

MINIATURE'S DEN PATREON GUIDES:

SOLRAK

Base

WHY THIS MODEL?

I'm a big fan of male barbarians and I think there isn't enough of them around. Solrak is one of the first minis I saw after getting into this hobby and I've been wanting to paint it for a while now.

PAINTS USED IN THIS GUIDE

AK: Sand Yellow

VMC: Orange Brown

BASE

After placing the model on the plinth, I used AK Light Earth texture to fill in the remaining area to completely cover the plinth.

I decided to keep the base simple, considering the small place available to work with.

I basecoated with a dark orange brown. (VMC Orange Brown + Black) and I progressively highlighted drybrushing with a light yellow (AK Sand Yellow). Lastly, I applied some desert tufts here and there on the base, and drybrushed them with the same highlight color used on the base.

THANK YOU!

I hope you enjoyed this guide on Solrak! If you haven't already, feel free to check out the video guides where I go much more in-depth in explaining my painting and the techniques used.

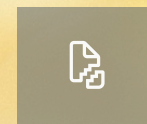

Thank you so much for supporting the Patreon and see you in the next guide!
