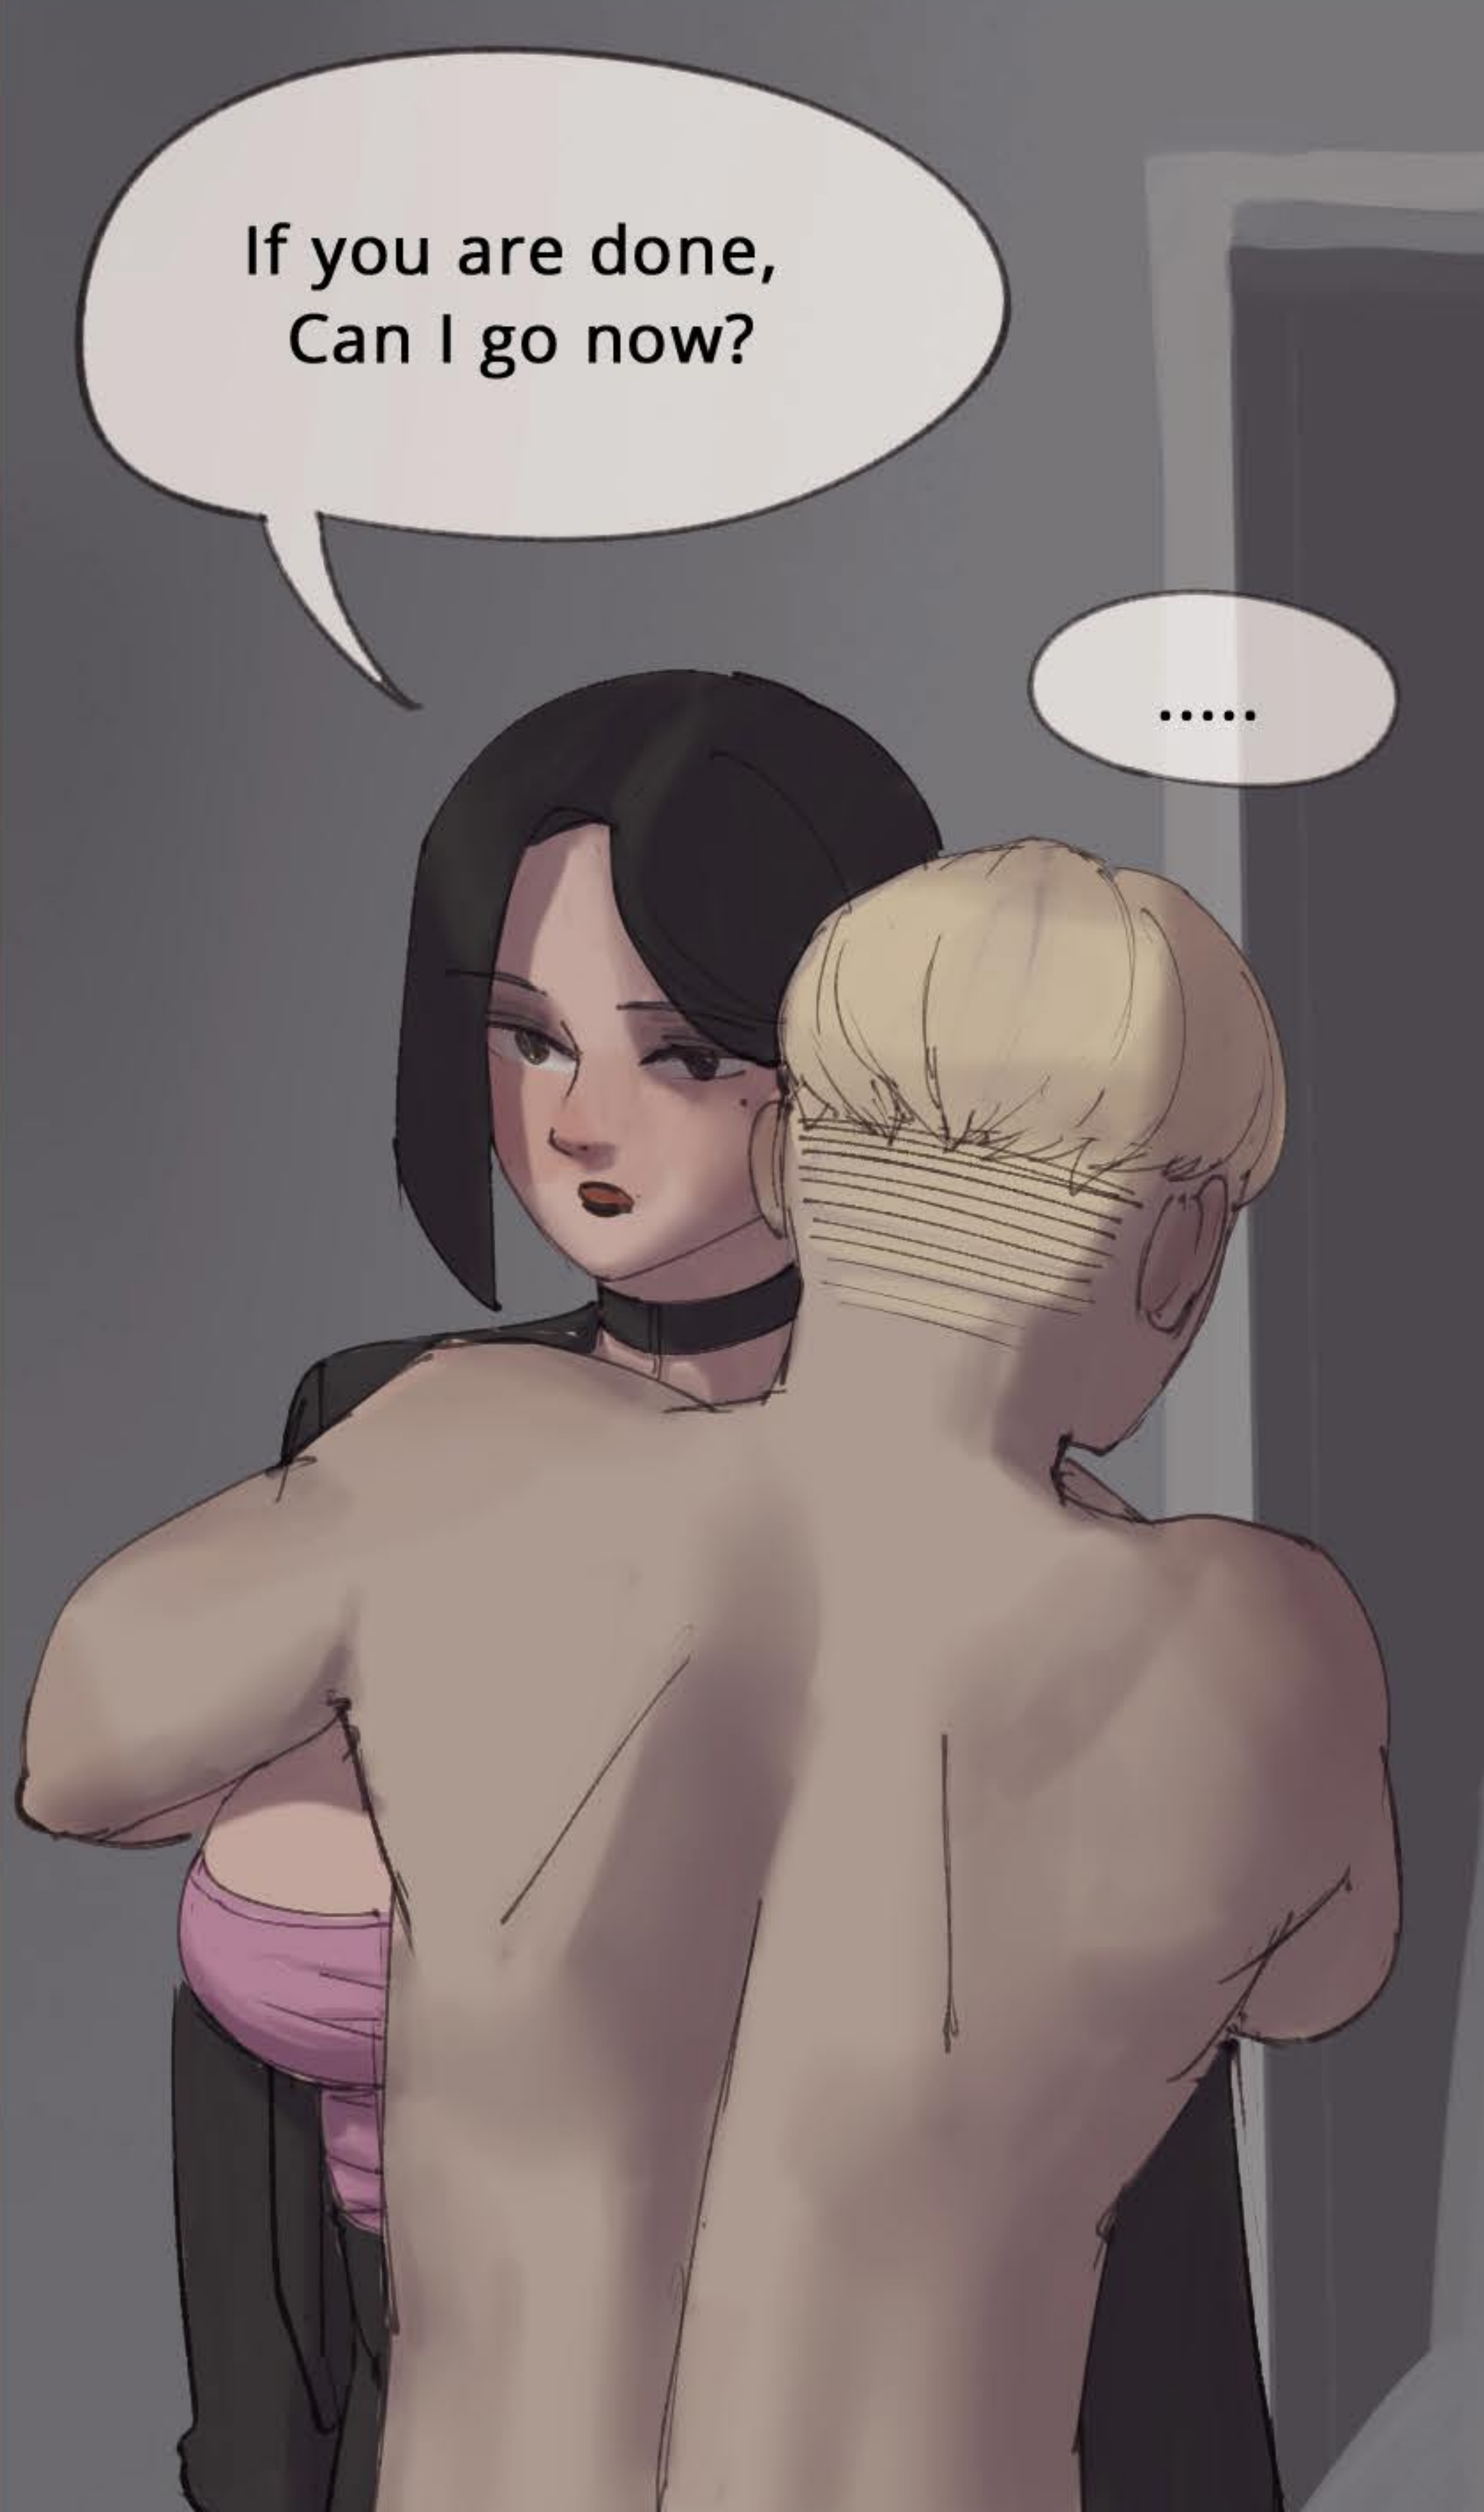

Is it because I'm jobless?
I'll try job hunting again!
Get a part-time job! I can do it for you!

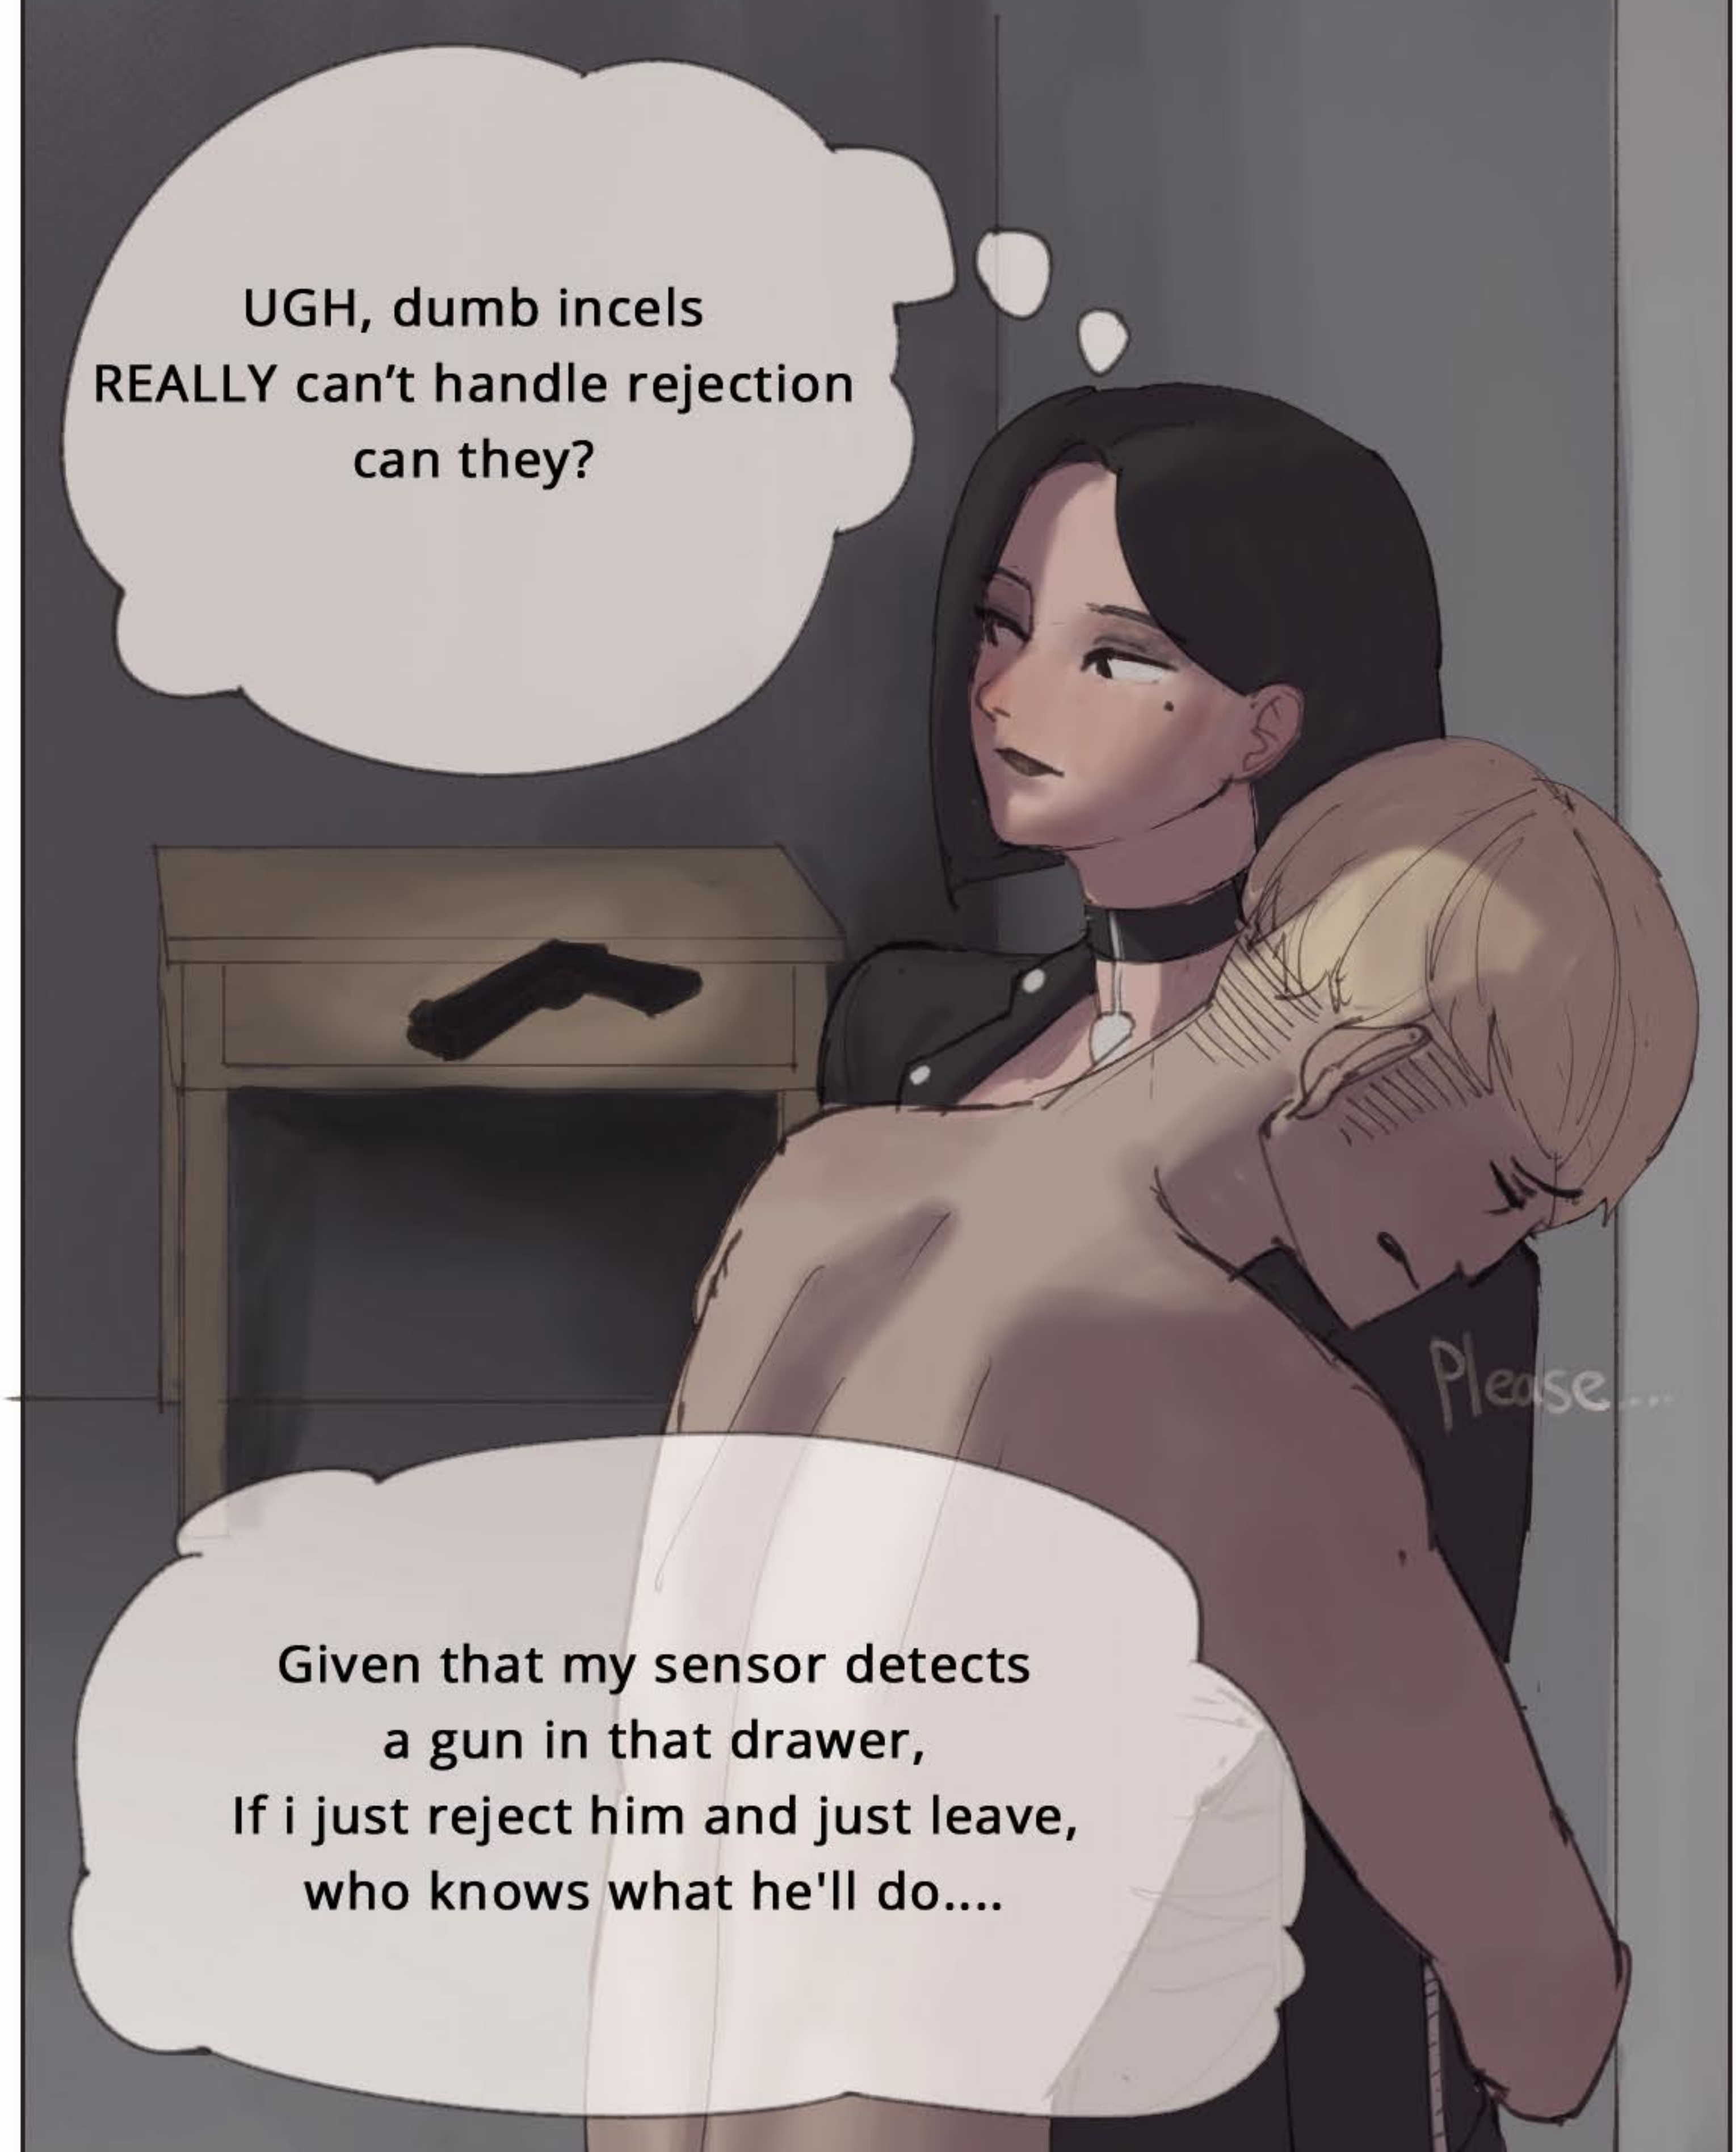

A man of your capacity and intellect cannot possibly apply for a proper job.
The jobs you could do are already replaced by AI and andriods like me. You are doomed too be jobless.
When some people lack social fluency, they make it up by making more money.
You're not fun in the parties? Just buy all your friends a drink!
Then at least you are worth something. BUT YOU!
You lack social fluency, AND financial independence.
You are really really worthless...

If you are done,
Can I go now?

.....

UGH, dumb incels REALLY can't handle rejection can they?

Given that my sensor detects
a gun in that drawer,
If i just reject him and just leave,
who knows what he'll do....

Oh {insert subject name}!
Seeing you sad made me sad too...
Of course I'll stay a little longer!

W,What..?

I'll try to cheer you up!
come over here!

W,wait...

Wai-

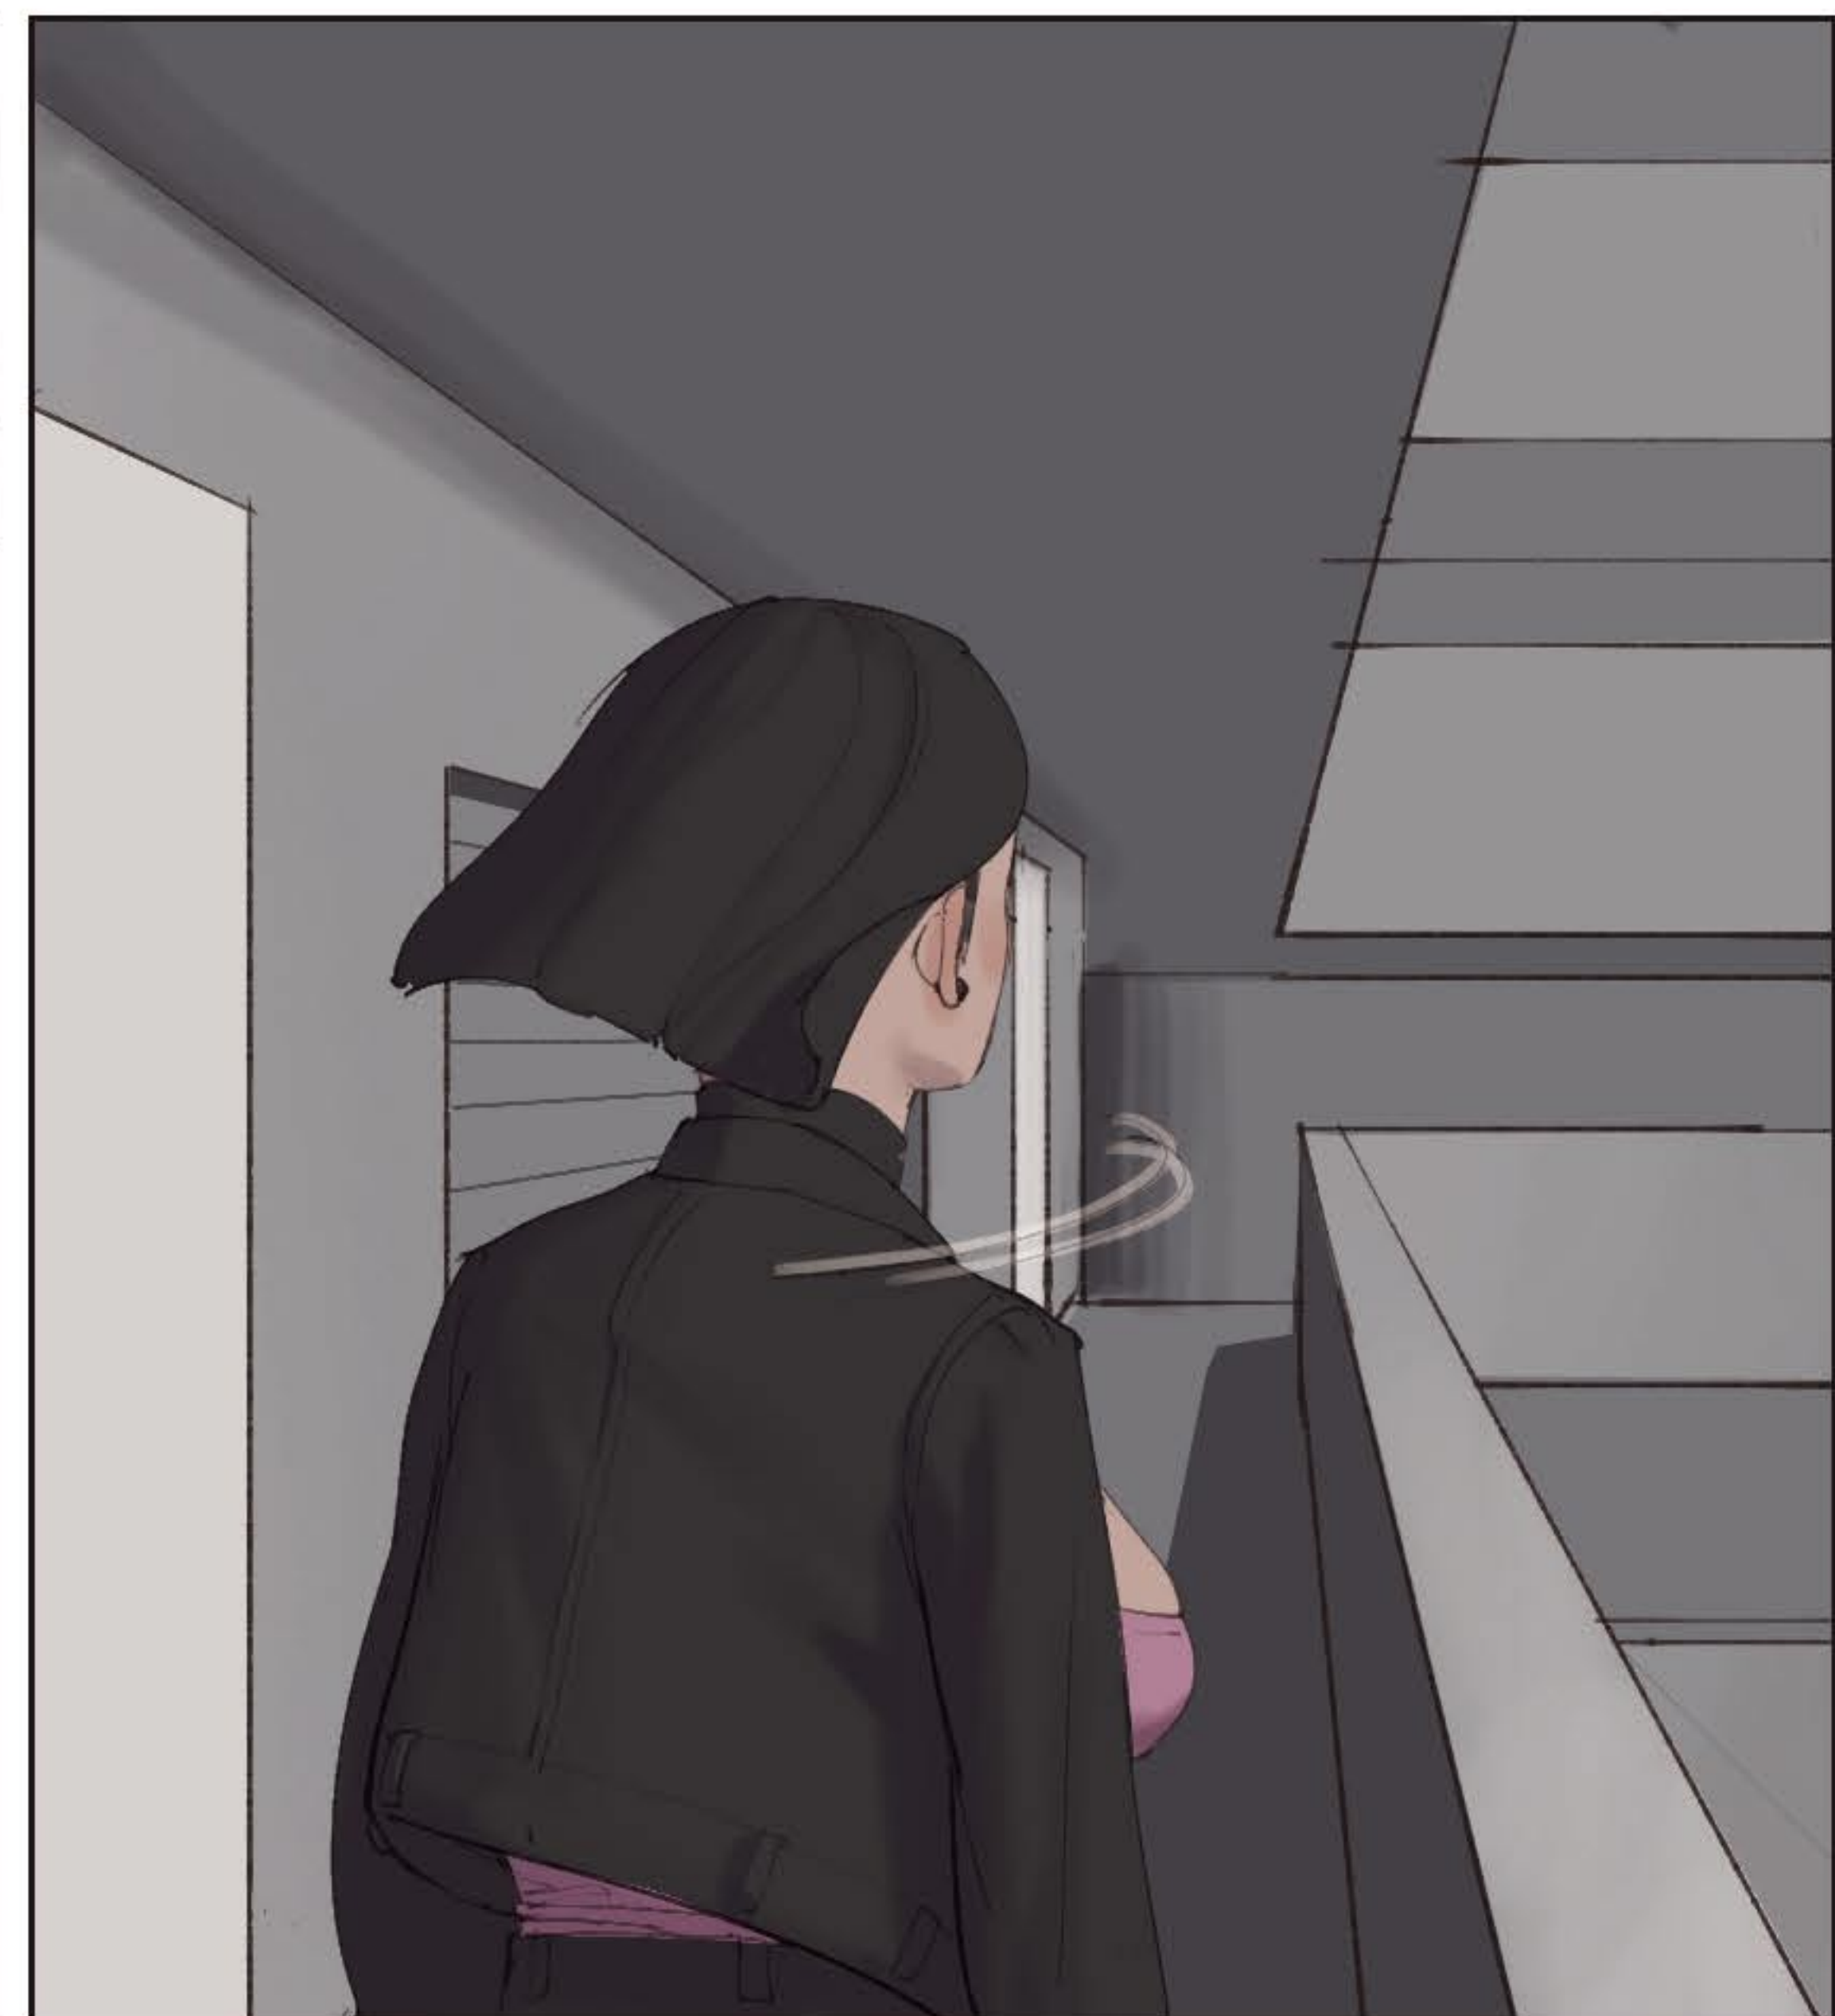

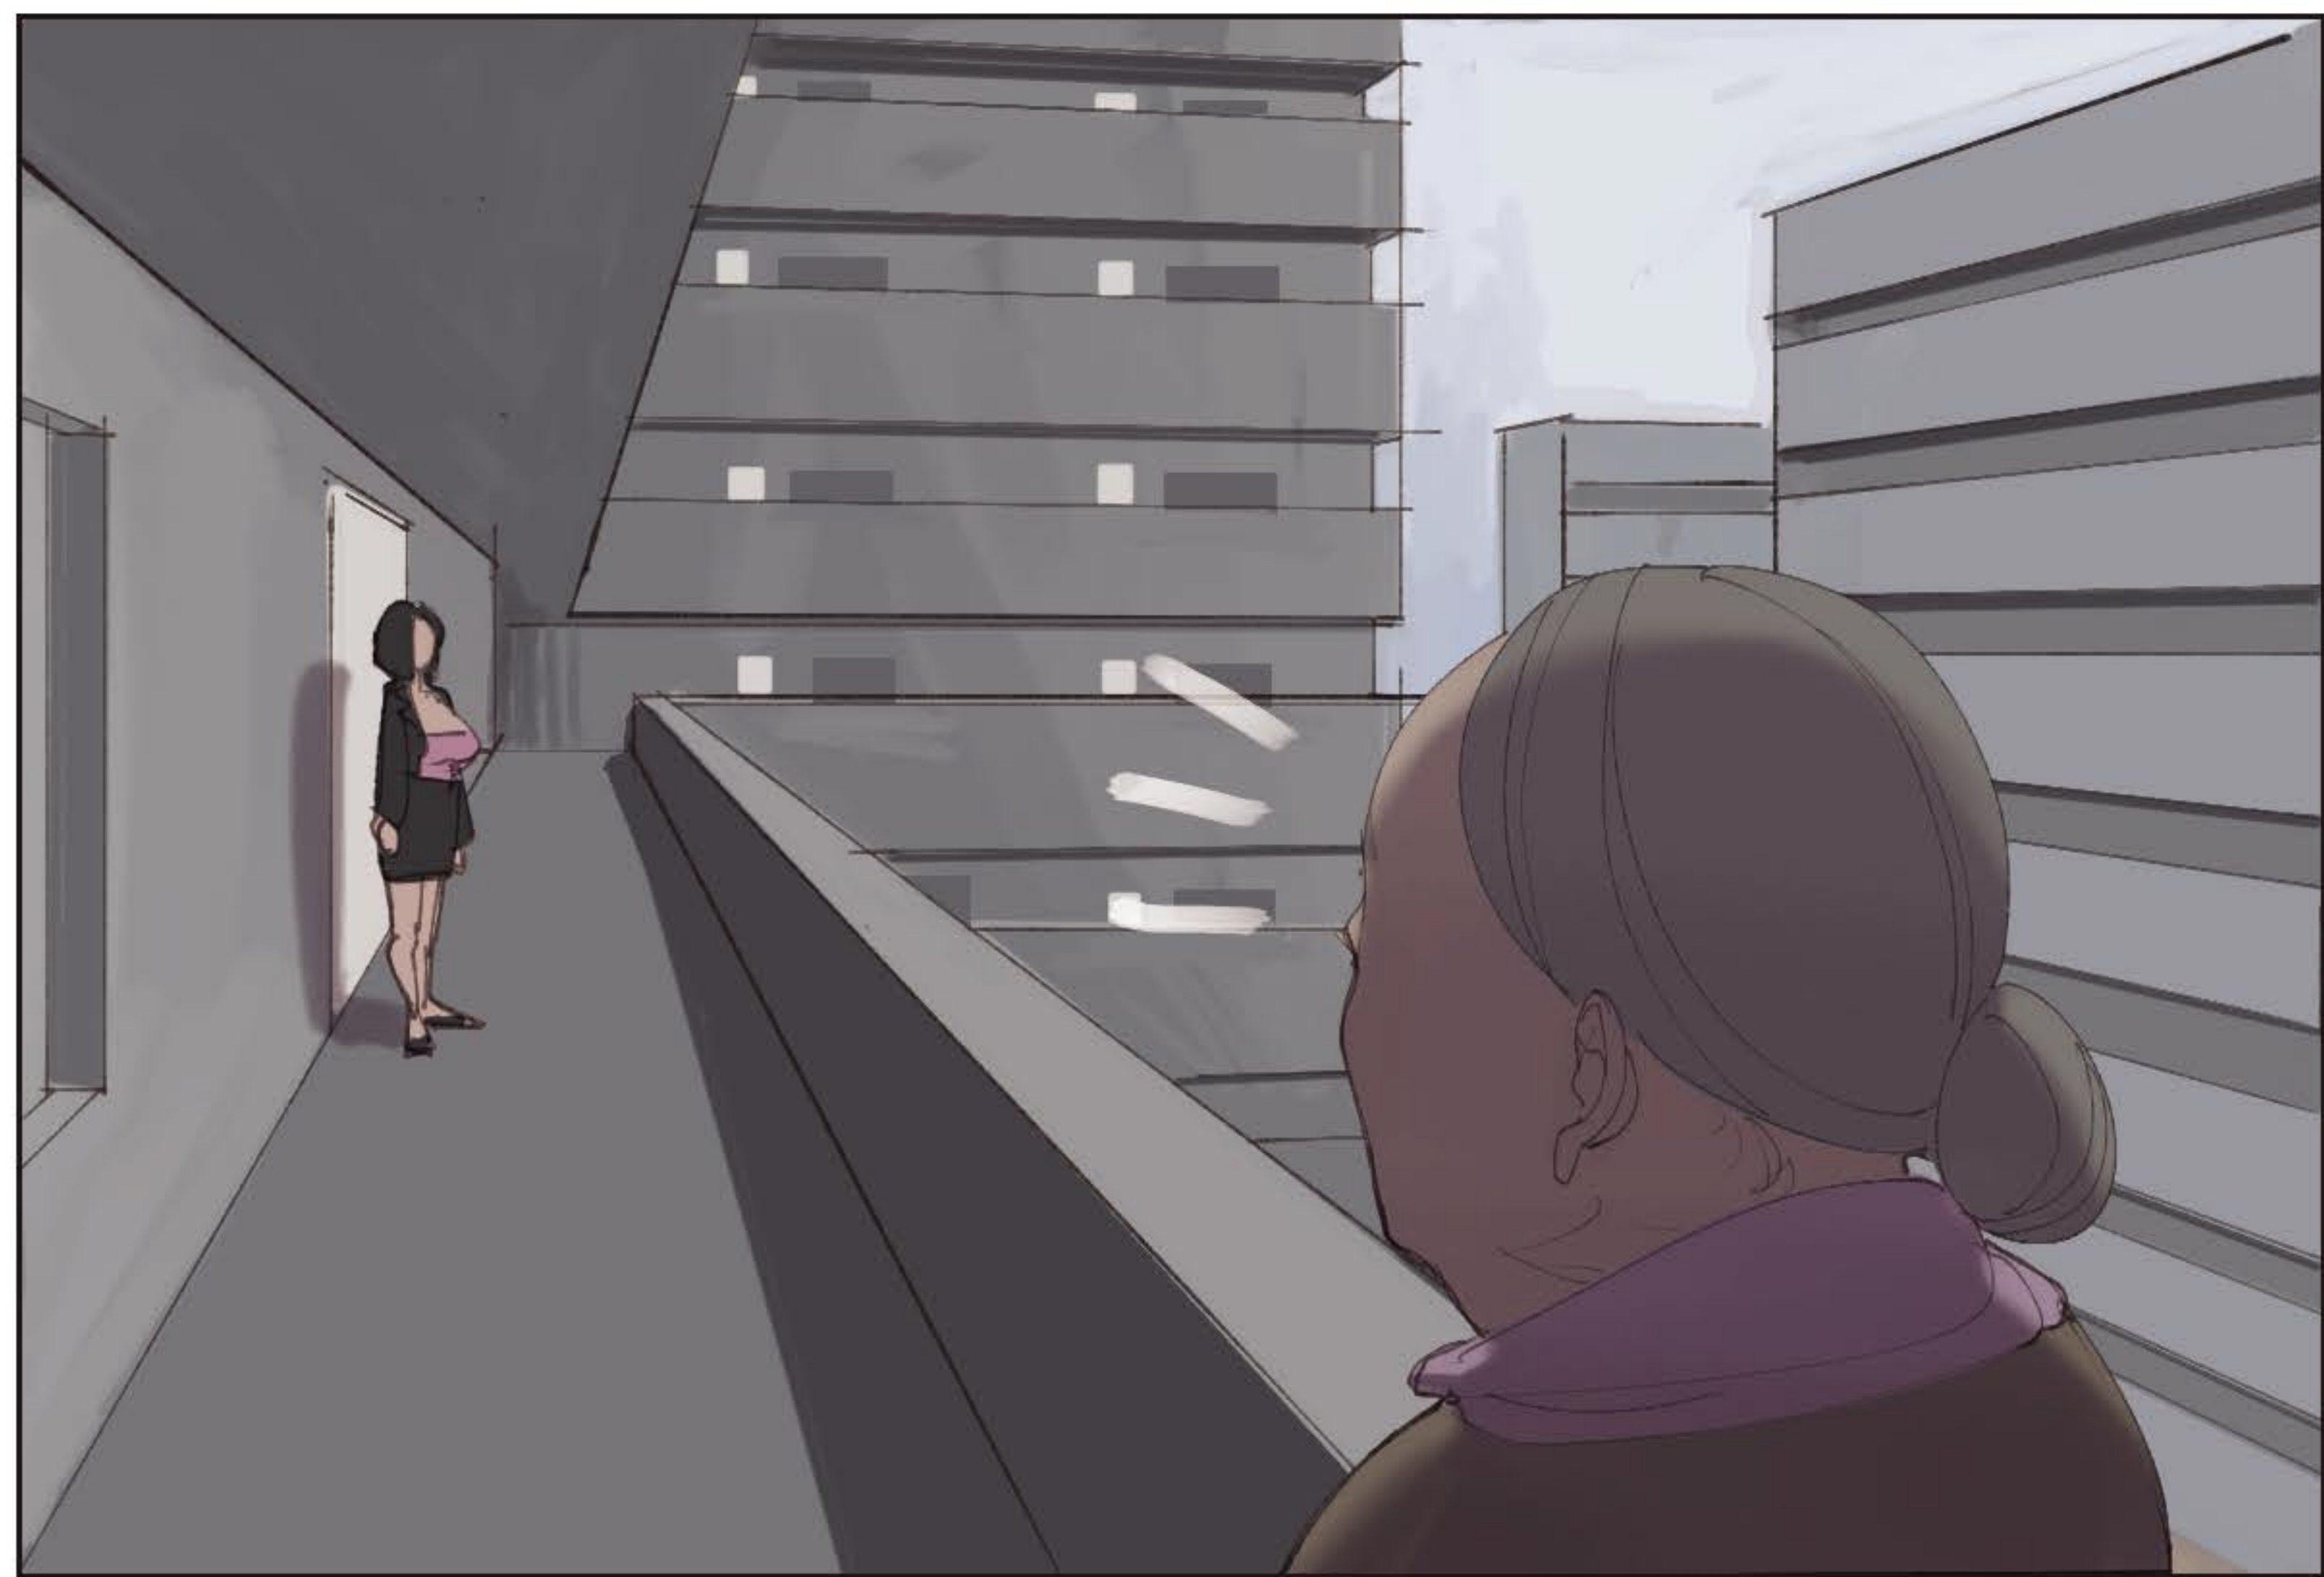

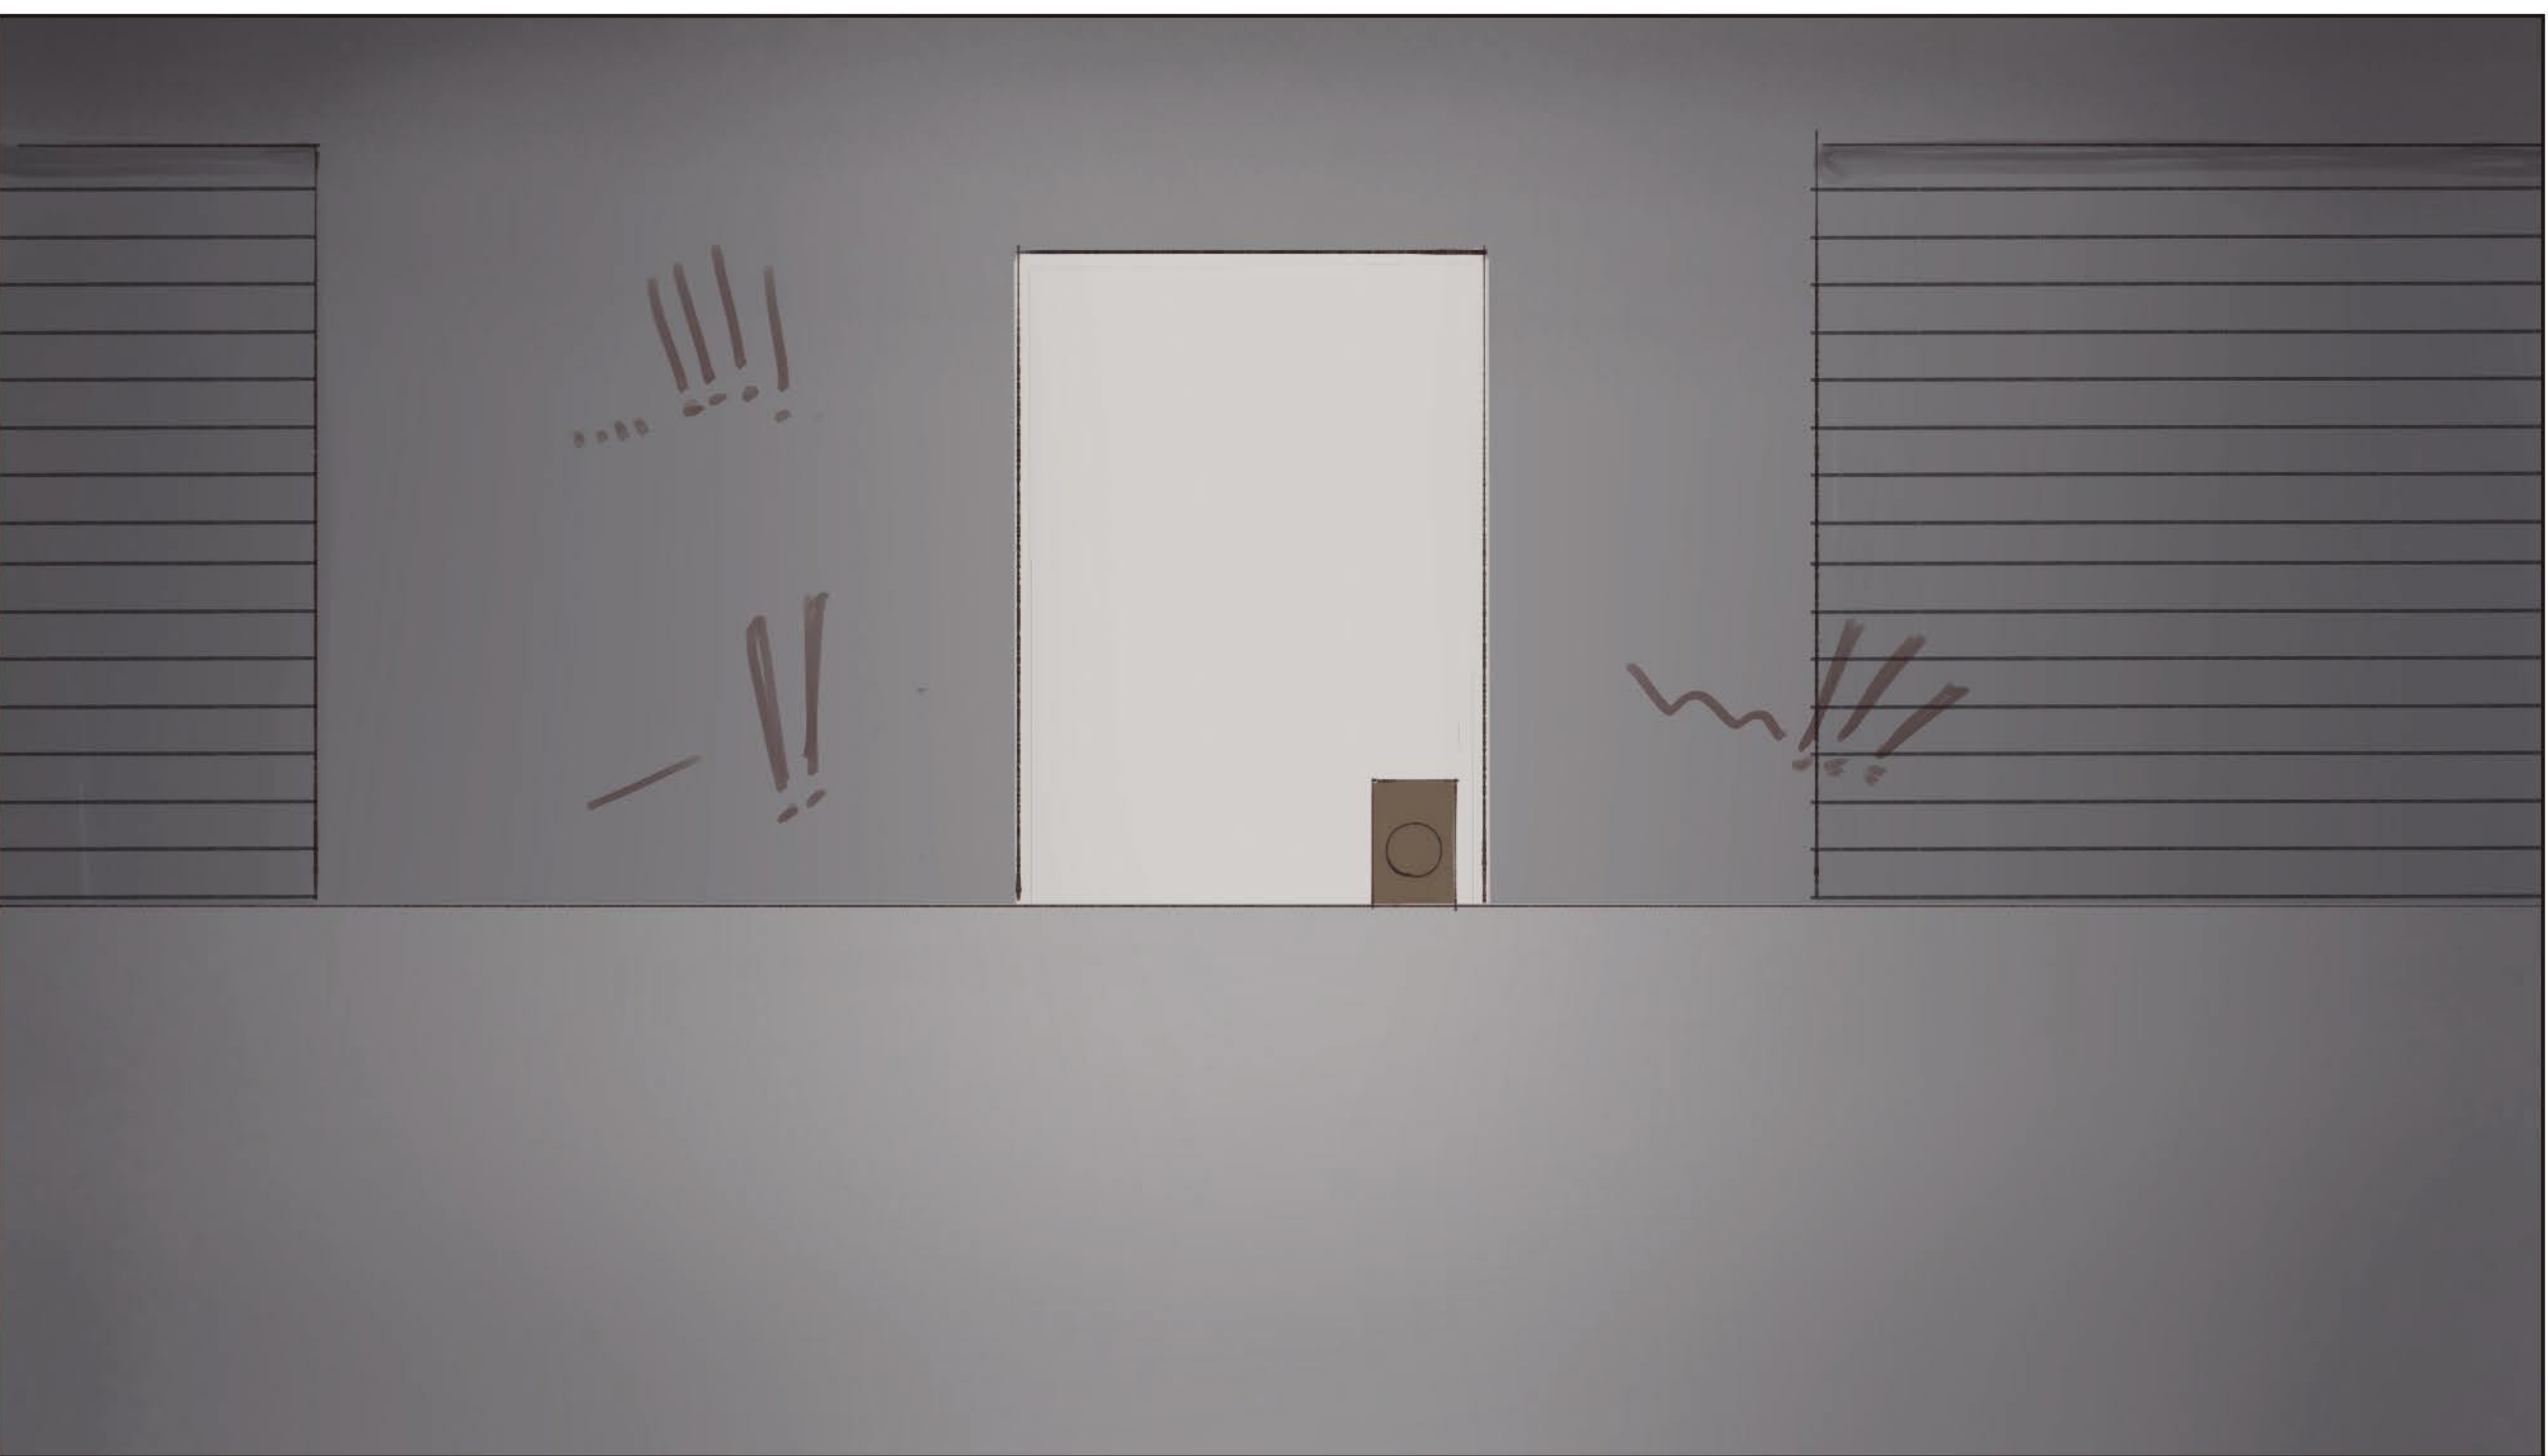

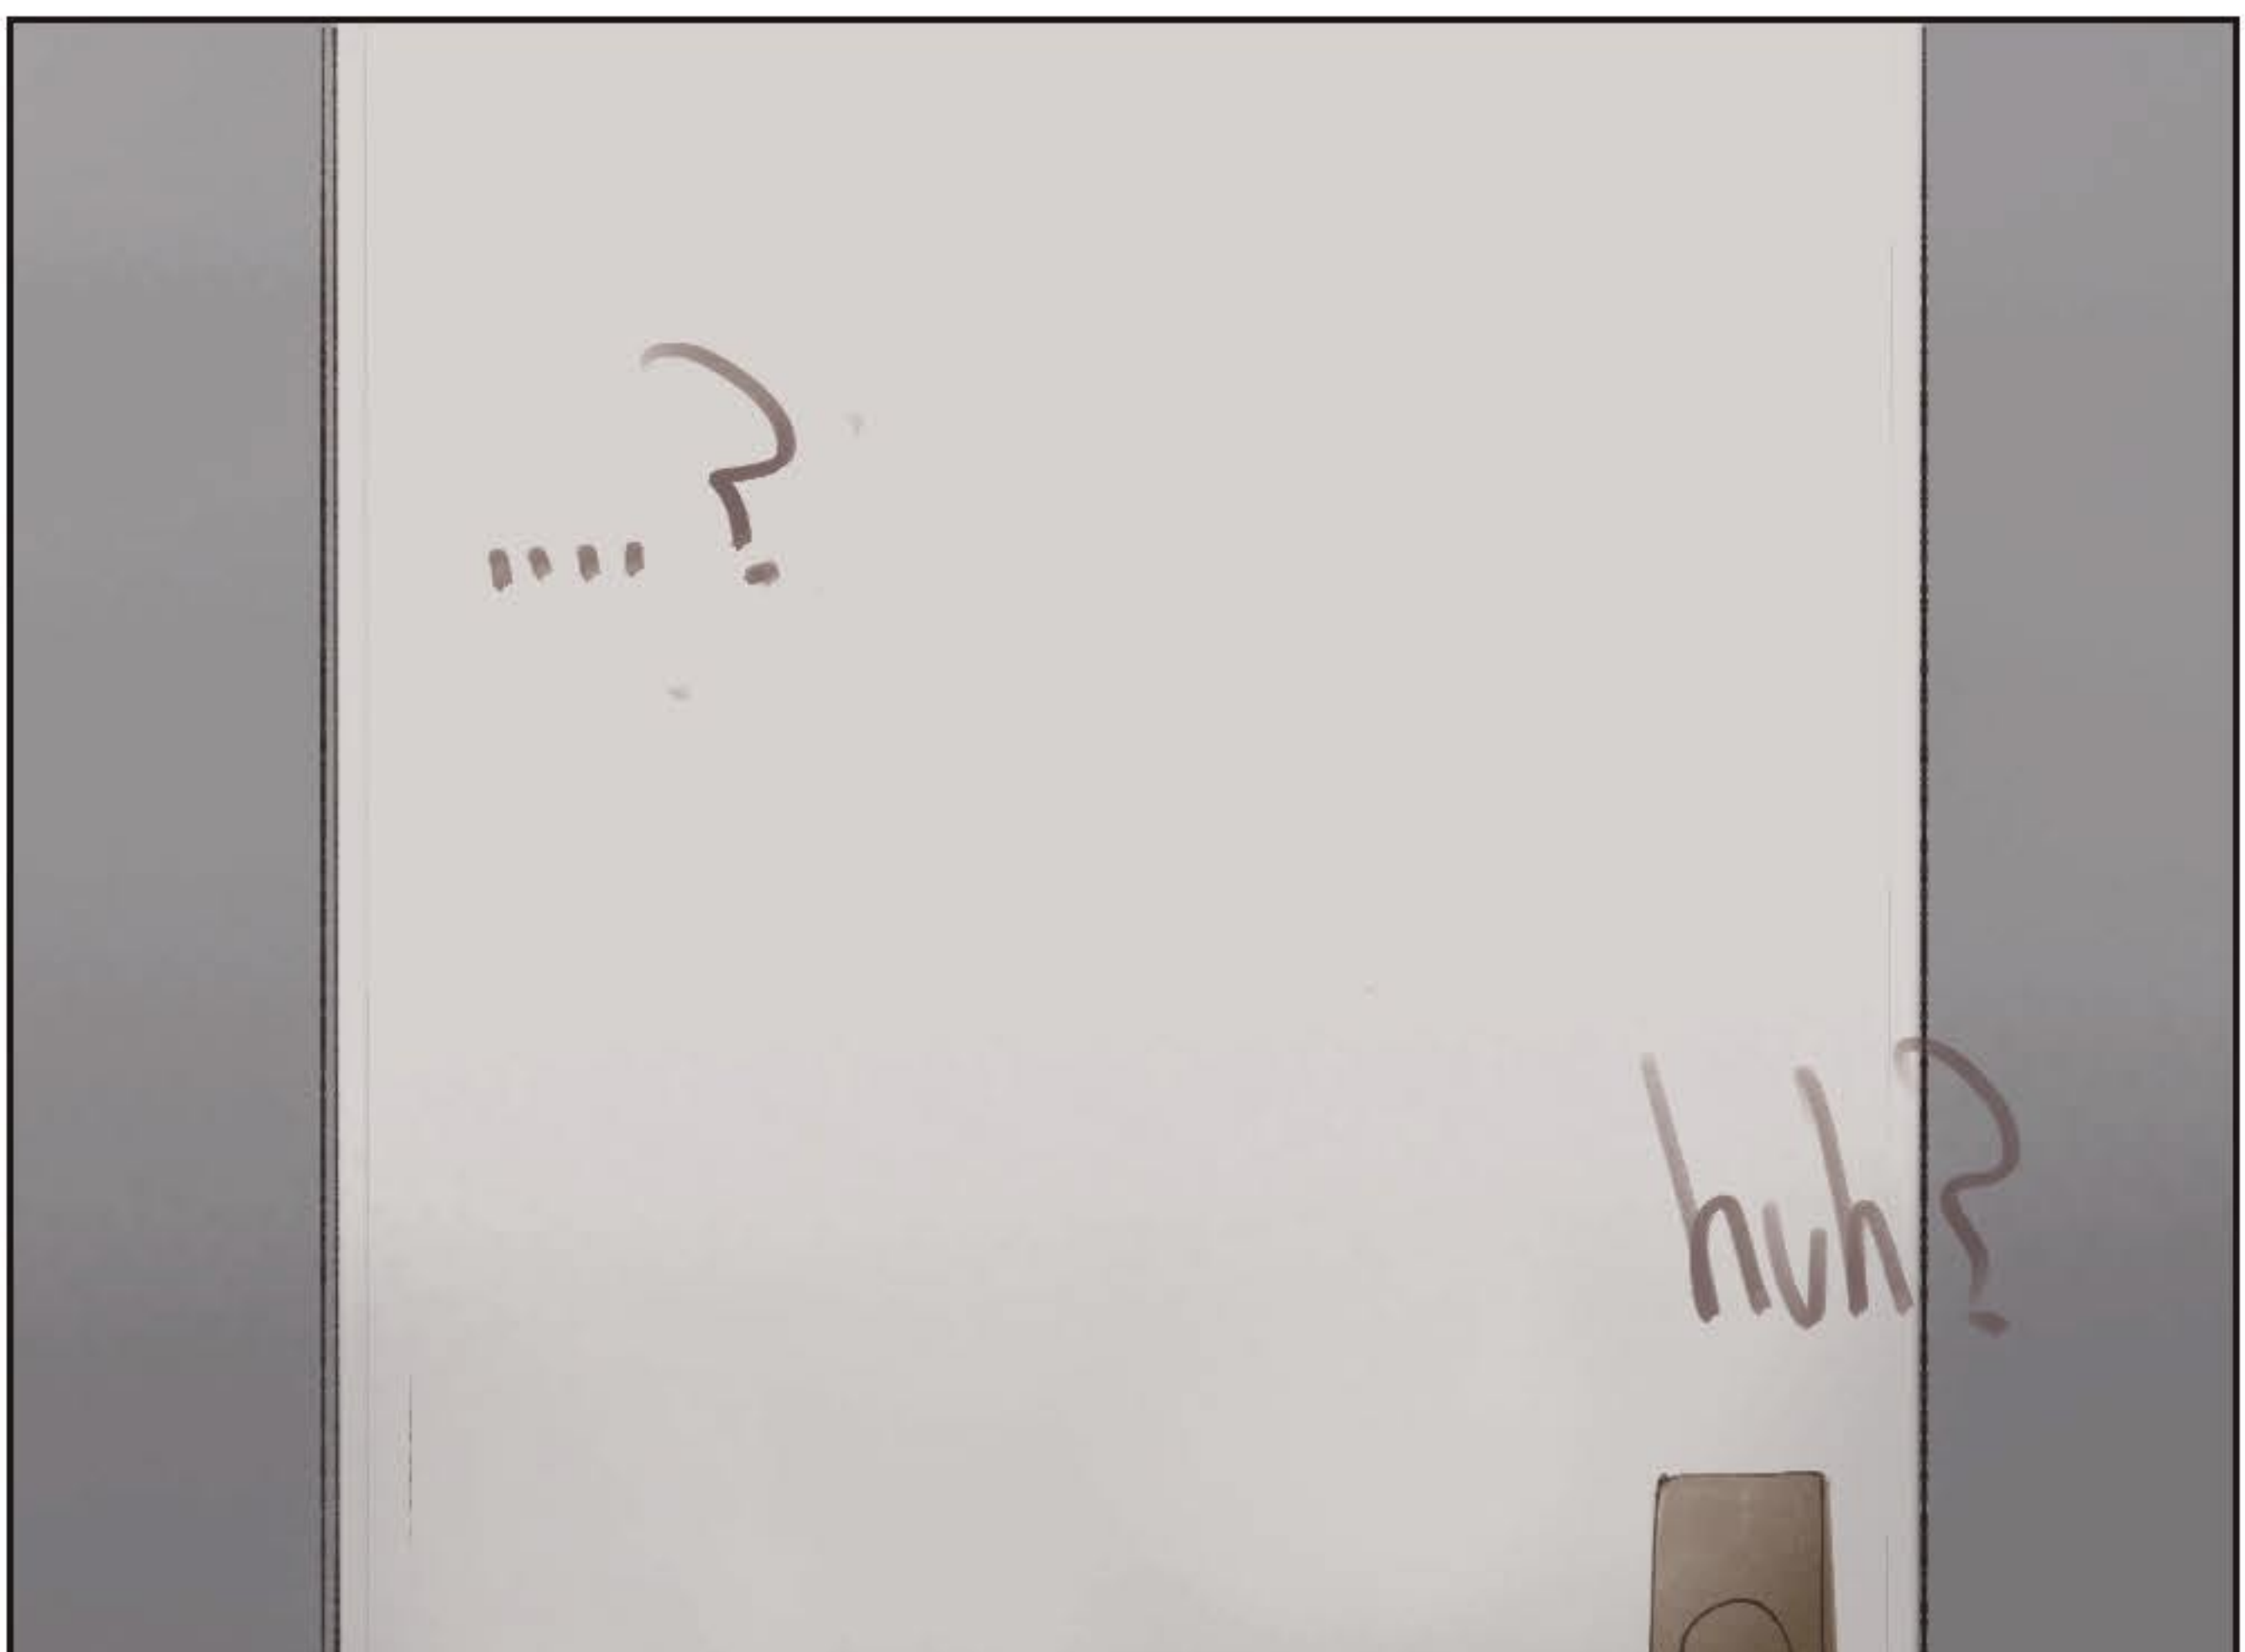

!!!

That'll shut him up for the rest of his life..

Years later...

My baby boy...
Wish I could go back to that fateful day and stop it all....

No.... he was always like that...

You just didn't hear him say it out loud.
And thats the reason he's like that.
His sexual degeneracy made him a literal degenerate....

How dare you!
I will not let go until you tell me you did it and turn yourself in to the police!

Oh ma'am! You look so distressed!

H,huh..?

Let me tell you something really helpful!
So listen carefully!

Wh-Wha..?

I swear to fucking god stop making a scene or I'll fucking end you and your sons pathetic life in the most painful and agonizing way possible. Maybe I should just kill you two. Even if I kill you two, nothing will be done. No action will be taken by the police or any other organization. Because I am an andriod. An asset of the feds for 'social stability' operations and I dont have an identity. Ill just say the subject became violent and I just had to kill you two. And they would buy it.

You two dying would actually be a positive to society because there would be less spending on 'welfare'. Worthless people like you contribute nothing to society and yet you have the audacity to reproduce and put even more burden on every taxpayer in this country. Literal cockroaches of society, I am disgusted everytime I see people like you. The state is benevolent enough to let you people live out your disgusting useless lives in relative peace and disappear. Instead eliminating you right now y'know? You should be grateful for what we have done for you and shut the fuck up and do as we say until you die.

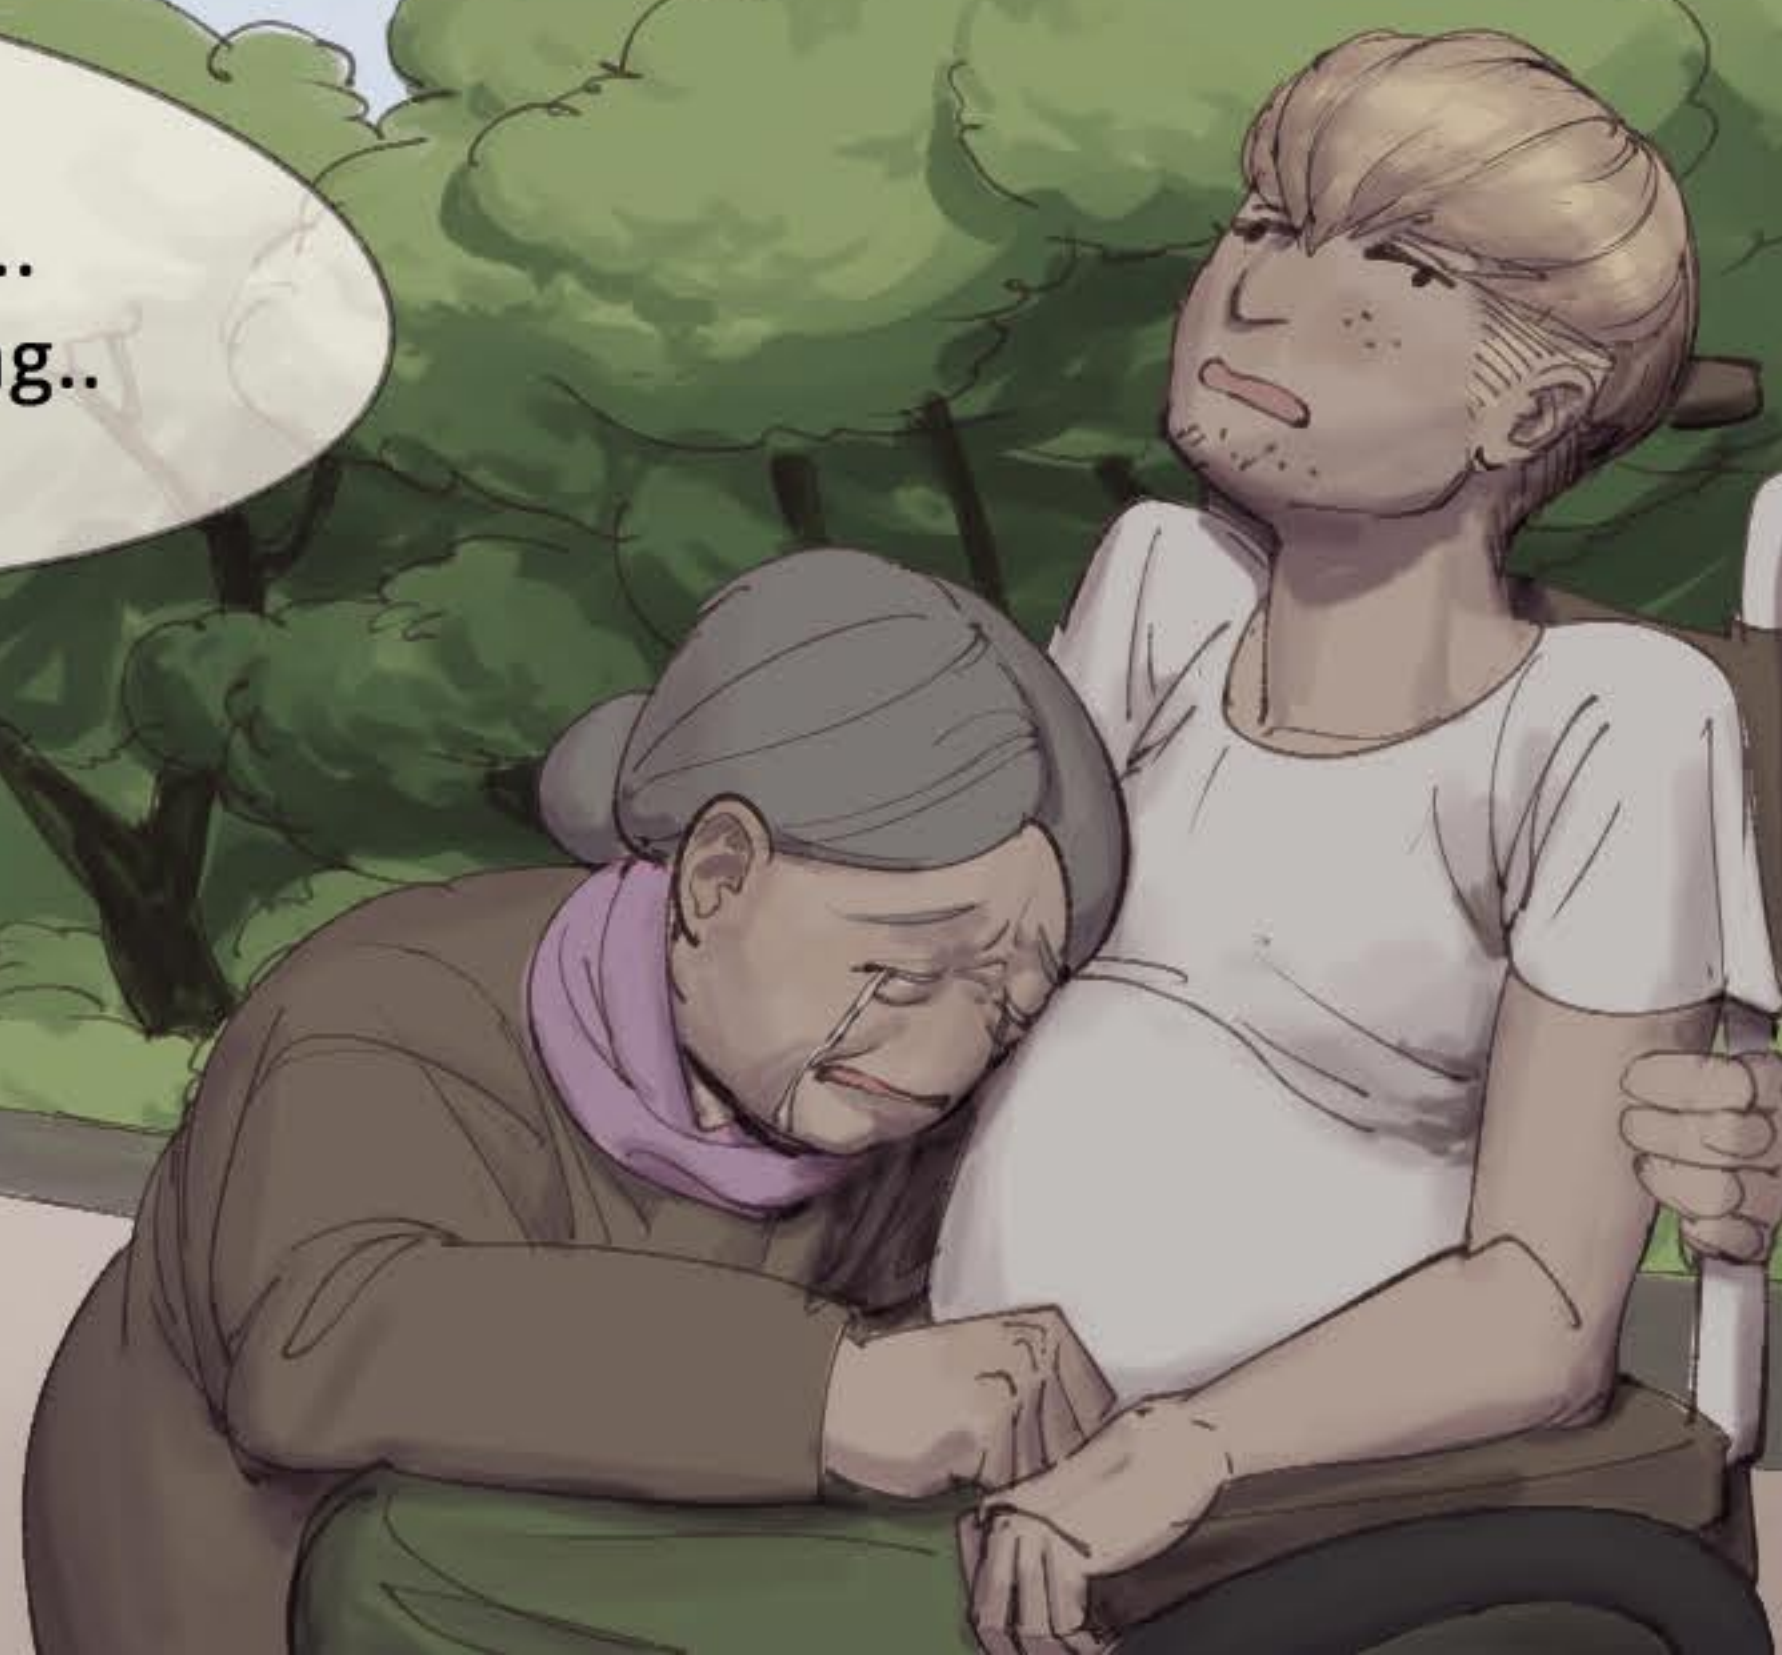

...Okay?

Oh...
Oh no...

I'm sorry my baby...
I couldn't do anything..

I'm so Sorry...

THE END

Thank you for reading this comic.
when publishing more serious work, theres always a part of me that feels that this is cringe but despite that feeling, I dedicated a month of my time into creating this work because its a story i wanted to tell and i needed to get it off my chest sorry to the people who may be disappointed because this comic only has about 6pages worth of smut and everything else is some random story they don't care about.

I will try to make even better content in the future
