<sup>1</sup> In the Court’s Order granting the Government’s motion for final default judgment, the Court described Defendants’ non-compliance with its Temporary Restraining Order (DE 4) and Preliminary Injunction Order (DE 26). It observed that “[a]fter the Court entered its temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction order—both containing provisions that prohibited Defendants from distributing and misbranding MMS—Defendants continued to distribute MMS by directing customers to alternate sources, and misbrand MMS by refusing to remove claims regarding its curative potential” on their various websites. It is the opinion of the Court that Mr. O'Neill possesses the requisite skills, experience, knowledge, character, credibility, and other attributes necessary to aid in the implementation and administration of the Court's Permanent Injunction Order.

Accordingly, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 53, it is ORDERED AND ADJUDGED THAT:
