A SHORT WHILE LATER...

I had to know what it was like!

EARLIER...

A man with short brown hair, shirtless, is standing in a public restroom. He is looking down at a white sink with a chrome faucet. A small jar of cream is on the counter next to the sink. A towel hangs on a rack above the sink. The background shows a window and the wall of the restroom.

I had heard so many stories about people who had taken X-Change!

A drug that let's you spend the night as the opposite sex...

A close-up of the man's face from the previous panel. He is looking down and to the right, holding a small jar of cream in his hand. The background is a blurred view of the restroom sink and mirror.

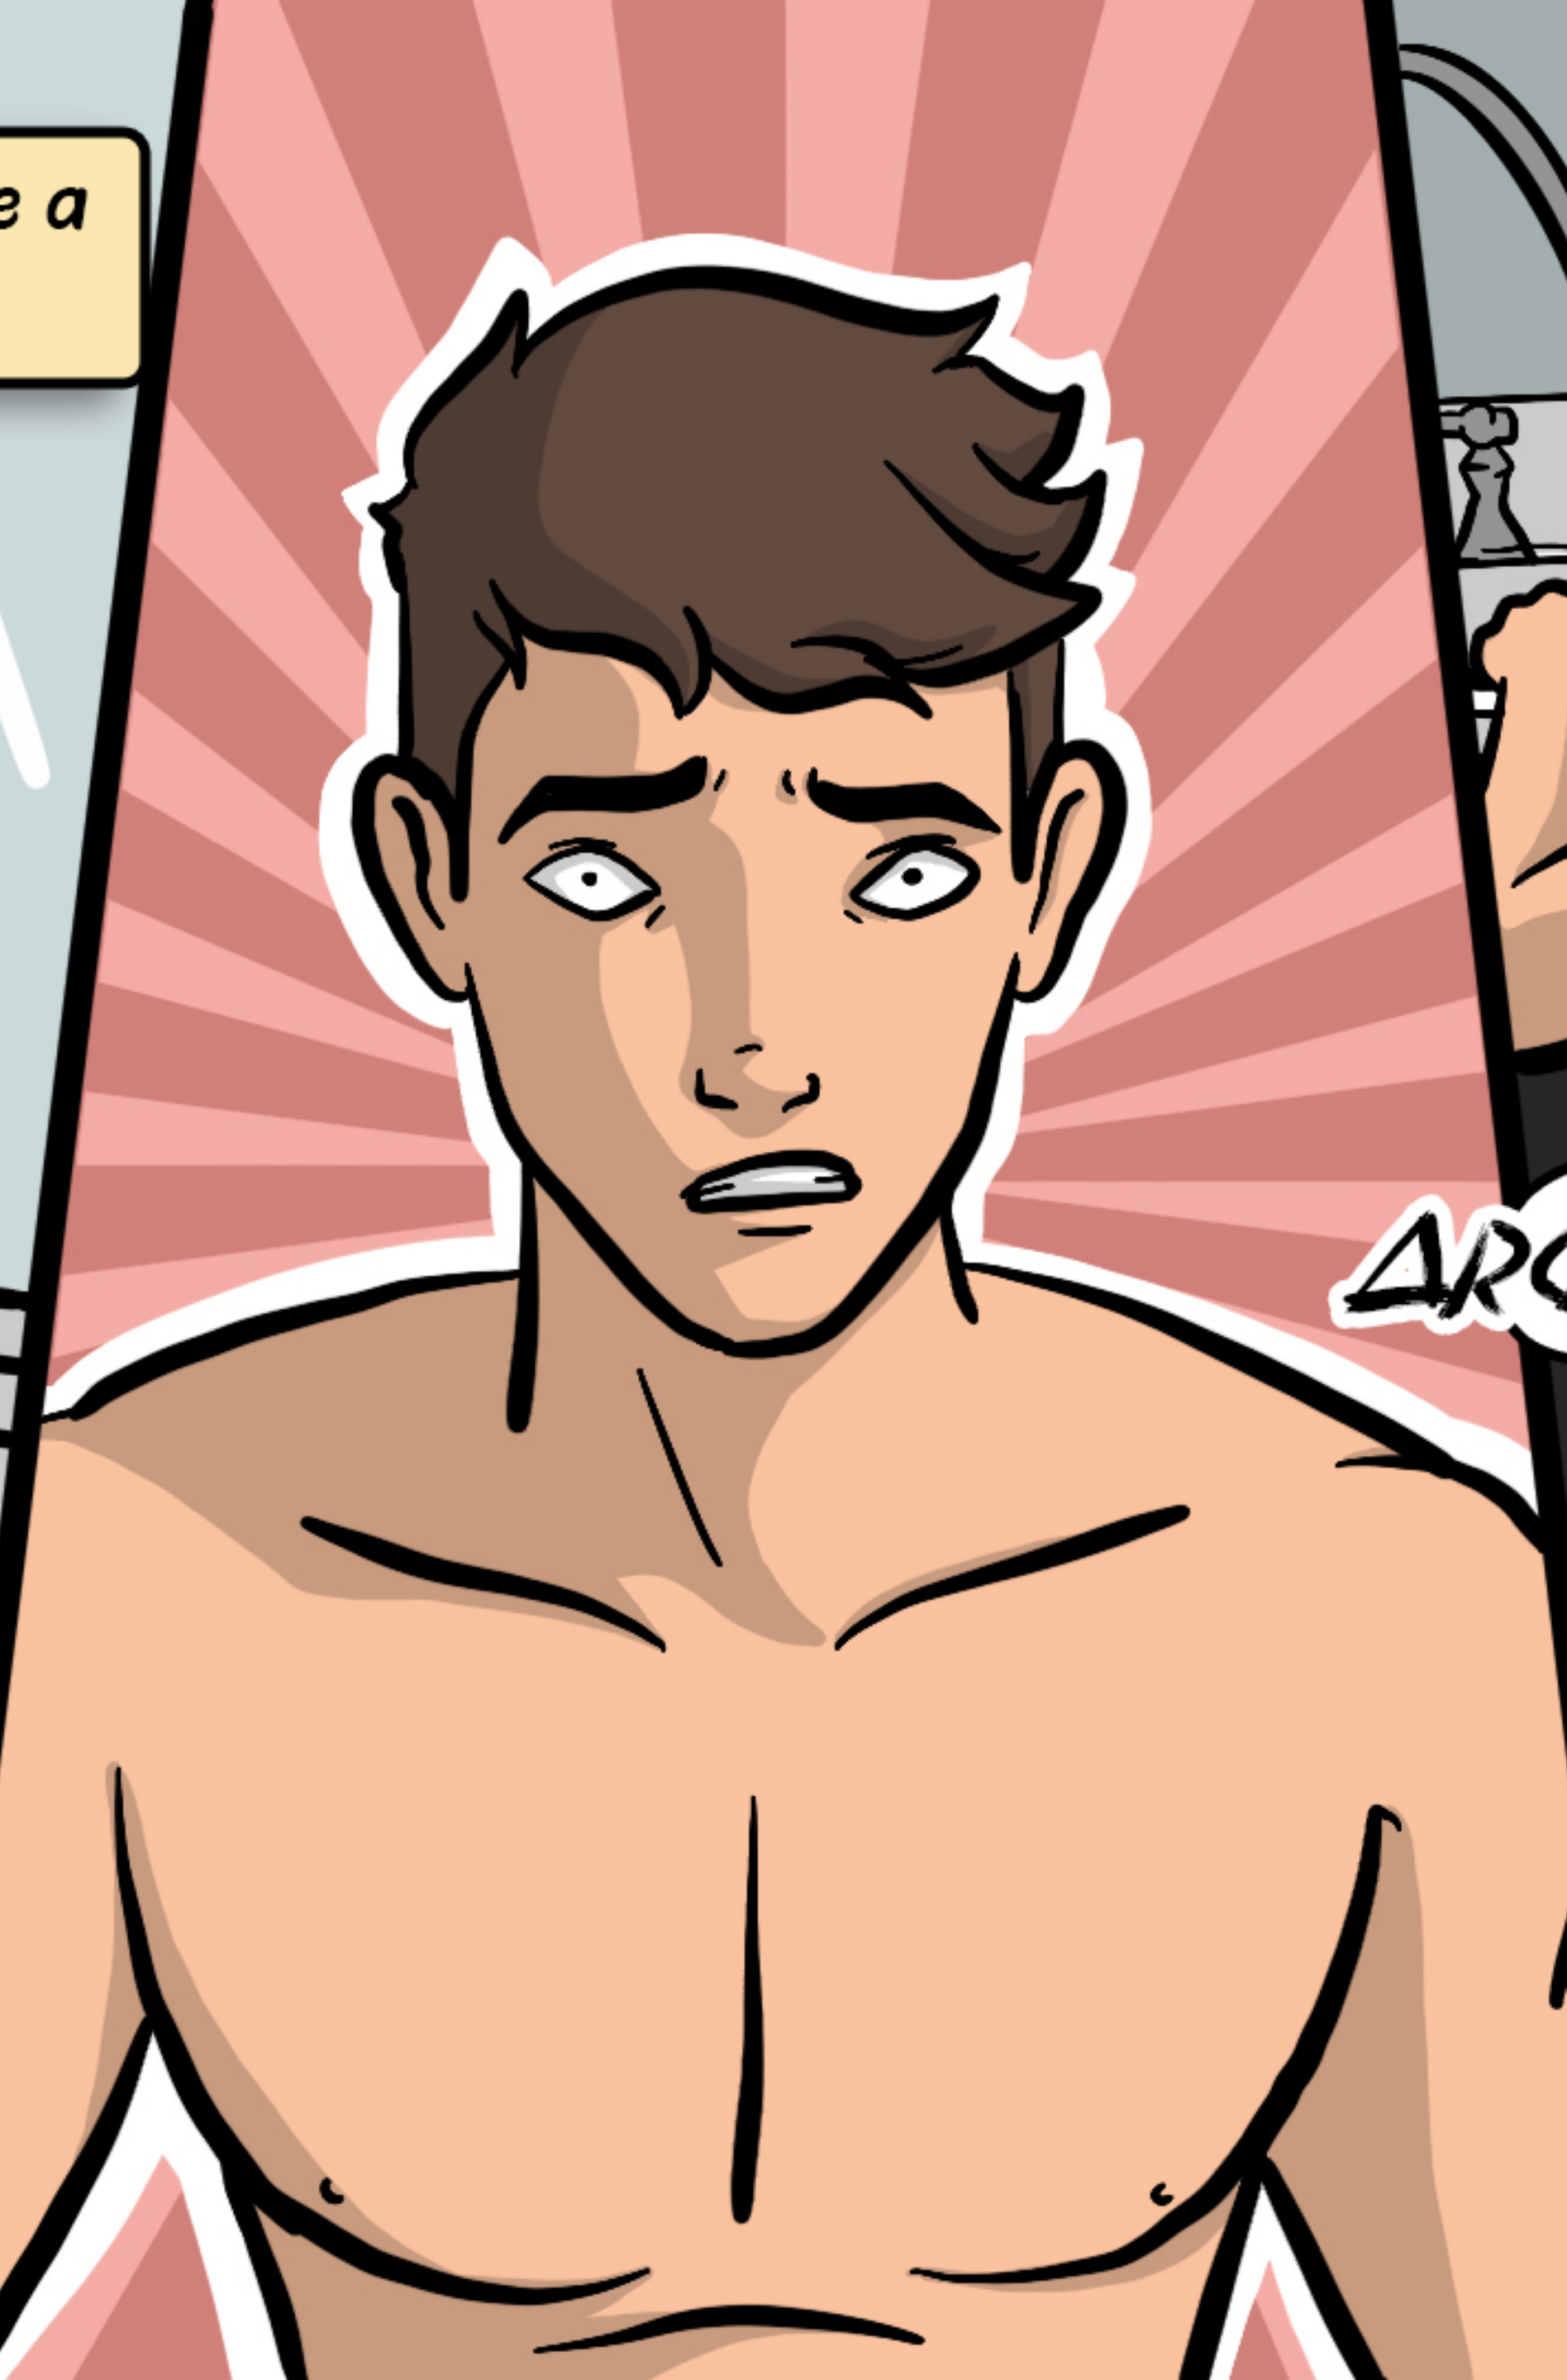

It's not the safest science in the world, I guess that's why it's illegal!

Some people get addicted and some people even get stuck...

But I have to know what it's like to be a woman!

But I had to know what it's like to be a woman, just for one night!

ARGHHH!!

LIGHH!

OH, FLICK!

I THINK IT'S OVER...

LIGH!

HOLY SHIT!

But this feels so right!

BABE, YOU'RE SO GOOD!

I never imagine it would feel this good!

FLICK!

I know why people get addicted!

LIGH!

I already know I'm going to be spending more nights as a woman...

THE END!
