The Martians were slowly dying out. Their planet was dry and largely uninhabitable. The few that remained were in bad shape. They needed to find a way to get off their planet and to repopulate their species. Their best choice... Earth.

The Martians were small, peaceful creatures. They had soft, squishy, slime-like bodies and were usually green-looking in color. They were able to create beautiful spaceships, works of art, and incredible cities. The Earthlings could never figure out this, though. All the Martians lived underground, so nobody ever knew about their existence.

Still, the clock was ticking. If they didn't act soon, there would be nobody left. The last of their leaders came up with a brilliant solution. The Earthlings would have no choice but to help... and they wouldn't even know they were helping too.

After countless studies, they realized that when the Martians put some of their green enzymes inside a young, human female's vagina, then mix it with human male sperm, they can then rapidly create more slime Martians. The best way to do this, of course, is by entering the female host either through the mouth, nose, breasts, anus, or vagina, making their way painlessly to the brain, and then possessing their host. Only by doing that could they easily re-populate their species. The Earthlings would have to help – whether they wanted to or not.

The Martians were a peaceful society. They didn't want to hurt anybody. So this possession won't be painful in even the slightest, but they had to do it. There wasn't much time left.

The Martians trained and sent a few dozen of their best scouts ahead to Earth to go and find the right hosts and get started. They didn't know when the mission would be complete, but they hoped it would be soon. After finishing their task, the scouts hoped to get in contact with the Earth leaders and then establish peace with all humans.

The ships were disguised as very small meteorites. They sent them all out and wished them the best of luck. They flew fast and landed in various places all around the world. One of them crash landed in the ocean right outside of Atlantic City, New Jersey in the USA. It was a bright, sunny day in the summer. The small splash from the impact was barely noticed by any of the beach goers.

The slime creature crawled out of its ship and floated to the top of the ocean. There, it let the waves gently carry it to the shore. This was the first time the creature has come to Earth. It was very warm here on this planet. Very wet. It felt nice. This planet was much kinder to its species than Mars was. The creature was a little envious of the humans for inhabiting such a luxurious planet.

It finally made its way on shore and laid there, examining its surroundings. There were many girls in bikinis tanning on the beach, men playing volleyball, and some food stands off to the back. Feeling the hot sand under its slimy body, it soon realized that staying on the hot sand pondering its next move carefully would just be extremely painful. It made a quick decision and headed straight for the group of girls tanning.

It slithered and crawled its way over to them. There were three girls there with their sunglasses on, backs facing the sun, laying out on their blankets. They didn't notice the slimy creature making its way closer and closer to them.

The three girls were all about college aged. One was a blonde girl with her hair in a ponytail. She had large breasts that squished out like pillows as she laid on her blanket. She had a thin body and a nice butt. Another girl was a brunette girl. She was a little bit older and her breasts were a little larger too, but she was still very attractive. The last girl was a thin Asian girl. She had a very petite body with smaller breasts and butt, but she had nice, long, black hair.

The Martian decided to possess the blonde girl because she had a great body. He would definitely let others know about the other girls because they were very attractive as well. This blonde girl seemed like the perfect candidate to help lead the re-population.

The slime got closer to her. She was wearing a pink bikini. Her bikini bottom was still on, but she undid her bikini top so she could have a better tan on her back. This girl had nice, smooth, soft skin and looked like a model. She was sleeping where she laid.

The alien got closer to her. He contemplated where to enter from. The nose was alright, but it's a tough entry. She'd surely wake up and notice him. He wouldn't be able to enter properly or fast enough. He could enter through her mouth. With her sleeping, her mouth was a little open already. It'd make it rather easier. Still, that wasn't good enough. It's too easily noticeable. Going up her ass would be fun, but not as much fun as entering her from her pussy.

The soft, wet, warmth of her pussy would make it a fun and exciting way to enter her. Plus, if what his superiors told him was true, this would be the most pleasurable way to enter – both for her and for him. It's a recommended way of entry. So, the Martian had no choice.

He approached her bikini bottom. She had a nice round butt. She looked very attractive. Her butt looked so soft and nice. He wanted to touch it so bad. There the butt was. He then got closer to it. Her butt was soft and plushy. Touching it sent waves of pleasure shivering through him.

When she felt the slimy touch of his warmed up jelly body, she squirmed a little bit on her blanket. She was amazed at the strange feeling. It was almost like touching a jellyfish – one that didn't sting, at least. She jiggled a little bit, but then went back to tanning again. She didn't know what was coming to her

The Martian approached her carefully. Her bikini was a little bit wet. She must've gone in the water earlier. He could see that her skin was getting a nice tan. It was very hot in the sun. It had a little stickiness to it from the tanning oils. It felt great. He moved closer to her. Thankfully, his body was very elastic, so he could move it anywhere he wanted to. He got right up to her bikini bottom and slid himself between it. It only took a second, but soon his whole body was inside the bikini bottom. There was a small bulge from where he was, making her bottom stick out.

She noticed it and scratched her butt. Then went back to tanning and napping. He was in luck. She didn't feel a thing. Then, he got up close to her big, soft butt. Because he was rubbing her butt with his slimy, soft body, he was getting her a little bit turned on. Her pussy was already a little bit wet. He got closer to it and felt how warm and soft it was. It was just like what his other people said.

He then carefully stuck one part of his slimy body inside her pussy and rubbed it. Her juices were warm and started to slowly tickle out of her pussy. She squirmed a little bit on her blanket. She was enjoying this new sensation. She didn't quite feel him, but she felt her pussy getting turned on more and more.

Soon, he shoved more of his body into her pussy until he was fully in. It was soft and mushy. Very warm and pink. He felt relaxed in here. He loved the smell and the wetness of inside her. It was comfy. She could really feel herself get turned on now. She bit her lip and closed her eyes, letting her mind wander and enjoy the full pleasure of whatever was going on. She had no idea what was happening.

She took her other hand and started to subtly massage her pussy gently through her bikini bottom. She couldn't help it. It was just turning her on way too much. She started to rub herself down there, slowly and gently, letting herself get even more turned on. Her bikini bottom was starting to get a little wet from her juices leaking out and soaking her bikini.

It was already a little wet anyways from swimming earlier, so at least nobody would notice.

She kept rubbing her pussy gently and softly so that nobody would notice. The Martian went deeper and deeper into her pussy. He could tell it was turning her on. He saw her fingers entering her vagina and that was his cue to go in deeper. He crawled in more and more. He was now completely surrounded by her warm, wet pussy. It felt nice in here. Soon, he could go no further. He was so deep, it was almost to her womb. So, he had to melt himself down. Now was for part two of his plan.

He relaxed his body and then liquefied himself and so that the slime liquid would coat the inside of her pussy. Mixing with her pussy juices. It was sticky and slimy. The green mixed with her slimy juices already. It only served to turn her on even more. Her pussy got really hot. It was really making her horny beyond anything she's ever felt. She wanted to cum right there, but she tried to hold it back. She bit her lip and took in a deep breath, trying to hold it. Trying to contain the pleasure, but it was too much. It felt too good. Her pussy was so hot and turned on. Every little motion made by the slime creature was too much for her.

She moaned quietly to herself, hoping not to wake her friends. But then, it happened. She felt a large wave of exciting, shocking pleasure shooting through her body. She came and her pussy juices got everywhere on her bikini, even soaking up into the towel. She tried to stay quiet, but she was sure she was heard by other people nearby. Her pussy needed time to recover. To let her get her bearings. It was too sensitive right now. But that didn't stop the Martian.

Once it melted itself down, half of it went and coated her vagina with its slime body. It felt really good and even though her pussy needed a little break, the slime only made it worse. She was still so turned on and feeling so good.

Then, the other half of its slime body melted into her bloodstream painlessly. It quickly flew through her blood, through her body, and within seconds, it was already flowing into her brain. She barely noticed a thing. Soon, the Martian started to gain control while she began to lose it. She started feeling really sleepy – as if she hasn't gotten any sleep for the past week. She tried to keep her eyes awake, but soon passed out onto the blanket. She drifted off to sleep in her own body and the Martian began to take control.

At first, it was interesting getting to know its new host. It started to feel its heartbeat and then it could move its fingers and toes. It wiggled them around and moved them to side to side. Then, it could feel its new legs and arms. It got up off the blanket and opened its eyes to the light. It was a bright day out, so it quickly put her sunglasses back on.

It looked down at its new, sexy, body. What a killer body it now had. This was exactly what they told him to find back when the mission began. This was going to get so many guys and help to finally bring back the species again.

The Martian scanned her memories. It realized the person's name is Jessica Benison. She's got large, DD breasts, silky blonde hair, and a sweet, sensuous voice. She liked to work out and stay thin, yet enjoyed studying too. She majored in French and wanted to work in a company one day abroad. The alien began to inspect its new body.

The arms were small and dainty, yet still had a little bit of muscle on them. She was strong, but still very feminine. Her arms and legs were hairless and smooth. It was nice and soft. It felt good touching them. Her thighs were soft too. They were thin, but not too thin. They still had a lot of extra meat on them. This would be useful for when seducing a man.

Her breasts were also very soft and perfectly round. She sat up, letting her breasts hang down onto her chest. They were large and had some weight to them. She took her hands and felt the weight of them. They were a little heavy, but felt just right. Her nipples were pink and were already getting quite hard.

She took her fingers and kneaded them in between her fingers. She rolled them around and massaged them. Each touch, even the slight ones, turned her on so much. She could feel the warm, relaxing pleasure shooting through her body. She didn't want to stop there.

She then took her other hand and went down to her warm, awaiting pussy. It was already very wet from when the creature entered her. It was warm and leaking out pussy juices onto her bikini bottom. She took her finger and lightly massaged the outer, soft walls. Every touch send shivers of pleasures down her spine, getting her turned on so much. She started to rub it harder and harder, more and more. She kept going until she couldn't handle it anymore. She came into her bikini. Her hot, wet liquids squirting out all over her bikini bottom.

The creature laid back against the blanket, letting the waves of relaxing pleasure wash over her. It came in and out like the waves of the ocean near her. Her whole body felt spent. No energy left. It felt so good. Now, she wanted to try to really do what she came here to do. She had to find a man to help her.

Her two friends were sleeping nearby. They would be excellent assistants in this. The slime knew that other slimes have landed not far from her. They were waiting by the pier until they were given the signal. The slime walked closer to the pier and saw its two companions waiting underneath the pier.

One was purple and the other was a blue color. She picked them up and carried them to the friends. They felt slimy and warm in her hands. She soon reached the other friends who were still relaxing on their blankets, not knowing what was about to happen.

She put them down next to them and then let them do their thing. They crawled closer to the girls. The purple slime went towards the brunette girl's mouth. She was lying on her belly, sound asleep. The slime got closer to her mouth and then entered from there. It quickly entered her mouth and it got slurped up inside. Her mouth closed once the slime was inside. The slime released its gel, dulling her senses and putting her into a blissful sleep. She didn't even notice as the slime split itself. Some went towards her pussy and the other went up towards her brain and took control.

She sat up and stretched her arms out. She looked around and then looked up at the blonde girl then smiled. She was happy to be in such a beautiful, sexy, new body.

The other slime, the blue slime, headed towards the Asian girl. It decided to take an alternative route in. It first split itself in half. One half went towards her warm, soft pussy. The girl never noticed as the slime entered her bikini bottom and went straight into its new warm, wet home. The other half of the slime went towards her breasts. It split itself one more time and then entered the girl through her nipples.

Each slime entered a different breast. It was a quick and easy entry. It just needed a little wiggle and push and it was in. Once inside, her breasts expanded dramatically to accommodate the large slime that just entered her. Her breasts increased in volume significantly. It was probably even larger than the blonde girl's breasts now.

The slime then split itself one more time. Half stayed in her breasts, keeping them nice and large, and the other half went into her body's bloodstream. It flowed through her body and then went into her brain and took over. Soon, she got up and looked around, pleased with its new body. She took her soft, small, petite hands and felt up her heavy, soft breasts. They were still filled mostly with the slime's goo. They had quite a bit of weight to them. It felt good. Her nipples were sensitive and hard, mostly because of when the slime entered her earlier, it made her extra sensitive. It felt good when she bounced them up and down, the nipples rubbing against the fabric of her bikini.

The two slimes were set and ready to go. Their next goal was to find some attractive men to mate with. It was the most important part of their mission after all.

It was a little strange being inside of these new human bodies. It was at first a little bit difficult to walk. They had a different center of gravity. They had small feet and had large breasts weighing them down. The slime inside the Asian girl almost tripped and fell over while she was walking through the sand, but managed to save herself.

They slowly made their way to the boardwalk. There were tons of different people around here. It was a good day out today. The aliens could see lots of other attractive women walking around, as well as a lot of men. They saw a male lifeguard standing outside an office building chatting with a shorter, brunette girl. She was smiling and blushing while looking deeply into his eyes. The man had big muscles and short, black hair. He was a little bit tan too.

There was another man in a polo shirt walking down the boardwalk with a small briefcase. He wore aviator sunglasses and looked like a really wealthy man. He was heading off the boardwalk and towards the parking lot.

Then finally, the aliens spotted the perfect companions for their mission. There were three athletic guys sitting on chairs in a food stand eating slices of pizza together. They were all wearing different T-shirts, they had their swim trunks and sandals on, and one of them had a volleyball. The slimes decided these would be the perfect humans to try it out on.

The slimes walked over to them and tapped them on the shoulder. They turned around to see the sexy beauties right there looking at them. The men gazed hungrily at the hot girls in front of them, scanning them up and down, liking what they saw.

“Well... hello there, girls.” Said the taller man. “What can I help you with?” He tried to look the blonde girl in the eyes, but he kept scanning down towards her large, soft, beautiful breasts hanging in front of him in their bikini.

Thankfully, the slimes had a lot of practice imitating human conversations back on Mars. They also could access their host's memories and mannerisms, making it easier to act like them.

“Hello, boys.” The blonde girl said. “We’re looking for some big, strong men to help us find our way back to our hotel. We’re a little bit lost.”

The slimes knew these women were actually tourists here and had a hotel nearby. In fact, they knew where the hotel was, but this would be a perfect, convenient excuse.

“We’d be happy to.” The taller man said again. “What hotel?”

“The Victor Plaza.” The blonde girl told him.

“Oh that one. Yeah, it’s not too far. C’mon, I’ll show you the way.”

He said.

And with that, the men left the restaurant with the girls. They ended up chatting along the way and soon got along pretty well. There was laughter and joking around. The slimes did a great job of impersonating the real girls. The couples soon started holding hands as the girls were escorted back to their hotel.

The hotel was mostly quite empty. They just finished cleaning the rooms and so the girls could finally get back in them. They took the elevator up. All the girls had rooms on various floors. First, the Asian girl got off. Then next was the older brunette woman. Finally, it was the blonde girl.

The man with her was the tall man with black hair and sporty sunglasses resting on his head. He was quite muscular. They kissed in the elevator. She felt his big, muscular body up against her little frame. He pushed her up against the empty elevator wall and began making out furiously. She could feel his soft lips up against hers.

Soon, the doors opened up. She was on the top floor – floor number 35. They walked hand in hand to room number 206. It was a fairly small room with tan walls and a red-ish colored carpet. There was a desk, a TV, a side chair, the bathroom, and the bed itself.

The slime could feel its host body getting wet and excited. The man was big and strong. This was going to be the alien's first time having sex with a human. In fact, neither of the slimes have done this before. They ran simulations. They trained for it. But this was their true first time.

The alien felt a little bit nervous. While these humans were nothing compared to their mighty race, they were certainly quite strong and formidable. Even controlling these bodies alone were a challenge. Usually, the slimes would reproduce through a molding and combining process, but that process has stopped recently. For some unknown reason, the slimes haven't been able to reproduce. It just isn't working. The human semen was the only way to bring their species back guaranteed.

The alien lay out on the bed and looked up at the human. He was a big man and was clearly much stronger than the human female. She lay down on her back and the alien looked up at the human. Apparently, his name was Rick. He was quite the charmer and knew his way around the bed.

She spread her legs. Her pussy was getting really moist and damp, awaiting the man who was going to give her the full pleasure. He crawled up to her and kissed her on the lips.

They kissed slowly at first, enjoying the warm, strong embrace of the other. Soon, they kissed more passionately and began to make-out. She put her tongue inside his mouth, rolling it around, playing with his, making an almost sort of dance. He took his hand and glided it down the side of her soft, feminine arm.

It was smooth and felt great to the touch. His hand started gently from her little shoulder and went down her arm and ending at her hand. Their fingers locked together as they continued to kiss. The man took his other hand and brought it towards the other side of her waist. He felt the soft, beautiful, sensuous curves of her flawless, sexy body.

It turned her on so much, letting him feel her up like this. She felt like a prized object. Like someone who was going to be fucked hard and she was going to enjoy it. Her pussy was getting even moister and wet now. Some of her pussy juices were leaking out and soaking into her bikini bottom and dripping onto the sides of her thighs.

She started slowly and gently humping the air, raising and lowering her groin. It called for him. For his dick. She felt like she was being teased with all this touching and caressing. She just wanted him now. To stop all this toying around and just fuck already. It was driving her wild with desire.

He then took his hand and started feeling up her soft, beautiful breast. He cupped it in his hand and squeezed it. It was smooth. His dick was so hard right now. All this playing around was making him so horny. It was jutting out of his pants.

The man came down and put his lips up against her sexy, pink nipple. He licked and sucked on it gently. Rolling it around with his tongue. Lightly biting on it. It tasted a little bit salty from her sweat. He carefully licked it and played with it. She was getting so turned on. She gently held his head up to her nipple, urging him to keep going. His other hand made its way to the other breast and started fondling that one too. It was too much for her. The sensations were something she's never felt before. She let out a long, deep, pleasurable sigh as she relaxed and let the waves of warm pleasure wash over her body.

Soon, he took his other hand, and while still licking her breast, he moved his hand down towards her crotch. Gently, he let his hand glide slowly from her navel to her groin. It felt almost a little bit ticklish. She closed her eyes and leaned back on the bed and let the man do what he wanted with her.

His hand soon found its way to her bikini bottom. He carefully put his hand under her bikini and then closer and closer to her soft, warm, moist pussy. She bit her lower lip in anticipation. She knew this was going to feel so good! She just wished he'd go a little faster and really amp it up. She couldn't handle it.

“Mmmm... this feels good...” she said, breathlessly

The man carefully used his middle finger and went past her smooth, hairless groin and towards her awaiting, pink slit. He could feel how moist it was. Her panties were clearly wet already too, accidentally getting the top of his hand a little wet as well.

Then, he moved his middle finger towards the outside of her warm pussy and began to massage her outer lips. Her sticky, wet fluids were leaking out and dripping onto his hand. He gently and softly caressed her. He went slow and careful, making little circle motions with his hands. Slowly and carefully, he massaged and played with her little, moist pussy.

She couldn't take it. It felt so good. She felt like she was going to explode. She wanted more. She was like a total nympho now – craving relief right away. She then took his hand my wrist and pulled it further into her pussy, then laid back once he was deeper inside.

He could feel how damp and warm it was inside her. It was very smooth inside, except for some bumpy spots. He started caressing her inside. In, out, and all around. The best spot was on the top. Her G-spot. It was bumpy and even slight motions with his finger made her squirm around, her groin contracted, and her legs moved around. She tried to resist the pleasure, but it was too much. She let the amazing pleasure come over her body, driving her crazy.

He kept massaging her more and more. He went harder and harder. Really getting in there. She was squirming around. It felt so good. The pleasure was intense. She was on the verge of coming. She could feel it. She never came this easily before.

But then, he pulled his wet finger out. She was right on verge of cumming too. How dare him! She was feeling so good and now he was denying her that sweet release she craved. However, that just made her want him even more.

The man then took off the rest of his clothes and removed her bikini too. She lay naked out on her bed. The man, with his rock hard dick, waved it in front of her face. The man laid down as the woman got up and faced him this time.

She saw his big, hard dick right there. It stood up like a spear ready to fuck the ever living daylights out of her. She wanted it bad. That was going to be where everything came together. She desired it. She craved it.

She then moved in closer to him and took her light, gentle, feminine fingers and began to caress his stiff dick. She went slow and careful. It was warm and the veins were sticking straight out. Warm blood was pumping through his dick, making it nice and hard for her. It was so big. The training the slime received told it that it'd see a certain size, but this one was so big. It was almost too big. It wondered whether it could take it all.

She slowly pumped it up and down, up and down. She rhythmically caressed and got it nice and ready. The tip was all red now. The blood was running through it. The man bit his lower lip and relaxed as he enjoyed the pleasure from the hot, sexy girl before him. She didn't stop there though.

She took her mouth and lowered herself down onto his dick. She first reached out with her tongue and began to lightly play and fiddle around with the tip of his dick using only her tongue. Soon, she moved down lower and lower – engulfing his dick with her mouth. It tasted salty and a little hot, but it tasted good. Having it in her mouth was such a turn on. She took one of her fingers and began to massage her clit as she sucked off her new favorite man.

Up and down, up and down. Her warm, wet mouth licked and massaged his dick. It was too big, though. Some of it went past her gag reflex and down her throat a little ways. She only hoped this would please her man even more.

She kept slowly pumping it with her mouth, massaging the bottom of his warm shaft with her other hand as well. Then, she got greedy. She wanted more of it. She went faster and faster, harder and harder. She pumped it more and more.

The man couldn't control it. It just felt so great. His dick felt like it was on the brink. He knew it was only a matter of time before he finally came.

She kept pumping it and again and again. She looked up at the man into his eyes. He was her master. Her man. She wanted to do whatever it took to please him. She was so happy to serve. She kept pumping and massaging and licking his dick. But it proved too much for him.

“Shit! I’m going to... fucking cum, girl!” He said with a grunt.

He grabbed the back of her head using his two hands and forcefully pumped her head onto his dick, using her like a piece of meat. Just a mere sex toy. Harder and harder he pumped her. He could feel the hard pressure flowing up towards his dick. Any second now. He could feel it. It was too much. He was going to cum. His lower abs tightened and soon, he shot his heavy, warm, white load right into the girl’s mouth. There was so much.

He never came that much before in his entire life. It felt so great. He laid back on the bed, enjoying the rest of the afterglow. It was so good. His dick got really sensitive. When her tongue accidentally brushed by the tip of his dick, he shuttered. It was too much.

She swallowed as much of it as she could. It tasted phenomenal to her. It was exquisite. Like some kind of salty, delicious delicacy. She was lucky to have taken so much in. When he pulled out of her mouth, he still had some of her sticky saliva and his own juices drizzling off his dick and falling onto the bed.

Some of his semen got onto her cheeks and chin. She promptly took her tongue and licked it off, smiling and enjoying every bit of the taste. It was something she really liked. Sadly, as great as it tasted for the slime, it wasn't enough. He needed that load where it really counted – her warm, pink pussy. There, with the load released, he could re-create the Martians. It was his mission after all.

The man laid back. Thinking that was it. However, it wasn't over yet. She gave one last lick over of his warm, wet dick. Making sure to clean it off and get one last taste. Then, she crawled over to him and let her warm, dripping wet pussy slide gently onto his dick. It made a little slurp noise as it went in deep.

She let out a light moan of pleasure as she felt his whole dick slip deep into her wet, warm pussy. Her pussy was on fire. It felt like magic. Every bit of her pussy felt so good. She never knew how great it felt to be a woman. Even the slightest touch sent shivers of pleasure down her spine, turning her on so much. It was something she's never felt before.

The man started to pump his dick in and out of her warm, soft, wet pussy. Slowly he went up and down, up and down. He didn't go in too deep. He just wanted to feel her warm body over his dick. Her pussy felt amazing to him. It was so warm. His dick lit up. It felt so good.

Soon, he started to pump her harder and harder. He went faster and faster. Really try to fuck the shit out of her. He pushed his dick in there deeper and deeper. She could feel it almost reaching to her belly. It felt so good. He kept fucking her harder and harder, more and more, deeper and deeper. He kept going.

In some ways, it was starting to hurt, but the pain also mixed with the pleasure. It was so good. He kept going. More and more. He kind of hated this woman. She felt so good. Who was she? Why did they click so easily like this? He wondered what her intentions were. But in many ways, he didn't care. He was so lost in the pleasure of the moment. He wasn't even wearing a condom right now, but it felt so good. He kept fucking her harder and harder.

“Shit... your pussy feels amazing, girl! God damn.” The man grunted out.

He grabbed her soft, petite shoulders and shoved her harder onto his dick. He used her like she was nothing more than a warm, soft sex toy to be used for his pleasure only.

She loved the feeling of him forcefully fucking the hell out of her. It felt good. His big, strong hands on her shoulders pushing her down onto his dick making him so hard. He could feel the hot, liquid in his dick stirring up. The pleasure was so intense. He never felt so good in his life. He was going to blow his heavy load again any minute now. He knew he should probably pull out unless he wanted to totally impregnate her, but he didn't want to stop. He kept his dick in there.

She knew he was going to blow his load soon. She could feel his dick starting to really heat up in her pussy. She was going to cum soon as well. Her muscles were contracting and waves of intense pleasure were washing over her. It felt so good. She knew he was close. She wanted his sperm so bad. It felt so great.

He grabbed her crotch and pushed down hard on her. He rocked her hips and made her move back and forth. He pushed harder and harder. She couldn't stop him. He was so strong. Her neck tilted back in pleasure and she let out a gasp. His hard, hot dick was rubbing all around inside her pussy. Didn't he know how sensitive this thing was? Her face blushed red. It was too much for her to handle.

“Fuck... I'm going to cum!” He said.

He couldn't hold it any longer. He knew he should probably pull out, but that was just something he didn't want to do. It so good. Her pussy was on fire. Her warm juices was so good. He felt his dick give way. The pressure was building, he was going to cum any second now. He hated this girl for making him feel so good. For making him cum so easily. But he loved the feeling. This girl was really quite something!

And right as he was rocking her hips back and forth, she couldn't hold it and she came. Her pussy released a tidal wave of thick, warm juices all over his dick and out her pussy. They leaked out everywhere – onto her thighs and even the bed too. Her mouth was agape and she felt the crazy pleasure shooting through her body. She was all tingly and it felt so good and relaxing.

At that moment too, the man also came his load. His thick, hard dick shot the warm, white load right out and into her awaiting, dripping wet pussy. His cum shot everywhere up inside her. It was probably his largest load he ever shot in his life. It felt so good to finally have that release that he wanted. There was so much everywhere. It slowly oozed out of her pussy and dripped out onto her thighs and onto his crotch.

She let his warm dick stay in her pussy for a little longer. She loved the feeling of being penetrated by him. After she came, her pussy became extremely sensitive. Even slight motions by his dick made her gasp hard. It felt so good. It was going to take a few more seconds before she could finally come off of her high. She was so happy to have his semen finally inside her. He did a good job. Soon, the slime in her was going to finally have the nutrients it needed to start the mission. She was so happy to have done her duty. Still, it felt so good. She had an idea.

Perhaps, maybe, she'd get even more slimes created. This would really help out her species. She looked forward to that. This man was useful. She'd have to contact him again.

She finally let his dick out of her warm pussy. It made a little slurp sound as it came out, slimy and wet from her pussy juices. They both laid out on the bed. She cuddled up next to him smiling. The waves of pleasure were still washing over her in and out like the waves of the tide. It felt so good. She enjoyed it. It was much better than the sex she'd have if she was just a normal slime with another slime.

The man laid out on the bed, putting his hands behind his back, pleased with what he accomplished. He felt good. His body felt great. And he just had sex with an incredibly hot girl. Life was going well for him.

The two laid out together on the bed together. Not really talking, just relaxing in each other's company for a bit. It felt good. Just this alone felt nice. They were both happy they did what they did.

Soon, the man's phone began to vibrate. He got up and went to his clothes lying on the floor, checking his pockets for his cell phone. He found it and started texting for a little bit. The girl just laid there watching him.

She had her hand on her belly, rubbing it gently. She knew it wouldn't be long before the miracle finally happened.

The man turned to her.

“It's been fun girl, but I gotta run. I'll be late for the baseball game. My friends and I are leaving now. I'd invite you, but the tickets are sold out, girl.”

She nodded happily. She didn't really mind.

“Here.” He said as he began writing something down on a nearby hotel piece of paper and pen. “My number's on that. Text me later when you're ready. Maybe we'll hang out at the end of the game. I gotta get back to my car before the meter runs out.”

“Ok.” She said.

The man quickly got his clothes back on and rushed out the door. His hair was a mess, but he didn't really mind. He and his buddies left the room at about the same time and headed out to the game. However, the real fun was about to be had right there in the hotel room.

The slime she coated in her pussy was really powerful. All it needed was the semen from a male human and just a little bit of time and it'd do its thing. It took almost no time at all. Only about 5 minutes after the man left, she could feel something moving about in her pussy.

The slime in her pussy absorbed the semen and then started process of recreating the slimes. It started slow at first, but then as the slime cells multiplied rapidly with time, it started changing faster and faster. Soon, a full sized slime was born. She could feel it moving around in her pussy.

She could see a little bulge on the top part of her skin near her groin. It moved a little bit – stimulating every part of her pussy. It felt so good. As it squirmed and squiggled around in her, it made her light up with pleasure. She bit her lower lip and let herself get pleased by the slime.

It kept moving more and more, growing larger and larger. It was so amazing. The feeling was like ecstasy for her. It was so good. She started moaning lightly to herself.

Soon, the slime made its way out of her pussy. It oozed its way slowly, but surely out of her little, wet, warm slit. She spread her legs, letting it get out easier. It inched its way carefully until it finally plopped out onto the bed. The pleasure stopped and she finally was able to open her eyes and see the little slime creature. This one's color was orange. They always take on a variety of colors no matter what.

She picked it up in her hand and felt the little creature. It was warm and a little wet from her pussy juices. It didn't weigh too much either. It was rather cute too. Thankfully, even after birthing this creature, she still has lots of slime left in her pussy to birth even more of these creatures.

This was going to be great. She got up with the little creature and put it on the bed as she got dressed again. She put on her clothes and fixed up her hair and make-up.

Then, she walked over to the creature and put him in her purse. As she about to walk to the door, she noticed something interesting by the door. It was the note from the man.

She picked it up and started reading it. Not only did he leave his name and number, but also he left a little nice message at the end. It gave an address. Apparently, this place was going to be where a party was going to be held. This was going to be perfect.

Lots of attractive women and horny men were sure to be at this party. If she brought the little slime creature with her, she'd be able to get fucked by some of the men, let her new slime take over a hot girl, and also be able to increase the number of slimes created. This was surely going to be the perfect opportunity. She couldn't wait to finally get there. It was going to be amazing.

She gathered the other girls up. Their guys also went off the game as well. They all knew about the party. Each one had a slime of their own stowed away in their purses. The guys were apparently going to join them later on after the game.

They headed out of the hotel, got a taxi, and headed off. It was going to be a very wild ride.

It wasn't too far from where they were staying. They drove for about 15 minutes to a very quiet part of the beach area. There were many large, wealthy houses around here. Some people were out walking along the beach and enjoying the sun.

As they arrived at the place, they noticed how big the place was. It was a large white house with lots of windows. There was a small fence and then around back, was where the party was being held. It was getting a little bit darker out now and the place was really starting to heat up.

As they arrived, they noticed the party was being held on the beach. There were tons of people everywhere. Many of them were young and looked to be in their 20's. They were prime candidates. There were tons of hot girls and sexy, attractive men everywhere. There was a DJ playing music on a small stage and then there were servers walking around too serving various alcohols. Everyone was having fun.

The girls walked over to the one of the many bars that were set up and took a seat. The slimes themselves weren't particularly fond of alcohol, but they realized that the girls they possessed liked it very much. Once they drank a beer, the slimes too realized that they liked it as well. It was rather tasty. Perhaps the girl's likes and dislikes were being absorbed by the slimes and now the slimes were liking it as well.

The girls sat there for a little bit. They were trying to decide their next course of action. It was then that three other girls came over. One was a tall black haired girl with a nice tan. She seemed like the leader of the group. The girl on the left was a shorter blonde girl and the girl on the right, who wasn't really paying attention, was more of a redhead girl.

The black haired girl looked at the trio and smiled.

"Well... welcome." She said, in a bit of a southern accent. Probably from Tennessee. "I haven't seen you people around here before. My name is Beth. The blonde girl here is Rebecca and this, she pointed to the redhead girl, is Lauren. Welcome to the party."

"Thanks" said the slime possessing the blonde girl.

The girls smiled nervously and sipped their drinks.

"If you need anything, we'll be inside." The southern girl said.

And then the girls walked into the big mansion.

The three slimes thought about it and then looked at each other silently. They already knew their target. The best girls for the next possession would be them. They left their empty beers at the counter and walked into the house.

It was a beautiful house with lots of paintings and statues. There were expensive TVs and various other things. The other three girls were in the house. The southern black-haired girl was in the kitchen grabbing some snacks and stuff out of the cabinets. The redhead and the blonde was upstairs. They didn't know what they were up to.

The three slimes looked at each other and nodded. They knew the plan. The main slime possessing the blonde girl then went over to the black-haired girl in the kitchen. The black haired girl, Beth, was now on her knees checking on some bottom cabinets. She was searching in deep for something. Really searching hard. She didn't see her enter the kitchen.

The girl opened up her purse and then let the new orange slime do its thing. She put it on the ground near Beth and took a few steps back. It was only going to be a matter of time.

The orange slime was eager to do its job. It slithered quickly and hurriedly to Beth. Beth was wearing a solid blue bikini and she had a nice set of C-cup breasts and a slim body. She had beautiful, long, straight, jet black hair streaming down her back.

The orange slime quickly hurriedly along the floor until it reached her bikini bottom. It then gently opened up her bikini and slid inside. Beth felt it, but it was too late already. The slime with its warm, sticky body slowly went into her bikini and started gently pushing and oozing its soft, jell-like body into her warm, moist pussy.

She stood straight up, her hands going for her groin. She pushed in on the outside of her bikini and felt the squishy being entering her pussy. She was a little bit scared at first, and then it started rubbing up against the walls of her pussy, turning her on wildly. Her knees started to buckle under the pleasure. She gave out a soft moan and let the squishy slime enter into her.

It only took a few seconds, but it already spread its soft body into her pussy and then melt down and enter her body. The gel in her pussy will be used when it's time to make more slimes later during sex. The rest of the slime was carried through her blood stream and into her brain. It quickly took over her body.

Her face twitched and eyes blinked several times before the slime finally took full control of its host. The girl drifted off into a deep sleep and the slime was now the one in command.

It looked down at its fine, beautiful body. Her breasts weren't as large as the blonde girl's, but it was still very nice. She wore a beautiful bikini and had a great physique. The slime could tell that this woman liked to keep herself in shape. She was lean and when it accessed her memories, it realized that the girl loved to swim. It certainly showed. She had nice abs and smooth, soft arms. She had a little bit of muscle on them too. It was very impressive.

Soon, the slime stopped examining itself and walked back over to the other slime in the blonde girl. They knew instinctively what to do. They headed to the stairs and that's when they saw the other women walking down the stairs. They both winked and smiled at the other two. The slimes were in. Three slimes now became six. This was going to be the start of something absolutely fantastic. And with the party in full swing and lots of hot guys all around, the only question was.... who was going to be the next guy? They headed back outside where the real fun was about to begin.
