Curse layer

“Ragh!” The tall girl lunched her curse filled nails with her hammer at the worty rounded belly monster. Her cry of rage shook the deserted alleyway they were in but the nails that normally pierce the flesh of any curse with ease bounced off the creature’s impenetrable skin. Her school uniform, a dark blue long-sleeved shirt that stopped just above her stomach, thanks to her impressive swaying chest. It is over a white shirt to cover her tone belly with a long skirt going just past her knees. Black tights covered her long muscular legs as she danced around the alleyway.

“Damn it!” Nobara snapped her tongue at the monster cackling at her. The only thing human about him is his fat, rounded belly. His face is a mix between that of a goat and a dog. Sharp pointed ears with a long snout, but his large bulging eyes looked and four different directions at once with crossed pupils. One arm clearly has more muscle than the other, yet that arm is more human while the hand of the other ends with fuzzy bear claw with nails nearly as long as blades.

“Heh heh I told ya sweety ya can’t get rid of me!” The monsters, as horrid as it looks, is still nothing more than a simple curse. Possessing a poor old man and changed his body. By taking care of the curse, he will be able to turn back, with nothing but a few scars.

But for the past few hours, the newbie curse killer has been battling it out with a low-level curse hunting the body of a homeless man. And as much as she wants to blame her poor performance on the monster’s pantless state and, quite frankly, heavy erection between his legs, she cannot lie to herself that after two hours of fighting the monster, she has gotten used to seeing the hardy appendage bounce and throb.

The filthy thing stood tall and proud in the air. The only human thing about it is the round head at the top while the rest of it is covered in bumps and veins. And looking somewhat bent in the middle giving it a slight curve. It oozed a thick slime of per-cum that flicked and dripped around the alley; Some of it sliding down the brick walls of the budlings beside them. It gave off a powerful, prudent scent that buried everything around it. It filled the alley way and put Nobara off while she was fighting it. Though much to her disdain she has gotten used to it.

‘God damn it. I am running out of nails!’ Nobara huffed in her thoughts. Though the curse itself has not done anything to hurt her, not like it could with how weak it is, for some reason her attacks are not getting through to it.

“Look I ain’t bothering anybody, so just leave me alone will ya!?” The monster groaned.

“Unless you want to take care of this thing.” The monster groaned at his dick that seemed to bounce up, as if mocking him as he snarled at it. “Seriously this stupid thing has been bothering me for god knows how long! You know how hard it is to walk around with constant hard on! And your fat ass isn’t helping!”

That got the busty sorceress to think of something. Something sickening, but if most minor curses stay around because of a sense of regret or a propose then she may just have a chance to be rid of it.

“Fine you ugly bastard.”

“Eh?” The curse blinked.

“If it’ll get your stupid ass to leave, I’ll jack you off or something.” Nobara snarled as she put her weapon away and walked up to the curse. The monster backed into a corner out of fear of what she would do, until she got squatted down to glare at the offending gentiles.

Now, eye level Nobara got a better more gruesome look at the hardened cock. It seemed to be attracted to her given as soon as she squatted down in front of it, it twitched like an exited hound. It may as well be with how much pre-cum drooled from the fat rounded tip. the bumps on it are large and she could easily count how many there are. The curse made the man’s testicles swell too, though she does not know if the the curvy pubic hair was there before or after the curse nor does she want to know.

Smelling and seeing the shaft form a distance during combat, however seeing it now in front of her face made her nose bunch up in disgust. Yet a lower, more primal part of her that could not care for morals tingled in excitement. She ignored the feeling, and with a rude vengeful click of her tongue, Nobara gripped the massive cock in her hands.

“Guh!?” Though she grunted in what she hoped is abhorrence as she felt just how hot the cock felt between her fingers and at how she cannot fully wrap her hand around it. Sticky with either sweat or the pre-jizz that’s been seeping from the tip. It felt less like she is holding a cock and more like a fleshy bat of sorts as it seemed to heat up her hand and rumble between her fingers.

“The fuck kind of dick is this!?” The sorceress fumed as she felt the monstrous cock hum and thump in her hand. Her finger not even close to touching each other given the shaft’s girth and bumps around it. “Did you always have an ugly fuck stick, or did it get like this?”

“Not like I know. Besides, anyone would not get it up for a hot slut like you~.” The monster said making Nobara curse under her breath. Thinking of threatening him by giving his cock a hard squeeze but all that did was make him groan in delight as the member is too thick for her to put any sort of painful pressure even with her strength.

“Asshole...” The young girl growled before she started working the member up and down with her hand. It nearly felt like a workout however as it took her more than a second to stroke the whole length of the cock. Nor was she gentle either with her quick movements and harsh mash of thumb against the sticky head of the cock. She was less trying to get the curse off and more taking her frustrations out on him.

“Ngh...If I wanted a simple handy lady, I would be jacking off right now.” Though it was not having any sort of effect on the curse as he only out a shallow grunt.

Nobara glared at him, but she also knew that she was not getting her anywhere. Keeping her face filled with anger, she opened her mouth and gave a long, disgusted lick up the long cock. The beastly member thumping as her tongue glided up to the head of the shaft and back down to his testicles where she choked a little from the overwhelming musk that slammed into her. The monstrous dick already has a pungent, deadly order that made her body grow aroused. The swaying testicles empowered the scent tenfold. There is pressure around the air that made her body feel heavy and hot. It made her pant a little, huffing in heat and excursion as she trailed down the shaft to its’ testicles.

With a growl, she pushed past her thoughts and took one of the jiggling, fleshy orbs in her mouth. The taste far stronger here than on the shaft but feeling the cock throb harder in her hand made her go further than she wanted. Though her body reacted well to the taste of the devilish prick's sack, warming and shivering, her nipples began to tingle as they poked at her shirt, she desperately tried to push back the sharp musk that pierced her tongue.

Deciding she had it enough, Nobara went with the lesser of the two evils and took the cock in her mouth. She choked a little, tears welling up in pain as she swallowed too much, barely even half of the cock throbbing in her throat, and it is always being pushed past its limit. Yet she pulled back and began to slide her mouth up and down what she could take. Ignoring the occasional retching she did, Nobara kept a fierce glare up at the monster as she bounced her head along his prick. Taking it out of her mouth at times to lick the head and what she could not swallow before taking it back in her mouth.

“N-Now that's the stuff...” The demon groaned as he pushed her head further down his cock-

“Hey!” However, Nobara snapped at him. “Hands off the hair!”

Though she did let her fingers trail down between her legs. Unknowingly letting her body move without much thought as her mind began to get clouded by the haze of lust in the air. They glided over her covered slit. Ignoring the dampness, she felt as she tased it with her fingers. Opening her folds under her clothes while she slobbered on the massive member in her mouth.

“S-Stupid fucking...fat...big...dick!” The sorceress moaned as she slobbered over the shaft. Keeping a fierce hateful glare at the curse, her moans became less strained, and her fingers worked faster against her puffy slit that now drenches her tights. Her tongue, with a wraith that is not angry, twirled around the bulbous head while her other hand worked the cock as much as she could. Lumpy, wet sounds bounced off the walls of the alley. Making those curious enough to glance down to see her large backside squatted on the ground.

To everyone else, it looked simply like a prostitute giving a wired old man more than his pay of a blowjob. With Nobara twisting her head to and fro, sliding the head in her cheek, making them swell. Choking and gasping and yet never letting her full lips and tongue completely leaving the head. While she seethed and bite outwardly at the monster, her actions showed otherwise as she practically worshipped the shaft as if it was some divine being. Giving long, sluggish drags of her tongue to savor the dense male flavor. Letting the monster throb and thump along her face. Covering her visage in drool as she dragged her face along the long, towering cock.

“N-Not bad but unless you plan on doing this all day, you're going to need step it up.” The cursed man sighed even as Nobara got a little further down his cock with her mouth. “Ugh maybe I should have just gotten some common bimbo. Slutty virgins tend to be too sloppy.”

Maybe it was some sense of pride, or the growing heat in her body, but Nobara suddenly ripped her shirt open. Letting her large bust bounce freely from her shirt. The near head sized breast jiggled violently free before she took them and squeezed them around the cock. Jerking her tits up and down the shaft savagely, she did not hide the sigh of pleasure feeling the meaty cock warm and beat between her large bosom even though she could not fully cover the whole prick in her chest.

“How's this ya bastard!? Ain't no 'bimbo' ever do this huh!?” Nobara taunted as she pumped the cock up and down violently with her breasts. Ignoring the fact that she is acting more like a needy whore for his cock than trying simply to get him off.

“O-Oh shit...” The demon shuddered at the feeling of her chest around his shaft. Soft and tight, the slippery feeling of her spit and his pre-cum made his shaft glide between her tits. Her nipples tickled the vines of his cock as they dragged along it. His cock reached ever closer to its long-awaited climax as it began to quake more every moment, but Nobara only grew more lustful.

Though Nobara smirked with pride at finally having an advantage on her foe, her body shivered more with lust as her legs began to unknowingly spread open. Her lust started to dampen her tights with a dark spot spreading around her groin. Making a small lake between her legs as her arousal dripped down between them. With an overconfident sneer, she pumped her breast up and down with her lips licking and sucking on the length of the shaft that could not be contented in her bosom. With a haughty sneer on her lips, she enjoyed the monster’s shuddering while her own wide hips shook and shivered in need. Less at her impending victory and more at enjoying the cock thunderous shaking between her bosom. Elation at seeing the mammoth cock finally release its seed made her body nearly hump the air in need.

Nobara, so into severing the cock, she did not care nor notice the monster’s hand on her head. Digging into her hair and making pushed her face further down his cock. Burning it in her chest as he started to pump his hips with inhuman force. Nearly knocking her head back as the cock punched in the back of throat through her bosom. And yet, either through her lust, or pride, Nobara was not deterred. If anything she stared moaning in delight at the rough pace as she tried to match it with the frantic pumping of her breasts.

‘Come on and cum already! Cumcumcum!!’ Nobara chanted in her mind as she sucked as hard, she could. Her thoughts of merely getting the monster off a forgotten memory now.

“Fuck!” the demon cursed as his shaft let loose thick, sticky ropes of his seed into Nobara’s mouth. Though his cum felt like she was trying to swallow thick, creamy pudding with far less flavor. Pungent with the taste of pure lust on her tongue, she nearly climaxed from the force of the consecutive blast of cock cream roaring in her mouth. Her eyes rolled up in the wave of euphoria running through her as bubbles of spunk popped out of her sealed mouth and oozed out of her lips. Dripping in long trails over her hearty bust and her clothes. The goeey, pale white discharge erupted from her mouth and nose from the first shot, Though she was able to swallow the next, the other was too much for her to take.

The sorceress, after she could not swallow any more of the man’s heavy discharge, pulled her lips from the cock and let the rest fire in the air. Jerking her chest to squeeze more of the hearty spunk to rain don herself assure grin. Looking at the monster’s shivering face as the thick, heavy glops of demonic spunk fell onto her face. Her mouth hanging open, her tongue covered in jizz, to catch what she could as thick blast off the climax, and long ropes painted her face.

“S-Shit...” The curses’ legs wobbled as they felt like water and caused him to fall back. The dark aura around him faded as he regained some human features. His arms and legs returned to normal as he lost a few worts. His face is still contoured into a demonic visage and his dick still stands tall. Though Nobara is only getting started s she licked the cum off her lips.

“Heh. You talk a lot of shit but all you’ve got is a big, fat, stupid cock and nothing else, eh?” Nobara cackled, as she stood over the cock. It still leaked and pulsed with lust as she squatted over it. Tearing a hole in her tights, a puffy, dripping teenage pussy greeted the warm air. Hot, steaming with heat, curly untrimmed pubic hair coated the top of the drenched, cock hungry cunt. It gaped and opened, vibrant n pink and needy, as it drizzled its lust over the towering fuck stick.

“You thought you could beat me with this stood, fat ugly dick. But your all-“ Nobara said but she licked her lips lowered herself down on the curse’s meaty shaft.

“TaLkKkkkK~♥♥!!!” Nobara cried out like a slovenly whore as she felt the cock fill her far beyond what she thought. Her tongue hung out like an eager bitch in heat as her bravado turned into a lust crazed heat. Howling in bliss as an orgasm tore through her like a storm from the cock hiding in her womb and making a bulge in her belly. The shock of lust crashing through her made her back arch, and her pussy squirt a mist of her lust in the air. The slick lips of her pussy spread wide as they shuddered along with her.

“T-This s-s-stupid dick-is-isn’t MUCH~!!” Her words did not match her actions as she began to bounce up and down on the shaft at a frantic wild pace. Leaning forward, giving the creepy monster a grand view her large, tight ass quaking from the forceful impacts of her hips slamming down on his waist. Her face twisted in a lust drunk, hellion grin as her nearly bruised her hips on the monster’s dick.

The curse on the other hand could only hold on to whatever a creature like him considers life. Grabbing on the young girl s wide hips in a vain attempt to try and control her. But her movements are far too erratic; putting a trained whore to shame with how flagrantly she shook her hips. Twisting them shaking them with the eagerness of a wild bitch. And somehow her pussy beat her in her slutty display as it clung to him in sweet, but vice-like embrace. Not even trying to let him go at any moment as it seemed to get tighter with every shaking drop of her hips down on him.

“You fucking cow! Shaking these damn hips like some cock hungry whore! No wonder I am still hard! Take responsibility ya bitch!” The curse cursed and gave a sharp smack on her rear in both aggravation at her brazenness and to eager her on.

“F-fuck you! A-And your s-stupid D-Dick~!!” The sharp set of stinging smacks on her rear got her to curse at him, but her hips moved faster none the less. Moaning happily at every hard hit on her rear, taking the red marks forming on her tush with stride as she felt another orgasm being to form as a coil in her gut.

“Here it comes you slut!” The demonic man took hold of Nobara’s wide hips and slam his shaft up into her as she crashed her hips down on him. A rockus, thick blast of cum gushed into the short hair girl with tremendous force that it made her belly before even further than before as the thick stodgy blast of spunk filled her womb. The rest spraying out in thick, heavy globs of white out of her back pussy. Her body locked stiff in an e shaking release.

With the last spurt of jizz pumping into Nobara’s filled pussy, the cock not only shrank but went back to normal human size. Along with the man himself as the curse purged itself from him. Going back to his normal self as Nobara fell forward. Twitching and moaning as cum leaked out of her.

“B-Beat ya...” Leaving Nobara shivering in orgasmic glee.

-OOO-

“I still don’t think splitting up was a good idea...” Fushigruo mumbled under his breath as him and Itadori wondered the abandoned mansion for the curses roaming about. Old and forgotten, the massive western style mansion is empty save for the rats and insects that roams it. Dust and, dirt, furniture form days long past, now food for mitts and other creatures lays decryped. The two teenagers wandered the halls of the second floor of the mansion. Taking mention to avoid holes in the floor, while the moonlight beamed through both the broken and full windows.

“Ah Nobara can handle herself.” Itadori shrugged as he checked under a broken plate for the curse. Only to find a spider crawling from under it.

In the dead garden of the mansion,

“C-Come on! F-Fuck me harder-ngh-HARDER!” Nobara had long since found the possessed man. The curse has his hands twisted in her hair as he pushed against the wall while his other arm restraining her own arms. Pulling them back while his last two hands gripped her rear. Groping and slapping at her ass with it’s hand. It’s cock is knotted monster that made her belly bulge out from the sheer size of it, rampaged in her asshole. Her face, covered in spit and dangling cum, is twisted in a maddening lust crazed grin as she happily moaned in the cover of the night.

“S-Shiittt~!” For a few months, she has been dispelling curses this way. Though it only works for lower ranked ones, she cannot deny the fun and pleasure of being ravaged by one.

“Here it comes~!!!” The young cruse slayer eyes rolled up while the monster unloaded his second blast of cum in her. Just as thick and stodgy as the cum of any other cursed demon. It filled her belly far more than the time it showered her face in its semen. However, judging by how one of his hand groped her breasts, it looks like it has a few more loads in it before it is finally banished. Just the way Nobara likes it.
