

Proper Hobbies

Part of who you are is determined by how you spend your time. And since you want to be a totally feminine girly girl, you should be spending your time doing the most feminine things possible!

This is where "Proper Hobbies" comes into the picture. When you spend all of your time reading fashion magazines or the latest celebrity gossip columns, you won't have any time to spend on boring sports or other intimidating, manly topics. Wouldn't you rather be playing with your cute vibrator while you picture yourself being used by hunky strangers, over golfing and talking about intimidating boy topics in boring man outfits? Wouldn't you rather be painting your nails in your cute pink lingerie over trying unsuccessfully to convince women you are a man at a bar or a club?

Enjoy everything women spend their time on, and start to see everything that men do as a waste of time. You've already spent enough of your life doing the boring things that a man does. You deserve to spend the rest of it focussed on your fun new female hobbies!
