Chapter One- It's Only Fair (Asuna Yuuki x OC)

Somewhere inside of the SAO Survivor's School building...

A faint noise of thumping and soft breathy moans rang out from inside one of the bathroom stalls in the ladies' rooms. Looking deeper inside and going beyond the surface of the doors leading up to a certain stall near the corner were a pair of virile students going at it amorously. One had her skirt flipped up and her cotton pink panties down around her ankles as she was receiving the pounding of a lifetime from her male partner. She clutched the sides of the toilet, steadying herself while receiving intense thrusts and bucking motions from the boy's hips, feeling his thick turgid cock burrow its way into her squelching sex, making her day for her already.

The girl had long light-brown hair trailing down her shoulders in a modest straight style, she had matching caramel brown eyes and was a young teenage girl in her prime feeling the boy's cock pumping her pussy ever-so-strongly. She.....was Asuna Yuuki.

"Uhh..uuh..uuh..uuh..uh..uaahh! AAahhh....!m...!m gonna come! Aaahhh!~" She cried out, biting down on one of her hands to stifle her screaming just a little bit while feeling the boy begin thrusting into her at an even faster rate.

He was not Kazuto Kirigaya, her boyfriend, but rather someone else entirely. The male school student was taller than Asuna, had medium-length brown hair styled in a rather modest spiky fashion. He was rather generic-looking, but his strength and spirit in regards to having sex made Asuna squeal constantly in sinful euphoria, making her wear a smile on her face as she felt his cock hammering away into her cervix through the condom he wore.

"Hnnghh...nnh..nhhn..nnghh! M-Me too! Oohhh yeah! Even with this thing on, it feels amazing. You're so very tight, Asuna-san. Oh, I wish we could do it bareback someday." He panted, making her blush as the idea did cross her mind.

Asuna said nothing and steadied her hands on the top of the handlebars of the bathroom wall, huffing louder with hot gasps of elation escaping her lips like clockwork. She could feel her buttocks slapping away into the boy's waist, steadily reaching her apex and inevitably cumming like crazy! She tossed her head back and yelled out in ecstasy, feeling her body shiver and tense up in orgasm while the boy simply thrust into her pussy full-force, sheathing his condom-laden dick inside while he came into it completely!

"Gggghhnnkk! Aaaghhkk! Oohh yeah...! Nghhh!~" He growled, grinding himself into the girl's ample buttocks in a side-to-side motion, feeling each and every spurt of semen flow into the pink wrapper while it inflated inside of her sex like a pleasurable balloon.

Sppllt..sppllt..spllt..spllt!

Asuna whimpered again and steadily held herself in place while they rode out their climax with each other, eventually feeling the euphoric wave of post-coitus subside until they were finished.

Mewling, she felt her partner slowly pull out of her pussy with a condom dripping off the tip with a thick vat of sperm filling it. With a wet plop, her pussy squelched once the condom was out, leading to Asuna hastily pulling up her panties while the other guy tucked in his dick in order to zip up. Together the two of them re-adjusted their clothing and left the bathroom stall to go back outside into the halls, after quickly checking for any would-be passerby that is.

"You know, Asuna-san, you should drop by my place sometime. My parents are always away at work, leaving me all the privacy to myself. We could go there and enjoy ourselves in a more fulfilling manner, you know." He offered with a cheeky grin as she adjusted her uniform skirt a little more, blushing cutely while doing it.

"!...I agree with that notion if we keep doing it here someone is bound to walk by and overhear the two of us." Asuna explained and felt an arm draped around her shoulder, being pulled into the guy's side only to see his eager-looking smile.

"We could tell my parents if they ever come home by happenstance, that we are doing a project for my class you had chosen to help me with. That alibi will always work if they don't suspect too much." He offered, making Asuna nod her head in agreement as she looked into his face with a smile of her own.

How did it come to this, one wonders. How could such a faithful lover, and potential wife-in-the-making, like Asuna cheat on Kazuto so willingly?

Earlier that week...

Sitting alone in her classroom post-session, Asuna sat looking out the window with a contemplative frown on her lovely face. She held her head up by resting her chin in the palm of her hand, wondering just when her boyfriend 'Kirito' will ever rearrange his priorities for her. It's always often about the game nowadays rather than a simple date in real life, Kazuto felt like he had never left his Nerve gear device and would much rather prefer the gaming world than spending time with Asuna. At least that's how she saw it anyway.

'Hmmm, Kirito-Kun, do I really bore you that much? I understand Alfheim, New Aincrad, and all those other gaming worlds fascinate you so much, but...would it really be so hard to just ignore them for a little while and be with me?' She pondered these depressing thoughts until she heard the door slide open to the classroom she was in.

Being the only person in here, Asuna wasn't expecting somebody to intrude on her this late after school had finished. She turned her head in the direction of a rather unassuming yet admittedly handsome boy with chestnut-colored hair.

"Oh, someone else is here? Is that you, Asuna-san? What happened to Kazuto? Isn't he always with you?" The boy questioned almost tactlessly, but Asuna forgave it simply because she found his innocence endearing. With a sigh, she spoke.

"Kazuto-Kun is busy with the game again, and I'm here tending to some school work in advance. I'm surprised you'd ask about him." She pointed out and the boy shrugged as he walked into the classroom after closing the door.

"I'm just shocked he's not with you right now, really. It's always like you two are side-by-side at all times when I see you." He added, making Asuna deflate a bit more at the thought. If someone else had to point out how odd it was her boyfriend wasn't near her then obviously something went wrong in their relationship.

"Yeah..." She sullenly responded and noticed him sitting down in the chair across from her, looking concerned as though he were a close friend. 'This is Kanie Seiya, our class Rep for homeroom. I had almost forgotten who he was since I hadn't made any friends here outside of Sugu-chan and the others. I'm surprised he's concerned for me, at least someone is.'

"If you don't mind me asking, why doesn't Kazuto-San spend more time with you? It seems like a waste of youth, no? You are very beautiful after all." He commented, making the shade on her cheeks glow a bit brighter in a red tone.

"Oh! Um, thank you very much, Kanie-San. You sure know how to flatter a girl, huh?" She giggled in a friendly manner, feeling uplifted already. "Your girlfriend must appreciate the compliments."

"I..heh...don't have a girlfriend, but if I had one as hot as you, I wouldn't ignore her for anything in the world. I wouldn't neglect you in Kazuto-San's place, Asuna." Kanie added, making the girl start feeling hot under the collar.

'Hmm! He's really...coming onto me, isn't he? I've never been this flustered before, I don't shy away from adult topics, not since...our honeymoon in Aincrad. Still, he's making me feel that strange feeling I get when I'm with Kirito-Kun.' Asuna thought to herself and cleared her throat, regaining her composure and sat smiling at Kanie in a cordial manner. "You're really appreciating my beauty, aren't you? You're certainly quite appealing yourself, Kanie-San."

Kanie chuckled with slight embarrassment at the compliment, making Asuna feel bold enough to ask a certain question about adult matters she never consulted anyone else about.

"Kanie-San, if you've...gotten around...you surely must have some sexual experience with women, correct?" She asked and saw his smirk widen as he nodded to her. "I was curious as to what exactly you did with other women."

He leaned over his chair a bit, putting his face closer to hers and making her heart begin to stammer.

"Would you like to know?" He asked and Asuna, being insistent on gaining more experience sexually for Kirito's sake, nodded with certainty. "Well, I certainly did fuck one of the girls here at this school, in fact she's a cute pigtailed girl with large breasts that's in our class."

This news shocked Asuna completely and made her begin to feel increasingly aroused since it took place so close to her. Something about the taboo of the Class Rep fucking one of his classmates just made Asuna feel very excited for some reason. If that wasn't enough, Kanie then asked one very shocking question to her after checking to see if anyone else would be around. When he finished, he looked directly into Asuna's caramel-colored eyes with a smile.

"If you want, I can give you a very personal demonstration with first-hand personal experience. Do you wish to try it, Asuna-san?" Kanie asked slyly, making the girl feel a little embarrassed if not anxious now that she was sexually excited.

'Did he really just ask to have sex with me? I...I don't know how I feel about that off, should I say yes?' Asuna pondered in thought and quickly brought up her excuse. "I would, Kanie-san, but Kirito-Kun is very busy these days and--!"

She paused in mid-sentence when a certain epiphany hit her like a brick wall. Asuna's mood soured when she thought about how Kirito would always be 'Busy' playing the VRMMO game that got him and everyone else trapped in the first place. These days it's always online adventures with him rather than anything else, even dates in the online world were too few in between for her liking. Not only that, but remembering how all of her female friends like Lisbeth, Silica, Sinon, and even Kirito's own cousin Suguha, were always fawning over her boyfriend made Asuna seethe silently in resentment.

Kanie noticed the change in her demeanor and wondered if maybe she was resisting the temptation to fuck somebody else behind her boyfriend's back out of loyalty, or rather to embrace it completely out of spite. Asuna was about to raise a finger to voice her refusal quietly to Kanie when thoughts of Kirito being too friendly with the others came to mind. He was always fine with his sister Suguha feeling him up in the VR world and never establishing any bounds between himself and the others doing the same, it honestly made her blood boil. Suddenly her mind was made up.

She stopped contemplating on it and looked straight into Kanie's eyes with a smile.

In a gentle rush of bodies pressing against each other, Kanie had pinned Asuna Yuuki into a wall to the side, running his hands along her face and into her luxurious brown hair as he swallowed her lips into an open-mouthed tongue-sucking embrace! Asuna's tongue became swallowed into his mouth, her eyes rolled upward a little at the sensation, feeling it was long overdue thanks to her boyfriend Kirito's neglect. Not only that, but Kanie was very talented in the art, making her feel sensation after sensation hit her in a profound way.

"Mmhmm! Mmhmm! Aaahh...!~" Asuna breathed out, loudly gasping in hot gasps of breath while tasting Kanie's lips on her taste buds. Their saliva mingled with each other quite a bit with her tongue getting swallowed into her lips again as he kept her pressed into the nearby windowsill rubbing her legs up along his sides affectionately.

She remained seated atop the banister leading into the windows, grinding herself along the boy's waist as he felt his erection throbbing up from underneath the crotch point of his pants. Asuna was certainly enjoying the feeling of such a firm hard willy pushing out between her legs, rubbing up against her thighs while bringing a leg around one of Kanie's thighs in fast-growing affection.

"Hmhmhm, aah. Its certainly been a while since your last kiss, hasn't it Asuna-san?" He breathed out, reaching down her right side and cupping her rear gently into his left hand, making her squeak cutely for he had touched a rather sensitive place. Asuna really liked that and wound up mewling quietly as a result.

"K-Kanie-san...I...we could be seen doing this in the classroom, couldn't we?" She voiced her concern, still blushing heavily with a look of lustful want written on her face. Asuna had always been a more cautious cat than others since her time in Aincrad, fortunately, she saw a rather relaxed-looking face on Kanie as he shrugged indifferently to her question.

"Nah, we're the only ones here at this time. Being a Class Representative often entails me being alone after school's out to clean up and lock the doors before heading home. Trust me, no one is around to see us, Asuna-san. We can do whatever we want around the classroom.~" He answered with a dark husky voice that sent chills down the girl's spine, in a good way.

She simply nodded dumbly and allowed Kanie's eager hands to reach up her chest, fondling her boobs through her clothing and causing her to squeal in response.

"Nghh! Ahh....!~ Mmh....!" She whimpered adorably and closed her eyes in response to his actions, feeling his strong fingers feel up her breasts at his leisure.

'S-so soft and perfect, they're just the right size and shape and she's sensitive to touch to boot. She is perfect, Kirito-san is a fool for choosing his video games over this lovely perfect woman.' Kanie thought to himself, not holding any resentment towards Kazuho himself, but rather feeling disappointed he left Asuna unattended in terms of physical romance.

Letting his hormonal lust of a young adolescent teenage virility compel him, he started unbuttoning Asuna's uniform blazer, making his way down to the bottom and pulling it apart without any fuss. He repeated the process for her white uniform undershirt and revealed to himself the beautiful unblemished skin of her young perfect body. Asuna was watching his hands as he went, feeling oddly excited and even further aroused at the infidelity of her actions. She let Kanie pull down the cups of her pink lace bra next, allowing her bountiful C-cup sized tits to jiggle once they were free from their confines.

Just before Kanie proceeded to grab them, he looked to Asuna for permission and saw her nodding to his unasked question almost immediately with a bashful smile.

"Go ahead, play with them, but please let me...play with you the same way before we begin. I...I want to feel all of it, Kanie-San." She said meekly and averted her eyes in slight shame at her suggestion. Kanie nodded firmly with a soft smile on his face and grabbed both of the girl's tits into each of his hands, making her lurch sharply in response to feeling her breasts being groped. "Hhhhh! Aaahh...!~"

She cried out in soft moaning whimpers of pleasure, feeling the boy fondling each of her soft tits with his fingers. He put his experience to good use, fondling both of them sensually with well-aimed grooves of digits gingerly massaging her doughy sensitive breasts. They swiveled around slowly from her chest, being tugged here and there with his fingers eventually punching her nipples, causing her to shriek loudly through her teeth in response.

"Nnnhhh! Ahh...! K-Kanie-san! Aaahh...!~" She moaned, breathing raggedly with a blushing face and savoring the sensation of Kanie's hands now fully grabbing onto her breasts, massaging each into his palms.

Watching her moan blissfully and making that cute face was turning Kanie on, or rather, further arousing him more than he was already. He could feel his dick pushing out into the hem of his pants while he fondled both of the girl's soft ample tits at his leisure. Fluffing both of them for a minute or two longer, he eventually pulled them back and allowed himself a foot and a half of space to quickly undo his pants and let Asuna have a go at him.

The girl was mildly annoyed at being deprived of more groping, but as soon as she saw him unzip his trousers and pull out his surprisingly long and thick wiener, she felt her heart race instantly. As much as she loved Kirito, it had been so very long since their last bout of intimacy in bed. Just thinking about how much he preferred the Online World made her blood boil with resentment at what she missed out on when it came to pleasure. She needed this kind of physical activity and could no longer refrain from taking it from someplace else, someone else. Looking up into Kanie's eyes she saw a waiting look on his smiling face and jumped off of the windowsill banister to lower herself onto her knees in front of him.

"That's right, go ahead and play with it as much as you want. Part of foreplay is to explore the other's body before enjoying it, after all, consider this a well-needed extracurricular activity in how to please a man better." He voiced, making Asuna look up into his eyes with a rare look of competitive energy before curling each of her hands around the hilt of his length

The softness of her fingers wrapping around his cock from the base-end of it made Kanie growl in utter arousal already. Her hands were just that soft and perfect to the touch, Asuna's skin was always smooth thanks to the steamy bubble baths she takes at home.

'So...warm and...full. It's thicker than anything I've seen before and touching is making me want to...suck on it already.' She thought to herself, feeling hypnotized by her class rep's dick. She started fluffing him up by gingerly pumping the hilt with swift back-and-forth strokes of her fingertips, making Kanie growl quietly even more.

"Nghh...ahh...! Oh boy, your hands sure are soft, Asuna-san. Mnnghh...careful not to make me blow before I could put it into your mouth. You are...going to do that, aren't you?" He asked, hopeful to feel the young woman's tongue around his dick.

To his great fortune, he saw her flash him a bright smirk and open up her mouth wide-open before pulling herself onto his crotch the next second.

Schuup!

The wet insides of Asuna's mouth swallowed up the head of the man's dick and a little further on, taking him halfway into her moist spongy throat with ease. Kanie grinned happily as he placed one hand back on the surface of a random desk to steady himself, and placed the other just above Asuna's head to guide her while she started sucking him off. Tilting his head backward, he felt the enjoyable sensation of the girl's throat cushioning his dick in only the most blissful manner. She was tight, slender, and all-around eager to gobble him up, making her the perfect for this act of fellatio as she started bobbing her head back and forth on him.

"Schlupp..schlupp..schlupp..schlupp...schlupp..schlupp...schlupp!"

"Mmmhnm! Schlup...schlupp!" Asuna continued to swallow, suck, and lick up all over Kanie's dick while peering into his face from below. She was happy to see she was giving him so much pleasure with her act, making her wonder if she did it this way so that Kirito could spend less time Online in the Game and more with her.

Pursing her lips tightly around the thick of his length, she started swallowing him further into the back of her throat, sucking him quicker and harder after meeting the point his groin started pushing into her nose. She closed her eyes peacefully and hummed while running her tongue all over the underside of his length. She was enjoying the taste of Kanie's cock sheathed firmly between her mushy esophagus and her tongue. To the boy himself, it was feeling the raw insides of a girl's pussy all over again, Asuna was a grand treasure of a girl to enjoy alright.

"Hnhh! Asuna-chan...yess! Ohh that feels so good! Quickly, bring me off so that we can do it over on the teacher's desk." Kanie whimpered, holding the back of her head into both hands and wallowing in pleasure as she obeyed his instructions to heart.

Asuna gripped the back of his thighs and started thrusting her face deeper into his waist, throating his cock hungrily with a lascivious passion and curling her tongue all over his length while it was inside of her throat. Loud sucking noises unused as she enthusiastically face-fucked her face onto his cock, further succumbing to the depravity of her treacherous actions....and enjoying it while doing so. Suck after suck of hard suction involving her throat cushioning around Kanie's dick continued for a little longer until he eventually came with a shout inside of her waiting mouth!

"Gghnnkk!" He growled loudly and held the back of her head into his crotch, forcing her to take all of himself inside of her gullet and letting out a thick helping of semen racing down her throat!

"Bbhmpffff!" Asuna whimpered in surprise and had her eyes wide open in shock, they soon lowered once she started feeling the warm splash of sperm flow down her throat with each spurt. She kept her hands firmly behind the boy's kneecaps, enjoying how much he was cumming inside of her mouth and wriggled her face into his groin in order to get everything out.

Gulp..gulp..gulp..gulp!

She swallowed it all and waited for his inevitable finish, which surprisingly lasted longer than she was expecting, meaning he had virility to last a long duration. Once she felt the cum stop pumping down into her throat, she slowly pulled back off of his dick, letting her lips linger a bit with saliva-drenched cum still lubricating the surface of her lips until they were off completely with a pop.

"Aahh. Did you enjoy that, Kanie-Kun?" She asked while smiling, then ran her tongue around her lips in order to clean herself off. To Asuna's delight, she saw that Kanie was still as rigid as he was before. 'A-amazing! He really has done this before, hasn't he? This kind of stamina reminds me of....!'

Her mind went to Kirito again, further complicating the feelings in her heart and making her quietly seething with resentment once again before standing up to her feet. Kanie leaned back into the surface of a random desk and took a brief moment to catch his breath when he saw Asuna walking over to the teacher's desk, placing herself on it with legs hiking up and hands around the sides of her hips. He watched as she slowly slipped down her pink lace panties, pulling them off of her long slender legs until they dangled around her left ankle before pulling them off with her right hand. She then spread herself apart with legs spread wide in angular positions, making it a provocative pose with her glistening pink pussy showing in full to Kanie's eyes.

"Please....put it in me already, Kanie-Kun. Don't forget to put on a condom....if you have any, at least be able to pull yourself if you don't." She urged with a face red and seething with hot lust as she spread open her sex to expose her moist pink insides without shame.

Kanie bristled up with excitement and intense arousal as he quickly pulled his pants up and hurried over to place himself between Asuna's legs, ready to fuck her in full force. Reaching into his pocket he pulled out a condom packet and ripped it open, placing the pink latex shrink wrap around his dick before pulling himself closer to the girl's waist. He was more than ready to fuck her, he had only wished he could do it raw, but he needed to know it was a safe day for her before doing so. The last thing he wanted was a needless drama over getting a girl pregnant, but Kanie wouldn't have minded doing that to Asuna since she carries such a motherly vibe.

She leaned back onto her elbows and watched him push himself up close to her, guiding his condom-wrapped dick over into her spread folds with a grunt. Soft squelching sounds followed and Asuna whimpered pleasurably with a strained face as she felt her pussy spreading out apart to wrap tightly around his dick as he sank into her.

"Uuaaaahh.....! Hhhgnnhh! Kanie-Kun...!~" She breathed out, feeling him pushing even further inside of her sex and filling out her walls in the most pleasurable ways. She was highly sensitive to it all and felt her walls cushioning around Kanie's dick as he reached a full-hilt penetration inside of her gushing sex.

The man himself growled loudly in delight, feeling her insides feel as tight as a fresh virgin, making his shaft swell already. It had felt just that good inside of this girl. He watched Asuna breathe heavily, her face red and sweaty with utmost arousal. Deciding to give her a moment, knowing it had been a while for her, he waited for the girl to settle herself before hearing her beg him to continue on. Her bare naked breasts heaved plenty in the meantime, making it a show for him.

"G-go ahead, fuck me, Kanie-Kun....!" She let out in a coarse breath of sensation, feeling one of her legs wrap around the side of his waist on instinct as he began rolling into her body with a shove.

"Nngh...! Alright, here I go." Kanie breathed out as he began plowing himself into Asuna's frame, feeling his cock hammer away into the soft sensitive folds of her pussy mechanically, making the girl heave and moan with each heavy thrust.

The desk started shaking, creaking even to the intense thrusts caused by Kanie's hips pounding into Asuna from over the edge of the surface. The girl had one leg held up high into the air, being held by his left hand, enjoying the sensation of his dick churning the sensitive insides of her pussy as he drove into her.

"Uuaagh...aahh..aahh..aahh..aahh..aaahhhh! Kanie-Kun...uuhhhh!~" She cried out, whimpering quietly in absolute pleasure as she felt her insides throbbing with sensual delight. her pussy squelched noisily around his length, gushing in moisture while feeling his balls slap against her buttocks with rising intensity. The condom may have prevented the feeling of raw flesh dick from really giving her the full experience, but she was satisfied enough just doing this.

Asuna may feel she wasn't so far gone she was about to risk getting impregnated by some random guy she just barely became re-acquainted with, but the temptation of having it raw did weigh on her mind and it refused to leave her thoughts. Raising herself upright and putting a hand behind his head, Asuna began thrusting herself back onto his pelvis, fucking herself onto his Kanie's waist just as he fucked away into hers.

"Uuh..uuh..uh..uh..uh..ahhh! Nngg! Asuna-Chan....oh it feels so good! Are you getting the feeling of finally being satiated in your hunger by the way?" He asked, grunting as he continued plowing away into her gushing sex, noticing that deep inside her walls her about ready to clamp tightly around his dick.

He saw the girl nod her head rapidly, her facial expression composed of pleasurable euphoria with a borderline ahegao smile stretching onto it.

"Yes! Ohh...yes! I needed this so badly, Kanie-Kun! Oooaaahhh! Fuck me...fuck me faster! Please....!" She cried out, closing her eyes tightly as she began grinding herself along his hips, embarrassingly like a cat in heat.

Still, he couldn't complain since he was getting one very frisky pent-up girl riding herself on his meat. Kanie continued pumping her for a little while longer, bucking her body onto the surface of the teacher's desk and feeling her pussy clamp tightly around his dick until he felt the contractions of her pussy resulting in a mutual orgasm! Asuna yelled out sharply in blind sensation, screaming loudly into the ceiling of the room until she covered her own mouth out of embarrassment. Her body shuddered and quaked inexorably in the climax, causing her to spritz Kanie's waist in cum while she thrashed about underneath his body when they collapsed together in the teacher's desk in post-coitus!

With a coarse grunt, he came into the condom himself, filling it like a balloon and making Asuna whimper sharply in pleasure as she felt it expand into her cervix! Her legs shot out into the air, quaking and jittering in mind-numbing sensation until she wrapped them tightly around Kanie's backside, embracing him almost romantically while she came down from climax.

"Nngh....! Nnghh....uuhh...! Ooohh...aaahh, that felt...so refreshing. I needed that very much. Thank you, Kanie-Kun.~" Asuna panted with a smile on her face, leaning back onto the desk while he finished letting out all of his sperm into the condom before starting to pull himself out of her with a plop.

Both students were sweaty with each other's stink, Asuna more so since she had been more frenzied with long-needed lust for a good dicking, and boy did she receive it in spades. The weight of her betrayal was far from her mind at the moment, she'd come to maybe regret her actions later should Kirito come out of his Game addiction and focus on her affections again in due time. That is....if he ever does do that. Asuna had her doubts and for good reason.

Kanie was left panting harshly as though he ran a mile around the school itself, but he did have a smile on his face as he watched Asuna get up off the desk and begin to pull her bra on once again. Judging by her flustered look and glowing cheeks, he'd say they did a good job 'Teaching' her. Silently pulling up his pants again and zipping himself back up, both Kanie and Asuna dressed without saying a word. They threw away the condom into the nearest trash can and made sure to cover it up with scraps of paper in case anyone came across it.

Once that was finished, Asuna looked to her side and Kanie with a bashful face and cleared her throat to get his attention.

"So...Kanie-Kun, this...was actually very fun." She began and looked him straight in the eye with a soft expression signaling her desperation to receive more of what he gave her just now. "I was thinking that maybe we can do this again? J-Just as long as nobody finds out. If anybody is onto us, then it is over and we forget it ever happened. Deal?"

'She's so cute when she's flustered. I can't wait to spend more time with her.' Kanie thought to himself as he gently stroked the side of her face, fingering a lock of her beautiful light brown hair until he said something that made her smile.

"Sounds like a deal. Let's kiss on it." He said softly and startled by her leaning in, squeezing her lips into his mouth for another deep loving kiss that she wasn't expecting. Asuna was stunned at first and began to kiss him back, ignoring the treachery of this exchange and feeling his tongue clean out her palette a little before they eventually pulled back.

She sighed wistfully when all that was left was a thin trail of saliva bridging between their lips.

Kirito was far from her mind right now.

Present time-

Now standing outside of Kanie's house a little while after their bathroom stall romp at school, Asuna clutched the boy's hand as she checked the time on her phone and gauged how long she'd spend here behind the boy's doors. She looked to the side at Kanie flashing that ever-sweet smile that actually enjoyed, feeling her heart beating rapidly for she was excited to have sex with him over the privacy of his place.

"Shall we begin our school activity, Kanie-Kun?" She asked sweetly with an eager yet coy smile on her face.

"Yes, let's. Hehehe." Kanie chuckled and pulled the girl inside of his house, locking the door behind them as they got started on their so-called 'Activity' with each other.
