

Luci's viewpoint:

I can't believe they opened a theme park like this! I can't contain my excitement anymore! I couldn't get any sleep last night, I kept wondering what they have in the park.

I and Mushy have been waiting in the line for half an hour, and finally we reached the entrance. The staff handed us a brochure of the theme park. My eyes must be sparkling as I flipped open the brochure. OMG! There is everything a tickle fetishist could ever dream of in TKLand.

“Let's see what they have here... Oh oh oh! There are two attractions this week, “Escape From Dungeon” and “Spy Interrogation”! We HAVE GOT to try them all! C'mon let's go Mushy~”

I pull Mushy along with me, like a dog too enthusiastic to go for a walk. But then, Mushy spots something.

“Hey Master, what are those?” Mushy asked, pointing at some big wooden structures.

"Hey Master, what are those?" Mushy asked me while he pointed at some big wooden structures. There were people sitting on the structures, and some other people tickling their feet.

“OH BOY! Mushy, these are sets of free stocks, let’s start with that one!” I said.

“What? These are stocks? B...but they are huge! Much bigger than what we have at home...” Mushy said, clearly amazed by their sheer size.

We took off our shoes and put them at the center before going to an empty slot. I gestured to Mushy to sit on the bench and then I locked his wrists to the headboard.

The shy Mushy blushed. He is the most adorable boy when he blushes. I could almost read his expressions, as if he was thinking “Oh dear... it’s only been seconds since we entered the park, and I am locked in stocks... I wonder what the day has in store for us...”

“M...master... this is embarrassing... to be tickled in public...” Mushy said.

“Aww look at other people around us, they are all having so much fun, there’s nothing to be embarrassed about, just laugh like everybody else. Plus, I will start gently.” I tried to reassure him.

Mushy could only watch as I lowered the top bar of the stocks over his feet, and with a click, his big feet were securely locked in front of me. I then took off Mushy’s socks tantalizingly slowly, exposing his bare feet to the air bit by bit. After both socks were completely off, Mushy wiggled his plump round toes enticingly, as if tempting me to dig in. Doesn’t he know this would only make things worse for him?

I started with only a finger on each foot, gently scratching each toe, then down onto the balls, the arches, and the heels, before moving back up.

“Hehehehee~ that tickles!” Mushy’s giggles mixed in with the laughter of the surrounding ticklees.

Mushy’s feet kept curling and flexing all this while, as if encouraging me to try harder, so I took the challenge. I gradually picked up the pace as well as used all my fingers on Mushy’s huge soles.

“OH HAHAHAHAAA M... MASTER! HAHAHAA!!!”

The cute boy was giving corresponding intensity of reactions as I stepped up the tickling. But no matter how much Mushy struggled, the stocks would not budge. Wow, these are some sturdy and comfy stocks... good stuff~

“M... MASTER! AHEHEHEE... MERCY PLEASE HICC HAHAHAA!”

“Aww~♪ Is lil Mushy too ticklish? Coochie Coochie coo~” I teased as I kept scribbling my fingers all over his vulnerable soles. These stocks are much better than what we have at home, strong yet comfy, the carpenter clearly has skill.

Just then, a park staff rang the bell and announced “Lees and lers, swap positions~”.

I am surprised they have a rule like that.

You can already guess what happened next. Mushy paid me back in full, and I became the loudest source of laughter in the stockade arena. Mushy is usually merciful at home, but given the cheerful atmosphere in the park, it might have influenced him to become a merciless little devil. He totally destroyed me!

“MUSHYYY... PLEHEHEHASE MERCYYYY! NOT THE BIRTHMARKS! PLEHEHEASE SOMEBODY RING THE BELL ALREADYYYY HAHAHAHAA!!!”

Next, Luci and Mushy went to the stage show, which surprised them when they saw their friends Zym and Reed coming out from behind the curtains.

Before Zym started binding Reed with ropes, he actually talked through the essentials like a professional. Luci took mental notes along the show:

1st: Communication - Unless you are deliberately taking the victim against their will, you should tell each other clearly what you want.

2nd: Safety - Use a safe word. Sometimes people aren't as flexible as they think, they may pull a muscle during some rough play time.

3rd: Have an escape plan - Skip this part if you are into hardcore bondage.

4th: Aftercare - If you want your sub to come back willingly next time, be sure to treat them nicely after your play time.

After Zym finished with the short lecture, he proceeded to the most exciting part, which was tying ropes around the handsome cat boy Reed. And the ropes weren't normal ropes, they were dipped in sensitivity potion overnight. Zym tied Reed in various positions, such as the Crabtie, where Reed's arms were tied to his legs and forced to spread open, everybody saw the big bulge under his boxers; next was the Boxtie, a Shibari classic, practically every inch of Reed's skin was wrapped around by rope, like a piece of meat wrapped up in butcher's twine; last one was the Hogtie, the most famous tie, and also made Reed felt the most vulnerable.

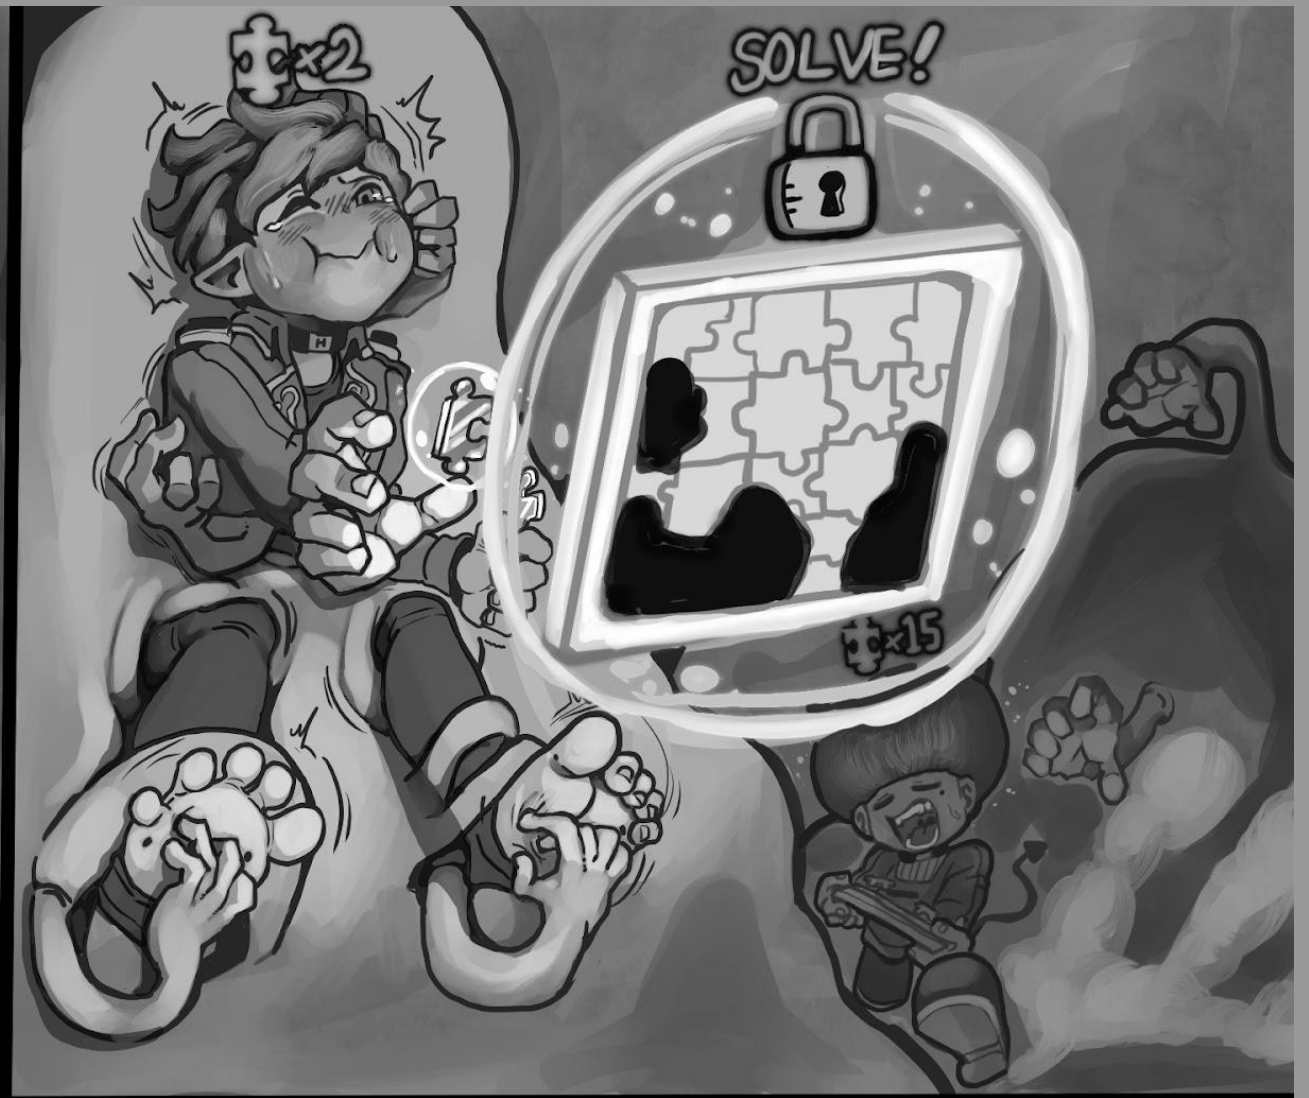

During each position, Zym could always find a sensitive spot on the bound cat boy to tickle or tease. It didn't help that the sensitivity potion on the ropes was rubbing against Reed's skin all the time, making him more ticklish and horny.

By the end of the show, Reed was mind numbingly horny. All the bondage, the tickling, the sensitivity potion, and the humiliation from being watched by so many people turned him on so much. Reed was wishing Zym would "finish" him backstage.

At the end of the show time, the spectators cheered the two boys on stage for their amazing show, but Luci and Mushy cheered especially loud.

Luci told Mushy excitedly "I can't wait to try this on you when we get back home!"

Beads of nervous sweat formed on Mushy's forehead.

The two boys stood at the entrance of the “Escape The Dungeon” attraction. It was very well decorated, the sort of feel you get at a halloween scare maze.

Mushy tugged at Luci’s jacket like a scared little boy “Luci, this is spooky...”

“Aww, silly lil bup, don’t be afraid, they are only decorat...” Luci comforted Mushy, but before he could finish his sentence, a ghost figure jumped out from the wall with a loud bang, giving them a massive jump scare.

“WAAA~” Luci hugged Mushy in reflex, and immediately took back what he said about not being afraid.

The two scaredy boys entered the waiting room, where they read the rules of the game.

Rules:

- 1- Find clues and complete puzzles
- 2- Work as a team
- 3- Watch out for tickle monsters, they will try to prevent your escape
- 4- Criteria for winning: escape all levels in the dungeon within time limit
- 5- If you fail to escape the dungeon within the time limit, you will be locked in the dungeon for 30 more minutes as penalty, our staff will come fetch you after that.

Prize for winners: Free dessert coupon for two at the Magic Ring Cafe

“Alrighty, how hard can it be?” Luci said, trying to sound confident. But as soon as he said that, the back door of the attraction opened, and the duo watched as some staff pushed the last pair of contestants out from the attraction on wheelchairs. The last contestants clearly failed to escape, since they weren’t in a very good state. Their clothes were almost ruined, their bodies were completely drenched in sweat, their hair stuck to their faces from sweat and tears, and they were giggling like crazy people even though nothing was tickling them anymore.

Seeing the result of the last contestants, Luci’s confidence vanished.

As they entered the first level, they instantly noticed all the jelly blobs scattered all around the room, there was also a piece of board on the floor. Luci picked up the board and read the clues on it:

Find all the puzzles and complete the puzzle within 20 minutes, then the door to the next level will open for you. But be careful of the jelly blobs, they feed off laughter from their tickle victims, the more you laugh, the more excited they get. Good luck~

“Oh I can already see 3 puzzle pieces around the floor!” Mushy said happily.

In the following few minutes, the two contestants searched all over the room and found ten pieces already, while carefully avoiding stepping on the jelly blobs. After all the easy ones had been found, it was time to put in more search effort, that's when Luci noticed a hole in the wall, which was big enough to put your limbs through, but not wide enough for your whole body.

Luci looked through the hole and found two pieces inside. He tried to reach them with his hand first, but was just a few inches short.

“Damn... my arms aren't long enough, I can't reach... Maybe you have a try?” Luci said.

“Hmmm... Sir... yeah... I definitely can reach with my long arms...” the short mushroom boy said sarcastically.

“Oh hehe...” Luci replied with a silly smile.

“Sir, why don't you try with your legs, your feet may just be long enough to reach them and grab the pieces with your toes.” Mushy suggested.

“What a good idea!” Luci said and followed Mushy's suggestion.

As soon as Luci stuck his right foot into the hole, he felt some foreign movement. A jelly blob grabbed his ankle and pulled him in as far as possible. Suddenly, his foot felt the puzzle pieces so he grabbed them with his toes. But at the same time, a blob started tickling Luci's heel.

“Gur...heheehee...” a giggle escaped from Luci's lips, and immediately, all the jelly blobs perked up and started moving towards the two boys, much like pets jumping with joy when hearing the sound of food being dropped into their food bowls.

“SHHHHHH! Sir... shushhhh! You are waking them all up!” Mushy said quietly and with a sense of urgency.

Luci quickly covered his mouth with his hands, and the blobs seemed confused, they stopped moving, but they were definitely woken up now, because they looked as if they were looking for prey.

The blob inside the hole began to feel its way up Luci's foot, exploring the sole, the arch, the ball, and under the toes, tickling Luci along the way. When the blob noticed the two puzzle pieces between his toes, it tried to take them away, but Luci held them tightly. Suddenly, it wiggled angrily right under Luci's toes, as if telling him the puzzle pieces belonged to the blob. Luci clenched his teeth hard and looked at Mushy for help. He wanted to tell Mushy what was happening, but he didn't dare to open his mouth, because he knew he would laugh straight away. There was nothing Luci could do except for holding tightly onto the pieces between his toes.

The jelly blob wasn't giving Luci an easy time. It formed two hands that tickled every inch on Luci's foot. Its jelly fingers scribbled all over his trapped ticklish foot gently for almost 5 minutes, but eventually it let him go.

“Phew! I got' em!” Luci exclaimed joyfully as he took out two pieces between his toes. Luci stepped back away from the hole, but accidentally stepped on a jelly blob!

“Oh no Sir!” Mushy watched the jelly blob sprang to life instantly and engulfed the lower half of Luci’s body. It wasted no time to start tickling its caught prey.

“Pffft! D...don’t worry... hehe... about me... go find the other pieces... hahahaha...” Luci told Mushy while battling his urge to laugh.

Mushy backed away from the scene and continued to search for the rest of the pieces. All the jelly blobs seemed to be attracted by Luci’s commotion, making Mushy’s job a bit easier. Eventually, Mushy spotted a tray full of puzzle pieces inside a glass box hanging from the ceiling. There were two holes under the box for you to put his hands inside, but it looked like you wouldn’t be able to get them out once you put your hands through. Mushy remembered a scene from the movie Saw II, where a girl put her hands inside a razor box trap and died. He carefully inspected the trap, he found no razors, but padded cuffs instead. Mushy desperately thought of ways he could beat this trap without getting his hands stuck in there.

Just then, the speakers announced: 3 minutes to go.

In a rush, Mushy raised his hands above his head and reached inside the box. There was no time to think of other methods. And as expected, his hands got stuck, and surely, a jelly blob noticed the stuck Mushy. The blob formed two hands and fondled around Mushy’s exposed torso.

"Gahh! Hahahaaa!" Mushy burst into laughter.

Hearing Mushy’s laughter, the jelly blobs suddenly discovered a new target. And seeing this, Luci let out his laughter too, so as to buy Mushy some time for him to get the puzzle pieces out of the box.

"HAHAHA HAAAHAAAA COME GEHEHEET MEHEEEE!" Luci laughed as loud as he could to attract the blobs to himself.

After a minute of wiggling his wrists, Mushy finally got his hands free together with the pieces. "I got' em, I GOT THEM!" Mushy exclaimed happily.

He quickly ran over to Luci, who was totally covered with jelly blobs molesting him. Mushy helped Luci put the whole puzzle together, and they managed to finish it with just 20 seconds on the clock. It was a close shave.

While they entered the second level, a hole beneath Luci opened up and swallowed the demon boy into the floor.

"Woah! Sir Luci...! What happened?!" Mushy said in panic. But as soon as Luci fell into the hole, it closed back right away, leaving Mushy to continue by himself.

Suddenly, an array of spot lights turned, and they shone on one side of the wall. What appeared on the wall amazed Mushy. There were dozens of pairs of bare feet on it, neatly arranged 3 rows by 10 columns, they were tightly spaced apart. Mushy couldn’t help but wonder what it looked like on the other side of the wall with all these people stuck in it.

"So, this must be what they meant by Feet Wall" Mushy thought. Mushy picked up the clue card in the middle of the room:

Find your partner's feet, press the button besides the correct pair of feet to release your partner. You have 15 minutes, you have only 1 chance. Pressing the wrong button will release jelly blobs.

"Oh that's easy! My master's feet have birthmarks on the soles." Mushy said with a smirk on his face. But just then, he realized that all the feet on the wall bore birthmarks!

How could this be even possible? Where do they get all these people with birthmarks on their soles?!

"SIR LUCI! CAN YOU HEAR ME?" Mushy tried the most obvious solution, but there was no response. So he started to eliminate the pairs that he was sure weren't Luci's feet. He ended up with 10 pairs he wasn't sure about, and he tickled them, to hear their laughter. But the wall was too soundproofed, their laughter were too dampened to be recognizable.

"Luci's birthmarks are his weak spot, maybe I can recognize his reaction by tickling them there." Mushy thought, and he did. With this method, he was able to find 3 pairs of feet that reacted wildly when being tickled on the birthmarks. Clearly one of them was Luci, but which one...?

With 6 minutes on the clock, Mushy continued to study the 3 pairs of feet closely. Their level of ticklishness, their feet size, their shape, and their reaction to tickling are very much the same as Luci's, Mushy was having a hard time.

Tik, tok, tik, tok... time was running out, and Mushy still had no clue! Were they about to fail this challenge?

----- 4 minutes later -----

"Wow, how did you know this was me?" Luci asked.

"Well, I was down to the last 3 pairs of feet, but I couldn't decide. I had 2 minutes left of the clock, and I thought that was it, I thought we were gonna fail. But an idea suddenly came to my mind. Maybe I can recognize the taste of your feet, and I did!" Mushy explained proudly.

Luci and Mushy went through many more levels. They met a lot of ticklish perils, and their clothes were totally wrecked. They couldn't help but remember the last pair of contestants being pushed out by the staff, were they going to end up like them? Fortunately, in the end they cleared all the levels and escaped the dungeon in one piece. They won themselves two coupons at the Magic Ring Cafe.

Luci and Mushy happily arrived at the Magic Ring Cafe with their hard earned coupon. The cafe was nicely decorated, and each table was separated by partitions to protect the customer's privacy, which was a super nice feature. You can hear constant giggling and moaning throughout the cafe, it is obvious this is no ordinary cafeteria.

The first few pages on the menu had the usual food and beverage items, coffee, ice cream, cake, blah blah blah... that's not what Luci and Mushy came for. They flipped to the second half of the menu and they found what they came looking for.

The menu offered an array of ticklees that come with your food, ranging from cute shotas, to beautiful girls, to strong handsome guys. Whatever your taste, you will find your fancy.

Luci and Mushy ordered "Vanilla ice cream with choco chips served on Tails' feet".

Needless to say, Luci was ecstatic with his dessert, he almost devoured Tails. Luci and Mushy enjoyed their meal thoroughly, licking up every drop of ice cream from Tails' big cute feet. The boys were sure to use their mouths and tongues to warm his cold-feet back up, since they were used to serve ice cream.

Luci and Mushy stood at the entrance of the "Spy Interrogation Challenge" attraction. Mushy knew Luci was excited for this one, but after half a day of intense ticklish workout, Mushy was at his limits.

“I’ve had enough for today sir, I’ll pass this one.” Mushy said.

Which left Luci to take up the challenge alone.

Marmite was Luci’s “interrogator” for the next two hours. He showed Luci the rules of the challenge:

You are a spy who infiltrated the enemy base to enter a virus into their computer mainframe. However, you were caught after doing so. It will take two hours for the virus to finish its job. What you must do is withhold your passcode from the chief interrogator, who will try to tickle it out of you.

Your passcode is: PANDA

Reward for winning the challenge: A month free VIP card for TKLand

Good luck, spy~

Mushy sat contently outside the attraction, he was happy enough with the amount of tickling he got for the day. For the next two hours, Mushy listened to Luci’s howling laughter and the crazy screams coming out from the interrogation room. From the volume of his laughter and the high pitched shrieks, Mushy really thought Luci was not gonna make it to two full hours. Mushy could tell which spots on Luci were being attacked just from hearing his master’s laughter, afterall, he himself had pushed every one of those ticklish buttons. He could also tell that Marmite was being extremely ruthless and sadistic. There were two or three times when Luci’s screams reached a note so high which had never been heard when Mushy was the tickler.

Two hours had passed, and Luci came out victorious! Though Luci’s legs were shaking and head spinning, he regretted nothing, because he had just won a month free of VIP entry.

With this VIP card, Luci was able to enjoy the park as many times as he wished. He was allowed to enter into weekly contests, which were even tougher than the usual attractions. But that’s for another story, maybe a sequel~

Thanks for reading.
