Henry Cavill is a 39-year-old British actor who began his career as a teenager and when he debuted one of the first live action films in the DCEU (DC Extended Universe) Henry dominated magazines around the world.

Playing Superman in the movie "Man of Steel" in 2013 Henry Cavill began complete world domination. According to several magazines around the world, Cavill is considered one of the most handsome actors today.

However, the Mirov Magazine team is not here to prove the obvious: Cavill's beauty. The team is here to prove something that Henry Cavill claims in several interviews.

Is Mister Cavill a true nerd?
Does he really know the universe of the works he participates in?
Did he read all the superman comics?
Has he played The Witcher games?
Did he watch the hero movies?

Comics, comic book movies and games, of course Mirov Magazine is not the best at evaluating this so we brought 3 nerds who are experts on the subject.

Our interview with Cavill was scheduled to start at 2 pm however, we arrived a little earlier to set up the equipment that would be needed for the interviews.

The problem is that Cavill was finishing his martial arts training. Apparently, Cavill had been scolded by the teacher about flexibility and was trying to gain more flexibility to do the poses and strikes.

Martial arts classes were held over skype, so he had a little trouble doing the poses to improve flexibility, so we asked one of our nerds to help Mr. Cavill do the pose.

Arthur is 20 years old and a huge comic book fan, and obviously he's also a huge Henry Cavill fan. He is wearing red shorts that will help when taking pictures.

Our goal is to do something very unpretentious. So we asked the nerds to wear everyday clothes. And of course, Mr. Cavill will also wear everyday clothes to participate in our fun.

The game is very simple: The interviewer asks a question if the nerd answers correctly, then the nerd who got the answer right will have to choose one of the pieces from Mirov Magazine's summer collection for Henry Cavill to use.

If Cavill answers correctly, then the nerds who will be wearing a piece from our new collection.

The new clothing collection is inspired by various fictional characters.

The first question asked was about the universe of live action DC films: In what year did the Flash first appear in live action?

Henry Cavill couldn't answer and one of our nerds answered correctly.

Dick is 23 years old and a big fan of the Justice League.

Dick: In 1979, NBC aired a two-part TV special featuring the heroes and villains of the DC Universe called Legends of the Superheroes. The special featured their version of the Justice League, being the team's first live-action appearance. Flash was part of the Justice League and appeared played by Rod Haase.

To match the question, Dick chose some Flash underwear for Mister Cavill.

Interviewer: The idea for this photoshoot is very simple. Henry is a big, hairy, muscular guy. This is the complete opposite of our models, so let's make our models show virility over what a great guy Henry is. A kind of skinny boy dominating a bull. So the poses will have to show that nerds are powerful too. That's why in this first photo we're going to make the nerd lift the big Cavill.

Henry Cavill: Aren't the underpants too small? Can this tear?

Interviewer: Don't worry Mr Cavill. Our clothes are made with a special product that is very resistant. Our team is very professional, if any important part of you "leaks", we will take care of it.

Henry Cavill also failed to answer the second question and again Dick answered correctly.

Interviewer: What year did the first The Witcher game come out?

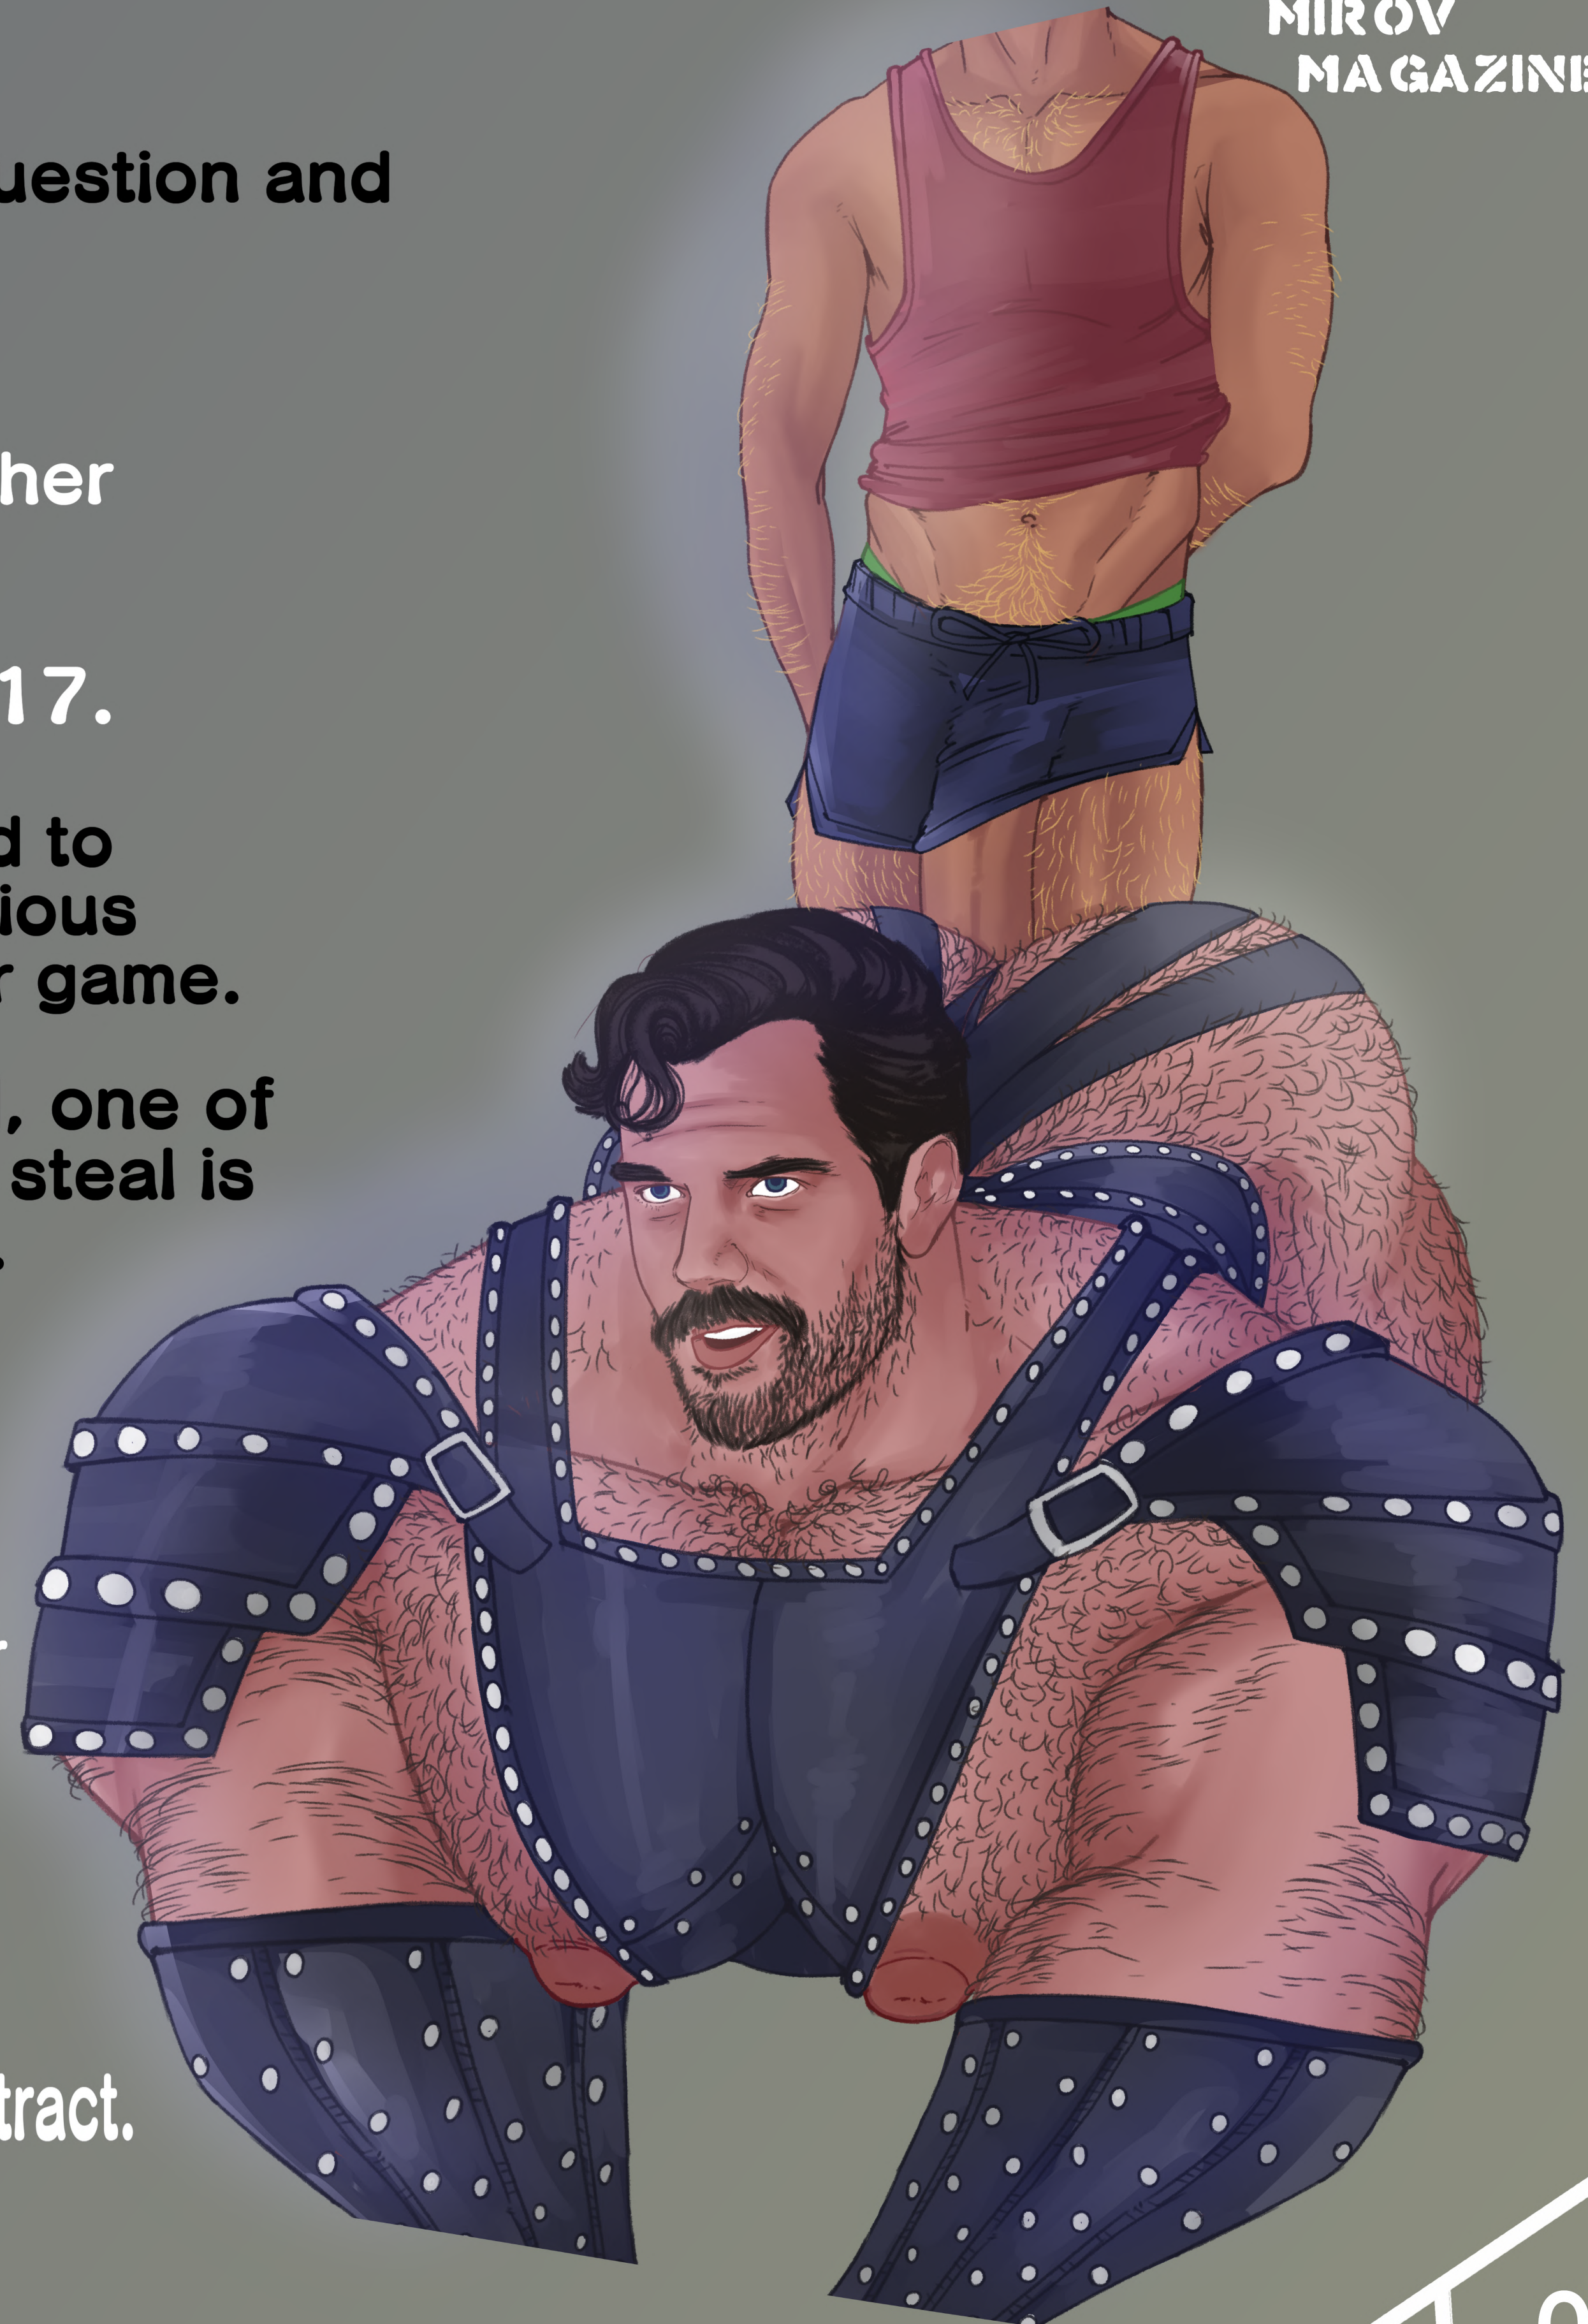

Dick: The first game was released in 2017.

As Henry couldn't answer the question, he had to wear an outfit chosen by Dick. Just like the previous round, Dick chose an outfit related to The Witcher game.

The outfit is inspired by the armor worn by Gerald, one of the characters from The Witcher game saga. The steal is made with leather and advanced technology.

Photographer: Let's strike a pose like you're on the floor and dick behind you, Cavill. Using perspective, I can make it as if Dick were a giant and he was looking at you. Get on your hands and knees on the floor.

Henry Cavill: These clothes are too tight!! It's not covering my boobs... I was chubby when I was younger and I still think my boobs are too fat. But that's ok, a contract is a contract.

Henry Cavill: Are you sure this outfit is covering all of my sexual parts? Why don't you let me look in the mirror?

Interviewer: Don't worry, Cavill. These clothes are made by our scientists and with high technology. They were modeled and prepared for gamers and streamers who spend all day in front of the computer. Their function is to be extremely comfortable. That's why it's quite normal for you to feel naked.

Photographer: Exactly!! We don't let you look in the mirror because these clothes are yet to be released. So we need you to give us feedback on what it's like to wear this outfit. This clothing has a new technology on the market that makes you feel completely naked, even wearing clothes. If you look in the mirror, you'll know which places the outfit is working and can mess up your assessment.

Interviewer: Exactly, but let's continue the photoshoot we don't have all day.

Photographer: Hey kid, grab Cavill's legs.

Dick: Like this?

Photographer: No.... it's not good yet!!
The underwear isn't showing...
Cavill, can you lift your ass a little higher?

Cavill: Of course!!

photographer: Dick, come a little closer!!

Photographer:Excellent!!
Is very good!!

Photographer: Damn Cavill, you moved. I need to get another one!! Come on boy come closer again!!

Henry Cavill: Yeah!! I feel these underwear working my muscles!!

Our last question was about one of DC's newest live action villains: Black Adam.

DC's last release in theaters in 2022 was the Black Adam movie where Henry Cavill appears in one of the post-credit scenes acting as Superman.

There was a big rumor on the internet that in future DC movies a confrontation between Black Adam and Superman would happen, but does the great Cavill know Black Adam?

Interviewer: What year did Black Adam first appear?

Henry Cavill: That's easy for me!! The year was 1945 in a comic called "The Marvels Family".

The answer was correct, so Cavill had to choose an outfit that would be worn by one of our models.

The model that was used for the photo is named Drake and is 21 years old. He is responsible for the knowledge about comics of the nerd group.

Henry Cavill chose Black Adam underwear. We suggested that he use a Superman-inspired piece to simulate a clash between Black Adam and Superman.

Interviewer: Well, since Cavill got it right this time, let's do a photo with Cavill on top of Drake.

This was our last photo of the session.

When we finished the Photoshoot, Henry Cavill invited our models to show the room with all the collections of items he kept.

According to Cavill, participating in films and series has many benefits and one of those benefits is that you can bring some souvenirs from all productions.

While the boys were in the room with Cavill our team was collecting the equipment used for the photos. After 30 minutes our team heard some loud noises similar to a bed hitting the wall.

After 1 hour, the noise had increased and the wall of the room was starting to crack, our team got a little scared and went looking for our models.

Upon opening the door, we are faced with a scene that no one would believe if our photographer had not taken a picture.

Thank you all for supporting Mirov Magazine!!
