

The Star

AT A GLANCE

The Star Card #17 represents calmness and focus, good luck, openness, inspiration, hope, renewal, faith, inspiration, healing, positivity, rejuvenation, balance, and tending to intimate, emotional matters. Reversed it can mean hopelessness, despair, lack of faith and despondent. Symbols that are usually in this card are jugs, streams, nakedness, stars and trees. Jugs symbolize becoming a vessel that can contain the vicissitudes of human emotions. Streams symbolize interconnectedness, personality, and the many which come together within the whole. Nakedness symbolizes liveliness; strength and courage without shame. Stars symbolize action derived from the soul and spirit; purity of action and clearness of purpose. Trees symbolize medium through which the higher and lower realms communicate; the bird heaven's messenger.

UPRIGHT INTERPRETATION

Do you feel grounded and balanced yet preoccupied with the idea that "it's too good to be true"? Enjoy this time of creativity and calm - you deserve it. Do you want to let go, to release and trust someone or relax into your circumstances, but you are holding back because you are worried about rejection or failure? There is no need to worry right now. If you drew The Star card, it means you are protected. Are you worried about being vulnerable in front of someone new? The circumstances are just right, and you can be relaxed and open without worrying about the consequences.

REVERSED INTERPRETATION

Do you look up at the sky or the world and find it overwhelming? Do you find your life messy and chaotic, hard to get a handle on? How can you simplify your life so that you have less on your plate, then, work toward balance between the different aspects of your life? Have been giving too much attention to (pouring too much water on) something that is not nourishing and wholesome? When you find the right balance, the stars will come out for you and help guide the way.

