

CRAZY
LITTLE GRAPHIC STORY

ANUMBA'S PARTY

DISAPTEH

A woman with long red hair, wearing a tan hat, a dark vest over a light-colored top, and shorts, is shining a flashlight through a cave opening. The beam of light illuminates a path leading to a large, multi-tiered stone structure with a central spire, situated on a hill in a lush, green landscape. In the foreground, the hands and heads of two people are visible, looking up at the woman. The scene is framed by the dark, rocky interior of the cave.
