Outline:

- “Okay, so that’s how you do it!” “Heh, easy, ain’t it?”
- Arc nodded, a bit embarrassed. He had invited his friend JD over to help with a shrine or two in Tears of the Kingdom he couldn’t wrap his head around. It was good to get the stuff done, but he wished he could’ve solved it himself
- “May the Light of Blessing grant you the strength you seek.” The shrine’s final words close out and the game kicks them back to outside
- Arc’s eyes remain on Rauru’s statue a bit longer as it fades out. He’s such a cool character. So charming, sweet, and very handsome.
- His cheeks warm and he quickly shakes his head. Not now while company is over...
- “Something up?” JD asks, but before Arc could answer, there’s a knock at his door.
- He gets up and checks it out, seeing a package on the floor mat with a delivery man already walking away far ahead.
- Arc picks it up and lights up. He recognizes the words on it! It’s finally here. “Oh hell yeah?”
- “What?” JD calls out. “It’s here?” “What’s here?”
- Arc closes the door and hurries back to the living room, putting the package on the table before him. “You wouldn’t believe what I found! It’s so cool!”
- “What?” “It’s Rauru’s Secret Stone!”
- Arc tore open the box and amongst the packing peanuts, there it was. A perfectly crafted version of the Secret Stone from Tear of the Kingdom that Rauru wore. Same color and same engravings. It had a gold keychain attached to it, perfect for his keyring.
- JD looks in and nods. “Very nice! Where did you get it?”
- “I found it online. Some fan had made a complete set of the Secret Stones and was selling them! I just had to get one.”
- “Fans are impressive with how fast they can make stuff like this. The game has been out, like, what? A few weeks?”
- “Still plenty of time!” “True, but...” JD frowns. “Ugh, stomach acting up. I’ll be back.” With that, he exits the room and off in the distance, Arc hears the bathroom door close.
- Arc looks back into the box and reaches in, taking out the stone for a closer look. He notices how heavy it feels. Very dense, like it was carved from real stone.
- Pretty authentic. Thought this be 3D printed or something...”
- At that moment, the stone feels warm. Very warm. Something wrong with it?
- Then it begins to glow and he jumps back, the stone floating in mid air. it rotates and floats, lowering down to crotch level.

- What the f-. Then with a surge, the keychain ring expands greatly and the whole thing flies right at his crotch
- Arc's eyes felt like they were gonna bug out of his skull as the ring flew right at his crotch.
- The crotch of his pants and underwear evaporated almost instantly, leaving him with his balls and dick out.
- The ring went right around his dick, which went erect instantly the moment it hit the base of it
- He shivered and let out a low moan and hunching forward.
- The shining began to die down and now... he was left with an erect dick and a fancy, gold cock ring with a "prop" hanging from it
- Arc panted, looking down at himself. How... how did this all just happened?! His mind was a blur, hard to comprehend all the insanity of it. Floating stone, prop that seems more than a prop made by a fan, clothing evaporation, cock ring, the whole works.
- He tried to slow his thoughts and focus on one thing, but everything was getting fuzzier and blurrier. It was too jumbled
- Should... should take it off. The first thought he had that was clear.
- He tried reaching for it but stopped. His rod was throbbing and... wait, was it gray?
- Sure enough, his rod was turning gray. Dark gray, spreading from the base and going up the shaft. His heart began to race
- At the very head of it, his penis tip turned into aqua green neon tone
- The fuck? He thought, what's... what's wrong with my dick?!
- He reached for it, almost inspecting to find and feel it being something different. But a single touch and his pupils dilated.
- He let out a low, horny moan of delight. His rod pulsed, pre dripping out.
- Why... why did that feel so good? No, wrong... it's... it's...
- Something is in the air. A new scent, a hot, warm, sweaty scent. It's starting to come off his rod after that brief squirt
- It's growing as well, especially as his balls turn gray. They swelled and ballooned into a pair of heavy, large oranges in size. A streak of white, thick fur ran between the center of them
- Arc is panting, his body really warming and heating up. That scent is flooding his nose and... and he likes it.
- He starts to sniff the air more purposefully. His nose turns a dullish, grayish, faded pink, nostrils flaring up. Tip broadens and nose pushes out a tiny bit in a goat like snout
- He unconsciously takes a deep sniff, licking his chops. His mind is clearing, less concern and confusion filling it and more lust. The smell is clearing all away as his cock throbs more
- He looks down at his rod. Wouldn't... wouldn't hurt to touch it again.
- He places his hands on it and moans again, his body shaking and quivering.

- His cock throbs and extends, pushing out several more inches and doubling in thickness. So big...
- More to touch... He is able to grip it with both hands, hunching forward as pleasure rolls over him. His eyes clenching shut
- He doesn't stop, griping and groping his rod as he trembles
- He opens his eyes after the lustful joy plateaus a bit, his light brown eyes now a brilliant shining light blue
- He looks at his rod and then his fingers. They're turning gray as well, those from a light, thin coat of gray fur.
- The fur is extending from around his fingertips and going down onto his hands. His fingernails are jutting out, turning the same aqua blue as his dick head. They grow long and curved, like small claws
- Whoooooa... A little shock in his mind, but its fading as lustful washes it away
- Hands are growing and swelling, bulking up as the gray fur runs onto his wrists and up his arms.
- Sleeves vanish followed by gray arms
- Arms bulk up immensely and impressively
- Arc talks a moment to flex, appreciating the gains.
- Strong whiff of musk and he leans in to his arm pit, thick, grayish white fur growing there.
- He shivers and realizes he's the cause of the musk... and he loves it
- He breaths it in happily, his light, scruffy black beard turning grayish. Thins on the sides around the mouth to like regular fur, but the stuff on his chin remains thick and a bit longer.
- He leans into his other arm and smells himself, cock throbbing. Eye markings appear as face gains more gray fur
- Shirt starts vanishing, revealing his moobs and pudgier stomach. Body hair turns gray fur
- He looks down at his chest as it bulges out into square, dense pecs. Nipples turn aqua green blue like claws
- Arc loves how ripped he's becoming, all concern long gone. Leans his face into his chest, getting a good musky scent from it. Face pulls into muzzle
- He moans and starts pumping his rod. He's loving every second of it now, breathing himself in and quivering
- Torso bulks and abs develop
- Tight, firm rear
- Hair is growing out, turning grayish white with yellow highlights and tones in it.
- Rod and balls getting bigger as the stone starts to glow, fading out the rest of his clothing
- He is feeling mighty and powerful, godly like a true king.
- In his mind, he starts piecing it together as his ears grow out
- He's becoming a true king, looking like a king... like Rauru

- Mane fully grows as legs bulk. Yes, I am a King! A powerful, strong, musky king! I am Rauru!
- Feet changes as his cock throbs and balls churn again, energy flowing off of him
- He finally cums and bellows loudly, energy surging all around him in a brilliant light show as everything comes together
- The new king is satisfied, leaning back into the couch.
- He smells himself again, loving his scent, wondering if Rauru in the game smells this good
- But he doesn't need the game version now anymore, does he? He has surpassed them. He is a true, godly, magnificent king
- He flexes as his cock goes erect again. Yes, I am Rauru, from now on!
- He licks his chops. As a king, I need someone proper and fitting to handle him.
- He thinks briefly of Sonia before shaking his head. No, she's fine for game Rauru, but a king like him needs something else. Something truly befitting of him.
- "Sorry man! Stomach was really upset, but I'm feeling better now!" Arc's ears twitched, lifting. Oh, right! Friend was over.
- JD walked into the room with a yawn and stretch, asking what they should play next before he's taken aback by the sight
- Arc chuckles. Of course he would be surprise. Who wouldn't be to see a magnificent specimen like him?
- Though, staring at him long, Arc Rauru started to think. A feeling flared up himself of him. He had a devious thought, something he knew he could do.
- Arc rose. What he needed was more than a boring old queen or a simple friend to play games with... he needed a subject.
- He forms a handsign like Rauru does in the game and a light green energy aura forms. He needed a subject to worship and love him
- Rauru uses his magic to sent an energy ball into JD's chest. Rauru chuckles. "My dearest friend, allow me to impart my Blessing into you."
- JD stumbles back as his shirt burns away, sweat pouring down his face
- Instantly, gray fur sprouts over him, moobs turning into dense pecs. Abs follow quickly as his remaining shirt tightens, his torso expanding
- JD stutters, face red, looking down at himself. What is going on?!
- I have granted you my Blessing as I said. Rauru cooley spoke, sizing his friend up. JD was gaining broader shoulders, excess body fat from arms and legs slimming
- "Perhaps you need more. Come to me."
- Rauru flicks his fingers, drawing them in. JD lifts up and struggles, but can't move.
- He's pulled right up to Rauru. He tries to push away, but Rauru laughs. "Calm yourself. Please, enjoy your new king to your fullest!"
- He holds JD tightly and pushes him into his pecs.

- JD struggles more, trying to push away despite the Zonai's iron grip on him. However, he slowly relents, breathing in his musk.
- After a moment, Rauru pulls his head up. The human's face is very fuzzy gray with a zonai nose. His glasses are crooked, so Arc takes them off and sets them away.
- Arc Rauru asks if he enjoyed that. JD shivers, but slowly, reluctantly admits he did. "Then, you'll like this as more."
- Rauru leans in and nuzzles and then kisses him. JD kisses back, body slowly growing until he's a foot shorter.
- Rauru pulls away. "You want more, don't you. You want more of your king."
- "Y-yes... yes, Arc." "No, yes Rauru." "Yes... Rauru."
- "Then breath me in!" Rauru pulls him in and puts him into his hairy, musky armpit.
- JD breathes it in and nuzzles. He looks in a loving daze much to Rauru's pleasure. "Yes, perfect. Enjoy your king and his fine, rich musk. Enjoy it, my handsome subject!"
- JD reaches up and holds tightly Rauru, no longer floating. His hands grope Rauru's pecs, changing into Zonai ones followed by his arms bulking up.
- Rauru moans, loving it. He's coming along fine... but he needs to be free of these pesky clothes.
- He uses his magic to evaporate the rest of his clothing, revealing his furry body that is pressing tighter to him.
- Their erect equipment rubs against each other, JD's swelling and changing to match Rauru's own... just a tad smaller.
- "You love that, don't you?" JD nodded. "You want more, right? You really want to breathe me in, don't you?" "Yeeeeesssss!"
- Rauru pushed him down towards his large equipment. "Then breathe me in. Breath in my kingly musk in its more pure and potent form. Love your king! Show me your greedy, loving desire to please me!"
- JD's legs and feet change as he gets on his knees, putting his face up to Rauru's sweaty equipment. He breaths him in and nuzzles it.
- Muzzle fully growing out as he begins to lick the shaft and grope Rauru's balls. "Yes! More, more!"
- Ears and hair changes as he now blows him.
- "Do it! Do it and receive my true, wonderous blessing! Be free! Be free of your human curse!"
- The two climax and moan in unison, eyes rolling back in total bliss
- It went on long, the two eventually finishing and cuddling on the floor in their musky, sticky climax.
- The two are close and snuggling up, Rauru breathing in his new Zonai and liking him. He feels fitting for his new subject to rule and dominate over
- The two kiss and chat a bit, talking about how this was the best purchase ever and how to expand Rauru's kingdom.

- JD Zonai suggests their boyfriends should get in on this. Easy to bring in and give them Rauru's special blessing.
- Rauru likes it, mentioning JD's roommate as well would be good to bring in too.
- The Zonai King feels great. He would soon have more loyal, musky, horny subjects to rule over and play with.
- Soon, they would receive his blessing and others would after. A new, bright kingdom would soon fill this world and he couldn't wait.
- THE END?
