

First Day at the Sea

By ROB

Esse decided to play a little with the snorkelling boy and without adjusting her costume she started swimming towards a cove; she was curious to see the reaction of the boy who, as expected, followed her.

After a few strokes she stopped to take in the coolness and the sun; it was in a shallower part of the sea and by standing with the feet well placed on the sand, her head and neck remained out of the water.

She waited a few seconds and then the man with the mask began to swim around her in smaller and smaller circles.

At this point Esse decided to dare a little more, she was having fun and as she had to admit to herself the game was exciting her.

She slowly slipped a hand on to the tit that was completely out of the swimsuit and began to linger, first caressing the whole contour of the breast and then slowly stroking and squeezing the nipple which in the meantime had swollen.

Esse saw that the boy was no longer swimming; in fact he had stopped right in front of her to enjoy the show; she couldn't see it well but she was sure that if she also had a diving mask she would see a suspicious bulge in the boy's boxers.

Esse decided to lead the game, she liked to please the people who watched her but she also had a slightly perverse pleasure in leaving them "halfway" so to speak!

Her hand released her breasts and slowly slid down to the slip that had shifted slightly with the swimming; she began to run her fingers over the briefs and in the meantime she was trying to gauge the man's responses, as he began to caress himself, first outside the swimming trunks, and then pulling the boxers away, more and more intimately.

She saw the man approaching slightly, and although he was still a few meters from her, she began to enjoy the show better.

Esse's fingers ran along the entire length of her wet pussy, caressing her lips and then stopping on her clitoris; her head with each movement tilted a little more backwards.

Her arousal was almost at its peak when she paused; yes, she wanted to enjoy, but more than anything else she wanted to play with the stranger.

She looked forward but to her surprise she no longer saw him in front of her; what had happened to the stranger? Was he gone? At this moment? Esse did not have time to answer herself those questions as she immediately understood!

A hand from behind had just taken her tit and began to play with her nipple.

The man was behind her, whilst in her arousal she had not noticed his relocation; He squeezed her breasts and with his fingers he played with her nipple which was now enormous in size, caressed it, tickled it and squeezed it tightly enough to give her pleasure and pain at the same time.

Esse could not and did not want to move, when at some point, she felt his other hand touch her little arse, first brushing it and then more decisively it descended between her legs; at a certain point the man firmly indicated she was open her legs wider, and so she did.

His hand went up between her legs until it found the bottom hem of her bathing suit; pulled it aside and began to caress her pussy, for its excitement despite the sea water it offered no resistance; the man caressed her clitoris and then began to put a finger inside, penetrating her. Esse did not object and began to moan with pleasure; the game yes, it was reversed, now it was in his hands.

The man's right hand broke away from Esse's breast and began to look for her hand, which she immediately comprehended!

The man took her hand and brought it to his member, which was now completely out of his swimming trunks and completely erect! Esse began to caress him and felt that big piece of meat, perhaps not too long but certainly very stiff. She caressed him slowly at first and then began to masturbate him.

While the man continued to penetrate her with the fingers of one hand, she felt the other hand groping her arse undoubtedly seeking her tightest and most precious little hole; reluctantly she moved a little, as if to disagree, but realized that the game was now in the hands of the unknown one.

The man's hand approached the second hole and began to penetrate it; Esse now had one finger in her arse and two in her pussy and was writhing in enjoyment, whilst with her hand she continued to masturbate the stranger.

Esse did not notice that in all this the two had moved towards an area where the sea was a little lower and now her breasts were almost out of the water; but what was going on below was still covered by the sea. The man removed his hands and whirled Esse around and she found herself facing him; she couldn't see his face as his dark diving mask obscured it. The man placed a hand on her head and Esse had just long enough to gasp as much air as possible before being pushed underwater; the man brought his penis to her lips and pushed it towards her, as Esse opened her mouth, being careful not to inhale.

She took that big penis and started licking it before he pushed it all the way into her mouth.

He knew that she could not last long underwater without breathing so he held the big hard member in her mouth for a few seconds, then always with his hand on her head, he would bring her back out of the water, wait a few seconds to catch her breath and push her down, to continue what he had interrupted.

Esse felt dizzy and excited at the same time, it was the first time she had given someone a blowjob underwater. It was a strange situation that excited and intrigued her.

After two, three times of the man putting her back under the water, Esse's lungs began to hurt a little and he understood, he brought her back up and let her breathe again. However, she was very excited by this strange adventure and hoped it would not end this way. The man answered her unspoken prayers, turned her around and with a slight pressure made her lean forward.

Esse now found herself on all fours, with her hands and knees resting on the sand and her pussy now above the water.

The man stood behind her and placed the tip of his penis on her open lips; she jumped in an instant and a shiver went up her spine, she wanted to feel it inside, when he pushed, at first gently, and then gave in and with a sharp blow he pushed it all inside her. Esse let out a little moan, that big member inside her hurt her but she liked it a lot.

She moved to the rhythm with him as she felt that his fingers were feeling for the other hole that was completely at his mercy.

The man slipped his finger into her little hole and began to penetrate her in rhythm with his penis. Esse enjoyed it and adjusted herself to feel better that big piece of meat inside her, when he realized that she was going to not resist .. few moments and ENJOY as never before!

Esse was exhausted and stunned by the enormous pleasure she felt but understood that the man had not yet come, and so she took the initiative, turned and took him in his mouth, this time out of the water; she began to suck him while with one hand she squeezed his balls, the man did not resist long and after a few seconds he flooded her with sperm ejaculating in her mouth and face.

Esse plunged her face into the water and shortly afterwards she adjusted her swimsuit, returned to shore and stretched out on her towel to sunbathe; out of the corner of his eye she saw that the guy with the mask was still there a little dumbfounded.

See you soon...
