

Bek Nebetka

Human Spellcaster

What Bek always thought to be a pigmentation disorder on his face, recently started resembling a segment of a map. Believing that he has been chosen by a deity for something special, he has traveled from lands afar investigating this mystery.

Personality Traits. “I like to impress people with my magic, as it countervails my lack of social skills.”

Ideals. “Destiny. Great things await me, all I need is to heed the call.”

Bonds. I don’t believe in coincidences. Everything can be a sign that will bring the solution to my mystery closer.

Flaws. I’ve spent most of my life in solitude. I’d like to have a friend, but I hardly know how to talk to people.
