Chapter 4

Pregnant? How? What?

“Spit it out?” Rachel tutted, her hand resting on the upper swell of her stomach which was completely out in the open.

“P... P...”

“Huh?” She turned her head and cupped her hand over her ear.

“Pregnant...” I barely whispered.

“Hugely so...” She whispered back seductively.

She was aware of it...

“How?”

Rachel took another few steps down the stairs and her stomach was now pressing into my chest. She reached down, causing her stomach to slide down mine, and grabbed my throbbing cock.

“This, silly.” She yanked it to turn me around, facing the room of busty women. I was two steps from the floor and my raised height made me feel power, in control. They looked up at me and I could practically see them drooling. “Don’t you think that you should share?”

Was I dreaming?

The girls approached me, I was unable to resist, the alluring power of them all was too much for my already shattered willpower. I fucked them all that night, eight of the hottest girls on campus and I came in them all one by one, much like Rachel, they all underwent changes after. I was fucking the second girl, Roxy, when I noticed that Amber was starting to shift uncomfortably. She had ridden herself through an orgasm or two, her screams deafened the others in the room who were all now touching themselves in anticipation of riding my cock. Laying on her back on the floor, I could see her writhing on the floor. My body struggled to keep my head still as Roxy bounced her buff frame on mine. I noticed that each breath that Amber took, her midsection inflated, when she let the air out, it didn't deflate as much as it should. Her breathing increased and I watched as it looked as if she was being pumped up by someone using a hand pump.

She had stripped off when we were fucking so her clothes didn't obstruct my vision. Her hefty breasts plumped up, her nipples darkened, and her stomach was swollen. Amber looked as if she was going to pop any second, her belly button had popped out and she remained panting on the floor, her hands rubbing the new growth protruding from her middle.

What is going on...

Roxy wasn't appreciative of my lack of attention to her, she grabbed my chin with a firm grip and pulled my head back to look over her body.

"Eyes... Up here... Big boy..."

Her use of "big boy" caused me to look down and I had noticed that my cock had grown again, my balls now resting between my spread thighs, my throbbing cock looked monstrous to me. Roxy seemed to be enjoying it all the same.

I cast my eyes back over her body as I felt my orgasm building up and I traced my fingers over her abs, my fingers exploring each indentation of her muscle, I rose up to her tits. I had seen Roxy a few times in the house, she didn't live here but she would frequently stop by. She was never this busty, all of her working out had stripped her of her breasts, the formerly A cup muscle queen was now stacked.

Her E cup breasts more than filled my hands and they were rather unyielding to my squeezes. Her firm tits barely bounced, my hands squeezing them was enough to drive her to her orgasm, as it was mine. I erupted deep within her and took a pause from the next girl. I stared at Roxy, she was leaning back on a nearby sofa, her body half laying before her. My cock twitched and returned to being rock hard just as she started to grow again. I watched her stomach start to grow on her buff frame. Her whole body remained as toned as it did, it just looked as though she was inflating, much like Amber.

Her stomach was tight and round, it bulged from her torso unnaturally. She continued to grow, much bigger than I thought she would. It rested heavily on her frame but thanks to her muscles she easily was able to move it around. She brought her pregnant body over to mine and teased me a little with it.

“As much as I appreciate your gaze now, I think you’ve got someone else waiting for you... Stud...” Juxtaposed to her earlier action, she moved my head to her friend Tina.

Tina was not quite as toned, she was still thin though, whatever magic had affected everyone in the house had obviously made its way to her, she was blessed more than the other girls, her tits were huge. She was sporting the largest tits there and she knew exactly how to use them. She bounced over to me and dangled them in my face as she mounted my cock. Throughout most of this, my body was spent but my cock still hungered for more. I was laying on the floor, waiting for every girl to take their turns. Tina hopped on and made sure that her tits were filling my palms at all times.

It didn’t take long for Tina and me to cum. Just like the other girls, Tina too expanded. Her tits saw a huge change, becoming perkier from their bloating, I even saw a few drops of milk forming at her nipples. Her stomach pushed her engorged tits apart and she laid on her back, almost suffocating from the added weight of both her stomach and her tits.

It continued on, each girl had their turn with me and to finish off, Rachel had a second go. My girlfriend hopped on my impossibly hard cock which had grown after each explosion. The huge rod nearly tore her in half, she didn’t need to bounce on my cock for long before I was begging for release. The over sensitivity was catching up with me, plus the hugely bloated form of my girlfriend was driving me crazy.

I came and everything started to turn black.

I was able to get one last look at her big stomach bouncing up and down before I passed out.

Her moans ringing in my ear before nothingness.
