

Mercy and DVA: A Transcript

Ziegler: How is my fraulein doing?

Song: Um, I'm doing okay, I guess. I just never knew how heavy these could get!

Ziegler: Ah, you must remember they are about 20% denser due to all of ze nanobots.

Song: R-right. Nanobots. Was this supposed to happen?

Ziegler: Nein, but no need to worry. Just some temporary side effects. See, I've got them too. What's important is that our wounds are healed and we're in tip top shape.

Song: Our shapes are tip top alright! I can't even fit in my uniform, let alone my mech. How am I supposed to pilot Tokki with... these?

Ziegler: Do not worry, they'll go down in size. Eventually. For now, you're not in any discomfort are you?

Song: I... I guess not.

Ziegler: And how do they feel? I noticed you could not stop playing with them like one of your video games.

Song: I'm not playing with them! They just feel... good. A little too good.

Ziegler: Ah, good is good! Well, here is your room. Be sure to get plenty of rest, okay? I'll check on you in the morning.

Song: Hey Angela?

Ziegler: Yes?

Song: I was wondering... you wouldn't mind being my Player 2 tonight, would you?

Zieger: Ah, it would be my pleasure.
