

Heavenly Christmas 2020

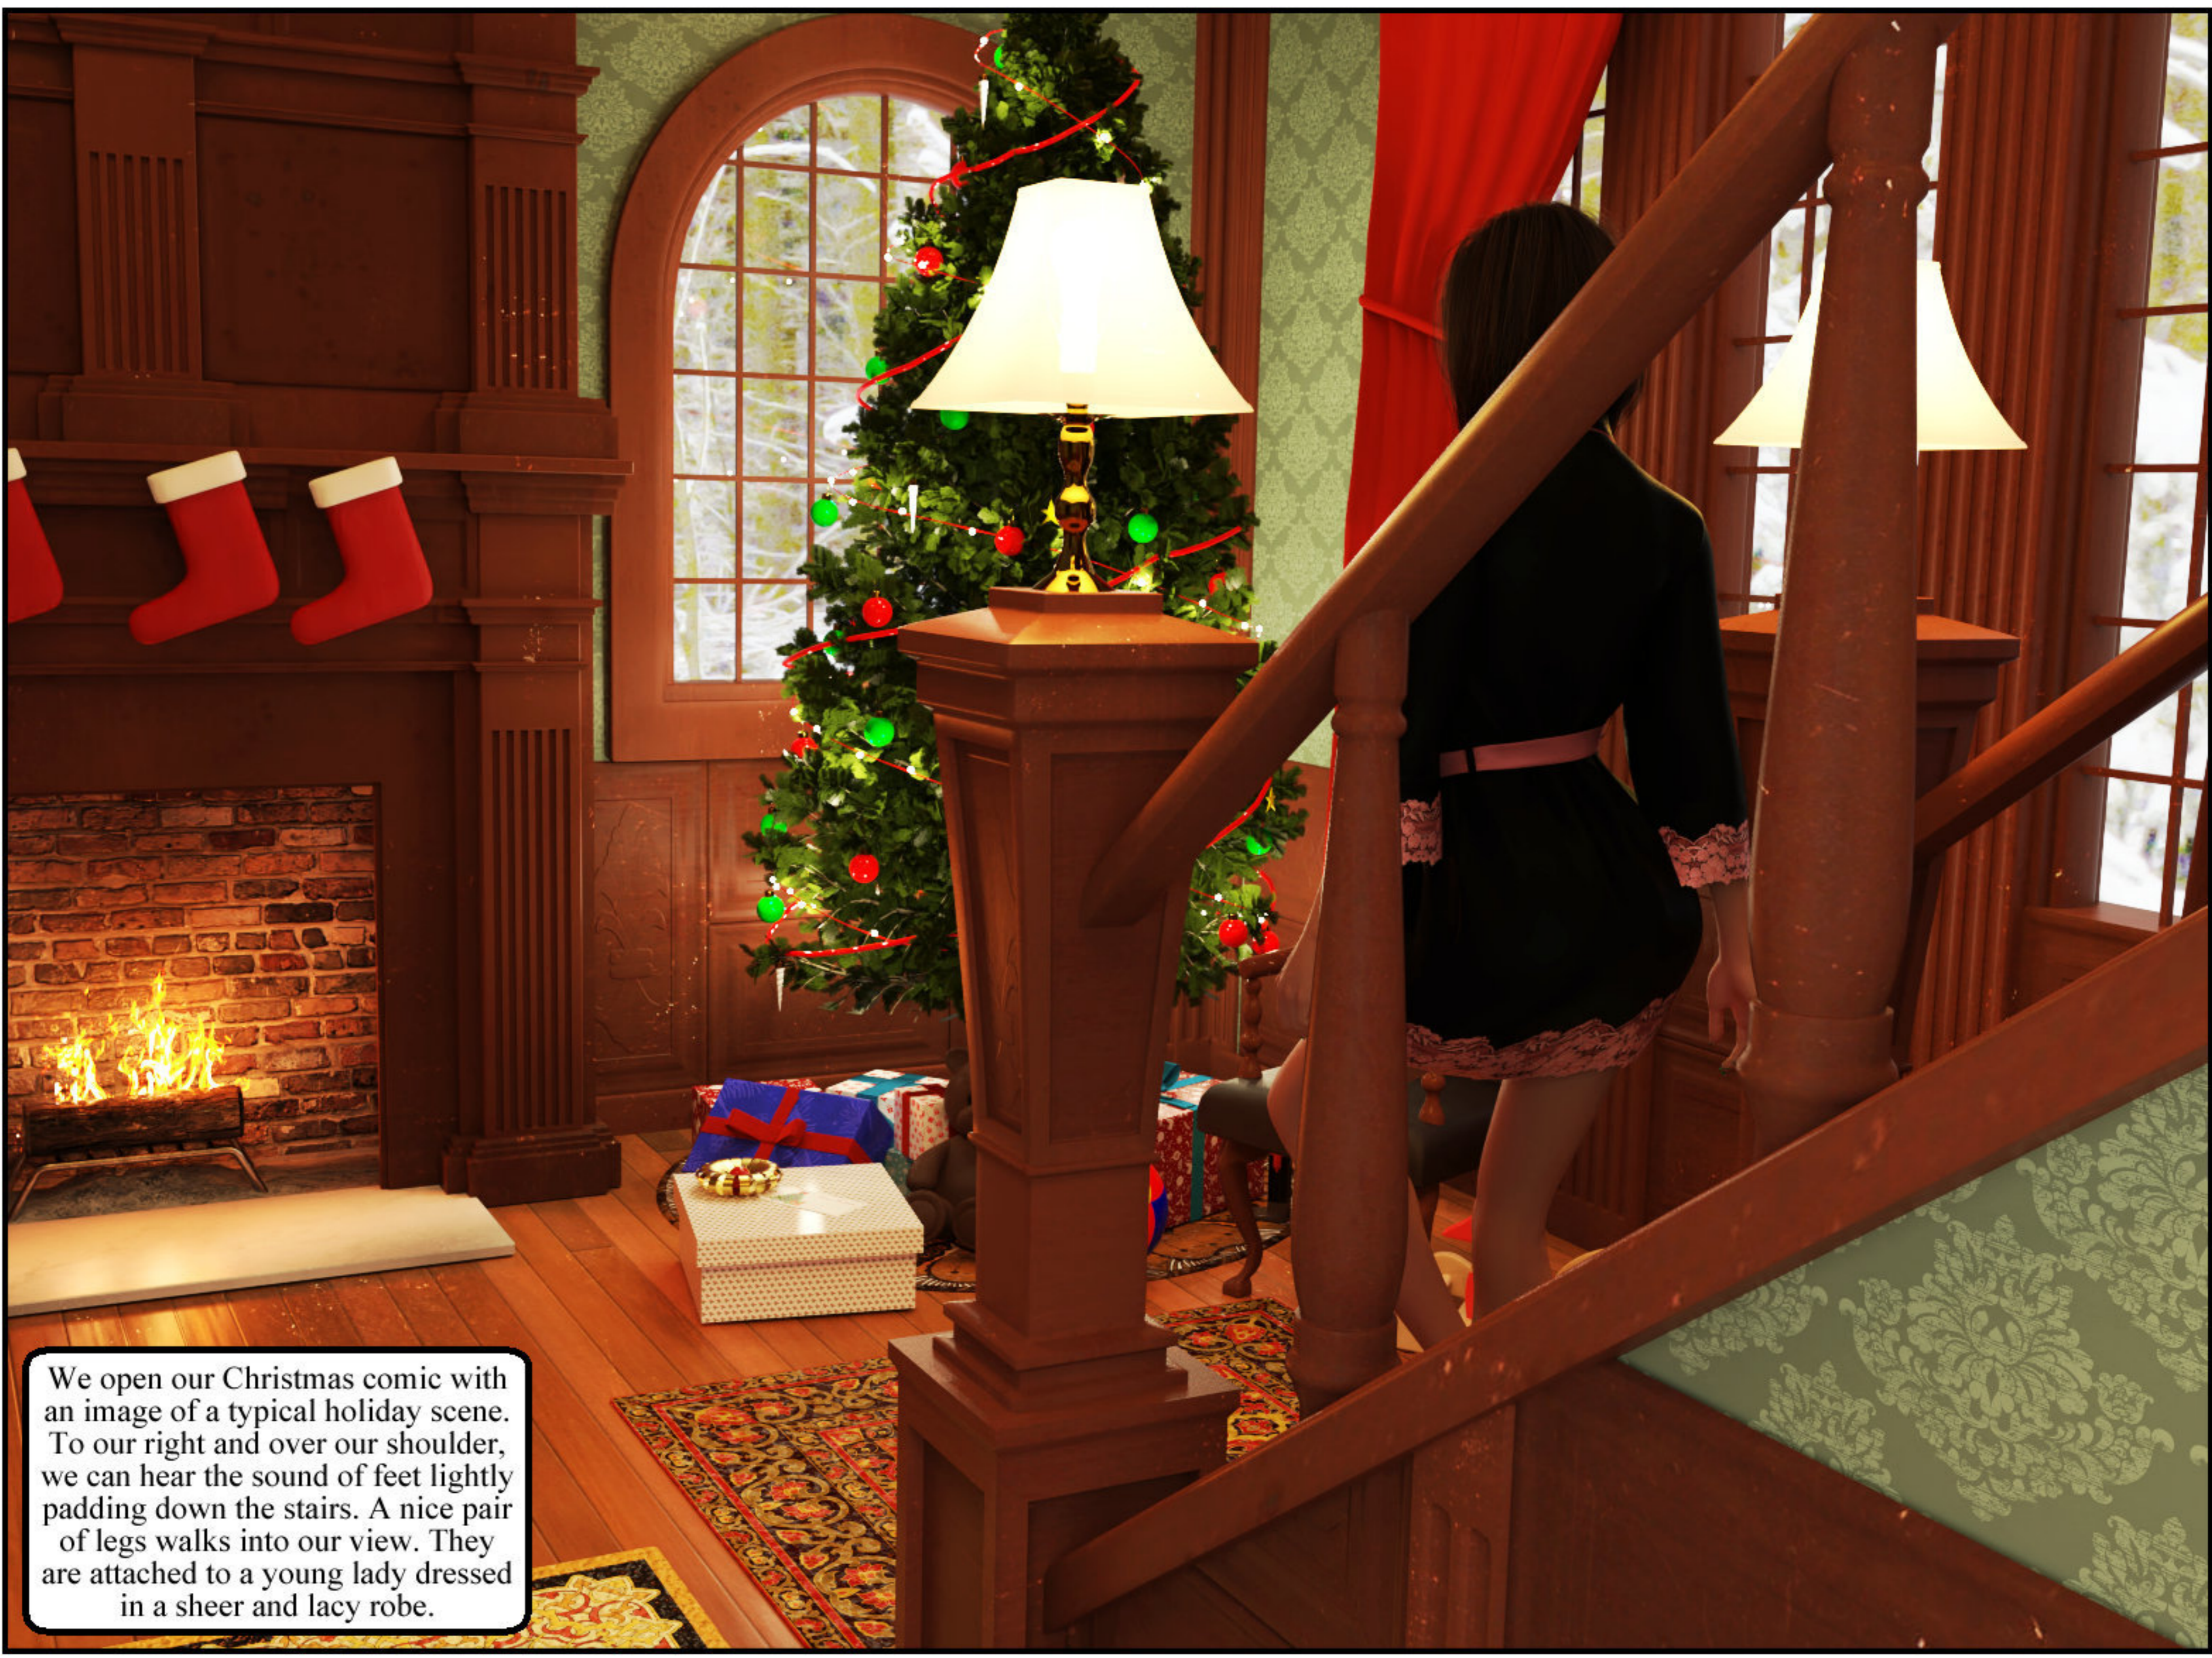

This has been a rough year. We all deserve a little piece of heaven this season.

Part 1

A little bit of a dark tale during these dark times, but with some growing boobies.

We open our Christmas comic with an image of a typical holiday scene. To our right and over our shoulder, we can hear the sound of feet lightly padding down the stairs. A nice pair of legs walks into our view. They are attached to a young lady dressed in a sheer and lacy robe.

Good!
It looks like my shitty
husband at least managed to do something right.

Heaven walks to the fire, warms
herself near the flames, and then turns around to examine the presents under the tree. She stands back up after a cursory examination of the gifts and comments on the best of them. She does not seem to be a very nice person.

Merry Christmas
To my darling Heaven,
you grow sexier every year. Or you are about to at least.

She selects the largest box, kneels beside it, removes the cover, and lifts it up to look inside. She definitely likes what she sees, and a satisfied smile spreads across her face. Heaven loves getting expensive presents from her wealthy husband.

He's not good for much, but at least he does buy me nice things. Oh! This looks sexy.

I can't wait to try this on.

It should look so good on my sexy body.

Heaven begins to slowly strip out of her clothes, revealing her lithe and sexy body. She sets the box down, picks the first piece out to take a closer look, and then slowly and sensually gets dressed in the slinky santa outfit that was packed inside. Or maybe it's an elf outfit?

Mmmm. It certainly looks like a very hot outfit.

But then I make anything look good. giggle

Damn!
I look so hot in this. It was a nice choice.

At least that idiot does know what looks good on me.

She poses for herself once she has the entire costume on. Heaven admires how good she looks in the revealing attire. He does seem to know what looks good on her, if only he knew what she does behind his back. Her head suddenly hurts as she thinks that last thought.

If only he knew what I use this hot body to do.

Ow! Shit! Did I miss a pin? That really hurt!

The pain quickly fades however, and it leaves Heaven a little woozy and confused. She opens her eyes, as they were shut against the pain, and we watch as her jade green eyes slowly become a much brighter and more vivid shade of green.

Where is it? I need to find--

I...
Oh! That is strange. It stopped, just like that.

Now I feel a little dizzy. Maybe I should go lie down.

No.
It seems
that I am all right.
It's not dizzy so
much as kind of tingly.

Swell!

The strange sensations that are coursing through Heaven's body change once more. It throws her off of her base. At first it was pain, then it was a feeling of being unbalanced, and now it's like her hairs are standing on end. Except that the feeling is in her face, and (more specifically) in her lips which rapidly swell to be much fuller.

Fuller!

Plump!

Actually, it is starting to feel kind of nice. I sort of like it. Mmmm.

The tingly feelings spread across her face, and Heaven starts to enjoy the feeling a little. As the odd tingling spreads across her face, Heaven's makeup is altered from her light morning application to a heavier and more festive version. This includes her lashes that grow longer and thicker as if mascara was applied.

Longer!

I could get used to this tingling, but I wonder what is causing it?

The next part of Heaven's body to change is her nails. They grow longer, as if she has had new acrylics applied, and the green color changes to more of a light mint tone. It's as if her nails are being altered to better match the new makeup on her face.

Grow!

The spreading sensations engulf her entire head. Heaven's speech pattern changes ever so slightly, as her hair begins to grow longer. Her locks crawl down her neck until the tips are almost touching her breasts. Tips that lighten to an almost blonde color.

It's sort of warm. Is it like a heated hat?

Lengthen!

QqqQqqQpp!

Or maybe it's like a heated top, 'cause like my titties feel all warm now too!

And as those lovely new blonde tips touch the upper curve of Heaven's breasts, those breasts begin to tingle and grow. Her top is slowly filled up with expanding breast flesh. The black fur is pulled further away from her chest, as the tight top is stretched over the rapidly increasing dimensions of her bustline.

Swell!!

Bulge!

Bigger!

It must be like the whole outfit! I feel so tingly and warm all over.

MmmMmmMmm!!!

Fill!!

Ripen!

Similar to how the warmth spread throughout her head, the tingling sensations continue to move to the rest of her body. They slowly travel down her torso and settle into her hips. Her perky butt begins to push out behind her ever so deliciously and slowly. Her shorts are pulled taught as her ass fills out a lot.

Bubblify!

It's like making me feel all like
silly and light
headed.
giggle

From within the core of her pelvis,
the intensifying tingles spread further outward. They seem to press on Heaven's flesh as they do so,
pushing it away from her center like they did with her now sumptuous ass. In this case, her thighs are made wider and thicker by the effect.

Thicker!

There is one place on Heaven's body, however, where the effects of the tingles seem to be the opposite of everywhere else. As the sensations travel down her torso from her chest and pass over her waist, it is sucked inward by several inches.

And I am kinda getting like a little horny. OK, a lot horny!

MooOoAaaanNn!!!!

Cinch!

Pinch!

But Heaven's hips are affected like the rest of her body. They are pushed out wider by the pulsing force of the tingling sensations until they are quite a bit thicker than before. With that last change, the feelings pull inward again and settle in her crotch.

I am like getting so fucking wet. I need a fat cock inside me!

FffuUucCekKk!!

Fuller!

Wider!

YyyeEees$sss$sss!!

Sexier!

Bigger!

Curvier!

We take a moment to pan the camera out and survey all the changes to her body. Heaven was slim and sexy before, but delicious flesh and luscious weight has now been added in all the right places. She is still slim and sexy, but now she is also stacked and packed which gives her a luxurious and devastating hourglass figure.

MmmMmmMmm!!!

Oh yeah! I'm getting even more turned on just thinking about being stuffed full with a thick dick!

With her engines now revving at near to full, Heaven begins touching and exploring her new body in a very erotic and sensual manner. She does not realize that she has changed. Heaven has always looked like this in her mind, and she slowly rubs her hands over her tantalizing body.

Where is that hunky husband of mine!? Doesn't he know that I need him? The things I'd like to do to him if he was here...

QqQqohHhh!!!

She poses for herself and admires all her sensuous curves as she touches herself. Slowly but surely she is turning herself on more and more, getting herself as worked up as she can for her man. If only he was here to satisfy her needs... her cravings.

Heaven gets herself so worked up, between staring at her sumptuous curves and just straight up slowly teasing herself, that she is just about ready to explode. She licks her lips in anticipation, completely ready to impale herself on someone or something in the next few seconds.

He got me like this super sexy costume, and I totally stuffed my big boobies into it for him. If he doesn't get here soon then...

MpOoAaAnNn!!!

I see you unwrapped your first present, my dear. Are you ready to unwrap your second one?

Yay! Daddy's here. Yes Daddy, I am all ready for you and your big, thick, fat present.

And just when she has reached the point of breaking, just when she can't wait any longer, we hear the creak of more footsteps on the stairs. Heaven's husband walks into the scene, dick first, with a bow wrapped around his next present for his smoking hot wife!
