Good Morning,

I am excited to finally work for an Alpha company.

Sorry if I come across a bit forward, I have been looking for a new job but now it has fallen into my lap so to speak. The fact that you have kept me on as a VP shows that you know that I am the right fit for your team. I can slide into any position you need me to fill. My fiancé has left to go and finished her doctoral thesis, so should be free to take up any position you have for me here. I've been told you have some pretty wild parties what my fiancé doesn't know won't hurt her, I'm my right.

I'm excited to be invited to the executives get away. I hear you play Texas hold 'em. I'm not going to lie; I was the best poker player of my university class. Prepared to lose your shirts just kidding.

Please find the attached files of current financial assets as well as all current and former employees to Career Counselling.com.

I decide my path.

Good morning Mr. Crockfeild,

I hope after our meeting 4 months ago your attitude has changed. After our last encounter and how you conducted yourself. Our Executive retreat is a time to build comradery in upper management and set our company direction for the year, it is not a time to show boat and make bets with other VPs. As it stands you lost a lot of money to me, but I am happy we were able to come to an arrangement.

After speaking with some of the staff in the customer care division. They say you look the part of one of our managers but your not acting the part. They can't contact you when they need help meeting our clients needs. I would like you to come to the executive gym today to discuses your future. I'll have my personal assistant contact you about a time.

The future is ours,
Mr. Weithers

Good Morning

I am sorry I took so long getting back to you, I was embarrassed after our meeting in the gym. I can normally lift more then that, It's not even my PR. It might a have been the workout clothes you gave me to wear, they were pretty tight. I started shaving after I took the role as manager. But what happened in the steam room. I don't know what to say, YOU were all naked and so toned how the steam made your bodies all shiny I could not stop myself. I am super sorry.

I talked to Roxane in HR she was a real help she gave me a few things "chastity cage" but she called it a "clitty cage" its kinda funny cuz I have a penis, not a clit and some medication from our medicine lab place call kisspeptin she said it would me feel good and some other supplements. You don't have to worry I won't get a hard anymore but wow I am super horny. I don't know what to do.

Totally sorry about the new employee picture so long story short, one of the girls in the locker room, remember you banned me from using the mens, any way she bet me I could not eat a banana without biting it, kind of choked on it. So they gave me a make over I'm kind of cute looking don't you think? I mean if you like it I can go buy more clothes alike this.

Oh I'm so forgetful sometimes, I have the names of girls you where asking about. They totally need help being with their customer service. Do you really think I need to go with them to the weekend dictation skills seminar? Barbie told me she is going too, does she need help with her dictation? I never thought about it but if you say it real fast it sounds like "Dick-Takin Skills" LOL

Have a super Day

Good day Cammi,

I am happy to see that you have fully embraced your new life style. I have to admit I didn't think that our program would work with men, but you have proven that with little conditioning men can enter our program. Can you believe at the beginning of this merger you would have never entertained the idea of sleeping with a man, but I hear from your new supervisor that your going above and beyond with our clients. I guess I lost that bet.

I think that you would benefit from a few more seminars and one or two more visits to the clinic. I'll contact Mistress Roxy. I look forward to seeing in the future. I would like you to say hello to Mr. S the new VP of Marketing I think he would enjoy your services.

Fail to plan, Plan to fail.
