

Chapter 52 - Edens Zero.

I woke up the next day with a severe headache. I had not drunk alcohol, so it was strange. I know I can't drink since I'm not 21, but who cares?

"That was only valid for when I was in the United States." But even there, I drank when I had some money left over. But only a few times because buying food was more important than buying alcohol.

And it was always tricky to buy. Sometimes I would ask someone else to do it for me.

I think I will buy some drinks later now that I have money. Or should I not do that? Drink addiction is a serious thing. Not that I will get addicted if I drink once in a while.

I don't think I should think about it now; alcohol is not essential.

I went downstairs and smelled a pleasant smell. Rias was making breakfast. Saber was outside, looking at the beach in the distance, and Bulma was probably in her room.

"Good morning, Rias."

"Good morning. What do you intend to do today? Another portal didn't appear, did it?"

"No, but I think I'm going to Japan today."

"Japan?"

"Yes, I want to have some fun and also buy some things. You three need cell phones, don't you?"

"Cell phones? Why?"

"When I'm away, we can't talk, right? It's good that each of you has a cell phone so that we can communicate."

"Isn't it too expensive?"

"I have plenty of money saved up, so don't worry. Do you want to come with me? It's been a while since you've been there, right?"

"Can I?"

"Sure. I'll take you."

"All right, I'll get ready! Can you take care of breakfast? It's almost all ready, you just need to bring it to the table."

"Okay, I'll do that."

Rias ran upstairs, and I put breakfast away on the table. After that, I called Saber inside, and she sat down at the table with me. She was hungry and about to throw herself on the table to eat everything.

However, I asked her to wait for Rias and Bulma to arrive, and she waited patiently.

The food disappeared quickly when we were all at the table, mainly because of Saber. She devoured more than half of everything, but everyone was satisfied.

"Okay, Rias and I are leaving now, we'll probably be back by nightfall."

"I'll come with you, master!" Saber stood up with his mouth still dirty with strawberry jam.

"You don't have to go, don't worry about me."

"I need to go with you to protect you! I can't let you go alone with her." Saber was serious. Rias's brow furrowed.

"What do you mean by that? I can protect him if necessary, I'm pretty strong."

"..." Saber looked Rias up and down.

"You two, let's stop this. Saber, stay here and take care of Bulma, you need to take care of the island because something might happen."

"But..."

"That's enough."

"Okay, I'll stay here. But next time I'll come with you."

"It seems like you just want to have fun and not protect me."

"Urgh."

I sighed and went outside the house along with the three girls. Bulma was still sleepy. Since there is nothing for her to do here, she stays most of the day bored. Should I prepare something for her to do?

She is very intelligent and capable regarding technological things; I can use her abilities. Using her to be my accountant doesn't seem like a very smart thing to do.

Together with Rias, I flew quickly to Japan. I embraced her, and Rias hugged me tightly, practically drowning me in her boobs. I looked at her face as we were flying, and she smiled.

I didn't say anything; I just pretended nothing had happened, even though I was starting to get an erection. I controlled myself. I didn't want Rias to think of me as a pervert.

'Well, we've done some sexual things before but never advanced enough to have sex.' I'm sure that having sex with her would be fantastic, but I think it's better to let everything flow naturally and not force her into anything.

We arrived on the coast of Japan, and I landed on the beach. A few people were on the beach, but no one noticed our arrival. We walked along the sandy beach and then toward the town center.

It was a nice walk, we passed in front of some ramen restaurants, but we didn't stop to eat because we had just had breakfast. But the smell was so good that I almost got carried away.

"Let's go to some electronics store around here, do you know any?"

"No, but we can walk around and look for one."

"..."

We walked through the same place we had come to before until we came to a place that looked like a mall; it had many stores of different types. It even had a store for manga, novels, and also figures.

It was tempting to go there because I'll probably find manga of different kinds; I'll have many more options here.

I wonder if this will work because the manga and novels will be written in Japanese, and I don't think the system has any translation function... does it?

"Rias, can we go to that store first? I want to test something."

"A manga store? Sure, no problem."

We went there, and the attendant greeted us as soon as we entered. He was a middle-aged man who wore custom glasses. His shirt was also personalized, with a drawing of a blonde character holding a microphone.

I guess that's what they call an idol?

"This is interesting. Can you tell me if this is volume one? I can't read anything." It had the number '1' on the cover, but I asked Rias to ensure it.

"Yes, it is volume one. The name is 'Edens Zero' I've never heard of that before."

"I see. I'll buy that one."

"But you can't even read Japanese...or did you suddenly learn it?"

"I can't, but I'm still going to buy it." I handed the manga to Rias, and she went to the cashier to pay for it for me.

I had turned a large amount of dollars into yen.
