

Chapter 1 Introduction To Early Shrunken Caregiving

The front doors to the lecture hall opened as a wave of young women began pouring in! Slowly they fanned out and filled the aisles while finding seats. Within five minutes the entire place was packed shoulder to shoulder, not a single seat was free, that was to be expected though, this was one of the most popular courses at the college! Each year 300 women were accepted into the program but they had over 10 thousand applicants! Amanda was so excited to have gotten into the Early Shrunken Care Program, it was her dream since she was a little girl to be a caregiver for tiny helpless men!

Even 80 years after the fact, still, no one had any idea how it had all begun. Sometime late in the year 2022, just after the worldwide pandemic referred to as the “CoronaVirus”, random men began shrinking at an alarming rate. By the year 2023 more than half of the male population had shrunk to less than a few inches tall! The impact on the economy was staggering but eventually as women began filling the generally male occupied roles things slowly returned to normal, they still had the issue of dealing with all the shrunken men though. The first thing that they noticed was that the men only began shrinking after hitting the age of 18 and finishing puberty, there was no correlation to race though, Men all around the world of all classes were affected! A new protocol was created as laws were quickly written to help deal with the influx of tiny men who needed to be looked after! That is when the Fundamentals to Early Shrunken Caregiving was created! The university program spread worldwide and quickly became the most competitive field for women to enter!

The women who graduated from this program became Nurses, i guess was the best way to describe it. When a man shrunk, he would be given to a Shrunken Caregiving provider who prepares them for life as a miniature person. These women would be responsible for showing them all the dangers they would need to look out for, teaching them their new responsibilities as a little person, and finally, finding a job or owner for them in this new strange world. Shrunken men were given the worst and lowest positions, jobs no women would ever want to do, things like sorting through mountains of trash, or unclogging toilets by swimming down into the pipes with giant poles to prod the blockages! The best a man could hope for would be purchased by a woman, to be bought as an object, hers and hers alone to do with what she pleased, but even that was better than the alternative.

Amanda looked to her left and right, none of her friends had gotten into the program and she was all alone in this crowded room of strangers, she didn't know anyone! Usually she was so talkative and chatty, but right now she just felt alone! Everyone was laughing and gossiping with one another! It was like she was the only person who had come alone!

“QUIET DOWN” A middle aged woman said loudly as she walked into the lecture hall and closed the doors behind her. The doors banged together and echoed as they locked with a heavy thud. She turned to the chalkboard and began writing in large letters so everyone in the hall could see.

“Welcome ladies, to Early Shrunken Caregiving 101, my name is Ms. Pelletier and I will be your course instructor for the remainder of the semester! My office is on the second floor in the humanities department, Room 304. If you need to speak with me, appointments can be made between tuesday and thursday at the hours of 2 to 4pm or 5 to 6pm. Please take out your course syllabus”... there was a bit of a murmur as women began speaking quietly while taking out their books and laptops.

“QUIET!” the professor shouted from the front of the room as everyone went silent. It was so quiet that you could hear a pin drop!

“In this course, you will be learning how to take care of and prepare a shrunken man for his life in this new world! There are no shortage of women who would like to take your place in this program, so please, take your studies seriously! I have no problem removing those who I deem unfit for the position!” she explained while writing her office hours and location on the chalkboard!

“We will begin with an introduction to shrunken men, anatomy, brain activity, and basic care treatments! All of this will be covered in your first week, then on Monday of next week, each of you will receive your first male specimen!” As the professor finished the sentence, a murmur of women began speaking like a wave that flowed throughout the room.

“QUIET!” She shouted again.

“Each of you will receive a newly shrunken male that you will be responsible for taking care of throughout the remainder of this course! His well being will be more than 50% of your final grade so this is BY FAR the most important part of the program. You will learn about the history of shrunken men, psychological brain patterns, training techniques, punishment and reward cycles to encourage proper behaviour, physical limits, and how to find the proper owner / position for a tiny man. All of this will be important to learn, but the well being of your specimen should be your first priority. There are more than 400 women sitting in this room, and by the end of this course more than 25% of you will be gone! I have seen women fail in all sorts of ways! Losing their tiny man, Accidentally sitting on him, even eating him!” The professor warned followed by a small wave of laughter that flowed throughout the room.

“I can assure you all this is no joke! Look to the women to your left, and now your right, these are your peers but also your competition! If your tiny is crushed or killed by another student, regardless of the circumstance, you will be held responsible and receive an immediate fail! This is your last and final warning, now, let’s begin, open your books to page 25, chapter 1” she instructed.

It was an hour later when the class ended, as soon as the professor left the lecture hall, it EXPLODED in a wave of conversation! Women began gossiping at full volume, laughing with one another and talking about shrunken little men!

Amanda looked around, she wanted to go introduce herself to some other women but she was far too shy. She bent down in her seat and began putting her books into her bag as someone tapped her shoulder. She looked over to see a cute Korean girl waving.

“Heya! Im Cho-Hee” she said with a big smile

“Or, if you can’t remember that, you can also call me Scarlett!” she smiled again and tilted her head a bit!

“Oh, uhmm, i’m Amanada, Nice to meet you!” she replied politely!

“Oh my god! I love your scarf! Where did you get it??” Scarlett commented while pointing to Amanda’s neck and then reaching forward to feel the material!

“Oh haha, thanks, I made it myself!” Amanda tried to say without bragging!

“REALLY??” Scarlett shouted way too loud for being inside! “YOUR SO TALENTED!”

“Haha no, I just have a lot of spare time!” Amanda blushed and tried to look away, she was never good at taking compliments.

“Could you make me one?!?! I could pay you!” Scarlett asked with a big smile as Amanda blushed and stammered unsure of what to say!

“Oh my god, I’m sorry! I always do this! It must be so much work to make those, I shouldn’t have asked, especially with us starting this course, and the workload!” Scarlett spoke very fast apologizing!

“No no, it’s not a bother at all, I always knit as i watch Netflix, I can make you one in my spare time, it may be a few weeks though!” Amanda smiled as Scarlett leaned in and hugged her a bit too tight!

“Thank you! You’re amazing! Can I buy you lunch?” Scarlett asked...

1 WEEK LATER (Toms pov)

Everything was dark, all around him men were huddled in groups, some of them shaking, some of them crying. Every few minutes a shriek could be heard as someone’s mental stability snapped sending a wave of fear throughout the small enclosed space! The ground began to shake as all the men went silent, it sounded like a stampede was coming their way! None of them had any idea what they were about to be used for, only that it would be a life of pain and servitude!

“QUITE DOWN” A woman shouted as the room slowly went silent. Her voice was so loud that Tom could feel it shake the insides of his bones!

“This is your LAST AND FINAL REMINDER, your paper on proper placement and job selection for shrunken men is due on FRIDAY! It must be on my desk by the end of class or you will receive a ZERO! I have no tolerance for tardiness! Now... I am sure you are all very excited, today you will be receiving your shrunken man.” as she finished speaking a murmur of female voices echoed throughout the room. All the men were listening closely trying to figure out what their fate would be, suddenly one man began shouting and screaming!

“My god...OH NO, OH GOD NO... WERE BEING USED AS GUINEA PIGS FOR COLLEGE STUDENTS! WE’RE ALL GONNA DIE!” One man shouted as he began to have a slight mental breakdown! Being used as a prop for college students was one of the worst positions a shrunken man could be subjected too! There were thousands of pictures and videos online of drunken young women cramming men up into their gooey pussies and shit encrusted assholes! Students would keep little men sealed in the tips of sweat drenched socks, or accidentally crush them under their massive asses! Even if they survived the semester, they would just be reused for another student during the next. All of the men began sprinting around in the dark, clamoring at the walls and trying to escape their dark confined prison, Tom knew it was hopeless though.

Suddenly in the darkness Tom was pushed to the ground as two men in a fist fight rolled over him. A fist hit his face hard as the man on top continued punching, not caring who he was hitting, his fists trying to find any target to come in contact with! It took a few seconds but Tom managed to roll away, he crawled in the darkness until he reached a corner, he could feel his nose was bleeding! Suddenly, light filled the small space and all the men looked up! It took a moment for their eyes to adjust but they could see a MASSIVE woman looking down at them! They were inside of a small cardboard box!

“EVERYONE, LINE UP AND I WILL DISTRIBUTE YOUR TINY MEN!” She said in a loud and booming voice! All the men covered their ears from the blistering sound! Each syllable she pronounced was like a gong going off right next to their heads!

Tom watched as the giant woman reached into the box, all the men screamed and ran as she plucked one of them up and pulled him away into the sky! She reached in again, this time grabbing a whole handful! It was horrifying! Like something from a scary movie! Men cried and held onto one another in chains as they were pulled away into the sky never to be seen again! Tom knew it would be his time soon, and when her hand came down next, it came right towards him! He did not try to run or hide, he knew it would be hopeless! Her sweaty fingers wrapped around him and a few other naked guys, lifting them up and away!

Tom could see when he was lifted that there were hundreds of young women, all lined up in the lecture hall! One by one the teacher used her manicured fingers to lift the men and give them to a student! Her fingers grabbed Tom by the back of his neck and lifted him high before dropping him into someone's palm. He looked up to see a gorgeous young blond girl! She had a wide smile with tiny bright white teeth! Her skin was flawless with a tiny upturned nose and green almond shaped eyes! Her blond wavy hair looked messy but he could tell it was meticulously planned. She looked just like his old highschool crush.

"AMANDA!" someone shouted as Tom's heart skipped a beat, Amanda, it was her! Of all the women in the world he could have been given too, this was impossible! For all of high school Tom was in love with Amanda, but she had no idea he existed! She looked down at him with a smile as her sweaty fingers gripped his naked body, he was so embarrassed he could die! He watched as an asian girl walked over, holding out her hand and showing a naked shrunken man, similar to Tom. he tried to listen to what they were saying, but the room was so loud, it felt like his ears were going to explode!

Amanda was not one of the crazy popular girls! Tom was just invisible! A ghost to not only her but everyone! He had no friends, no social life! All he could do was watch Amanda from afar as he imagined the life they could have had together. He had planned to go to college, to get a degree and find a good job, to be successful so he could impress her, all of that was thrown sideways when he began shrinking! His parents were mortified! The day he was picked up by the government officials, his parents began taking his pictures off the walls, trying to pretend he never existed! Being a little person was the lowest you could go, no one liked admitting they had one in their family! Tom had no options left, nowhere to go, no where he could turn to, Amanda was now completely in control of his every action, no matter how small!

Her sweaty fingers held him tight as her and the asian woman walked back to their seats. She kept opening her hand a bit and looking down to him, smiling and laughing a little before closing her fingers around him again. Tom knew she didn't recognize him, she didn't even know his name!

(Amanda's pov)

All of the women were leaving the class, their new tiny friends in hand as they laughed and chatted with one another! Amanda was still looking down at Tom with a big smile when Scarlett came running up to her!

"You wanna go grab some lunch?" she asked while looking at her little tiny man...

"Yea, i'm starving!" Amanda replied as the two of them began heading towards the cafeteria.

“You know my sister was in this program five years ago!” Scarlett bragged as she poked and prodded her little man. She smiled as he fell over in her palm trying to stand!

“Really? She graduated?” Amanda asked

“Uh huh, she actually told me a ton of expert tips and tricks, I could share with you if you want!” Scarlett smiled and laughed, Amanda knew she was gonna tell her no matter how she answered!

“Tell me!” Amanda laughed as they walked down the crowded hallways.

“Well, you know how the profesor was telling us to sew a little pocket into our purses, somewhere to carry them safely so they don’t get crushed by lipgloss or a cellphone!” Scarlett smiled...

“Yea?”

“Well...” Scarlett looked left and right, it was so crowded so she leaned in to whisper to Amanda.

“My sister said to keep them in between your ass cheeks!” Scarlett whispered!

“WHAT!?” Amanda shouted as the hallway went quiet for a second, everyone looked to Amanda as her and Scarlett walked towards the cafeteria. Scarlett giggled and laughed as she shook her tiny guy around in her hand.

“It’s not a big deal, women use them for sexual purposes all the time and my sister said that when you’re walking around, having them back there, between two soft cheeks, it’s the best and safest place, just remember to take them out or push them deeper before you sit down!” Scarlett explained!

“But... Isn’t it uncomfortable, I mean, the smell? I heard that for the tiny men, their senses are strengthened, so wouldn’t that make things...” Amanda froze and paused mid sentence as Scarlett laughed.

“Duh, that’s how you keep them in line! You can threaten them and tell them you’re gonna take a trip to McDonalds” Scarlett laughed and fanned behind her butt as Amanda cracked up laughing and blushing.

“I don’t know if i could do that!” Amanda blushed

“Well, it’s a gamble carrying them in your purse, my sis told me a ton of girls failed because they crushed them by accident! It’s up to you! Let’s get some sushi!” Scarlett pointed to one of the cafeteria restaurants as the two of them walked over and got in line! Almost immediately other women started to stare at them, it took Amanda a moment but she soon realized it was because of their tiny little partners. They both ordered a bento box for themselves and then took a seat at an empty table placing their little shrunken men between them.

“God they're so small! I could drop this sushi roll and just CRUSH YOU!” Scarlett joked as she held up a roll with chopsticks just over her shrunken man's head!

“OH MY GOD! DON'T” Amanda laughed and choked on her drink!

“I would never!” Scarlett shoved the roll into her mouth before prodding her little man with the chopsticks.

“Another pro tip, during the night time, the safest place to keep them, is actually in the back of your toilet, inside of the water tank!” Scarlett said casually while shoving another roll into her mouth!

“WHAT? You can't be serious!?” Amanda asked!

“No really! My sister and her dorm mate, they were both in the program! They made a little raft out of popsicle sticks and put the little men in the back of their toilet! Anytime they flushed, the water gets sucked up but the guys are too big to fit through the filter! They are trapped all night in toilet water! Safe and sound! That way they can't escape or get hurt, and it's like... hilarious, right?” Scarlett giggled!

“I heard that...” Amanda paused and looked back and forth to make sure no one was listening!

“I heard that some women in the program use the little guys for sexual purposes, is that true?” Amanda asked quietly, Scarlett almost burst out laughing!

“Amanda, I think that's why competition for the program is so high, gawd, you're so naive, it's cute though!” Scarlett laughed as she continued eating!

They both finished their meal and began packing up their stuff, Scarlett had to run to another class but Amanda was all done for the day.

“You gonna go home to have fun with your new toy?” Scarlett asked before leaving...

“Haha, I have to go shopping first, hey!? Where is your tiny?” Amanda blushed as Scarlett laughed and looked over her shoulder at her butt

“He is safe and sound!” she giggled as Amanda cupped one hand to her mouth!

“See ya! Call me later!” Scarlett ran off to her next class, Amanda watched her ass wriggle back and forth in her tight yoga pants, she could only imagine how terrible it must be for her little friend! Amanda glanced down at the guy in her palm and smiled... they were instructed not to speak to the little men in a friendly manner, but she wanted to introduce herself, it felt rude, seeing as they were gonna be spending so much time together.

“I’m Amanda” she said while looking at the shrunken man in her hand... he was barely the size of her palm, just a few inches tall.

“My entire grade counts on you, so I need you to be well behaved! Understand!?” she asked as the little man shook his head up and down nervously! She laughed and blushed a bit...

“Good, if you make things easy, I will make sure to reward you often, but don’t think i won’t punish you if I have to!” Amanda said with a grin, a few normal sized guys walked by her and gave her strange looks as she spoke and smiled to her hand. Amanda blushed and closed her fingers around the little man, holding him tight as she headed for the grocery store.

It wasn’t until Amanda began walking to the store that she noticed how hot it was! The sun was baking the pavement and she could feel the soles of her sneakers sticking to the cement! Sweat began dripping from her forehead and even the little man in her hand was slipping around all over! Luckily the store was only a few minutes away, when she walked into the air conditioned building, she couldn’t help but let out a moan of relief!

Amanda grabbed a shopping cart and threw her purse inside. She looked to the little man in the palm of her hand and blushed a deep red! Slowly Amanda looked left and right and then back to the little guy in her hand. She had been thinking about what Scarlett had told her the entire walk here, surely she could put him in her purse and he would be okay. She peered inside and saw all the heavy objects that could crush him then quickly reconsidered. It was horrible to even think of, subjecting someone to something like this, Amanda shuddered a little when she remembered, she had skipped showering that morning too! She had been in such a rush to get to class, she was so excited to get her tiny! It wasn’t until someone cleared their throat behind her that she realized how long she had been standing in the entrance to the grocery store!

“I’m sorry!” Amanda apologized to the elderly woman as she stepped aside with her grocery cart and allowed her to pass. As the old woman walked by, Amanda took the little guy and reached behind her back, shoving him down the waistband of her yoga pants. She squinted her eyes and grimaced as her hand felt how sweaty her thick ass cheeks were. Slowly she pushed him deep down, wedging him right between her cheeks and under the strap of her thong as Scarlett had instructed. Amanda let go of her panties and felt the little man shoot between her cheeks almost to the point where he was touching her asshole! She quickly pulled her hand from between her cheeks and out of her pants as a huge smile crossed her face... It felt amazing! He was squirming and moving so rapidly. Amanda had been itchy down there all day but too grossed out to touch the dirty area, the issue was now completely taken care of.

Slowly she took a few steps, feeling her ass cheeks move back and forth as the guy squirmed between them! She felt like she was going to crush him from the pressure, but then she remembered Scarlett running to class, her thick ass wobbling left and right. Amanda reached back rubbing her hands over her big sweaty ass before beginning to walk normally. The little guy squirmed a bit deeper as she smiled... she would need to thank Scarlett, this was something she could def get used to!

(Tom's pov)

Tom always had a thing for womens asses! Throughout all of highschool he only had one girlfriend, and even though the relationship only lasted a few months, he had gotten her to sit on his face a few times! Each and every time he closed his eyes before going to bed, he would dream of Amanda's thick bubbly ass covering his face, smothering him lifeless! His heart almost skipped a beat when she reached back, about to shove him down the rear of her yoga pants! Her fingers peeled open the fabric from her sweaty skin before plunging him down in the dark depths of her ass! Tom could see her dark red panties as her fingers began shoving him past ass fat, prodding and arranging him in place! He felt the wet fabric coat his back like a hammock as the powerful scent of ass over took over all of his senses! This was nothing like having your face sat on, it was even more powerful than sniffing a freshly worn pair of dirty panties!

Tom pulled his hands from the sticky fabric under him just as Amanda let go of her thong! Tom's whole body froze as he was rocketed forward, the back of her thong slapping her ass cheeks and squeezing him in between! He screamed at the top of his lungs before his mouth was muffled by the fat of her cheeks, his body compressed so tightly that it felt like he was being run over by a truck! For a split moment, he was frozen, unable to move or breathe! It felt like being submerged in Jello. Amanda took a small stop, her ass cheeks wriggled back and forth, rippling and pushing Tom deeper! Suddenly he caught a pocket of air and gasped, sucking it in and squirming with all of his strength!

Everything around him was dark and black except for the slightest bit of light he could see coming in from the back of her ass crack! If tom's body was not being compressed so tightly, he would have puked! The odor of her ass was overwhelming! Each breath he took was filled with the taste and odor of her sweaty anus, it was so ripe and spicy that his eyes watered! Slowly Amanda's cheeks began shaking back and forth, wobbling left and right, slapping his face and carrying his body with the motion of her ass! It was like being in a fleshy wave pool! Tom screamed as his body was pushed deeper, the odor and heat so strong that it felt like his face would melt! His eyes had begun to adjust and in the deep darkness he could see it, hovering in front of him like a portal to hell! Her anus!

Amanda was a goddess! The cutest most beautiful woman he had ever laid eyes on, but her anus at this size was horrific! The puffy brown walls puckered in and out as dark blonde hairs protrude from the outer rim! It looked like it was alive as it winked at him, beckoning him closer! Tom held onto her ass fat, screaming as he was shaken back and forth, powerless to do anything but go with the flow of her body!

Each time her anus pulled in and out, tiny little bursts of heat would blow into his face, it was like breathing poison! He could smell and taste remnants of fish as her powerful cheeks threw him left and right, up and down! Tom had thought the gaseous bursts were farts, he prayed for it to end but quickly realized, it was just the air flowing from her anus naturally! This would be non stop!

Her ass cheeks continued to shake, pulling him each and every direction as he sucked in the odor flowing from her sweaty anus! Suddenly she stopped, her ass shook for a second before coming to a rest! Tom gasped and choked as he clamoured onto her ass cheeks, trying to grip one of them with his hands so he wouldn't slip deeper!

BBBBBFRRTTTTT

A thick vibration shook both her ass cheeks as Tom held on and screamed for dear life! The heat pushing past him was so hot that it felt like the skin was melting right off his body! The splattering echoing booming sound was so loud that his ear drums almost exploded! When the heat and pain faded, Amanda was already walking again, her sweaty cheeks slapping him back and forth, that was when the odor hit him! Her fart reeked of dying fish, it smelled like a seafood market that hadn't been visited in ages, everything left to rot! His mouth was filled with the flavor of her gas, the burning fishy remnants of her sushi! He felt bile rising in his chest but the pressure of her ass cheeks gave him no time to vomit or recover! They bounced back and forth, throwing him deeper and deeper! Tom reached out, digging his fingers into her ass flesh to stop from hitting her anus!

(Amanda's pov)

“OUCH!” Amanda stopped and shouted in the grocery store as she cupped a hand over her ass! A few people looked to her with strange stares before continuing shopping. Amanda was puzzled for a moment before she cupped her hand to her mouth and blushed in embarrassment!

“Oh my god!” she said out loud...

She had been so preoccupied with her shopping that she totally forgot he was down there for a second. He had been right in the splash zone when she let loose the bubble of gas that had been building up. Amanda stood there in shock for a moment as he squirmed and wiggled. She suddenly began to laugh, unable to control herself! A small part of her thought a fart would kill a man at that size, but now that he had survived, she realized, it was just gas! She giggled as she pictured him gagging and choking as the gas blew past him. She would have to tell Scarlett later. She took a few more steps when her stomach gurgled loud... Amanda smiled to herself as she lifted one leg and rested her foot on the bottom of the grocery buggy. She pushed her ass out and grunted as a sickening wet splatter left her sweaty behind!

BBBFRRRTTPPP spppprpttttttt brrpppttttt

Amanda burst into a fit of laughter as she felt the little man squirm between her sweaty cheeks! He began moving so rapidly after the fart! She cupped her hands over her face laughing at his flailing until a woman behind her cleared her throat. Amanda turned to see a middle aged woman looking at her with a very displeased and disgusted look...

“I'm so sorry!” Amanda laughed and blushed as she ran with her grocery cart pushing it around the corner and out of sight!
