FROM THE DESK OF AUDI

HOLY HELL, IT'S AUGUST

This summer is FLYING by!!!!

I scaled back the amount of work I had to do in July and lemme tell you - it was worth it. I could ramble about creator burnout until I'm blue in the face, but I really appreciated the break from my usual flow of content. I feel rested, recharged, and ready.

Which means y'all better get ready because I'm back at full capacity. So many new things are coming to Patreon this month and I can't wait to tell you all about them.

As always, thank you so much for being here, for supporting my work and enjoying my audios, and for being the coolest people on the entire internet. I adore you guys!!!

But enough talk - let's get into the content.

Xoxo, Audi

NEWS AND UPDATES

Tier News & Reward Info

Let's talk about tiers - There are a couple of changes coming that I want to make sure everyone knows about.

MORE SFW EXCLUSIVES

I've had a few folks tell me in their exit surveys that they didn't feel pledging was worth it because all my SFW audios eventually get released to the public, and that's totally fair - I haven't had exclusive SFW roleplays on my page before.

Going forward, there will be 2 exclusive SFW audios available to all patrons every month!

FEWER EARLY ACCESS NSFW

To keep my workload manageable, this month I'm scaling back to only 2 early access audios. I'd rather make more exclusives for you guys.

If there are any suggestions you may have, I have a form for that or you can message me anytime!

Don't forget to vote in the polls!

LET'S GET A LITTLE PERSONAL

BURNOUT IS SO REAL. It happens to me all the time, in small doses.

I've been creating on Patreon since June 2020 and over the past couple of years I've learned a lot about what I can and cannot do. You may have noticed last month there were fewer audios and I posted a couple of things late. I really strive to stay on schedule and run this like a business but I know I also need to keep my health in mind.

Much to my dismay, I am a mortal, and that means that sometimes the well of creativity runs dry. Every now and then I need to let that well fill up again and spend some time not thinking about audios - otherwise I know I will go into a full shutdown. So instead, I take lots of short breaks.

I noticed in June that I was feeling more tired than normal, so I knew I'd have to slow down in July. I can't tell you how much I appreciate you all allowing me the space to do that. I'm excited about everything coming in August, and I'm excited to focus more of my attention on creating audios for you guys. I'm taking a small break from free NSFW audios during this month so I can make more frequent SFW posts and exclusive content. It's all about balance and I'm all yours this month, darlings.

Enjoy it, because I'm going on a 2-month hiatus in September.

As you may already know, I'm in the process of preparing to move to a new province. That means packing, scheduling, house hunting, etc., and I'm dedicating myself entirely to that. This means I'll be pausing Patreon at the end of August and you WILL NOT be charged for September or October.

I'll do my best to post some audios during that time, but there won't be a set schedule. And once I'm settled into my new place, I'll be back in November with all your regularly scheduled programming.
