

D12 SHADOWFELL LANDMARS

Scroll of Revelation #105

1. {Torn Soul} 2 statues of straining skeletons kneel opposite one another with their arms outstretched. They look to be fighting over a sphere of swirling black and white liquid floating between their clenched fists.
2. {Shadow Bridge} A crumbling wizard's tower leans out over the edge of a canyon. Its shadow is so dark and full of necromancy that it creates a black, lightless bridge across the entire chasm.
3. {War Pikes} White flames burn across this ancient battlefield littered with wooden pikes speared through fallen warriors, many of which squirm and writhe beneath their cloth wrappings.
4. {Stocks} There is no sign of the town that stood here except for a rusty stock with blood-stained nails lining the wrist and ankle holes.
5. {Wolf Head} Sinking into the mud is a wolf's head carved from a blighted tree stump. In its drooling maw is a dying star that was hunted long ago.
6. {River Nymphs} 3 breathtaking statues of bathing river nymphs stand beneath a waterfall of thick, oily blood that slowly makes its way down the river.
7. {Fishing Docks} Sagging in the fleshy sand is a fishing dock. A sunken boat rests beside it, and the corpses of 3 fishermen are strung up from hooks at the end of the dock like prize-winning catches.
8. {Crater} At the bottom of this mile-wide crater is an angel's broken corpse still clutching the letter they were tasked with destroying.
9. {Circus Tent} On the verge of collapsing, all of the animal cages are open and the stands are stained with blood. A trio of whimpering imps dance pathetically in the center ring.
10. {Shadow Hand} A small campfire burns at the base of a devil statue, casting a looming shadow up the side of a steep cliff. The shadow of the devil's hand is pointing at a cave with no stairs leading to it.
11. {Bird Nest} A giant crow's nest drips with blood and the screams of somebody being eaten alive can always be heard from below. Investigating reveals an empty nest.
12. {Missing Castle} A castle should be standing where this chasm is, but it now rests at the bottom of this many mile-deep sinkhole.
