Mako-Chii~ Reads: A Big Christmas Present - Written by SGA

[Narrator]

Upon retiring to your room on christmas eve, you flop down onto the bed after a long day of video chats. Living on your own hadn't felt this lonely in a while, as you began to tuck yourself under the cold sheets.

[Narrator]

A knock on the bedroom door brings your attention back to the present, as you knew for sure the house was empty. You sit still, and listen.

[Gift]

Heyy~ Can I come in already?

[Narrator]

Further knocks at the door and this time a call. Before you have a chance to respond however, the door is already opened.

[Gift]

Merry Christmas!

[Narrator]

The girl dashed over to the bed and lept atop it grandly. You manage to ask who she is.

[Gift]

Oh, I'm your present! Isn't it obvious? Here, unwrap me!... Go onn~ I know I'm a few hours early, but where's the harm?

[Narrator]

A red ribbon is strung around and around the girls body, but beneath that only her flesh is visible. Her breasts are neatly contained by a tidy red bow, which she pushes towards you eagerly.

[Gift]

Go on! Go onn~!

[Narrator]

Her excitement gets the better of you and you pull the bow. The ribbon around her comes loose and falls to release her rather sizable breasts.

[Gift]

Yaay, I'm free! Now, I can show you what I'm really here for. Ready, steady, m

[Narrator]

For a moment, her body swells out larger, accompanied by a moan from her lips.

[Gift]

What do you think? Sweet, huh? I'ma go again. m

[Narrator]

Again, the girls body swelled larger.

[Gift]

Awesome! I can get as big as I like! Well, as big as you like, ehehe. Though, I think we can both agree that for now, I've gotta get bigger! m

[Narrator]

The girl then began to swell larger at regular intervals, you can feel her weight increasing atop of you on the bed as she grins, the pleasure of the growth spurts evident on her face. She continued to moan and grow larger and larger impossibly atop your bed. She was actually getting quite heavy and the bed lets out some complaining creaking.

[Gift]

m sounds like your bed is m struggling to hold me m ehehe, okay, I'll let it be.

[Narrator]

She rolled casually off the side of the bed, her much bigger form taking up a large space on the floor.

[Gift]

Ahh~ That's better. Come here you~

[Narrator]

A hand reaches over, and you find yourself being dragged off the bed too, and onto the girl's nude form. Your head lands atop her breasts like a cushion, with the rest of your body trailing down her stomach.

[Gift]

Aww, ain't that cute. I only grew a little bit, but already you're so tiny, like half my height. And don't worry, we're nowhere near done, because the bigger I am m the faster I grow! m

[Gift]

[Narrator]

Beneath you the girl surges larger and larger, you can feel her skin beneath you stretching out in all directions as her whole form swells out. Her feet spread in surges down the rest of the room, while her breasts swell out either side of your head. The sounds of her body expanding filled the room, and her body itself soon followed. When her bare feet had reached the far end of the room, she stopped growing.

[Gift]

Wow, already this room is getting so tiny... Before I break it though, I have another idea. I think it's time I show you another of my talents, and make my breasts just a little bigger m ehehe

[Gift]

[Narrator]

Despite her wording of 'just a little', her breasts ballooned out massively, and with each additional moan she pushed them even larger. After only a few, they'd completely escaped the normal cup scale and began to rise up towards the ceiling of the room. This created a fleshy wall between your location on the girls stomach and the girls face, her moans becoming more and more muffled behind her own massive tits as they spilled out into the room. When at last, her breasts had filled up to the ceiling and over too each of the walls, she seemed to stop moaning. For a moment, there was silence, and then...

[Gift]

Well, I think it's about time I out-grow this little room of yours! But, you should probably get out of here first, don't want you getting hurt if something falls on you do we? I'll give you... 1 minute!

[Gift]

59... 58... 57... 56... 55... 54... 53... 52... 51... 50... 49...

[Narrator]

As the girl counted, you took her at her word and left the house quickly, without realising how cold it was this time of year. When you made it outside on the street, you crossed over to the other side and then walked down the road a big just to be extra safe. Then, just as you reached position, you can hear the girl shouting from inside your house.

[Gift]

Ready? Because here... I... go! big moan

[Narrator]

With her new surge, the house erupted as the girl emerged. The cloud of dust covered most of the house, and you couldn't see the girl for a few moments until she got to her feet. Out of the cloud rose the girl, her stupidly large breasts dangling down almost too her belly button, and out just as far. The top of her head was only just visible above them, and she had to bend over again to scour the streets for where you'd gone.

[Gift]

Hmm... I spy with my little -well I guess pretty big- eye, something- Aha! There you are!

[Narrator]

Massive footsteps sounded as the girl casually strolled out of the remains of your house down the street towards you. As she did so, her face moved out of view completely.

[Gift]

I'm gonna pick you up, just stay calm.

[Narrator]

Her huge hand came down out of the darkness and grabbed you snugly, where you were then lifted up and up and up into the air. When the hand released you, you were standing on the pretty substantial platform made by the girls breasts. Her huge grinning face met you as you turned to look.

[Gift]

Ehehe~ Now didn't you get adorable all of a sudden. You must be pretty cold there though, in just your PJs... Ooh! I've got an idea!

[Narrator]

You were about to raise the objection that she didn't have any clothes on whatsoever, but the cold didn't seem to throw her. Instead, her hand came back up, but this time only to push you into the chasm between the two breasts, which you sank down into up to your shoulders like quicksand. You did have to admit though, both breasts were emanating warmth back into your body.

[Gift]

Awwwww, aren't you super cute! All snuggled up in there...

[Narrator]

She rubbed your still exposed head warmly with her finger, inadvertently pushing you even further into her giant cleavage.

[Gift]

Well, now that you're all settled, I think it's about time m for me to keep growing! m

[Gift]

[Narrator]

As the girl moaned and grew once again, the view of the city from between her tits sank down and down until most of the buildings were out of view entirely. The only ones still visible were small specks of christmas lights in the far distance. As you were lifted higher and higher, you could see further and further out over the city, and each of the buildings became more and more tiny. The individual glimmers of christmas lights faded and merged into a colourful glow of red and green and yellow. Still, the girl pushed onwards, taller and taller. The city was quickly vanishing beneath her cleavage as her height continued to rise now up into the clouds. Then, once again, she stopped swelling.

[Gift]

Oh, while we're here, I've got one more gift for everyone down there. deep breath long blow

[Narrator]

Somehow, the girl blew out a blizzard of snowfall. She twisted as she blew, to spread it all around, and the snow particles slowly began to fall down the length of her body towards the city below. Quite a number fell onto her breasts, coating them loosely in white, but she didn't seem to mind.

[Gift]

There aren't enough white-christmasses these days, you know?

[Narrator]

As she spoke, the girl began to walk in huge strides across the land. Already she'd left the city behind and was moving onto another.

[Gift]

long blow Oh, I never really explained did I? Ehehe, sorry bout that. I'm a winter spirit~ long blow just here to make sure everyone has a lovely christmas, including little old you.

[Narrator]

She rubbed your head again affectionately, then wondered on.

[Gift]

Now then, this snow won't make itself. long blow
