FRAME 1

Al sitting on a chair at trace's hair salon. He has one of those blankets around his neck. Wet hair. Closeup to his face. Trace is picking some sharp looking scissors from in front of him, so her hand comes very close to his face.

AL:
Are you... s-sure of what you're doing? Something about augmented hybrids and sharp things is... scary.

FRAME 2

Al's pov. He's looking at the mirror. Trace bends over to have her head at the same level as Al's. She has her fingers underneath his hair. She's looking at him on a very condescending way.

TRACE:
Sweet, sweet boy, I spend all day trimming and stylizing girls COVERED in hair. I could do your tiny "tuff" of fur with my eyes closed.

FRAME 2

Front view of Al. Trace is ready to begin. Al is doing a "magnum" face. Fel is behind them, arms crossed. Expectant.

TRACE:
So, what are you looking for?

AL:
...something sporty, windy you know? Fresh!

FRAME 2.1

3/4 profile view of fel looking at trace work. I'll keep the same angle for this and next frame. Here, Fel doesn't like how the haircut is going. She's puckering her lips, like she's thinking "eehhhhh... no"

FEL:
...perhaps a little less fresh?

FRAME 2.2

Now fel has a big smile, putting her hands together right next to her face.

FEL:
Now pull it to the back?
...gorgeous!

FRAME 3

AL's pov again at the mirror. Trace is about to cut his antenna. Fel has desu diamonds.

AL:
Wow! I can actually feel the wind
on my neck now!

TRACE:
One last detail and...

FRAME 3.1

Closeup to the back of his head, trace cuts the antenna.

shick Cuts antenna

FRAME 3.2

Hair behind it raises back and takes its place. Same angle as past frame.

TRACE:
Huh?

FRAME 4

Trace cuts his antenna again, and again another one pops back up.

A long shot. Cam is at trace's desk looking at al, then trace, then fel on the back. Fel is trying to whisper something at trace. Al looks unimpressed. Trace has a troubled look.

TRACE:
What the...

AL:
It's futile...

FEL:

I've tried in the past, believe me... (whispers) I think it has a mind of its own.
