

UMBRA DIADEM'S COMMISSIONS

EMILY TEMPTS THE CROC

Emily sticks her feet directly before the hungry croc's jaws...

COMMISSION FOR:
TISPYBARNERD95

She gets a little too close; the crocodile leaps out and is able to clamp onto her lower legs.

The crocodile slips and loses its grip, and Emily manages to pull her legs free.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a black leather jacket and shorts, is leaning over a wooden dock. She is looking towards a large crocodile that is partially submerged in a pond. The crocodile's mouth is open, showing its teeth. The background is a lush, green environment with tall grasses and ferns.

Phew, that was close.

An overly confident Emily turns around, her back to the crocodile, not knowing just how badly it wanted her in its belly...

A woman with dark hair, wearing a black leather jacket, a pink top, and black boots, is sitting on a large crocodile. She is leaning back, resting her hands on the crocodile's head. The crocodile is lying on a wooden platform in a lush, green jungle setting. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting daytime.

Before she knew it, the crocodile had her inside its jaws once more.

Emily manages to brace the croc's jaws open just enough to prevent being sucked in right away.

Well, oops.

But she is no match for the crocodile's hunger as she is lifted up and pulled backwards into its gullet.

It seems Emily is not going to escape this time, as the crocodile's jaws have her firmly in their grip.

Emily is going in butt-first, and there is nothing preventing her from entering the crocodile's stomach.

GURRRGLE...

THE END
