

Well, obviously
SOMEBODY did
since.. you know,

my house got burnt down and I almost got killed
in my sleep?

That's what
I'm saying!!

Somebody in here attempted to take your life and failed!

You're not safe
out there, but
you're not safe
in the Palace either..

How can I leave
you to find who
the traitor is?

What if they make another attempt at your life and I'm not there to protect you..?

How am I
to choose between you

and the future
of my kingdom..?

Then don't.

What?

You won't have to.
