Routes/Girls:

There are 7 total routes planned for the game, six of which will be available throughout development. The seventh will be a Harem Route that will only be available as a New Game+. Four of the routes will be single-girl routes where you pursue just one girl. Two of the routes will be ones where you pursue threesome relationships with two different pairs. Routes aren't technically mutually exclusive, but the farther you get into the game without committing to one, the harder it will get to balance them, until it becomes effectively impossible around Week 4. This gives you a little bit of leeway to get to know the girls, before being forced into route selection. Route selection is ultimately still needed primarily as a way to allow each individual girl's kinks to be fully explored.

In general, the girls have the following themes:

Arianna: Is a switch. Dominant in her Solo Route, submissive in her Threesome Route. Primarily into, Exhibitionism, and Hypno/Drone experiences. A slightly more limited interest in Bondage than the other girls.

Revina: Is a switch. Submissive in her Solo Route, dominant in her Threesome Route. Primarily into Device Bondage, with an emphasis on things like fucking machines, competitions, and so on.

Talia: Is a Dominant. Primarily into Bondage, Cosplay, and VR experiences.

Trix: Is a Submissive. Primarily into Chastity Play, with a side interest in Pet Play. Though, yes, like the other girls she's into bondage to a certain extent.

All Routes

All Routes share an initial intro and prologue section that lets you get to know the girls a bit, before the routes start.

Intro

Talking to Trix: While there are no actual points in the Intro, in order to get one of the extra points during the Prologue, you must Ask Trix About Herself. This later enables you to get a relationship point during the Prologue when you dig a bit deeper.

Prologue

Trix's Lab:

Talking to Trix: If you Asked Trix About Herself during the Intro, you'll have an extra chat option with her during the Prologue, where you can dig deeper into her name.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Lab Accident: During a lab accident, you will discover Trix's chastity belt. Here you are presented with two options. Stating that 'You look like a lot of fun...' grants the MC a Dominant Point. Stating 'Oh, that looks like it could be a lot of fun,' will earn a Submissive Point instead.

Points:

+1 Dominant Point if appropriate option is chosen.

+1 Submissive Point if appropriate option is chosen.

Revina's Lab:

Eros Research: When given the choice to poke around the lab while Revina is distracted, examining the computer will result in both some H-Images AND a Relationship Point with Revina. However, if you do so, you won't discover she's currently in possession of Trix's Chastity Belt Key. You'll have another chance later...but if you want to unlock the Trix/Revina Threesome Route, you need to discover the key now!

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Trix's Key Discovered: If, instead of examining the computer, you poke around in the boxes and drawers of the lab, you will discover a photo of Trix in her Chastity Belt...and a key. Warning! You need to know about the key in order to unlock the Trix/Revina Threesome option. However, you don't need to know about it yet for Trix's solo route. Another opportunity will present itself if you are pursuing Trix's solo route.

Arianna's Garage:

Mess with the Drone: At one point in Arianna's area, you are given the chance to turn on a drone or not. Activating the drone will get the MC a Submissive Point...and a Relationship Point with Arianna when she saves you from it. Skipping activating the drone will result in no points either way.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point if button is pressed.

+1 Submissive Point if button is pressed.

Catching Talia Napping:

To Blow or Not to Blow: After catching the boss napping, you have a chance to give her a blowjob. Doing so will get the MC a Submissive Point and a headstart on her Solo Route. Refusing will get you a Dominant Point and Enable the Talia/Arianna threesome route. Refusing will cause you to miss an H-Animation, however. So to see all content you'll need a save point.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point if you give her the blowjob.

+1 Submissive Point if you give her the blowjob.

+1 Dominant Point if you refuse her.

From this point on, the game starts splitting into Routes!

Arianna's Route

Week 1

Points:

+2 Relationship Points so long as you get the puzzle right.

+1 Relationship Point if you get the puzzle wrong. Also, a caveman somewhere in your ancestry will cry at what his line has come to. Possibly even in a Geico commercial.

Day 2: Learn a bit more about what Arianna does for the company, as you help Arianna magic up some defenses on a job site.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Day 3: Discover that Arianna has a thing for cool old flying cars. She flies you out to a scenic overlook...where you can make out with her! And a bit more...

Your elven nature has left you noticing something about Veronica that seems off.

Uncertain if you're reading the angry Councilwoman right, you seek out Arianna. She's older than you...and it turns out that she knows more about the situation. And how to bribe Veronica to help get the company some extra time to deal with this event's crisis.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

+1 Submissive Point

*New* Arianna Stuck: New as of Build 8, this is an additional scene where you go in the next day, after the first event scene, to help Arianna catch up on work. You find her in a compromising situation that you can take advantage of...IF you have at least 2 Dom Points. This is primarily there for those playing the Threesome Route with Arianna and Talia...but you can trigger it easily enough even on her solo route, if you've balanced your choices slightly.

Week 2

Day 1: Discover that Arianna has been working on a Sexbot project in her spare time. Learn why...and how it relates to her Spiritualist magic...

Points:

+1 Submissive Point

Weekend 2

Requires: 5+ Relationship Points with Arianna. 3+ Submissive Points

Day 2: You find Arianna working on the bot again...but this time she's almost finished and you find her using a hypno device to implant safety commands. Only this time, she intends on taking you out in public! Unlock: Depending on your Dom and Sub scores, the result of the nightclub gloryhole scene at the end of this day varies. If you have less than 6 Sub Points, you aren't willing to go fully along with everything Arianna wants, and she does the action instead of you. If you have 6+ points, you obey her commands to...escalate your services.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

+1 Submissive Point

*New* Day 4: After some more work in the Bot Warehouse...Arianna slips on the Hypno Device again. But this time seems different. Instead of doing something immediately kinky, she takes you out on a date...and to have a discussion about what comes next. Points:

+1 Relationship Point

+1 Submissive Point

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

+1 Dom Point

Day 3: Much to your annoyance, you find Revina once again obsessing over her data. You decide stronger measures are required and arrange a surprise round of 'Eros Testing...'

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Weekend 2:

Requires: 5+ Relationship Points with Revina.

Revina contacts you for an early morning meeting. You find her at a coffee shop, looking a bit...off. You learn her backstory. Route Split! If you're on Revina's solo route, you'll charge of her for the day, ending in some bondage fun back at your apartment.

Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Day 2: Your help for Revina arrives, in the form of your Aunt Rin. You sic her on Revina...and take over continuing the paperwork. Points:

+1 Relationship Point

Day 3: Reivna works hard...in order to earn a 'reward' from you. Apparently, your aunt told her about the bondage machines she had delivered to you. Well...far be it from you to disappoint Revina. You reward her for her hard work...

Day 4 or 5: Depending on your choices, by either day 4 or 5, another chance to check on Revina and Trix will occur. This time, however, when you arrive to check on them...they have a proposition for you. Revina has officially taken Trix's 'keyholder' position, getting more involved than just storing the key for her. They've noticed your own submissive interests and have decided to invite you to join Trix, with Revina holding the key to a chastity belt of your own...

*New* There is a free day in Week 3 that you don't need to dedicate to the strict requirements for the Threesome Route. If you want to see all content, there is a new scene as of Build 8 that you can access if you refused Trix's Chastity Key. It replaces her first Pet Play scene with a chance for you and Trix to spy on Revina while she's doing some Eros Testing in her lab...

Weekend 3

Requirements: Have already been placed in Chastity by Revina in Week 3.

Present Revina and Trix's Prolong Treatment! You do have to deal with the Department for the Regulation of Magics due to Revina's Status, but they don't make too much trouble, given the topic and the presence of a high-powered lawyer. Afterward, Revina takes you and Trix out to celebrate. A visit to the Lingerie shop results in some semi-public sex...

Week 4:

In week 4, the Threesome Routes begin to fully diverge from the single-girl routes. At this point, you're basically locked into the route. Literally in the case of this route, due to Revina's control of your Chastity Belt. You can now choose to start working with them right from the start of the week.

Day 1: A message from Trix directs you to a new section of the building, where a lab for an initial test run of the Prolong Treatment is being set up. Doctor Ka'tian and Administrator Linatra, from the Ka'tian Alchemical Group, are present to help set the lab up. In the process, you end up learning a bit more about how others in the medical field see Revina's work...

Day 2: The day has come to inject your first round of volunteers! You help more or less in checking people in, since you aren't medically certified yourself...but Revina makes the day a bit more entertaining for you by playing with the stimulation settings of your Chastity Belt. Afterward, she promises to let you cum...if you make her cum first!

Day 3: With the Prolong Project now largely out of your hands, you merely do some paperwork for it during the day. After work, however, Revina and Trix invites you out for some fun. You end up at the Velvet Pussy, with Revina remotely teasing the two of you...and the you go to her place. She's got a new set of toys made for competition! Either you or Trix is going to get some personal attention from her, based on the outcome. Variants: Who wins is determined by the following formula:  $\text{SubPoints} - \text{DomPoints} > 4$ . Essentially, if the difference between your Sub and Dom points is at least 5 points (favoring sub obviously), you'll win. If you're more of a switch than a Sub though, you'll lose...

Masturbation Scenes

At times, depending on your route, there may be days where you don't have any options available, even if you've done a route 100% properly. During the week, this usually just results in the *Skip a Day* option where you train your magic. However, at times (usually Weekends), you'll be offered a set of Masturbation Options instead. The following are all of those options, complete with their unlock requirements if they have one.

Fingering: This option is a repeat of the masturbation scene from the game's Intro and is available so long as you aren't in Chastity.

Luxury Vibe: This option is first appears as a 'Pamper Day' for Weekend 2. Once you've done it once, it will appear again in future masturbation lists. Enhances your masturbation a little with a variable basic vibrator, though a high quality one. Disabled if you are in Chastity.

Wheel Masturbation: This scene requires you to have progressed far enough along Revina's Route to have received the Bondage Device Machines from your Aunt. If they are present in your apartment, you can make use of one of them for this scene! So long as you aren't in Chastity, of course.

Chastity Masturbation: This scene is available only if you've been Locked in Chastity as part of the Revina/Trix Threesome Route. In that case, you can contact Revina and ask for permission to cum. She gives you permission...but sets a time limit and activates a modest stimulation from your belt that won't be enough to cum on your own. You add a vibrator for anal stimulation. Whether or not you successfully cum works on a similar formula to your competition with Trix. In this case, you will cum if your Sub Points are at least 4 points higher than your Dom Points. Otherwise, you'll fail to cum and end up even more frustrated than when you started...
