

Lyrics

You're skinny
Just kidding, you're fat
I been wanting to get with you
Just kidding, i don't wanna get with you

Don't wanna sound full of myself or rude
But you suck and you look like poo
Nah I'm just playin'
(I'm sorry , I plead insanity)
I'd really like to get a chance
To get some time down in your pants
This is my first time flirtin'
(Do I brag or neg you, or both?)

Then we locked eyes, so hard to hold eye contact
Felt like fire on my retinas (felt like eyeball lava, uh)
Then we looked away, and I felt so much relief down in my core
But I still wanted to have sex (do some penis vagina stuff)
I know that I'm bad at this, it's a primeval mating dance
I was just frontin' (I'm confused but I hide it babe)
I'll act like I care a lot, unless you don't care at all
In which case I'll switch it (throw me a bone here babe)

Makin it worse you have a friend
She likes me so you play pretend,
this shit is twisted (I feel like I'm on drugs)
Can't tell if you like me or not,
Everything is a facade

Your memo, I missed it (I cannot read these signals)
Then we locked eyes, the amount of stress was taking me
To an inhuman level of discomfort (like a letter opener in my urethra)
Then we looked away, and I came back from near-death
But I still wanted to have sex (my body is a prison)
I know that I'm bad at this, it's a primeval mating dance
I was just frontin' (my whole life's pretendin' babe)
I'll act like I care a lot, unless you don't care at all
In which case I'll switch it (Say I didn't want you anyway)

Mating dance
I want you
Psych, I don't want you
But I actually do

JAY Z ENTERS

(supercut of Jay-Z introducing himself)

Repeat chorus

*Imma see you later
Unless you don't want to
But I'm down, for real
But I don't have to
I don't need this
Unless you're into it, then I really need it*
