

“Tsk. You’re nothing but a con man turned cop.” The gray maned lion groaned, setting his guitar aside as he crossed his muscular arms in front of the fox near half his size.

“And you’re a nothing but washed up nobody that your late wife wouldn’t even date but I wasn’t gonna bring that one up.” Nick smirked proudly, flicking his shades over his eyes as he set his coffee by his feet, standing across the lion with arms in his pockets and leaning back. The tension was obvious and quickly redirected as the bell rang and the task was made known. The task was to excite a crowd enough to raise the volume of the room they’re in. Readily, Clay got his guitar and ran to his room. Nick however, simply strutted into his room. While the audience was mainly neutral about the both of them, their shows had vastly different subjects. While Clay took requests to play certain songs, Nick instead got on stage and used the stool there as an assisted prop for a strip tease, even including his cop gear as additional props. Between the two, the current winner was obvious. Clay could faintly hear the cheering coming from Nick’s room, understanding that he must’ve somehow tricked the audience. Now he decided to flow into a similar route, getting less invested in playing the guitar and more demonstrative in his playing it, resulting in the crowd getting excited more so though unsure of his full intention.

This seemed to all change when Calloway’s crowd seemed to double in size and volume. While he was willing to chalk it up to his own act getting the best of them, a smaller paw along his back was able to shake the thought from his head quickly. Did... Did Nick just take his group over to his opponents? Technically it was a part of the rules. What truly caught Clay off guard was the amount of Fox that was simply in the open for him. With Nick only adorned with the hat of his cop uniform as well as the dark shades over his eyes, he sauntered over to Clay and slowly lowered his guitar. Clay was initially against it, believing that it was his one shot at winning this daddy competition, but then he realized that he could play dirty as well, which was the intended effect!

As Clay Calloway tried his best to follow Nick’s lead, it became obvious to everyone that he was very new to the milf scene. Nick however was thriving. Already buck naked, he worked efficiently to strip the massive lion, whose body was already familiar to him thanks to a certain mayor of his. Clay stumbled through the movements and was eventually able to strip himself naked, surprisingly built with a very fitting dad bod and an excited cock that bounced upwards. Seeing the immediate opportunity, Nick decided to open his ass cheeks for the lion, his fluffy tail flicking over the lion's muzzle as he batted his eyelashes at him wordlessly. It seemed like the audience caught on faster than the old lion did, being that he stood in awe at the sight before immediately diving to plunge his tongue into the fox's tailhole. Nick moaned out, not ready for such force to be applied so quickly. Nick took it in stride however, torquing his waist around the massive lion as he burrowed his tongue into the pulsive valve greedily. Majority of the audience had already taken off their clothes or not so subtly stuck their paws in their pants at the display, ready for the intercourse on stage.

As excited as Nick was to get some good dick inside of him, a better idea arose. He let go of his ass cheeks and let them clap around the old lion. Instead of that, Nick's arms now moved to grip the grayed mane of the lion instead and shove his head further inside. While Clay was already into this, he took it as a sign that he needed to pleasure the cop more, determining that he could be eliminated from this competition. He was barely acknowledging his muzzle stretch the anus wider as his tongue explored more depths. The audience roared louder, causing Clay to mistakenly believe that he was doing the most correct thing, even gripping the fluffy ass cheeks to separate them further. Feeling the lion's greediness, Nick used his paws once more to shove his ass over the lion, even catching the burly arms of the lion into his expanding anus. Clay only now realized what was going on, though he was much too deep to do anything about it, instead being victim to Nick's greediness. The sly fox was able to maneuver the lion to be shoved deeper into his ass, up until the massive cock held the lion in place. Things stood in wait until Nick was able to reach behind and physically leverage the male back where he needed to go as his legs sank in. At this point, most of Clay was irreparably placed into Nick's stomach, his toe pads now being the only part of the rockstar remaining. Flaunting this, Nick turned to properly show his ass to the audience, allowing them all to get a good glance at the victim before Nick lifted his hips slowly and slurped in the massive lion nearly doubled his size into his sphincter until he completely disappeared into an unrecognizable bulge that doubled Nick's size, resulting in the fox cop to lay on top of his squirming gut excitedly, unable to reach his cock. As the round concluded, Nick had already begun digesting his competition, which he irrefutably beat in this competition.

Thus concludes the first rounds of the dilf off tournament! There will also be a loser's bracket so be ready for that!
