Chapter Six- The Big Sister and the Mad Scientist (Rebecca Scarlet, Sally)

Within Asta's Bedroom at the Black Bulls Base...

Waking up in his bed, alone this time to deflect suspicion despite how loud he occasionally makes some of the women here scream, Asta pulled back the covers and greeted the day with a cocky smile on his face. He sat up in his bed in only a pair of boxers barely hiding his massive cock underneath. He was embellishing in the fact that he had conquered the hearts and the bodies of two gorgeous Nobles by the names of Mimosa Vermillion and Noelle Silva fairly recently. Between all the sex he was having, he was still steadily training the way he controls his Demonic Mana thanks to the Devil inside of him. Asta had yet to learn his name and certainly wanted to since he was essentially part of him, regardless of how frightening he can be at times.

'Hmmm, I wonder about him. Something about this Devil seems oddly familiar for some reason. At any rate, if I'm going to climb my way to the top and become a harem-owning Wizard King then I need to know more about him and---!'

Knock, knock, knock!

"Hm? Who's there?" Asta asked when being interrupted from his thoughts by the knocking on his door. He sat upright with legs swinging over the side, hearing Finral's voice from the other end.

"Heeyyyy, Asta! Good Morning, buddy. I hope I'm not bothering you by asking, but since most of the guys here in the Black Bull guys are kinda....well...freakish, I'd figured I'd ask you to be my third Wingman for a group blind date I'm trying to set-up. Interested? You might get to meet a pretty girl, I know all three of them are lookers after talking to one of their friends that wanted to arrange this." Finral's voice came out and after hearing the prospect of claiming another Clover Kingdom beauty to fuck, Asta's attention became instantly drawn to the idea of this blind date.

'Hmmm, new girls, huh? Finral wants me to be one of his wingmen for today? I wonder who else he's going to take because....' Asta thought to himself and dreaded imagining Gordon, Magne, or the others trying to charm women in general. Asta already knew that Gray wasn't really who everyone thought he was thanks to the Devil inside of him sensing the strange magic concealing that person's true appearance. Asta was very interested to know and see what that person looked like after hearing it was a girl. As for the others, Asta understood where he was coming from. Gauche was a weirdo siscon that's often rude and hostile to people, usually in a rather comedic way. Gordon creeps everyone out with his appearance and quiet demeanor, Luck is a maniac obsessed with fighting and bloodying people up. Lastly, Captain Yami.....probably couldn't care less about dating or helping Finral score.

That left Asta without an idea on who else could help Finral out, so he smiled and walked over to the door to open it, greeting the wannabe playboy with a cocky grin on his face.

"Heh, count me in then. What time is it and where will it be?~" Asta asked, hearing the Devil inside of his subconsciousness cackle mischievously when he thought about what either one of these three beauties will look like when he arrives. He already knew how Asta planned to take care of things but was still delighted in seeing his boy make other women into his cock-addicted slaves.

"Ha! Yes, I knew I could count on you, Asta. It'll be today at Six O'clock at this diner in the district of Nairn. These three lovely ladies are actually looking for guys like us who can support them, provide for them, and what-not while probably also willing to put out. They may be a bit stuffy and I think one of them has a kid or three, but they are the real deal. I'll come and get you when it is time so we can teleport together." Finral beamed and Asta gave him a thumbs up with a cheeky smile on his face.

"You got it! Let's go wow the skirts off of those girls, Finral. Don't hold it against me if I happen to get ahead of you or bag all three of them.~" Asta said while chuckling, making Finral smile in appreciation of his competitive smile to get pussy tonight. Neither were chauvinistic pigs that would treat women harshly, but Asta was a carnivore and his Dark Mana would nearly make the target he'd choose to spread her legs open for him. These days, his dark urges were steadily getting stronger after having conquered several women already.

"I won't, this is all just some good old-fashioned dating fun anymore, Asta. If you do manage to Wink wink with a girl, then my hat's off to you.~" Finral said, making Asta nod back till something occurred to him just now.

"Wait a minute, who else is coming? Didn't you say that there were three of us?" Asta asked and Finral nervously scratched the side of his cheeks when admitting to inviting Luck to come and join them for this mixer., knowing full-well the boy probably didn't have a romantic bone in his young body yet.

"Let's just hope Luck doesn't actually punch a girl in the face if she says she can beat him in arm-wrestling or something to that nature. Alright then, I gotta go give the girls the good word that this date is on. See ya in a little while, Asta.~" Finral said as he materialized a portal right in front of him, leading to someplace else in the Nairn district before stepping into it and disappearing.

Asta was left grinning proudly to himself, wondering just what his blind date will look like when he gets there. He could already tell this was going to be a fun time for him and his libido indeed.

'I wonder what she'll look like, here's hoping she's as pretty as Noelle, Mimosa, or Vanessa. Then again, I'm not that picky just as long as she's cute. That reminds me, I need to pay Mariella and Dominante a visit later this week, it's been a while since I've had them and I bet they're just begging for an afternoon full of lovemaking right now.' Asta said to himself as he walked back into his bedroom, ready to train for the day and meet up with Finral later on.

Eventually, the time came and the three of them arrived at the pre-arranged blind date just outside of the diner where Finral teleported them to. It was evening time and Asta found himself admiring his chosen date; she was a beautiful red-headed girl named Rebecca Scarlet and she introduced herself to him while wearing an elegant red dress. She had wavy red hair done in an elegant ladylike style with a small collection of freckles on her smooth-looking face and a motherly aura around her body. Asta could tell she had a curvaceous figure underneath too, he had wanted to rip that dress off and explore this lovely maiden's slender figure until she was screaming his name. The other two dates were rather normal in appearance with one wearing glasses and appraising Finral while the other, a bit more impish and short, was eyeing Luck with a bit of wariness seen on her face. Asta could feel his Demonic lust for her growing already as they sat down at the table with Luck and Finral attempting to engage in conversation with their respective partners.

Not a second into it, however, he noticed that Rebecca seemed rather distant from Asta and was only interested in checking the clock nearby as though she had somewhere to get to. He knew these mixers were basically impersonal, but he didn't think he left that bad of an impression on her already. Something distracted her and it made the little Devil Boy curious, but curious enough to use his Demonic Mana on her body already.

'There's a problem here, why does she keep looking at the Seven O'clock? Is she mad about something or has another date somewhere? I know we didn't make that bad of a first impression this early, not even with Luck bragging about beating a large Lizard monster to a bloody pulp just now.' Asta wondered while admiring Rebecca's beauty and feeling his Devil partner cackle silently into his right ear.

"You know what to do, boy. Just sprinkle a little bit of Devil Mana and make her panties into a wet napkin. The real charm you have is shown through your actions in the sack like it had been for girls like Mariella and women like Vanessa and Dominante. I bet she's just asking for a man to make her squeal like a pig, given how much sexual frustration I can sense coming off of her, ya know." The Devil cackled, making Asta frown comically a bit since he wanted to charm the girl the normal way for a change before using Devil Mana to make her insides scream for him.

There was a bit of a tense silence at the table with Rebecca still checking the clock, her friends Erica and Ellen sat silently judging Luck and Finral despite keeping seemingly polite smiles on their faces. It seemed kind of obvious they weren't pleased so far with what they got.

'Better make this work!' Asta thought to himself and cleared his throat, catching Rebecca's attention and making those navy blue eyes of hers look his way. "So uh...what's your favorite food?"

Rebecca sighed and reached back to take a hair clip accessory out of her hair, looking just about done with this entire evening.

"You don't have to try so hard anymore. I'm done with this whole dating thing tonight. It's just so stupid." She said, earning Asta's concern as she looked troubled when continuing with her explanation. "I came only because Erica said that I should find a good man to help me out with my siblings at home, but this....gestures to the fancy dress...just isn't me. And to top it off, I can't stop thinking about them right now and worry."

"Hm? You live with your siblings?~" Asta asked, clearly intrigued and thought back to how life was back in Hage Village with the other kids he treated as his younger siblings. Rebecca looked interested and simply answered his question, not looking ready to leave just yet after all.

"Yeah, three brothers, two sisters, all of them younger than me. You?"

"Yep! Heh, well they're not blood relatives, but still, they're my five kid siblings nonetheless. I may not live with them right now since I'm here working as a magic Knight, but there are times where I really do miss them. Back in Hage, they'd get mad sometimes when we played with each other, but it was still fun being with them all the same, ya know." Asta explained, casually exchanging a pleasant conversation with Rebecca while feeling his Devil cross his arms sourly from inside his mind.

"I still think a simple Charm and a fuck would've just been fine, ya know. Now I gotta listen to all this mushy stuff while waiting for it." He said and Rebecca smiled with enthusiasm now as she engaged Asta willingly before going next.

"Yeah, you're right! When they're around they get on your nerves, when they're gone, you start missing them dearly. When I'm with my friends I act like a fool sometimes, but when you're with your siblings, they see you as a Superhero.~" Rebecca said, seeing Asta chuckle with a smile focused back onto her face.

"Ahahah! Yeah, you're right.~" Asta chuckled and examined Rebecca with a sly grin on his face. "Now that you mention it you'd do kinda look like the big sister type.~"

"Oh yeah? Well, you don't look like you're the oldest sibling of the bunch.~" She replied coyly, making Asta scratch the side of his cheek with embarrassment until a drunken man started walking over to their table.

"Looky what we have here....Belch! You're having a grand time with this little beauty, aren't you, Sir knight? Hehe hehe!" He guffawed, laughing boisterously with a fair amount of obnoxiousness in his slurred voice.

Rebecca and Asta both looked at the bearded, burly lush of a man who looks like he could be the town drunkard with growing disdain. At first, Asta assumed he was complimenting him until he looked in Rebecca's direction with a less-than-pure look in his eyes.

"You must be feeling good about yourself if you have such a fine woman with you. I'm guessing this woman is trying her hardest for you to take a liking to her, huh?" He chuckled mockingly, making Asta narrow his eyes at the man as he continued. He noticed Brecba looking distressed and trying to scoot back from the man while pinching her nose due to his stink. She was being made very uncomfortable right now until he went on, deciding to be even worse. "Oh that's right, you're that girl at the restaurant who always has a kid on her back. Heck, you got several little rascals always scurrying around you whenever you work or are outside. Are those kids yours? I guess your man ran out on you and you're trying to get your hooks into a Knight to make things easier for you, huh?"

He laughed even more loudly, rousing the attention of many bar patrons and earning Asta's anger as some Devil Mana started pouring out of his body. The instant the man laid a hand on Rebecca's shoulder though, was when Asta got angry and decided to take action.

"L-let go of me!" Rebecca cried out as she felt his sausage-like fingers gripping her shoulder roughly as though he intended to take her away. It was only until his grip softened that she opened up her eyes and saw that Asta gripping the man's arm with muscles bulging of his form. He had a very annoyed look on his face and did not look pleased in the slightest. The Drunkard sensed his hostility and smirked, not knowing the kind of beast he just poked with a pointy stick.

"Oooh, I'm so scared. What are you doing Sir Kni----!"

Asta threw him overhead and slammed him into a vacant wall with ease, making him crash into an empty table which knocked him out almost instantly in front of the jaw-dropped faces of everyone in the diner.

"W-wow...! He's.....amazing....!" Rebecca thought to herself, blushing fiercely as she saw Asta stand over the drunken man with a fierce look on her face.

"Don't judge a book by its cover, you jerk! You don't know her circumstances, do you!? So how can you talk all that crap about her without knowing the first thing?!" Asta yelled out, making for a scene inside of the place that ended up earning everyone's attention. Rebecca saw this and decided maybe it was time to flee the scene with him hand-in-hand, having noticed that Erica and the other girl already left due to the chaos.

She reached over to grab his wrist and led him out of the diner hastily, ignoring the surprised looks on everyone's faces until they were gone.

"Come on! We need to get out of here before they foot us with the bill for property damages." Rebecca said as she led Asta out, seeing him smile anxiously back to her the entire time. He was just now realizing that the Black Bulls would get billed for property damage if they got too rowdy in public places like this, but he would still do it over again if it meant defending such a sweet girl from harm.

Rebecca looked back at him after they made their way out, batting her eyelashes and making the boy's heart flutter as she tugged open some of her dress's cleavage window.

"Besides, I want to go someplace private with you anyway." She said, making Asta smile back to her as he felt only some of the Devil Mana seeping into her body. He had obviously charmed her the natural way, now it was up to the Mana to make her want to open herself up to his body since the dinner had gone south.

"Heh, lead the way, Rebecca.~" Asta grinned as he guided her to her home a few blocks down from where they were just at. 'Devil, did you do that? Seemed awfully quick, no?'

'Nope, I didn't. You released some of the Devil Mana yourself when you got angry at that drunken jackass, all I did was fine-tune the control valve so it wouldn't affect anyone else nearby. You could still fuck the other two if you like later though. As for her, well...I think you literally soaked her panties the moment you played Knight for her. Good job, Asta. I think she'll make a wonderful mother to your hundred or so children someday.'

'Mnghh! Don't say it like that! At least not this soon!' Asta's mental voice refuted as he followed her to her house, loving the way she smelled and the way she looked at him with that holy smile.

Arriving at her humble homestead somewhere close to an Orphanage, Rebecca guided him inside of her house, shaking her plump and supple ass side-to-side a few times the entire way. He was instantly reminded of the Orphanage back in Hage village and looked around to see where the girl's siblings were at the moment till she noticed.

"My siblings are all at the Orphanage we just passed by, being looked after for the night after your friend arranged that blind date mixer.~" She answered for him while gently grabbing onto his hand and leading him upstairs to her own personal bedroom.

"Heh, nice place. It really does remind me of home back in Hage, I'm guessing the mixer was a dud for everyone else, huh?~" Asta asked as they arrived in front of her bed where Rebecca gently rubbed her hands around his wrist, guiding it to her chest and letting Asta cop a feel with her firm set of C-cups through her dress. He looked at her with a bemused smile and saw her blushing as red as her hair when she pulled him close.

Rebecca may have been maybe a head taller than Asta, but she saw nothing except manliness and nobility in a small, well-built package of a man. She fell in love with him right away, making her glad that she listened to Erica after all when it came to tonight. Asta sensed the mood and gently pulled her close to his body, putting an arm around her waist and feeling her beginning to grind all over his groin where a bulge was growing.

"Rebecca, you're very beautiful, you know. I bet you'll make a great mother someday, huh?~" He said, making her heart stammer even more as the Devil Mana excited her insides with intense desire.

"Uunnhh! Asta...! Please take me! I can't stand it anymore. I love my siblings more than anything in the world, but I have been s-so..pent-up for so long and I've never known the need of a man like you in my life until now! I....choose you to be the one to take me, Asta-Kun.~" Rebecca let out, breathing hotly as she bent down and placed her lips onto his for a full-blown lip-lock that excited both teenagers completely.

"Mmhhh!~" Rebecca moaned into his mouth, savoring the flavor of his lips as he held onto her backside with both hands, kissing her completely and taking the breath out of her lungs. Rebecca felt thrown back the intensity of the exchange and soon felt his tongue burrowing into her throat, making her insides melt even more as they started swapping saliva for a little while.

"Hmmm! Schlup..schlup...schlup....schlupp...schlup! Mhmm, Rebecca.~" Asta moaned when he pulled back, feeling the girl leave the embrace momentarily so she could lift the bottom end of her dress and reveal her panty-worn buttocks to him when she turned around.

Rebecca had a nice, firm, heart-shaped ass worth worshipping and it made Asta's cock lurch angrily from within his trousers. Wasting no more time, he untied the waistband knot and pulled them down around his ankles. Rebecca had to stifle herself from gasping too loudly when she saw how massive his penis appeared to be when it sprung out in all its full glory. It was as if it belonged to a large, Alpha-male animal with how huge it looked in terms of both thickness and length. Not only that, but he had the biggest set of balls she'd ever seen, making her wonder if he'll get her pregnant should he decide to pump her vaginal insides full of his seed.

"Huh...Huff...huff..huff...Asta. Y-you're...huge. Please...Pulls down her cotton white panties...take me however you like." Rebecca let out, slipping them down around the smooth rump of her ass until he could see both her tight-looking anus and her glistening virgin pussy in tow.

This made Asta run his tongue around his lips with excitement, feeling the Devil Mana surging through him as it did with Rebecca. It was making them feel as frisky as a pair of animals during mating season and they were already attracted to each other the same as the other girls had been to Asta like Noelle.

"You are beautiful, Rebecca, in both body and soul. One day, I will make you a mother to my children after marrying you." He revealed darkly, surprising the teenage girl and making her blush crimson as she felt her heart racing. Hearing his proclamation really excited her, but not more than seeing Asta started walking up to her with his massive dick ready to drill her ass.

"Asta...." Rebecca gushed tearfully with happiness, biting down on her bottom lip until he was within several inches of her face. She was feeling his hands gently cup the sides of his waist as he ground the hilt of his dick between each cheek of her buttocks. Rebecca felt a startling warmth coming from such a thick and massive dick, making her feel more squeamish with desire than she had ever felt in her entire life.

Her pussy was oozing more nectar from her folds, making it a clear sign she was way beyond aroused and would not mind getting knocked up by him right away. Such was her intimate instincts of desire in craving a strong Alpha male to serve as the father of her babies as well as a provider. Asta brought his face closer to Rebecca's and cupped her chin into his right hand before pulling her down onto his lips for yet another sweet and passionate kiss.

"Mhhmmhm." He moaned softly into her mouth, tasting Rebecca's breath again and feeling her kiss back just as fiercely when she attempted to slide her tongue down into his mouth. She brought one of her hands around his neck, embracing him while he tugged open her butt cheeks to reveal her velvet star anus ready for fucking.

"Hmmm hhm! Mhhmm.....! *Aaaahh! Asta!" She breathed out between kisses, tasting his saliva and becoming a slave to his touch. She was in love with Asta completely and wanted him to fuck her until she couldn't walk anymore. Today's date with them being highly compatible as well as seeing him defend her from that drunken slob was more than qualifying in Rebecca's eyes. Her instincts told her he was her Knight in Shining Armor and she was going to let him have his way with her however he liked.

Together they exchanged spit, hungrily making out with each other right there in the middle of her bedroom. Rebecca was feeling increasingly aroused every second Asta was exerting dominance over the taller girl, as much as she wanted to wrap her legs around him and let the boy stuff her full of his seed, it seemed he was intent on plowing her asshole first.

"Haaahh....Pop!...aaauhh! It's time, Rebecca. I'm...Spreads open her buttocks with fingers...going to make you into my woman forever just like the others." Asta let out darkly with Devil Mana oozing out of him, making the girl's insides sizzle even more with excitement. On an intuitive level, the Devil Mana fed her the 'Link' that he has with all his other girls, letting her know that he has multiple lovers that all love Asta dearly and willingly become his sex slaves.

She too was now involved in that nest and happily so since she wanted him to fuck her full of children after marrying him one day, but Rebecca didn't care about anything else like other lovers right now. Just as long as he marries her in the future and makes love to her whenever she likes, she'd be fine with sharing him. Asta was her knight and she fantasizes about growing pregnant with his children after leading a fun, full life with her siblings as they grow up.

He was grinning when he pulled back his pelvis, keeping her buttocks spread apart, and aligned the tip of his cock to the girl's anus. Rebecca clutched the surface of her bed for safety, anticipating pain and intensity to follow as he pushed into her with a shove of his pelvis. Asta thrust himself forward, burying the tip of his dick into Rebecca's tight anus until he pushed everything else in all the way!

Plop!

"Hngggghh!! Asta.....! Aaaaahhhh!!" She growled loudly through clenched teeth, desperately trying to keep herself from screaming too loudly. She didn't want any neighbors hearing her and come to investigate. Rebecca's chest started heaving faster and faster, causing her to let out hot breaths of air as she felt Asta's enormous dick tunnel through her asshole like it was a literal arm. "Uuuuhhhh! Oh God.....! Asta.....! It's t-too much...nnnngh!"

She closed her eyes and let her mouth hang open as she struggled to endure the sensation of pain. Thankfully, Asta's Devil Mana made the transition process of deflowering the girl's anus easier. It will do the same once he deflowers her sex as well.

'You heard her, Devil! Give her enough of a Mana injection so that she whimpers instead.~' Asta commanded his Inner Devil with a smile, hearing only a mischievous chuckle as he sent out waves of dark energy that permeated Rebecca's taller body.

The girl suddenly felt no pain at all in the stretching of her asshole surrounding Asta's dick, instead, she felt only soothing waves of pleasure that picked up with increasing output, making her moan loudly in response as she began bucking backward into his waist.

"Mmmhhhh....! Ohhhh Asta! P-please....fuck me harder. It's starting to feel much better now. Mhhmm." Rebeca crooned, grinding her plump ass along Asta's pelvis until he began rowing it forward more powerfully with heavy thrusts.

'Gnhhh! She is tight alright, I can't wait to do the other hole and leave that full too. Knowing Rebecca cares for all her siblings like a mother really makes me fantasize about knocking her up right away, you know. Of course, that'll be till after I marry Sister Lily and everyone else first.' Asta said to his partner and began pumping himself gingerly into Rebecca's ass, sending rippling waves of motion gliding along the surface of her buttocks that picked up in speed.

A gentle plethora of skin-tapping noises followed with the girl feeling nothing except absolute pleasure in the form of anal sex. She felt her insides lurch and stretch around Asta's cock like a glove, making her feel every inch of euphoria possible while she thrust herself back into his sturdy frame. Soon their bodies were colliding together in subsequent slams of his resulting in heavenly bliss. She was feeling every thickened inch cleave through her asshole, making her insides lurch wildly with excitement while her breasts shook about from inside of her chest.

Rebecca bent over the foot of the bed and quickly pulled down the top of her dress, making her tits spill out nakedly with Asta grabbing ahold of each of them like so. He bent over her backside and grabbed onto both of them, spooning her while feverishly fucking her ass like there was no tomorrow. Before long, their pace began picking up speed, leading to the repeated sensation of having her insides tunneled out and feeling her buttocks becoming tender due to slapping against his waist. Rebecca was in heaven right now as the sturdy little knight fucked her like an animal.

"Uuuuuhh! Uuh..uuhh..uuh..uuh..uh..uh..uuh..uuuuahh! Asta.....! Mmnhhh!~" She moaned loudly, biting down on her bottom lip while looking at him from the side with a loving smile on her face. Asta grinned darkly and leaned in, raising one of her legs to the sky as he took her asshole sideways with lips latching onto hers once more. Rebecca accepted it almost instantly and made out with him right away, exchanging his tongue's saliva for her own while repeatedly feeling her ass clap against his waist in a voracious manner.

"Mmhm...mhm...mhmm...mhmm....mhm..mhmm..mhmm..mhmmm!! Oohhhh Asta!~" She moaned from within his lips, tasting his tongue some more while he reached over to fondle one of her naked breasts now that her dress had slipped down. Rebecca's tall, half-naked body continued to writhe against the short yet highly masculine boy, feeling her insides churning pleurably around his massive cock for at least a few more minutes.

Their bodies were slapping together in repeated sexual embrace, Rebecca was feeling her anus spreading out thoroughly with pleasure flooding her mind. It was partially thanks to the Devil Mana nullifying the pain as it does for all virgins Asta deflowers, but she was still going to feel very sore in the morning and unable to walk around too much without needing to sit down. Her luscious, pale buttocks started slamming vigorously into his waist when her orgasm was about to hit Rebecca's body like a tidal wave.

She broke off from his lips, leaving a trail of saliva dripping down with a positively euphoric smile on her face. Asta kept on humping and bucking Rebecca's pump buttocks upwards, making her croon constantly until she got on top of the bed on her hands and knees in a doggy-style position. Asta climbed up onto the surface with it, keeping his ripped frame slamming into her asshole from above and with hands clasping around her waist. Rebecca wished she could take off the dress entirely now since it was getting the way, but she was too caught up in her orgasm that was ripping through her entire body.

"Uuuuh...uuh..uuh..uuh..uuuh..uuuhh..uuuhh...aaaghhhhhh!! I'm cumming! I'm cumming, Asta! Oooooaahhhh!!~" She cried out happily with a fierce blush across her cheeks and her tongue spilling out of her mouth as she came right there with her asshole clamping down around Asta's length!

"Ghngghh!! Rebecca....!~" He growled, enjoying the tight vice-like grip of her anus tugging on his cock while he kept on slamming into her buttocks. Rebecca's entire body shivered from head to toe in orgasmic relief, letting her pussy gush all over the bed surface below with her lips biting down on each other as she rode it out for a solid couple of minutes tops.

"Uughhhh....!! Oohhh..Asta...! Y-you..haven't cum yet?~" She asked when looking back over her shoulder at him, breathing raggedly with an excitable smile as he pulled out of her gaping asshole with his dock still retaining girth.

"Nope, I didn't, I want it all to go into the other hole. Now lie down and take off that dress. I want to see all of you naked, Rebecca.~" He commanded darkly, watching her nod right away before standing up and removing the outfit from her body like it was a piece of trash.

Asta sat in awe of Rebeca's womanly body standing before him completely in the nude. She looked like a beautiful, redhead angel that was just begging to have him pump her full of children shortly. Asta would be glad to oblige her and do that with certainty after he's finished his goal and married Sister Lily. Getting up and gently nudging her down onto the bed, Asta watched Rebecca's naked tits jiggle while she slowly spread her legs wide for him with a pair of fingers spreading open her juicy folds. She was a virgin, pure and simple, and wanted him to deflower her before leaving the girl stuffed full of his sperm. Asta could never resist doing that with either of his women, especially the ones with plump asses like Mimosa and Vanessa.

Grinning from ear to ear, grabbed hold of his cock and crawled on top of her, guiding his thickened length over into the cusp of her folds. Rebecca shuddered fearfully since he was so large he could break her insides in two, but thankfully the Devil Mana erased all her fears and worries by replacing them with feelings of anticipation and excitement. Asta pushed apart her thighs and kept her lower body raised slightly from the surface when his cock-head made contact. A small 'splotch' of moisture came out, making Rebecca shiver with glee till she felt Asta grab onto her hips and shove his cock into her virgin pussy like so.

Squelch!

"Gnngghhh!! Aaagghhhhhhh.....!! Ohh...Asta....! Asta.....mhm mhm!~" Rebecca cried out, feeling the pain of having her virginity given away to the man she loved and experiencing the sensation of his arm-length cock burrowing through her pussy slowly. Her folds quivered and her legs jostled about in the air helplessly after he held them over his shoulders. He pushed into Rebecca's tight youthful pussy to the hilt, sheathing everything inside and making her moan loudly with eyes closed tight.

Her chest began heaving rapidly, causing her breasts to wriggle up and down before his eyes. Rebecca looked positively beautiful being taken this way as if they were a husband and wife on their honeymoon, ready to consummate their union at long last. Asta started bottoming out of Rebecca's pussy with his member pounding into the very wall of her womb! The slick squelchy noise of penetration being repeatedly made soon filled up the air as he started fucking her with hard thrusts of his hips colliding with her buttocks.

"Mmngghh!! You're so tight, Rebecca! Then again, they always are....! I love you and I'm going to ravish you like this every chance we get to be alone together." He let out, hearing her wail loudly in pleasure the collision of their groins became even faster.

"Yess! Asta! Yes! I love you too! Please....! Breed me! Take me however you like from now on! I'm all yours!~" She cried out, arching her back and making her breasts jiggle salaciously as he continued bottoming out of her like an animal. His balls slapped into her buttocks voraciously to the point they could be considered spanking her ass since they were so big. Rebecca was losing her mind to this kind of sensational bliss and feeling her insides coil tightly around Asta the longer this went on.

"Aahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...aaaahhhh!! Asta....! Mmnnhhh!~" She cried out and wrapped her legs across his back, embracing him fully with her pussy, feeling his dock plunge into the girl's womb itself after her ankles locked across. Their hips were now locked together with Asta repeatedly throwing his entire weight into her cunt, making Rebecca whimper helplessly in drunken pleasure till he laid on top of her.

Her arms came around his neck next, embracing him fully with her lips desperate to suck the oxygen out of his lungs. Asta kissed Rebecca back and continued rutting voraciously into her naked body from above with power slams of his hips going nonstop. He grunted and hummed inside of Rebecca's throat, feeling her moan constantly as he felt her insides beginning to lurch tightly around his dick with another impending orgasm. He was going to cum soon too and fill her insides full of tadpoles, fantasizing about getting her pregnant and feeling his Devil utilizing the usual Birth-Control magic at the same time.

'I can't have you make Mommies out of everybody...yet, Asta. Heh heh heh. Trust me, when I stop doing this, you're going to be going crazy breeding your entire harem of gorgeous magical women, but first things first, we gotta make you into a Wizard King and make everyone else eat their words for doubting you.~' The Devil said to himself, watching as Asta's frame started hamming into Rebecca's pussy more rapidly and knowing his shaft was about to engage with cum.

Their lips entangled with each other for a little while longer until Rebecca pulled hers off, she tossed back her head and clung onto his muscular backside with a delirious smile, moaning constantly as she felt her pussy beginning to cum!

"Aahh...ahh...ahh...ahhh...ahh...ahh...aahaaahhhhhh!! Asta...! I'm cumming! I'm cumming! Please...pour everything you have inside of me right now!" She cried out and kept her ankles clutching his backside when she felt his shaft burrow into her womb one last time before the eruption.

"Guughhh!! You got it! Here it comes, Rebecca! Uuggghhhhh!~" Asta roared and threw his hips into her waist one last time before he explodes! His shaft engorged and his balls throbbed as he sent forth thick ropes of sperm spewing into her the teenager's womb like a natural disaster!

Splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt!

Asta growled and enjoyed the sensation of Rebecca's tight pussy wringing his cock for every last drop of sperm he had while keeping her legs locked behind him. He had the sneaking suspicion that, despite being drunk on love and lust for Asta, she was legitimately trying to get herself pregnant and marry him right off the bat. A perfect family, one that brought a smile to Asta's face as he injected Rebecca's womb full of a gallon-sized load of sperm.

"Ohhhhhhhhh! Unhhhh.....!! Mmhmm...Asta...I love you.~" She breathed out after finally riding out her orgasm to completion, leaving her with a slightly bloated stomach caused by her womb being filled with his cum. Rebecca's legs stayed locked behind his waist but soon went slack when she collapsed into a blissful state of post-coital sleep with Asta staying on top of her the entire time.

Her arms came around his neck, embracing him warmly with a blushing smile never leaving her face.

'Aahhh, it's good to be King, now f maybe I can find those other two dates she was with, then I can have the collection of frisky teenage girls looking for a strong Knight to shack up with. I kinda doubt Luck and Finral really made any progress with them, but if they did, then I'll just wait for the next girl I like to come along and plow into a frenzy. Just like Miss Scarlet here.~" Asta thought darkly and brought himself up, placing his lips on hers and feeling Rebecca kiss him back before falling asleep in her bed.

A Day later...

After waking up in Rebecca's bed and feeling her warm naked body against his own, Asta held onto the loving big sister with the promise that he'll pay her visits every so often to make sure she's satisfied as well as help her with her siblings. The mark of Devil Mana was on her now like with everyone else, and Asta would be sure to fuck her raw as it gave her the fantasy of being impregnated by him right before returning to fuck her ass into a gaping hole again. The next day came with Asta paying her and her siblings a visit and playing with them when Gauche's sister Marie joined in after coming from the Orphanage to hang out with her friends. He was the friendly 'Big' brother of the group that swung them around on his muscular arms, making Rebecca sigh happily since Asta was taking the load off her shoulders since she often takes care of them.

Of course, being that it was Marie's birthday and Gauche came by with two basketfuls of toys, he didn't like that Asta robbed him of his little sister's attention and attempted to brawl till Sister Theresa Rapual put a stop to it and calmed Gauche down with Marie's help. Needless to say, the man had an issue with anyone even approaching his sister, and Asta felt he needed to be humbled later lest he wanted to make an enemy out of him. Scaring Rebecca's siblings when he picked a fight earlier pushed his buttons enough to wanna throttle him into the sun, but later, after spending the night at Rebecca's house out of hospitality and kindness, something happened.

It had been snowing for some reason despite being the wrong season for it. That was when Rebecca came for Asta in a panic, telling him and gauche that Marie and her siblings were missing. They had been kidnapped by some creepy Mage with snow powers that'd leave them in a docile and hypnotized state so his disturbing brother could drain them of their Mana inside of a cave somewhere in the district. Of course, Asta and Gauche put aside their issues for now and came rushing to their help with Sister Theresa, finding Rebecca's second youngest brother left out in the snow. Finding him and curing his hypnosis, Marco told them the full story and pointed in the direction of the cave where many other kids were being held captive for Mana Draining.

After an intense brawl with Gauche beating up on the younger Snow-Magic brother, leaving the bulky 'Mud' brother for Asta, Sister Theresa healed all the children and was about to guide them back to safety when 'She' appeared. It was a girl with a petite yet womanly figure that attacked the castle once already with the rest of her 'Third Eye' organization. She had mousy dark hair, violet sparkling eyes often seen behind a pair of glasses, and wore a skimpy thong with a loose-fitting blouse from underneath a cloak. She had this manic look in her eyes at all times and arrived, claiming the boys were late with their delivery of Mana.

Asta knew he had to not only beat down this girl and save the day but also make her into another one of his sows for fucking. She just had a very rocking pair of hips with a nice ass he couldn't resist going after.

Sally was her name and that was all that was known about her, apart from being an obvious mad scientist type that uses Slime Magic in the form of large Salamanders and tentacles. She was mounted above one of her larger Salamander drones, refracting all of Gauche's reflected light attacks and eying Asta with insane intrigue that honestly left the boy heavily aroused.

"Hee hee hee, here I come, Asta! I'm going to dissect you and explore every nook and cranny of your body!~" She let out, keeping that manic smile on her face as she made her Salamander behemoth leap out of the way of Gauche's next attack. Sally launched a series of goopy tendrils at Asta's arms before he could deflect them, ensuring the boy was in her grasp and pulling him up towards her to where he appeared underneath the girl from atop her Slime Salamander mount.

He smirked confidently and knew just how to best take care of this girl, so he looked back at Sister Theresa real quick to let her know not to worry about him.

"I'll be fine, Sister! I'll take care of this crazy girl solo! Trust me! Just get the kids to safety and have Gauche keep watch over those guys!" Asta let out, making the elderly Nun nod back to him with a bit of uncertainty till Asta saw Sally close in on him from above.

That cheery, manic smile stayed on her face at all times with thick droplets of slime dripping down from all over her body in a highly erotic way. Her loose-fitting top nearly slipped off from her shoulders, showing him her ample set of C-cup-titties that made Asta want to fuck her into submission right here and now.

"Ooh ho hoo hoo hoo. You're special, I can just tell. Here, let me get a taste of you, Asta-Kun!~" Sally said, keeping him ensnared within her Slime monster as she commanded it to leap into another part of the cave away from all the action.

"T-that brat. What is he doing?" Gauche cursed as he watched her take off with Asta, keeping an eye on the two brothers and watching Sister Theresa keep the children safe.

Once Sally brought Asta and her Salamander into a clearing, she kept him glued to her beast as she started examining the boy in a very personal and arousing manner. Her large white Third-Eye cloak slipped off her shoulders, leaving her only wearing those thin dark skivvies that left nothing to the imagination. She crawled up to Asta with her tongue licking across her lips and started biting his neck, feeling him up from all over with her dainty little hands.

"Mngghh! You're crazy!" Asta growled, pitching an erection from having Sally's petite body right on top of him with her top nearly spilling off. He grunted with arousal and heard his Devil partner cackling again, ready to assist a moment's notice.

"I'm assuming you're ready to "Charm" her naturally this time, correct? I bet you two will have a wild night on her lab table with her literally cutting you to pieces to see how you tick. Girls this crazy always need a dicking to set them straight, especially this one. How do you wanna handle it, Asta? I doubt you can charm her as you did with the Redhead.~" The Devil said, snickering darkly as the boy watched Sally let go of his neck, keeping herself hovering above with that depraved look on her face.

Oh boy did he want to fuck her raw and break the bitch out of her mad scientist mindset, but he needed to stave off being cut open first.

'Yes, do it. I can break free from her magic easily, but I want to keep this Salamander going so it can make a nice makeshift bed. Also, I think I need to hurry back to Guache and Sister Theresa in case they start worrying about me.' Asta said in his mind, allowing his body to exude a miasma of thick Devil Mana that permeated Sally's half-naked little body right away.

The girl's body pulled back, leaving her straddling Asta's hips when a drunken expression appeared on her already insane-looking face. She started salivating with a bit of drool coming out of the corner of her lips, leaving her to cup her own cheeks and blush like a maiden when watching Asta sit up from his place atop the back of her Salamander monster.

"Oooohhhh! I'm feeling all tingly and...sensitive! Is this part of your magic? Can you tell me how it works? Can ya? Can ya? Can ya?!" She asked excitedly, feeling her heart racing a mile a minute till she saw him unfasten his parents and pull out his massive dick.

With a shove, it sprung out like a hardened piece of wood, looking as thick as a human forearm. Sally stopped huffing excitedly through her nostrils like a maniac on a fever pitch, instead, she stared at Asta's length with a look of carnal hunger reflecting in her eyes. Asta grinned as he closed the distance between them and pulled down the top of her flimsy blouse, letting her bouncy C-cup tits spill out nakedly!

"Eee!! Naughty, naughty boy you are, Asta-Kun! Hehehehehe...I'm guessing you desire me and want to dissect my body the fun way?~" She guessed, winking at him with batting eyelashes. Seeing that was making his cock surge with arousal as he pulled off her cloak from her naked shoulders.

Sally couldn't stop giggling madly with excitement as she was being stripped on a whim. She saw hungry-looking eyes on Asta's face when brought it close to hers.

"You bet I do, you're going to be my lab experiment, you nutty scientist.~" He said darkly with the malevolent aura coming out of him, furthering Sally's intrigue till Asta grabbed onto her breasts and fondled them with each of his hands! The mousy girl made a new kind of expression, one with eyes going wide and mouth hanging open in an 'O' shape when feeling his fingers squeezing her sensitive tits at once.

"Mmmnnhhhh!!! Aaaaahhh.....! Naughty, naughty boy!~" She cried out and rolled back, taking Asta with her as he started squeezing each of her slime-covered nipples until he brought his tongue over to one of her mounds. He was tasting the girl's partially naked, slime-covered body from the top and going all the way to the bottom. There he pulled off her dark flimsy thong like it was a napkin.

Riiiiipp!!

Her garment came loose and became torn as he yanked off of her hips, showing him the full sight of her naked pussy with a pair of listening folds ready for him to devour. Sally was breathing heavily with excitement now that she was experiencing something sexual for the first time in her life. She kept her butt lifted with her legs hanging in the air and spread wide apart as Asta brought his face down onto her slit. His lips pressed against her sex immediately and no sooner than it did, he started eating out Sally's pussy. Asta was lapping up her pussy so well it was making her legs jostle about in the air in response.

Schlupp...schlup...schlupp..schlup..schlupp..schlup...schlupp..schlupp!

"Mmhmhmm.....!" Asta moaned between Sally's luscious legs, keeping her folds snugly between his lips as he wriggled his tongue directly into her sex. He could tell the girl was writhing about atop her summoned creature, feeling her insides light up with euphoria.

Sally's eyes became spirals of insanity and happiness, eventually reflecting little hearts in them as he continued to eat her out with hands gripping the back of her thighs. Her petite frame shuddered constantly with her tits bouncing nonstop while she held onto Asta's head.

"Uuugghhhhh!! Aaaaahhhh! Holy cow....! Uunghh! T-this is much more exciting than a day alone in my lab! Hahahahaha...!~" Sally cried out, shivering in delight as she felt his tongue wriggling deeper into her pussy. She was no longer having a manic grin on her face, instead, she was clenching her teeth and grabbing Asta's head as he continued eating her out for a few more minutes.

Eloquent slurping noises followed with him tonguing out every inch of the girl's insides until she came! When she did, her legs straightened out into the air and wriggled constantly while she ground her mound into Asta's face, enjoying the sensation completely as she spritzed his face with her nectar.

"Oooohhhh.....!! S-Sally wants that big honking dick of yours in her ass right now! Please! You can pop a little love baby into me later, just...!" She quickly flipped herself onto her front and raised her ass high with her hands reaching back to spread open her cheeks for him. He had pulled his head out from between her legs and admired the girl's heart-shaped ass staring at him in the face.

She was about as thick-bottomed as Mimosa and with hips that did not lie. Sally had womanly curves despite her short and dainty appearance, making him growl like a lion as he got on top of her with the head of his cock rubbing itself between the cheeks of her ass. He was ready to sodomize the crazy villainess and turn her into another mewling Quim to fuck at his leisure.

"Heh, I was going to do that anyway, you know, but I will save for the actual baby-making for later on. Right now, I want your ass.~" Asta declared darkly, making Sally shiver with excitement as she got even more excited to be abused by this mini-hulk anomaly that had captured her heart. She was still alien to the concept of love and affection for the most part, especially since she had been a sociopath for as long as he can remember, but Sally wanted Asta right now and would gladly be his tich.

Guiding his cock over to the velvet hole of her cute-looking anus, Asta pushed the head inside while keeping his hands held tightly around her hips.

*Plop!

"Nngghhhhh!! Aaaaahhhh.....!~ Yess, yes, yes, yes, yes,yessss! Oohhhh! My booty!~" Saly cried out, feeling her anus stretch out to lengths unheard of as she felt Asta's cock bury itself slowly into her ass. The mad scientist of Slime magic started mewling with desire already and was wearing a goofy smile on her face the moment he rested his balls against her pussy.

Her little body quivered and undulated a fair bit with her fingers digging into the surface of the slime creature they were riding on. Her buttocks quivered and pressed against his waist snugly with her cheeks squishing into his abs. Asta held her closely and let her take a moment to adjust, feeling her writhe and breathe heavily before he got started on fucking the girl's ass raw. His pelvis drew itself back and gently slammed into her waist once again from behind. One slap of slimy skin touching another followed with the sounds of lovemaking music. Asta was fucking Sally's butt slowly and making the girl dig her face into the surface of her gelatinous monster, moaning loudly into its surface as they did.

'Mmngghhh!! Nghghhh!! Oohhhh, God! It feels good! It feels soo good! Unghh!!' She giggled deliriously as she began swaying backward and forward with Asta bucking into her ass. Her slimy-covered booty cheeks were rutting against his waist consistently, making loud slaps of skin fill the air along with Sally's wailing moans.

"Aaahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...ahh...aaaahhh...aaahh! Oohh..yeah! Fuck me, Asta! Fuck me good! I'll be a good girl from now on! Just let me enjoy your body every day I'm in town! Uughhh!" She cried out deliriously again, making her tongue spill out of her mouth as she tossed back her head.

Asta grunted bristly himself, feeling the tight and damp sensation of her asshole clutching him tightly as he continued bottoming out of her for several more minutes. He had expected either Gauche or Sister Theresa to come looking for him, so he had no time to waste with fucking this girl and would enjoy her pussy next time. Still, he was glad to have already broken her in, which either meant the Devil used a stronger dosage of Devil Mana or she was already crazy, to begin with. Both seemed likely.

"Mmngghh! Ohhh..yeah! Your ass just feels amazing, Sally! I'm going to enjoy plowing this from now on! As soon as the jig is up here, I'm taking you with me and making you my bitch. You can bet I'll wreck your pussy too just as soon as we have some privacy in my bedroom." Asta growled, enjoying the slippery feeling of her ass as he continued bucking into the girl frenziedly with a confident smile on his face. 'I can't even imagine how her pussy is going to feel. I wonder if she'll tell me everything about her organization once I'm finished breaking her in today. Who knows, but they maybe they'll have some kind of failsafe Magic to keep their lips sealed.'

"Seems likely, but either way, just hurry up and stuff this girl's anus full of cream already so we can move on. I can just sense that the old Nun and the Siscon are going to be looking for us soon now that everything is taken care of. You can bet Rebecca will treat you to a hero's reward later for having rescued her little siblings.' the Devil cackled, enjoying the sight of Sally's deranged face making an ahegao expression with her tongue hanging out.

The raucous noises of buttfucking continued onward with Asta eventually grabbing hold of her wrists to pull her back. Sally's chest stuck out and started quivering with her breasts salaciously jiggling around. She was being fucked silly and loving it.

"Uuuaghghh! Yess...yes...I'm cumming, Asta-Kun! I'm going to be cumming very soon! Pump that juicy Man-seed into my asshole already!" She cackled maniacally and felt her body shudder in orgasm, feeling her entire body tremble in orgasm while her ass clutched Asta to the point he came inside!

A few more high-powered thrusts were all it took to make him slam into Sally's ass and fill her full of his seed, partially regretting that he didn't get to stuff her pussy with it as well. Asta growled with relief as he felt thick blasts of sperm leaving his cock to pour into Sally's asshole. Her mind broke into complete submission!

Splurt..splurt...splurt...splurt...splurt..splurt..splurt..splurt!

"Uuaaaagggghhh!! Aastaaa...!" She cried out euphorically as her eyes drifted into the back of her skull before she collapsed fully on the Salamander's backside.

Asta held onto her wrists, keeping his ejaculation going till he felt the Slime Salamander beginning to dissipate since Sally was out of commission.

"Uh oh. Uuuuaagghh....!" He fell from the height it had carried them to, making him quickly grab onto Sally's naked body with her cloak in hand before jumping away to safety! Sperm oozed out of her gaping butthole, and a blissful look of post-coital aftermath was seen on her face. He could feel the Devil Mana's mark on her body and mind now, making her his bitch forever with the onset of wanting to breed the maniac later on.

Eventually arriving after safely capturing Sally and pulling her cloak over her naked body, Asta returned to a rather mellow and thankfully more Cooperative Gauche with Sister Theresa taking the children back to their homes and the orphanage now that the two men were defeated, ready to be arrested.

"Yo, all done here. Heh, it took some doing, but she's out cold now and won't be bothering any of these children ever again. That's for sure.~" Asta said while carrying an unconscious Sally over one of his shoulders and grinning proudly.

"He, splendid work, kiddo. Very splendid indeed, we'll have to take those three to the Magic Knights and have them figure out what to do with them. For now, though, I think these little kids have something to say to you. Theresa gestured to Rebecca's siblings Luka, Marco, and even Gauche's sister Marie as they all rushed over to place Asta in a very fierce hug with their little arms wrapping around his body.

"Thank you, for saving us, Asta!" They said in unison, making him blush tearfully as he hugged them back by using his free arm. Gauche didn't like seeing Marie getting friendly with Asta, but he somewhat mellowed out his murderous urge...at least now.

"Eh, she'll be too young to marry him anyway, but it better stay that way." Gauche said while the Devil within Asta simply chuckled, feeling happy that his Master had claimed yet another willing slut ready to ingest his seed at a moment's notice.

'Another one down, I wonder if we can aim higher next time. preferably with that haughty man-hating Captain of the Blue Rose squadron.' He said with a snicker, imagining Charlotte Roselie on her hands worshipping Asta's cock. 'She is a beauty and one most appropriate to service the up-and-coming Wizard King that this runt will be.~'
