D12 MINORLY ENCHANTED SWORDS

1. {Color Drain} This sword drains the color from whoever wields it, leaving them in shades of black, white, and grey.
2. {Sparks} Every time this sword clashes against another weapon or solid surface, it sends out a brilliant flash of sparks.
3. {Quick Draw} Snapping your fingers causes this sword to unsheath itself and fly to your hand or resheath itself if it's already drawn.
4. {Kill Count} A new tally etches itself into the metal length of the blade every time the sword claims a life.
5. {Hair Pin} Speaking the sword's command word causes it to shrink down into a hair pin making it incredibly easy to conceal.
6. {Transmute} This blade's metal changes to match whatever solid natural element it's pressed against {ex. silver, wood, diamond, etc.}
7. {Hound} You always know the cardinal direction you need to travel to find the last creature whose blood this blade tasted.
8. {Spell Store} A spell can be stored within this blade, and the spell is unleashed the next time you score a critical hit with the weapon.
9. {Fey Kissed} An archfey supposedly kissed this blade before gifting it to its first owner. Fey creatures fawn over whoever wields it.
10. {Desperate Perry} If you are critically hit by a melee attack, you can sacrifice this blade to cause the attack to miss.
11. {Shears} Speaking it's command word transforms it into a pair of large scissors to help in harvesting organs from slain monsters.
12. {Squires} A halfling-sized clockwork squire carries, cleans, and fetches this sword for you. That's all the squire can do.
